SWAC CHAMPIONS • 2006

SWAC Eastern Division
Champions • 2009 • 2006 •
2005 • 2002

Alabama A&M and Tuskegee renew their in-state rivalry in the Second Annual Louis Crews Classic. Not since the Circle City Classic in 2009 has these former SIAC opponents met on the gridiron. The Bulldogs left 2009 matchup with a 35-15 victory to cut and lead the all-time series record 24-19-4.

Minus Alabama State, the Bulldogs have played the Golden Tigers more than any other opponent in the history of the football program at A&M. The Golden Tigers are 0-1 as they loss their season opener to Langston University.

Print / Broadcast Media in Huntsville

Two local newspapers cover the Bulldogs in-depth, The Huntsville Times and Speaking Out News. The Times' coverage is led by A&M beat writer Reggie Benson, while Speaking Out is headed by Ivan McDowell.

Three major television stations also cover the Bulldogs' every move. The major affiliates of ABC (WAAY-31; Ronnie Duncan, sports director), CBS (WHNT-19; Edward Egros, sports anchor), and NBC (WAFF-48; Scott Theisen, sports director) are all major contributors to the local coverage for Alabama A&M football.

Louis Crews Stadium Pressbox

The home of the Alabama A&M Bulldogs is Louis Crews Stadium, and the gameday home to media members is the pressbox on the west side of the stadium. The pressbox is located on the second level of the facility and is accessible via the elevators located in the main ticket lobby. With tiered seating available for nearly 50 working press, courtesy phone lines for radio broadcasts, and high-speed internet connections (including wireless access), the pressbox is fully equipped to handle any media request.

Credential Requests

All media credential requests are handled by the sports information office, Brandon Willis, director. All requests should be made in writing (emails and faxes accepted) at least seven days prior to the event.

Working Press Area Conduct

In accordance with NCAA and Southwestern Athletic Conference regulations, the working press area is to remain a neutral environment. No cheering is allowed at any time. Failure to abide by these standards may result in forfeiture of credentials and expulsion from the working press area.

Head Coach • Anthony Jones

Anthony Jones is entering his 13th season as a head coach and the 10th as the leader of the AAMU Bulldog football program. In 2006, Jones led the Bulldogs to their first SWAC title and tied the school record with nine victories. The Bulldogs posted back-to-back nine-win seasons in 2005 and 2006. The 2006 SWAC Coach of the year has led A&M to four SWAC title games in eight seasons and enters the 2010 campaign with a 79-46 career record.

With his 64-41 record while at Alabama A&M, Jones has won a greater percentage of his games than any coach in Alabama A&M history. His .609 winning percentage stands behind legendary A&M coach Louis Crews, who won 62 percent of his games over 16 years leading the Bulldogs. Jones' 64 wins at A&M rank second all-time behind Crews, who won 93 games at A&M. In 2005, Jones led the Bulldogs to their second SWAC East Championship under his reign, and a 9-3 record. The nine wins also earned Jones a milestone victory in the regular season finale, a 31-16 win at Prairie View served as the 50th win in Jones' career.

After the Bulldogs posted tremendous 8-4 records in each of his first two seasons in 2002 and 2003, the team from the Rocket City capped off another outstanding season in 2004 with a 7-4 mark. With a 21-7 victory in the Magic City Classic Jones is 7-1 in his eight seasons against in-state rival Alabama State. The 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2009 teams also captured the John Merritt Classic title, defeating Tennessee State in the season-opener. Alabama A&M remains the only visiting team to have beaten Tennessee State in the John Merritt Classic's history.

Twice, Jones has led A&M to six-game winning streaks in his tenure. After two early losses in 2002, Jones' Bulldogs won six straight and eight of nine to finish the regular season. The Bulldogs captured the SWAC East (6-1). This led to A&M's second berth in the SWAC championship in three years. In 2005, after a disappointing Homecoming loss to Texas Southern, the Bulldogs regrouped and won six straight games to finish the regular season en route to another SWAC East title and a berth in the SWAC Championship game. The 2009 season saw three two game win streaks and victories over Jackson State (13-5) and Mississippi Valley (17-12) in the final two contest of the season to earn Jones his fourth SWAC East championship and title game appearance where the Maroon & White fell 24-30 to Prairie View A&M.

Jones arrived at Alabama A&M from Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, where he spent four years. After serving as the offensive coordinator and assistant head coach in his first year with the Maroon Tigers, he was promoted to head coach in 1999. After going 2-8 in his first season, Jones led the Tigers to the first back-to-back eight-win seasons in school history. He was named SIAC Coach of the year both times. The 2000 campaign (8-3) qualified him and the Tigers as the second-most improved team in NCAA Division II.

Following his second consecutive eight-win season (8-2), Jones was one of three finalists for the 2001 Eddie Robinson Coach of the year Award along with Doug Williams (Grambling State) and Rick Comegy (Tuskegee). He was a finalist again in 2002, his inaugural season at AAMU when he became just the second coach in AAMU history to win the Magic City Classic and Homecoming in his first year as head coach (Ray Bonner in 1992).

Jones is a native of Baltimore, Maryland. He played college football at Wichita State University for Willie Jeffries, where he earned several honors as a tight end, including the Ben Hustle Award (1981), and All-Missouri Valley Conference (1983). Following his senior season with the Shockers, Jones went on to play for the Redskins in the National Football League, where he helped Washington win the 1987 Super Bowl. The Redskins traded him to the San Diego Chargers during to the 1988 season, but Jones was forced to retire after suffering a knee injury before the next season.

In 1991 Jones joined the staff at Western Maryland College in Westminster, Maryland, where he served as the receivers/tight ends coach. Jones moved to South Carolina State University in 1992, where he rejoined his mentor, Willie Jeffries, as a defensive assistant. In 1993, he was promoted to offensive coordinator at SCSU, a position that he held until his departure for Morehouse in 1998. In 1994, SCSU won the MEAC title and earned the Black College National Champions following a win over Grambling at the Heritage Bowl.

Jones and his wife, Valerie, have two sons, Drew and Julian.
