GAME NOTES

Tonight the Sioux Falls Stampede take on the Muskegon Lumberjacks in Game 2 of the Clark Cup Final at the Denny Sanford PREMIER Center. Fans seated in the lower bowl will receive a free t-shirt as part of tonight's Blue Out game, while fans arriving early can take part in a pregame tailgate at The Birdcage from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. ahead of puck drop. The Herd will look to build on the momentum from Friday night and take a 2-0 series lead before the matchup shifts to Michigan later this week.

Sioux Falls opened the Clark Cup Final with a 3-1 victory over Muskegon in Game 1 on Friday night in front of a packed home crowd. After falling behind early on a shorthanded goal in the first period, the Stampede responded with a complete team effort fueled by strong defense, timely scoring, and another standout performance from goaltender Linards Feldbergs. The Herd outshot Muskegon in the opening frame and continued to generate chances throughout the night before finally breaking through in the second period. Joey Macrina tied the game with a one-timer off assists from Thomas Zocco and Noah Mannasau before scoring again midway through the third period to give Sioux Falls its first lead of the night. Brock Schultz and Joe McGraw earned assists on the eventual game-winning goal.

Feldbergs stopped 27 shots in the victory and continues to be one of the top goaltenders in the post-season, while JJ Monteiro added an empty-net goal late in regulation to seal the win. The Herd penalty kill also came through in several key moments, helping Sioux Falls secure the opening game of the series and improve its postseason momentum heading into tonight's contest.

Following tonight's game, the series will shift to Muskegon for Game 3 on May 22 at 6:10 p.m. and Game 4, if necessary, on May 23 at 5:10 p.m. If the series requires a deciding Game 5, the Stampede will return home to host the Lumberjacks at the Denny Sanford PREMIER Center on May 26 at 7:10 p.m.
