How do we learn to live as God's family on mission in America today? How do we learn to live His way, not the world's way? Three weeks:

- UP - Putting God first in our family choices, rhythms and routines
- IN - Learning to live as part of God's extended family with others
- OUT - Reaching out to those who do not know Jesus and inviting them to join His family

After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. There he met a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them, and because he was a tentmaker as they were, he stayed and worked with them. Every Sabbath he reasoned in the synagogue, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks. (Acts 18:1-4)

When is a Christian I need to prioritize mission over spending time with my family."

Family OR Mission

Family AND Mission
"I need to spend time with my family and do mission, so somehow I must just fit it all in."

Family ON Mission
"We are called by God to be family and do mission. We move as a pack and do it together."

After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road."

6. Slide06

When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you. Stay in that house, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house.

"When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is set before you. Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God is near you.'"

7. Slide07

When you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.' I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town."

(Luke 10: 1-12)
