

SARAH SWAIN - BIO

Sarah Swain left the job she was great at, to pursue the work that she loved. There was only one problem. That new work didn't exist, it had no application process and nobody had ever heard of it. She had to create it. So, she did! Sarah has hosted highly successful group & 1:1 coaching platforms and is the visionary behind The Great Canadian Woman™, boasting a 5-star podcast, a rapidly growing annual live event, wilderness retreats, a book publication & lifestyle blog.

Often referred to as a serial entrepreneur, Sarah has an innate ability to take an idea and turn it into reality at lightening speed in BIG ways, sustainably. With an enormous network of Canadian professionals, Sarah has linked arms with some of the most powerful entrepreneurs in the industry to create powerful collaborative projects, services and events designed to elevate Canadian women in their life and business.

Sarah is paving the way for Canadian women to make waves, move mountains and blaze trails. She believes with her entire being that if you do more of what you love and find the courage to bring your vision to life, you can help raise the frequency of Canada, one woman at a time.
