GAME NOTES

Tis the season for Peanuts: A Christmas Celebration presented by the Salvation Army. Tonight's game marks the start of the holiday festivities with a sock giveaway for the first 1,000 fans and an ugly sweater contest. Fans are encouraged to post a photo of themselves in their ugly sweaters and tag the team to enter the contest.

The Stampede enter tonight's matchup riding the momentum of an impressive 11-3 win over Team USA's U17 squad, and the Herd looks to do it again tonight. Although the U17s opened the scoring, the Herd wasted no time responding, trading another early goal before settling in and controlling the rest of the period. Sioux Falls added two more tallies before the first intermission, showcasing their depth and ability to quickly generate offense when needed.

The Herd completely took over in the second, scoring three unanswered goals and maintaining control of both puck possession and pace. Their offensive pressure carried into the third, where they added four more goals before the end of the period. The scoring effort came from nearly all of the lineup, including first USHL career goals from Cade Strom and Jake Prunty.

Tonight, the Herd look to secure back-to-back wins over the NTDP U17s and continue building momentum as the season rolls on.

Following the matchup, the Stampede return to the PREMIER Center on Tuesday, December 2nd to take on the Des Moines Buccaneers, a team they haven't faced since shutting them out in a win back in October.
