

REYNOLDS
LAKE OCONEE

WELCOME TO REYNOLDS LAKE OCONEE,
America's premier lake and golf community. Situated on 12,000 acres, with more shoreline than Georgia's Atlantic coast, Reynolds is approximately 85 miles east of Atlanta. With six acclaimed golf courses, a lakefront Ritz-Carlton® and a range of boating, sporting and dining offerings, our Members are surrounded by extraordinary natural and club amenities. But perhaps even more importantly, they are welcomed into a thriving community where neighbors become lifelong friends and families flourish as a result of the incredible range of social and cultural events and activities.

Drawn to the water.

Before Lake Oconee was ever a lake, it was a river whose waters drew generations of families to its inspiring, invigorating shores. That timeless appeal continues to this day, and Lake Oconee is now a 19,000-acre freshwater playground for boaters, paddle boarders, anglers and all sorts of lake enthusiasts.

Epic golf in every direction.

No matter the player, no matter the season, thrilling golf experiences abound at Reynolds. With six championship courses designed by legends Tom Fazio, Rees Jones, Jim Engh, Bob Cupp and Jack Nicklaus—including the Golden Bear's newly reimagined Great Waters course—we're home to a stunning range of high-caliber golf. That unparalleled quality not only earns us recognition from top golf publications that regularly name our courses among the best in the nation, it also invites Members to immerse themselves in the game they love in truly remarkable ways. Offering everything from a range of year-round association events and informal play, to instruction, club fitting and club building at The Kingdom at Reynolds Lake Oconee, this is a four-season golf paradise like no other.

The National Tavern

So much to savor.

With seasonal menus, world-class wine and cocktail programs and warm, well-designed interiors, Reynolds' restaurants offer an inspiring range of experiences for Members. Similar in their exceptional quality and hospitality, each venue delivers its own authentic take on delicious dining. For more casual fare, Members meet up at The National Tavern or Eighty8 Kitchen + Cocktails for relaxed, seasonally-inspired favorites. After a day on the course or the water, neighbors gather at Gaby's by the Lake or Great Waters Overlook. For more refined offerings, food lovers share a table at Georgia's, a farm-fresh bistro within our waterfront Ritz-Carlton® or at our upscale Linger Longer Steakhouse. From intimate evenings out to leisurely brunches Sunday after Sunday, meals—and the memories made around them—are one of the most beloved aspects of life at Reynolds.

The Sandy Creek Barn

So much to do.

From sporting clays to spa days, tennis tournaments to laid-back fishing expeditions, Reynolds offers countless reasons and ways to make memories with family and friends. Members here, though, aren't just involved in those varied activities; they're engaged with each other, season after season, year after year. They experience all the good life has to offer—together. They gather for time-honored traditions like our Fourth of July fireworks, Easter egg hunts and annual Polar Bear Plunge, but they also come together throughout the year for over 40 Member-organized groups and clubs. Our families, including more than 1,500 children, take advantage of diverse programming like guest lectures, farmers' markets, art exhibits, summer camps and concerts. They also, of course, enjoy experiencing the Southern charms of nearby small towns and easy access to local conveniences. Just outside our gates, for example, are the award-winning Lake Oconee Academy Charter School, St. Mary's Good Samaritan Hospital and shopping and dining at Lake Oconee Village.
