

Behavior and Tantrums: How to Respond

Sat., November 9, 2019

11 AM

Tantrums are a normal part of child development, but they can still be frustrating for parents. Join childhood development professionals from Summit DD and Child Guidance and Family Solutions to learn the causes of tantrums and how to keep your cool.

- Identify why your child is having a tantrum
- Learn interventions and solutions

While parents learn, children will play in an adjoining room with a librarian and staff from Summit DD and Child Guidance & Family Solutions to learn some calming techniques.

Lunch will be provided, with an informal Q&A session after lunch.

Registration is requested – please call (330) 688-3295, ext. 5 to register.

Winter/Spring 2020 Topics

February 22 – Potty Training: Is My Child Ready?

May 2 – Childhood Development: What is Typical?
