GAME NOTES

The Sioux Falls Stampede open their home schedule tonight against the Tri-City Storm. Thanks to First PREMIER Bank and PREMIER Bankcard, the first 1,000 kids ages 12 and under will receive a Stampeded replica jersey.

Throughout the concourse, fans can find brand-new Stampede merchandise, as well as a free photo booth and face painting. Starting at 6:00 p.m., the Herd will host a full team introduction before puck drop at 6:05 p.m.

During the first intermission, details for a special theme night on November 26 will be revealed, followed by a round of Tic Tac Toe on the ice. Fans can also purchase Chuck-a-Pucks for a chance to win prizes during the second intermission.

Following the game, fans who brought their skates can join the team on the ice. For those without skates, tonight's scratches and goaltenders will be signing autographs in the lobby.

Last night, the Stampede fell to the Musketeers during Sioux City's home opener. Detroit Red Wings prospect Brent Solomon got the team on the board first, but three goals by the Musketeers put the Herd in a two-goal deficit.

Sioux Falls battled back with late goals from forwards Cooper Soller and Adyn Merrick, cutting the lead to one. An early third-period goal by the Musketeers extended their advantage. Before the final buzzer, Sioux City added an empty-netter, but the Stampede's Joey Macrina scored his first USHL goal to close out the game.

Tensions flared in the closing moments as a large scrum broke out between the two teams. The Stampede will look to get back in the win column tonight.

The Tri-City Storm last played a week ago, falling to the Sioux City Musketeers in overtime. After giving up two goals in the second period, the Storm stormed back with three goals in the third. Sioux City forced overtime with a last-second tally and eventually took the win 1:57 into the extra frame.

The Stampede will return to the PREMIER Center next Friday for Nostalgia Night, presented by Rocket Fizz Soda and Candy.
