Summit County Developmental Disabilities Board, or Summit DD, is committed to protecting your privacy. We use personal information to determine eligibility, coordinate and pay for services, as well as a variety of other instances that ultimately work to help you live your vision of a good life. This booklet outlines our commitment to your privacy and describes our privacy practices and those of our staff, volunteers, and contracted Summit DD business associates. At Summit DD, we follow strict federal and state laws to keep your personal information confidential.

How is my personal information used?

Summit DD uses personal information for activities related to your supports, such as providing you with services, billing related to your services, and other health care operations. Your information will only be shared with staff, providers and associates as necessary. If you have a guardian, we will provide the information to your guardian. For those who choose to have a personal representative, you can agree to let your designee have access to your personal information as well.

Examples of how we use your information include:

Summit DD staff may share your personal information while helping to develop your Individualized Service Plan, or ISP.

Before a Summit DD staff member can share your personal information with anyone not employed by Summit DD, you must first give your permission. However, there are occasional instances for treatment or payment for services when it may be necessary to disclose your identity without your permission.

Payment: We keep records that include payment information and documentation of the services provided to you. Your information may be used to obtain payment for your services from Medicaid, insurance or other sources. For example, we may disclose personal information about the services provided to you to confirm your eligibility for Medicaid to obtain payment from Medicaid, or Summit DD may use your personal information to determine the amount and type of Medicaid services you need and send this information to the proper state department.
