GAME NOTES

Welcome to the Clark Cup Playoffs Western Conference Semifinals. Tonight, the Sioux Falls Stampede host the Waterloo Black Hawks as they continue their battle in the Western Conference Semifinals. Thanks to Prairie Farms Dairy, the first 2,500 fans at tonight's game received a Playoff Rally Towel.

There's plenty of excitement happening on the concourse tonight! Mr. Twister, face painting, a scavenger hunt, and a photo booth are all available until puck drop. The organization is also hosting an Easter Trail. Fans can visit various tables throughout the concourse to pick up candy and other treats. A huge thank you to our sponsors for contributing to the trail!

The Stampede and Black Hawks faced off last night in Game 1 of the Western Conference Semifinals. The pace was slow throughout, with a chippy first period disrupting both teams' momentum. At 11:41, defenseman Filip Nordberg was speared by Waterloo's Brock Schultz. After review, Schultz was assessed a five-minute major and a game misconduct. Despite the advantage, the Herd were unable to convert on the major, and the game remained scoreless at intermission.

Sioux Falls struck first when a puck deflected off Sam Spehar's skate halfway through a power play. The play was reviewed and confirmed as a good goal. Waterloo quickly answered to tie the game, but the Stampede regained the lead heading into the second intermission. At 15:55, the Stampede earned a 5-on-3 power play, and defenseman Gennadi Chaly sniped one in from the high slot to make it 2-1.

Unfortunately, the third period unraveled for the Stampede. The Black Hawks scored just 39 seconds in and followed up with another goal at 4:48. At 10:58, Matthew Grimes was called for tripping. The Stampede challenged the play, believing a major penalty should have been assessed against the Black Hawks. After a lengthy review, the call stood, and Waterloo capitalized quickly to take a 4-2 lead. The two goal deficit ultimately sealing the Stampede's fate.

After tonight's game, the Herd will head to Waterloo for Game 3 and, if necessary, Game 4.
