

- Voting is our right as a citizen.
- Voting is the way we make choices in a democracy. In a democracy, each of us has a voice and a vote that matters.
- We choose our leaders by voting. By voting, we make ourselves heard by people who have the power to get things done. They have power because we give them the power to act for us. Voting tells others what is important to us and what we want those in power to do.
- By voting, we express our opinions on important issues. We get a say in things like taxes or how our government works. By voting, we can help make sure that people in our community get the services they need, like health care, housing, public transportation, and funding for schools.
- Voting is our responsibility as a citizen. Voting is how we protect our rights as citizens.
