"Mike and his team are consultative, experienced, and collaborative. They offer thoughtful ideas and solutions and then go out and execute. Most importantly, they are trustworthy, honest and are focused on the long-term relationship with their customer. We partnered with the DRI team on the successful hire of our Chief Clinical Officer and subsequently a search for our new General Counsel. If you are looking for a search partner that is focused on what is best for your business and not theirs, talk to Mike." - Dan Trigub, CEO & Co-Founder, MedArrive
