Dance party following the 2013 production of "Cuando Cierras Your Eyes"*

Teatro Publico de Cleveland's third original production is just around the corner - ¿Dónde Está My Home? (Where is Mi Hogar). The show plays this Thursday, Friday and Saturday (October 22 - 24) in the Gordon Square Theatre for una noche like no other.

Each evening starts at 6:30pm with live preshow music and Latin food, followed by the show at 7:30pm. Stay late with us on Friday and Saturday for a post-show dance party and DJ. Join us for a powerful new show and stick around for a jubilant community celebration. Fun... feisty... caliente. This weekend with Teatro Publico will prove the perfect antidote to the chill of autumn...

Gordon Square Theatre
Doors open at 6:30 (music & food)
Performance at 7:30pm
Tickets: $12-25, Thursday is Family Night ($12 adults, $6 for kids <18)

¿Dónde Está My Home? (Where is Mi Hogar) weaves hometown legends, ancestral stories and haunting tales into a story that celebrates the multiplicity of Latin American identities in the Cleveland community.

In this imaginative tale, we explore the meaning of home. Is home a place? A memory? A connection? A mother? As the story unfolds, a diverse cast of storytellers spin tales of lost memories, twisted ghosts, ancient trees and hidden knowledge, weaving together a joyful mosaic of what home means to us. Created and written by CPT's Executive Artistic Director Raymond Bobgan and the ensemble cast of amateur and professional performers, ¿Dónde Está My Home? is a creative and poignant celebration of life and connection to community.

Performances include live music before the show, Latin food and a post-show dance party every Friday and Saturday. Thursday shows are "Family Nights," with $12 tickets for adults and $6 tickets for youth under 18. World Premiere.

White Rabbit Red Rabbit

Written by Nassim Soleimanpour.
Produced in association with Aurora
Nova Productions.

October 8 - 25, 7:00pm
Wed/Thu/Fri/Sat/Sun/Mon
Parish Hall (performance),
The Church (post-show reception)

No director. No set. No rehearsals...and a different actor performing each night, having never read the play nor knowing anything about it. This adventure of ideas by Iranian playwright Nassim Soleimanpour offers a unique collaborative experience between playwright, actor and audience. Each performance will be followed by a light reception and post-show discussion.

Regional Premiere.

Tickets: $20-25; repeat performances just $10

Due to the intimate nature of the performance, there is NO LATE SEATING. Doors close at show time - please plan accordingly.
