V. Unfinished Business

VI. Orders of The Day:

a. S.29.2020

Woodson moved to table. Saffari seconded.

Elias motioned to vote by affirmation

Saffari seconded

Motion to vote by affirmation passed.

Motion passed to move it from table.

Farmer moved to refer this bill to the academic and student affairs committee

Elias seconded

Farmer said they worked out the kinks with the university senate and the quickest way to amend it is to send it to that committee and bring it back next meeting

Hawse asked what the university senate said about it.

Farmer yielded time to Hamilton

Hamilton said that the student senate and university senate are working together to make this work. They have very specific details that work for the proposal. It started with an attempt to create a balance. They are working on balancing out the calendar. They need us to review their proposal and give feedback. The original language of the bill would have been conflicting with what the university senate was working on. Doing this is responsible and will be the most effective.

Elias motioned to vote by acclamation.

Safari seconded.

Motion passed

The S.29.2020 motion passed

b. S.30.2020

Stewart moved to open this.

Elias seconded

These are all of the people that the elections board chair approved to have these people be on.

Elias motioned to vote by acclamation

Saffari seconded

Motion passed

Overall motion passed

c. S.31.2020

Stewart moved for the adoption

Elias seconded

For the supreme court nominations, Hamilton nominates them and her committee approves them. They find Sterling Crayton fit.

Elias motioned to vote by acclamation for the rest of the meeting

There was no objection

Motion passed

d. S.32.2020

Stewart moved for the adoption.

Bilal seconded

There was no discussion

Motion passed

e. S.33.2020

Saffari moved for the adoption.

Blackstone seconded

Saffari allotted time to Melissa from the graduate student congress

They are the democrat students who assess the needs of their population and hold events to help them in various ways. They also do advocacy at the school level and state level. This money would go to a national conference. It would help their group in the future as well as the university. It will highlight what they are doing. There will be prestigious schools at the conference.

Motion passed by majority

f. S.34.2020

Lo moved to consider this bill.

Elias seconded

They are organizing an academic conference on Feb 28 that brings in speakers from across the country.

This is important for students in law and public servants. This is open to the public and is an important learning experience. The money will be spent for travel and lodging of the speakers

Saffari spoke about how these credits are needed for attorneys at work. This will be a great opportunity for students to meet professionals.

Motion passed.

g. S.35.2020

Stewart moved for the adoption.

Hicks seconded.

Stewart allotted time to someone from Kentucky Law Journal.

What their organization does is publish and bring in people from around the country to discuss an issue that is current. This year the topic will be about removing confederate monuments. The people that will be talking are professionals. There will be over 10 speakers coming in. This will be open to the public and is important for students and the public.

No discussion

Motion passed by majority.

h. S.36.2020

Griggs moved for the adoption.

Allen seconded

Griggs allotted time to club swim
They want the money to pay for the fees for the national swim meet coming in April.
No discussion
Approved by majority

i. S.37.2020

Francher moved to adopt
Allen seconded
Francher allotted time
Their main focus this year is for electronic medical records. They want to move their database to electronic records to protect their patients. Money can also go to transporting the patients to the clinic. They are also trying to advertise their services to the general public.
No discussion.
Motion passed by majority

VII. Claire-Marie Hall

On October 24 the annual safety walk will be held. They have been collecting a lot of data and they have been presenting their data. There are people in every space. They discussed what they plan to do from what they have learned.

IX. Presidential Privilege

Graduate Student Congress is not officially recognized as representatives for the Graduate School. Student Government Association is the only officially recognized representative body for the Graduate School. Turnout for ‘Cats Grillin and Chillin’ was over 400 people.
Sen. Lo asks about Fall Forum and Sen. Cochran says it may be cancelled due to lack of interest.

Resolution Regarding the Implementation of Reading Days Prior to Finals Week

Sponsors:

Sen. Dean Farmer, Sen. Kayla Woodson

Introduced:

9/25/2019

WHEREAS

The students of the University of Kentucky have the right to uninterrupted study prior to final examinations.

AND WHEREAS

The students of the University of Kentucky believe that the implementation of a two-day study period known as 'Reading Days' the week before final examinations would be beneficial for academic achievement and the mental health of the student body.

AND WHEREAS

The designated two-day study period will be held the last two school days before final examinations during the Fall and Spring semester.

AND WHEREAS

No formal classes shall be held on designated Reading Days, however, optional review sessions and optional office hours are permissible.

AND WHEREAS

Faculty members or instructors shall not schedule final or comprehensive examinations or assign projects or term papers during the Reading Day period.

AND WHEREAS

Only undergraduate students are mandated to have Reading Days, while Graduate and Professional schools may choose to opt-in.

AND WHEREAS

Reading Day policy will not supersede Dead Week Policy already brought forth by the University.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED

That the Student Government Association of the University of Kentucky requests that the University's administration establish a two-day study period known as Reading Days for the benefit of mental health and the academic performance of the campus community.
