GAME NOTES

The Sioux Falls Stampede continue their three-in-three weekend at home with a rematch of last night's tilt against the Sioux City Musketeers. Tonight is AG Night, presented by CBS Bio Platforms.

Last night, the Stampede and Musketeers faced off in a heated battle that Sioux Falls won, 5-4. The Herd opened the scoring just 1:47 into the game with a goal from JJ Monteiro, who received a slick feed from Jake Prunty. Sioux Falls had two power-play opportunities in the first period but came up empty on both. At 14:51, the Musketeers tied the game, but the Stampede regained the lead late in the period thanks to a goal from Logan Renkowski.

The Stampede came out strong in the second period, netting a goal at 3:49. Ryder Betzold scored with a one-timer from the low slot, assisted by Thomas Zocco and Anthony Bongo. Sioux Falls quickly followed with another goal when Joey Macrina found himself on a breakaway. Macrina deked Sioux City goaltender Ryder Shea and tucked the puck under the pad to earn his twelfth goal of the season.

The rivalry between the two teams became evident at 8:38 when Sioux City's William Tomko cross-checked a Stampede player into the boards in front of the benches. Defenseman Noah Mannasau took exception and dropped the gloves with Tomko. Tomko was assessed an extra major penalty and a game misconduct for the cross-check, giving the Stampede a five-minute power play. Once again, the Herd came up empty with the man advantage. Before the end of the period, the Musketeers scored twice to cut the Stampede lead to one.

To start the third period, the Stampede drew another major penalty when Pavel Martinu sent Brock Schultz into the boards headfirst. As the clock continued to wind down, it appeared Sioux Falls would be unable to convert, but JJ Monteiro scored his second goal of the night. Monteiro sent the puck bar down with a slick backhanded shot from in front of the net. Just minutes later, Sioux City scored again to pull within one.

Sioux Falls held off the Musketeers the rest of the way and secured the 5-4 win and two points with a late man advantage.

The Stampede outshot Sioux City, 56-16. Goaltender Linards Feldbergs made 12 saves and improved to 18-8-1-0 on the season.

Fargo defeated Lincoln in overtime last night, allowing the Stampede to maintain their four-point cushion atop the Western Conference standings.
