Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Rhodes Trust supports a premier global scholarship program, which provides academic fees, maintenance funding and ancillary costs to selected international graduate students in support of its mission. It provides a program of Character, Service and Leadership Training to its scholars. Major ancillary partnership programs have been entered in the creation of the Atlantic Institute, which provides central convening and support structures to 5/6 focused research groups embedded in other universities, and of the Schmidt Science Fellowship Program, which selects and funds post-doctoral fellowships in STEM subjects alongside a similar program of Character, Service and Leadership training. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2018 the Schmidt Science Fellows, in partnership with the Rhodes Trust, successfully completed its first nomination and selection process, leading to the announcement of the inaugural class of 14 Fellows in April 2018.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 Procedures for monitoring use of grant funds	The performance of all Scholars has been monitored on the basis of reports from academic supervisors, self-reporting forms, and interviews with the Warden and Registrar & Director of Scholar Affairs. Prospective Scholars are invited to apply for Scholarships in their country through standard documentation. Each candidate provides a statement, curriculum vitae, academic record, and references in support of their application, and the documentation is reviewed by the local selection committee. The local selection committee then selects those candidates they wish to interview, and the candidates attend one or more interviews in their local country. The successful candidates are then recommended to the Trustees for the award of a Rhodes Scholarship. The award is usually subject to acceptance onto a course of study by a Department or Faculty of the University of Oxford, and by a College. Continuation of the Scholarship is conditional upon continuing academic achievement and satisfactory personal conduct. Each Scholar's progress is monitored in several ways. The Trust receives copies of the University termly reports for each Scholar. At least once a year, each Scholar is seen by the Warden, who produces an internal progress report, which is also sent to the relevant National Secretary.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a First-class or charter travel	The organization's standard policy is for employees to travel business or economy. However, on occasion, the organization's officers and key employees may travel first class due to the extensive amount of travel required for their position and the unusually long duration of international flights. The related benefit is not treated as taxable income to the recipient.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Travel for companions	In accordance with the Warden's position and job responsibilities, the organization requires the Warden to attend and represent the Rhodes Trust at fundraising and other events. On occasion, as the organization sees appropriate, the Warden's partner is expected to accompany him to these events. The related benefit is not included in taxable income to the recipient.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Housing allowance or residence for personal use	The organization's warden is provided with housing accommodations. The related benefit is not considered taxable to the recipient.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 7 Non-fixed payments	Certain officers, key employees and highest compensated employees are entitled to annual bonuses as established in their annual employment contracts. Such bonuses are based on the employee meeting established performance goals. While the amount provided as a bonus is discretionary in nature, the amount must be reviewed and approved by the organization's board of directors.
