Happy Mother's Day: To all Mom's, Grandmoms, and children of Mom's, have a wonderful day. May God bless each one as you celebrate His work in your life.

Sunday May 27: Graduation Sunday, we will recognize our graduating Senior, Anna Karlstadt. This will also be our first Sunday of the summer schedule.

Presbytery: Ian and our representatives will be in Ann Arbor this coming Friday and Saturday for Presbytery meeting.

Check the church website!

www.firstpresbyterianpauling.com Where it says, 'click here for recent church services', Pastor Ian has figured out how to put things there! Good job, Ian! Most of the sermons he has delivered since the beginning of the year are available.

Property Committee: Bud Koenig asks again that we look closely at what the Lord is asking each of us to do for the church. The property committee is in dire need of people, and you don't have to be male to participate. Another chance to break the glass ceiling! If you have questions, please talk to Bud.

Andrew Brunson: Pastor Andrew's was again returned to prison. His trial is postponed until later this summer. This morning we will listen to, sing along with the powerful words of praise and faith that he wrote from his prison cell.

Children's Church began last Sunday. Alissa Ferguson will be leading each Sunday during May, we do need a second person each Sunday. Near the middle of the service, three- to five-year-olds will be dismissed to go to the Fellowship Hall with whoever is teaching that Sunday. Please pray about whether God is calling you to lead these simple but meaningful teachings for our children. The curriculum is selected and ready to use. There is a sign up sheet (are you surprised?) at the top of the stairs.
