Stealth's Remote Concierge (RC) performs all your guard duties from an off-site location at a fraction of the cost.

RC is available to provide instant service 100% of the time, whenever it is needed.

Uses one-way video and two-way audio to instantly service residents through phones or intercoms and a proprietary, in-house software called RC Portal.

A resident support line assists tenants with a multitude of requests like giving directions, supplying important building information and answering common questions.

Manage building access for visitors, contractors, emergency personnel and other non-residents.

Accept and distribute packages.

Remotely manage your entry gates into the property and visitor parking.

Book amenities for residents using the RC Portal or other existing software.

Get unprecedented transparency into building operations.

Provide instant service to residents whenever they need it.

Document license plate numbers, vehicles in your lot, visitors, plus all interactions with residents.
