

cleveland PUBLIC theatre & Teatro PÚBLICO de Cleveland

FREE IN-PERSON THEATRE WORKSHOPS

For beginners and experienced theatre artists
For adults (18 years old and up) who identify as Latino

These workshops are fun, easy, and focus on storytelling
Come meet members of Teatro Público de Cleveland

WORKSHOP DATES

Tuesday, June 8, 7-9pm
Wednesday, June 16, 6-9pm

TEATRO PÚBLICO DE CLEVELAND (TPC)

TPC is a collective of Latino theatre artists, and produces performances that preserve and promote the cultures of Cleveland Latinos for Spanish-speaking audiences and the broader public.

WHERE

Cleveland Public Theatre, 6415 Detroit Ave., Cleveland, OH.

WHO

For adults who are interested in theatre performance and curious about being a part of TPC. Workshops are led by Cleveland Public Theatre's Executive Artistic Director Raymond Bobgan with the collaboration of TPC advisory committee and TPC membership.

LANGUAGE

Offered in English with some translation assistance from the group.

PLEASE RSVP TO CONFIRM YOUR ATTENDANCE

Contact Alisha Caraballo, tpublicocle@gmail.com, or Faye Hargate, fhargate@cptonline.org

Cleveland Public Theatre will be following state and local health guidelines regarding COVID-19.