Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 Procedures for monitoring use of grant funds	The performance of all Scholars has been monitored on the basis of reports from academic supervisors, self-reporting forms, and interviews with the Warden and Registrar & Director of Scholar Affairs. Prospective Scholars are invited to apply for Scholarships in their country through standard documentation. Each candidate provides a statement, curriculum vitae, academic record, and references in support of their application, and the documentation is reviewed by the local selection committee. The local selection committee then selects those candidates they wish to interview, and the candidates attend one or more interviews in their local country. The successful candidates are then recommended to the Trustees for the award of a Rhodes Scholarship. The award is usually subject to acceptance onto a course of study by a Department or Faculty of the University of Oxford, and by a College. Continuation of the Scholarship is conditional upon continuing academic achievement and satisfactory personal conduct. Each Scholar's progress is monitored in several ways. The Trust receives copies of the University termly reports for each Scholar. At least once a year, each Scholar is seen by the Warden, who produces an internal progress report, which is also sent to the relevant National Secretary.
