RONALD AND PATRICIA MCINTOSH

Ronald and Patricia McIntosh not only attended Alabama A&M University but have made it their mission to continuously give back in time, talent, and treasure. Ronald plays a significant role in being the Saturday game day announcer for the football games. He and Patricia were at the basketball games supporting the Bulldogs as the announcer and the statistician. The power couple has been supporting AAMU nearly 25 years by their philanthropic efforts that has impacted AAMU athletics. The McIntosh are members of the Normal Legacy Society which recognizes individuals who have demonstrated significant lifetime financial contributions to the University of $100,000. As a result of their consistent giving, they provided a challenge gift of $25,000 towards the purchase of a new scoreboard at the Louis Crews Stadium. Likewise, because of their commitment, they annually give $25,000 to the University's Athletic Program. It is reported that the McIntosh's have generously given approximately one million dollars to the support of the university. Mr. & Mrs. McIntosh resides in Huntsville, Alabama where they are members of St. John African Methodist Episcopal Church in Huntsville.

Chyna Ross is a native of Huntsville, Alabama. She is the daughter of Jemilia Ross Polius. Chyna graduated from New Century Technology High School here in Huntsville, Alabama where she was a part of the engineering strand. After taking courses at her engineering high school and participating in the trio Upward Bound Program at Alabama A&M University, she knew she wanted to be a part of the engineering program and began mechanical engineering studies at Alabama A&M.

She also was a member of the DJB (Dancing Junior Bulldogs) and learned at an early age what Bulldog Pride was before she officially began her tenure on the hill. Her tenure on “The Hill” began in August of 2020. Chyna is currently a graduating senior at Alabama Agricultural & Mechanical University where she is pursuing a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering. She has had three different engineering internships with the following companies: Booz Allen Hamilton, Nucor Steel Decatur, and Lockheed Martin.

Upon graduation, Chyna is looking forward to a successful career in mechanical engineering while continuing to be a voice and an example for youth in disadvantaged communities. Chyna is a Merit Scholarship recipient and has remained on the honor roll with a 3.64 GPA. She has been an active Bulldog since her arrival. Chyna is a member of the Honors Program, a TMCF scholar, and a recipient of the 2021 National Space Club Science and Engineering Scholarship. Chyna was a student worker for the Office of the President for two years. She served as the 2022-2023 Miss National Society of Black Engineers and SGA Junior Class Senator. Chyna also is a Spring 2023 initiate of the Delta Delta Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated.

Her hobbies include spending time with her friends, family, music, dance, roller skating, and visiting church. She aims to fulfill her God-engineered purpose here on the Hill by continuing to lead with a positive attitude and to be a light for the ladies on campus. She plans to use her platform to inspire her peers to look within to discover their true potential and to reach the Huntsville Community through her acts of service.

Coach Connell Maynor enters his 6th season as the coach of Alabama A&M and looks to bounce back in 2023 after the Bulldogs had a 4-7 record in 2022. The team brings in experience at all positions around the roster. A&M looks to get back to a winning style of football in 2023 and bring in some magic similar to a few years ago in 2020. The challenge of the upcoming 11-game slate will be an exciting test. With three games being broadcasted to the National audience. The Bulldogs are ready for the challenge with all the variables they have in Normal, Alabama.

Quarterbacks

The quarterback room for the Alabama A&M Bulldogs enters the 2023 season with both junior Quincy Casey and Xavier Lankford returning to the hill leading the way and battling for the starting position. Both QB's played ten games in 2022 and threw 10 touchdowns for just over 1000 yards. The redshirt freshman Ashley Tucker Jr. from Los Angeles California returns as well. Cornelius Brown IV is coming from UT Martin and freshman Corey Chavis coming from Redford, Michigan are new additions to add depth to the position. The quarterbacks will be coached by Jason Mai who is entering his 6th season on the staff. The Bulldogs averaged 220 yards passing game in 2022 and look to take a step forward in 2023.

Wide Receivers

The passing attack of AAMU will have a mixed bag of returning and new faces at the wide receiver position. The wide receivers are coached by the offensive coordinator and Duane Taylor are the Bulldogs coming into 2023 losing three receivers, four returning and four new faces to Huntsville. It all starts with junior wideout Keenan Hambrick leading the way, who had 29 catches for 370 yards, and 2tds last season. Followed by senior wideouts Cameron Young who had 360 yards and 2tds, and Terrell Gardner who had 25 catches for 292 yards. Alabama A&M welcomes four new faces in Nigel Fitzgerald who is coming from UCONN, senior Lavar Gumm joining the program from Central Michigan, Jacolby Hewitt from FIU, and Jeremiah Shack

Running Backs:

If there was one thing that caught the attention of many defenses it was AAMU's running game. Coached by Fred Farrier the Bulldogs running attack put up over 1700 yards rushing last season. Losing only one player in this group, it returns All-SWAC 2nd teamer in Donovan Eaglin. Eaglin who started all 11 games had 897 yards rushing and 6tds while averaging 5 yards a carry in last season. It also helps that Alabama A&M returns their 2nd option in Harold Jemison Jr who ran for 302 yards and 4tds. Followed by DJ Moffett (Redshirt junior) and Ryan Marrow (Sophomore).

Tight Ends

The tight ends in 2022 were led by junior Bryson Clark who played in eight games last season as the backup TE and had a stat line of 14 catches for 191 yards. He will headline the TE position in 2023 in addition returners Donovan Payne a junior from Denton, Texas, and redshirt sophomore Kobe Brown. New faces come in to add depth to this position with freshman Tyshawn Tate, and senior transfer Kameron Williams from FIU. Coaching the TE's is Bobby Turner who also coaches the full-backs for Alabama A&M.

Offensive Line

Defensive Linemen

Alabama A&M lost four defensive linemen from the 2022 campaign. Coach Adam Goggans has ten returners on the D-Line entering 2023. With names like starting redshirt senior and All-SWAC 2nd team performer Zareon Hayes, senior Hayden Guilford, red-shirt junior Thomas Douglas, senior Rashad Colson, senior nose guard Dorian Wesley, junior defensive tackle Liston Richardson, redshirt junior Malik Pertee, junior CJ Dunn, and Demetrie Morgan.

Six transfers come to the hill to help add depth to stopping the run. Jamarion Ellis (Georgia State), Shykiem Pace-Gloster (FIU), Dorian Pickett (Appalachian State), Gregory Green (Eastern Kentucky), and Jonathan King (Indiana).

Linebackers

The Linebackers are coached by Defensive Coordinator Kienus Bowlware, and enter 2023 with a lot of fresh faces. A&M has two returning linebackers in junior Dimitris Biamby who finished last season with 13 tackles along senior linebacker Xavier Billingsley. The Bulldogs are bringing in five new faces at the LB position in 2023. Joining the corps are Jordan Mitchell a redshirt junior from Appalachian State, Cortez Andrews from Florida State, Tony Overstreet from LA Pierce Community College, Evan Craig is coming in from Samford, while Orin Wilson Jr is the only freshman joining the group.

Safeties

Alabama A&M lost six safeties from the 2022 team that is coached by Marvin Bohannon. Returning safeties Avian Rice, Chancellor Smith, redshirt freshman Marvin Smith, junior Khalil Griffin, and Cardelle Patrick. Seven new faces are arriving on the hill in 2023. Jordan Mitchell joins the team from Appalachian State, Cortez Andrews (Florida State), Tony Overstreet (LA Pierce Community College, Evan Craighead from Samford, and Wilson Jr the is the only freshman.

Cornerbacks

Staying with the secondary the defensive backs who are coached by Bryant Foster look to make it tough on opposing receiving corps. The unit gave up a total of seven yards per catch in 2022. In 2023 five corners will be returning for the upcoming season. Starting with redshirt Junior Marquez Benson who started 10 games for the Bulldogs and finished with 16 tackles in 2022. Anthony Fielding a redshirt junior played seven games last season and tallied nine tackles. Elijah Eberhardt who played in nine games last season ended the campaign with one interception and two passes deflected, Teirphil Bein-Aimethe sophomore, and KC Eziumumethe red-shirt sophomore. Two new faces to the cornerback group are Tochi Nnoruka the junior joining AAMU from American River College and Andre Emilus a freshman from Auburn, Alabama.

CONNELL MAYNOR, HEAD COACH

One of the most successful coaches over the past two decades, Connell Maynor was named head coach at Alabama A&M on January 16, 2018, bringing with him an extensive background at both the collegiate and professional levels as a player and coach.

Upon his hiring that included being part of 10 championship teams with six of those rings coming as a player and four as a coach. He currently enters the 2023 season with a 94-51 (.648) overall record as a head coach in 13 years at three institutions.

ALABAMA A&M (2018-PRESENT, HEAD COACH)

Since taking the reins of the Bulldogs in 2018 Maynor has compiled an 29-20 overall record, 21-12 mark in the Southwestern Athletic Conference and accomplished things no other coach has at A&M.

The Bulldogs struggled in 2022 in a bit of a rebuilding year, starting 0-3 on the season with losses to UAB, Troy, and Austin Peay. Despite the slow start, A&M won three straight conference games to start the month of October, however fell down the stretch, including the first loss in the Magic City Classic under the watch of Maynor.

After the tremendous spring season, Maynor and his squad went 7-3 during the fall, starting with a three-game win streak to start the year with a home win over South Carolina State, Bethune-Cookman on the road, and Tuskegee in the Gulf Coast Challenge. After a trio of SWAC losses over the next three games, the Bulldogs finished strong to win the last four for the 7-3 mark.

The Spring 2021 season saw him add to not only his personal championship ring collection but to that of his players as he guided Alabama A&M to a perfect 5-0 record and 3-0 league mark, accomplishing three impressive milestones in one fell swoop on May 1.

That day would see a thrilling 40-33 victory over No. 25 Arkansas-Pine Bluff that delivered the first SWAC Championship in 15 years (and second in program history), the first undefeated season since the 1966 season 53 seasons prior and the first ever Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) National Championship for the program.

Those accomplishments earned him a spot as one of 16 national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Award as the nation's top FCS coach but were fueled by the efforts of the players he recruited.

Headlining that group was quarterback Aqeel Glass (St. Louis, Mo.) as he was named Player of the Year by the Black College Football Hall of Fame, BOXTOROW and the SWAC – all program firsts. He was also a finalist for the prestigious Walter Payton Award as the top player at the FCS level. Those would also be honors that Glass would duplicate in Fall 2021, finishing ninth in the Payton voting.

The accolades from that championship season also included a Division I Era program record 11 All-SWAC selections with seven on the First-Team.

It was also a season marked by 12 All-Americans between post-season and preseason honors, headlined by the first American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) honoree as sophomore wide out Abdul-Fatai Ibrahim (Miramar, Fla.) was named to the Second-Team. That honor made him just the fourth in program history, second in the DI Era and first since 2007.

He was also among six BOXTOROW postseason All-Americans and four preseason honorees for that organization. Additionally, junior defensive end Marcus Cushine (Broward County, Fla.) became the first player in 29 years to earn College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District and All-America recognition for his work on the field and in the classroom.

Ibrahim would join those ranks in Fall 2021 as he became just the fourth football player to earn CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, doing so out of a district that features schools from Alabama, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

The Spring 2021 season marked a steady improvement for the program from a 6-5 overall record and 5-2 mark in the SWAC in 2018 and 7-5 and 4-3 records, respectively, in 2019. The 2018 campaign also represented the first winning season for the program since 2012.

CONNELL MAYNOR, HEAD COACH

Most recently, the Fall 2021 campaign would see the Bulldogs go 7-3 overall, see the team earn AFCA Minority Offensive Staff of the Year and offensive coordinator Duane Taylor be named to that role for the National Football League Player's Association (NFLPA) Collegiate Bowl at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California.

In just four seasons at the helm, Maynor has delivered 31 All-SWAC honors with 17 of those being First-Team selections. A total of 21 of those came in 2020 and Spring 2021 with five, including four First-Team, in Fall 2021.

HAMPTON (2014-17, HEAD COACH)

Maynor came to The Hill following four seasons as head coach at Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) member Hampton from 2014-17.

In that time he posted a 20-25 overall record that included a pair of winning seasons, the program's first since 2011. The first of those was a 2015 campaign that saw a 6-5 overall record and 5-3 mark in the MEAC and those records would be repeated in his final season with the Pirates in 2017.

He would pick up his first victory as a Division I head coach with a 34-30 decision over Miles on September 20, 2014 and also delivered the program's first shutout in five years, and his first at the DI level, with a 23-0 win over Delaware State that first season.

In those four years he also produced 32 All-MEAC performers over three teams, including seven on the First-Team. Those would come with seven in 2014 (two First-Team), 10 in 2015 (4), eight in 2016 (1) and seven in 2017.

WINSTON-SALEM STATE (2010-13, HEAD COACH)

An established program builder, Maynor inherited a program that went 1-10 against a DI schedule the year before his arrival and immediately turned things around.

That first season would see the Rams deliver a sterling 8-2 record that would be the beginning of a 45-6 stretch over that four-year span and one that would include an incredible 29-2 mark in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA).

In 2011 Maynor lead WSSU to a 13-1 overall record, a CIAA Championship with a perfect 8-0 record and a berth in the NCAA Division II Semifinals before taking even further in 2012. That year would see them earn a second straight league championship with a 14-1 record before falling in the national championship game.

The 2013 season would make for a third consecutive CIAA title behind a 10-2 overall record and 7-0 mark in league play. It would culminate in a third straight NCAA appearance and include a home 27-20 victory over Slippery Rock in the opening round.

Among the accomplishments over that stretch were a pair of HBCU National Championships in 2011 and 2012, two Super Region One titles and a bevy of personal accolades.

The latter included CIAA Coach of the Year honors in 2011 and 2012, BOXTOROW HBCU Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C. CIAA Coach of the Year, Black College Sports Page BAAD Team Coach of the Year and Don Hansen Football Gazette Super Region One Coach of the Year. He was also named the 2011 Sheridan Broadcasting National HBCU Coach of the Year.

FAYETTEVILLE STATE (2000-09, OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR, QUARTERBACKS COACH)

No stranger to success in the CIAA, Maynor spent a decade in the league as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Division II Fayetteville State.

In that time, he helped lead FSU to four CIAA title game appearances, three of them resulting in championships in 2002, 2003 and 2009.

Additionally, he worked with All-CIAA quarterback selections in the first two of those seasons and his offense led the league in rushing offense, total offense and scoring in 2008. That offense also ranked No. 13 in the country in points per game and helped lead the Broncos to 64 wins in his time in Fayetteville.

PROFESSIONAL PLAYING CAREER (1995-2006, ARENA FOOTBALL LEAGUE)

A veteran of 12 seasons in the Arena Football League (AFL), Maynor played for seven teams and threw for 9,285 yards and 160 touchdowns against just 33 interceptions.

A versatile player, he concluded his AFL career as the only individual to play quarterback, wide receiver, linebacker and serve as a kick return specialist and is the only player to throw for more than 5,000 yards, accumulate at least 500 yards receiving (795), 400 rushing yards (642) and 400 yards in kick returns (465).

His best season would come in 2003 when he posted career-highs in every passing category, going 235-of-400 for 3,167 yards with 54 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions.

Over the course of his 13-year professional career Maynor was part of four AFL World Championship teams, going back-to-back with the Tampa Bay Storm in 1995 and 1996 and twice with the Orlando Predators in 1998 and 2000. The latter would see him earn Arena Bowl Most Valuable Player honors with a 41-38 victory over the Nashville Kats.

In 2012, as part of the league's Silver Anniversary celebration, he was named as one of the league's 25 greatest quarterbacks.

CONNELL MAYNOR, HEAD COACH

PROFESSIONAL COACHING CAREER (2006-08, PHILADELPHIA SOUL - AFL)

Following his prolific playing career, Maynor transitioned into the professional ranks for coaching, moving up stairs to the offensive coordinator role with his final team, the Philadelphia Soul of the Arena Football League.

In that role he guided the Soul to first place statistical rankings in scoring offense (62.0 ppg), touchdowns (132), touchdown passes (102) and red zone efficiency (85-percent) in 2008. That effort led to Philadelphia claiming Arena Bowl XXII as they held off a furious comeback by the San Jose SaberCats for a 59-56 victory.

COLLEGIATE PLAYING CAREER (1987, WINSTON-SALEM STATE, 1989-91 NORTH CAROLINA A&T)

Prior to his impressive coaching career, Maynor starred at quarterback at Winston-Salem State in 1987 under William "Bill" Hayes, leading the team to a CIAA Championship and earning All-CIAA honors after passing for 1,071 yards.

He would then follow Hayes to North Carolina A&T where he would proceed to become the first Aggie to be named MEAC Offensive Player of the Year, doing so in back-to-back years in 1990 and 1991. Maynor also earned All-MEAC First-Team honors in each of those seasons while leading A&T to the league championship in 1991.

That year he led the club to a 9-2 record while throwing for 1,527 yards, 18 touchdowns and only five interceptions and rushing for 288 yards and eight more scores. It also marked the second straight season that the Aggies posted a nine-win season.

Over the course of his three seasons he accounted for 58 touchdowns with 39 coming through the air and 19 on the ground, a number that currently ranks third in the program's history. Additionally, his 141.82 career passing efficiency rating is the best in Aggie history, as is his .561 completion percentage.

ADDITIONAL HONORS AND ACCOLADES

As a result of his stellar collegiate and professional playing and coaching careers, Maynor has been inducted into both the MEAC and NC A&T Halls of Fame. The Aggies honored him in 2014 while the MEAC inducted him into their ranks in 2020.

Additionally, he has appeared on the silver screen, serving as Jamie Foxx's stand-in in the movie Any Given Sunday (1999) and did stunt work in the blockbuster Remember The Titans (2000).

EDUCATION

Maynor holds a Bachelor of Arts in Recreation Administration earned from North Carolina A&T in 1995.

LAST MEETING BETWEEN SCHOOLS: FLORIDA A&M DEFEATS ALABAMA A&M, 38-25

TALLAHSSEE, Fla. – Alabama A&M held a 12-point lead in the first half but could not weather 31 unanswered points as Florida A&M rallied for a 38-25 victory in an NCAA Division I football game and Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) opener on Saturday, September 24.

THE STATS - ALABAMA A&M

Junior quarterback Xavier Lankford (Pelham, Ala.) was a threat through the air and on the ground as he went 18-of-28 for 180 yards, a touchdown and two interceptions and notched 81 yards on 11 carries to pace the Bulldogs.

Senior wide receiver Abdul-Fatai Ibrahim (Miramar, Fla.) hauled in six catches for 49 yards and senior wide receiver Cameron Young (Daphne, Ala.) came away with the lone receiving touchdown on the day. In the backfield, graduate running back Gary Quarles (Tuscaloosa, Ala.) and sophomore running back Donovan Eaglin (Houston, Texas) each found the endzone to round out the offensive performances.

Junior punter Troy Lendvay (Montreal, Quebec, Canada) anchored special teams as he drove five punts for 197 yards, including two for fair catches, one for 50-yards and three that were planted inside the 20-yard line.

THE GAME

After allowing just three plays and negative six yards on FAMU's opening possession, the Bulldogs would take over on the offensive end at the 42-yard line. They would then go six plays and all 42 of those yards, 29 on a catch down the sideline by junior tight end Bryson Clark (Delray Beach, Fla.) and the last two on a dive into the endzone by Quarles at the 9:42 mark.

Trailing 7-0, the Rattlers second time with the ball was about as successful as the first – three plays for negative five yards – and set up a second score for Alabama A&M. Getting the ball on their own 42, they worked their way down to the FAMU 29, extending the drive on a 3rd and 4 on a shovel pass to senior tight end Kendrick Johnson (New Market, Ala.), before freshman kicker Zach Alvarez (Hialeah, Fla.) banged through a 35-yarder for a 10-0 lead at 4:38.

Florida A&M would finally gain traction on their next possession and would benefit from a penalty for too many men on the field on a missed field goal. They would take that new life and turn it into a one-yard touchdown run by Terrell Jennings with 14:03 showing on the clock in the second quarter. The drive covered 80 yards in a span of 4:11 and pulled the Rattlers to within 10-7.

It wouldn't take long for the score to change again, however, and this time it would be on the defensive side of the ball. Pinned at their own two-yard line courtesy of a 33-yard punt from Lendvay, FAMU's Jah'Marae Sheread could not get out of his own endzone, being brought down for a safety that stretched it to 12-7 at the 10:10 mark.

Neither team could get anything going over the next several possessions until A&M took over at their own 30-yard line with 3:23 left in the half. Highlighted by a 64-yard scramble by Lankford down to the five-yard line, that drive would hit paydirt as Eaglin went in from one yard out to push to a 19-7 advantage.

Far from done, the Rattlers answered with a 20-yard touchdown strike from Jeremy Moussa to Xavier Smith with 15 seconds left in the half, sending the clubs to the break with the score at 19-14.

Building off that momentum heading into the locker room, FAMU marched 60 yards down field on nine plays on their second possession of the third quarter. That would be a drive that would once again be capped by Moussa connecting with Smith, this time from 10 yards out to take their first lead of the day at 21-19 with 8:29 on the clock.

Things would continue trending the Rattlers' way as they would squelch A&M's next drive after just seven plays as Nadarius Fagan stepped in front of a Lankford pass to give them the ball right back. It would take just 36 seconds for Florida A&M to capitalize as Jaylen McCloud took it in from six yards out to make it a two-score game at 28-19 with just under five minutes left in the period.

FAMU would then add on a field goal from Jose Romo-Martinez at the 13:54 mark of the fourth and another strike from Moussa to Smith, this time from two yards out, to extend to 38-19 at 10:01. The Bulldogs would snap that stretch of 31 unanswered points with a 29-yard rifle by Lankford to Young with 34 seconds to play. Following a failed two-point attempt, the Rattlers put the finishing touches on the 38-25 victory.

THE STATS – FLORIDA A&M

Moussa anchored the offense for FAMU as he went 22-of-40 for 323 yards and three touchdowns – every single one of them to Smith who finished with eight grabs for 97 yards. Sheread added seven catches for 138 yards and Jennings had a score and 59 yards on the ground and McCloud found the endzone for the other score on the day.

Defensively Isaiah Major delivered an impressive 13 tackles, nine solo and one for loss, and Fagan and Javan Morgan each had interceptions. Gentle Hunt, Kamari Stephens and Stanley Mentor each produced a sack and Eric Smith added seven tackles to round out the top performers.

ALABAMA A&M FOOTBALL ALL-SWAC SELECTIONS

A member of the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) since transitioning to NCAA Division I in 1999, Alabama A&M has delivered a number of impressive performances in their 24 seasons in the league.

These have included three Player of the Year honorees among 127 All-SWAC selections, most recently quarterback Aqeel Glass repeating as Offensive Player of the Year in Spring 2021 and Fall 2021 and National Football League (NFL) legend Robert Mathis earning Defensive Player of the Year in 2002.

Of the 127 All-SWAC honors, 61 have come on the First-Team with the remaining 66 on the Second-Team. Those include a program record three straight years with at least four First-Team honorees - four each year in 2019, 2021 and 2022 as well as a program record 11 overall selections in Spring 2021.

Alabama A&M football has earned numerous All-American honors from multiple organizations over the course of the program's 110-year history. While not a comprehensive list, four of the main organizations have been BOXTOROW (2007), the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) All-American Team (2002), American Football Coaches Association (1987) and the College Sports Information Director of America (1979). Together postseason honors from these organizations have accounted for 43 All-American selections.

Alabama A&M's football history is not short on talent as some of the sport's brightest stars have donned the Maroon and White.

Since the program's beginning in 1912, a total of 12 Bulldogs have been drafted by NFL franchises with 18 players combining for 85 seasons at the highest level.

Among those individuals who began their careers at A&M, none are more accomplished than Pro Football Hall of Famer John Stallworth who won four Super Bowls with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He is joined by Howard "House" Ballard and Robert Mathis, both of whom were Pro Bowl selections during their pro careers, with the latter winning a Super Bowl in 2006.

Most recently defensive tackle Anthony Lanier played four years in the NFL with the Washington (2016-18) franchise and Los Angeles Chargers (2018-20) and is currently a member of the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Stallworth (14), Mathis (13) and Ballard (11) are joined by fellow Super Bowl winner Mike Hegman (12) as the only Bulldogs to play at least a decade in the NFL.

The other A&M players that have reached the NFL are Johnny Baldwin (2007), Ricky Blake (1991), Ronnie Coleman (1974-81), Ernest French (1982), Thomas Hopkins (1983), Frank Kearse (2011-15), Bill Kindricks (1968), Wayne Mosley (1974), Joe Patton (1994-98), Oliver Ross (1973-76), Franky Smith (1980), Barry Wagner (1992) and Mike Williams (1982-84).

Patton is the highest draft pick in program history, going in the third in 1994 (97th) with Stallworth in the fourth in 1974 (82nd).
