GAME NOTES

Tonight, the Sioux Falls Stampede take on the Tri-City Storm, a team they haven't faced since their home opener. This evening also marks the Stampede's first-ever Life of a Skater Night, presented by Vern Eide. The event will celebrate Taylor Swift's eras, including her newest album, "TS12." Before the game, fans can make friendship bracelets and enjoy some of Taylor Swift's greatest hits.

The Stampede enter tonight's matchup riding a five-game win streak after defeating the Cedar Rapids RoughRiders 4-2. Scoring contributions came from Thomas Zocco, Juho Keinanen, Ryder Betzold, and Joey Macrina, Anthony Bongo, Wade Weil, and Noah Mannausau. The Herd went scoreless in the opening period as the RoughRiders netted the first goal of the game. Forward Thomas Zocco kicked off the scoring for Sioux Falls in the second with a power-play goal. Entering the third tied 1-1, the Herd took control as Juho Keinanen broke the tie with a tip-in goal, followed by a fake-shot tally from Ryder Betzold to extend the lead. Cedar Rapids pulled within one late in the period, but Joey Macrina sealed the win with an empty-net goal.

The Tri-City Storm also come into tonight's contest following a win, edging out the Lincoln Stars 4-3. Lincoln opened the scoring late in the first and added another goal early in the second to take a 2-0 lead. The Storm responded with a power-play goal before the end of the period. Tri-City tied the game early in the third, but the Stars quickly regained the lead. The Storm battled back, evening the score midway through the period before netting the game-winner short-handed.

Following tonight's matchup, the Stampede hit the road for an eight-game stretch. They return to the Denny PREMIER Center on November 26th to face the Fargo Force for the first time at home this season. Fans can keep up with the Herd on the road by streaming games on FloHockey or tuning in to KELO Radio. For tickets to the game, please call the Stampede office at 605.275.4625.
