Built for Teachers. Useful for Programs.

A strong resource library can serve both the individual teacher looking for practical support and the program leader looking to strengthen access to quality PE resources.

FOR PE TEACHERS

- Spend less time building resources from scratch
- Access multiple types of teaching materials in one place
- Use visuals and printables to support instruction
- Continue learning through on-demand trainings

FOR PE PROGRAMS + DISTRICTS

- Give teachers access to a shared resource library
- Support more consistent access to planning materials
- Provide practical professional learning opportunities
- Help teachers focus more of their time on instruction
