BULLDOG BITES

Grizzled Vets

The Bulldogs are fielding the most veteran lineup in Head Coach James Spady's four years on The Hill. Alabama A&M returns seven starters on offense, eight on defense and all of the team's specialists.

Trailblazer Totten

Bulldogs quarterbacks coach Willie "Satellite" Totten has been honored as a Trailblazer by the Mississippi Valley State University Department of Athletics. Totten was recognized with his former coach Archie "Gunslinger" Cooley and teammate Jerry Rice. Totten is a member of seven halls of fame, including the College Football Hall of Fame and the HBCU Football Hall of Fame

It's Madness

Freshman QB Aqeel Glass was named the College Sports Madness SWAC Offensive Player of the Week. College Sports Madness identifies the players who have made the greatest impact to their team from each conference and on a national basis each week. Glass, a freshman, was 26 of 43 in passing for 291 yards in the Bulldogs' 27-14 win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

Spreading the wealth

QB Aqeel Glass was in a sharing mood last Saturday. He completed passes to 10 different players, including a 56-yard completion to Octayvious Miles.

Davis for the defense

Preseason All-SWAC linebacker Kenny Davis is second in the SWAC with 20 solo tackles.

All-SWAC

There are five preseason All-Southwestern Athletic Conference selections wearing Maroon and White – the most in Spady's term. Running back Jordan Bentley; linebacker Kenneth Davis; defensive back Tere Calloway and kicker Nick Carden were named to the All-SWAC preseason first team and offensive lineman Austin Simmons was a second team selection.

The gang's all here

The Bulldogs have the most (four) players among the SWAC's top 20 tacklers: Kenneth Davis is 11th; Bryan Brower is 16th; and Harvey Harris and Dylan Hamilton are tied for 18th.

Dee-fense!

The Bulldogs are second in the SWAC in total defense, giving up an average of just 331.8 yards per game through five games. Last week against UAPB, the Bulldogs grudgingly yielded just 133 yards in the 27-14 win.

Sack attack

The Bulldogs are second in the SWAC with 11 sacks in five games this season. Yurik Bethune, Kenneth Davis and Vernon Moland are each in the league's top 10 in sacks. Bethune is second with 3.5 sacks, Davis (fifth) has 2.5 sacks and Moland (10th) has recorded 1.5 sacks.

Return of the returner

Return specialist Octayvious Miles is back after missing the 2016 season. In 2015, he was second in the nation in kickoff return yards while setting school records for a season (849 yards); game (192 yards vs. Alabama State); and longest return (99 yards vs. Jackson State). Against UAB, he returned two kickoffs for 33 yards, his longest was 19 yards.

James Spady

Head Coach

Fourth Season ► Texas- El Paso, '95

James Spady returns for his fourth season at the helm of the Alabama A&M football team.

And his pistol offense will be back with nearly a full chamber.

Some seven starters are back for the Bulldogs on offense — including SWAC Freshman of the Year Jordan Bentley at running back - and, to help add more scoring punch, placekicker Nick Carden is back for his fourth year.

Not to be slighted, Spady's defense has eight returnees, including senior linebacker Kenneth Davis who was second in the SWAC with 98 tackles and senior Tere Calloway, who led all SWAC defensive backs with 50 solo tackles.

Before coming to Alabama A&M, Spady coached from 2010-13 at the University of Nevada, including a strong 2013 campaign that saw the Wolf Pack produce one of the top tight ends in the Mountain West Conference in John Mackey Award semifinalist Zach Sudfeld.

And Spady is no stranger to developing talent.

In his first year as an assistant coach at Nevada, he guided All-WAC tight end Virgil Green, who was selected in the 2011 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. Green, who played in more than 50 games in his career at Nevada, caught 72 passes in his career for 939 yards and 11 touchdowns while also serving as a devastating blocker in the run game.

In 2012, Spady guided one of the best comeback stories in college football as Sudfeld came back for a sixth season in his injury-riddled career at Nevada to start every game and become a semifinalist for the Mackey Award. Sudfeld earned All- Mountain West second-team honors as he caught 45 passes for 598 yards and set a school record for most touchdowns by a tight end with eight.

As a player at the University of Texas- El Paso, Spady was a four-year starter with 47 starts and twice earned first-team All-WAC honors. He is also a member of the Miners' Centennial Team.

After a three-year career in the Arena Football League, Spady returned to UTEP to begin his coaching career.

He spent 11 seasons with the Miners helping to develop the offensive and defensive lines, as well as the tight ends. Spady coached the tight ends at UTEP from 1996-1999 and aided in the development of Brian Natkin, a consensus All-American in 2000. Sudfield, Green and Natkin all have played or are playing in the NFL. Not only did Spady develop talent, he was won championships at every school he coached.

From 1993-1995, Spady was a student/graduate assistant coach working with both the offensive and defensive lines. Spady was the defensive line coach at UTEP from 2000-2003 and returned to the offensive side of the ball during the 2003 season when he took over the tight ends.

He came to Reno after three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Grambling State. With the Tigers, the team reached the SWAC champion-ship game in his first year and won the SWAC championship in his second season (2008). While Spady was the offensive coordina-tor, the Tigers led the SWAC in a number of offensive categories and a handful of Tigers players set school records and earned all-conference accolades.

Before Grambling, Spady was offensive line coach at North Carolina Central in 2006 and the Eagles posted a perfect 11-0 record and a trip to the NCAA Division II playoffs. NCCU finished the season ranked fourth in the nation in the D-II Top 25 poll and led its confer-ence in 12 offensive statistical categories while the offensive line yielded just 10 sacks in 289 pass attempts.

Spady was the offensive line coach at South Carolina State in 2004 and 2005 and the offensive line cleared the way for 9,049 yards of total of-fense and 34.7 points per game.

At Nevada, he worked for Hall of Fame Coach Chris Ault and had sev-eral influential coaches during his playing days at UTEP, including Andy Reid, Dirk Koetter and Hal Mumme.

In addition to his collegiate coaching duties, Spady is also an avid student of the game as he has served NFL Minority Internships with the Green Bay Packers in 1997 and in 1999 with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Spady was one of 28 coaches selected to participate in the 2008 NCAA Expert Coaches Academy in Dallas and he was one of 11 coaches cho-sen for the NCAA Champions Forum in Orlando in 2009.
