

Gravy

DOCUMENT • CELEBRATE

ABOUT GRAVY

A publication of the Southern Foodways Alliance, a member-supported institute of the Center for the Study of Southern Culture at the University of Mississippi. Visit www.southernfoodways.org

Editor:
Sara Camp Arnold
gravy.sfa@gmail.com

Designer:
Devin Cox
www.devincox.net

ISSUE #
41

PUBLICATION OF GRAVY is underwritten by Mountain Valley Spring Water.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- ▶ PAGE 2
Pigskin and Pork
- ▶ PAGE 4
Have You Been Served?
Audrey Petty
- ▶ PAGE 8
The Vanderbilt Fugitive
A recipe by Bobby Heugel
- ▶ PAGE 10
A Land of Opportunity
As told to Amy Evans Streeter
by Jimmy Koikos
- ▶ PAGE 14
Enough from the Peanut Gallery
As told to Sara Camp Arnold by Mark Hersey
- ▶ PAGE 16
True Grits
Jack Pendarvis

This map illustrates a sampling of the hundreds of plant-based products that George Washington Carver developed during his tenure at Tuskegee Institute in Alabama. But as Mark Hersey explains on page 14 of this issue, Carver's legacy as a conservationist is just as important as that of creative chemist or "Peanut Man," as generations of schoolchildren know him. Image courtesy of Bob Coyle and Steve Saari.