ABOUT TODAY'S GAME

ABOUT THE GAME

This marks the first home game for Alabama A&M in nearly a month after a road game versus Austin Peay, followed by an unexpected open week and the annual Gulf Coast Challenge.

The Bulldogs enter the game seeking their first Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) win, while looking to end a two-game losing streak.

Meanwhile, Bethune-Cookman is in search of its first victory of the season. The Wildcats had their open week last weekend.

A loss by the Bulldogs could end any chance of a SWAC East championship.

Saturday also marks Alabama A&M's homecoming game as last year the Bulldogs rolled past Tuskegee in front of a record sold out crowd at Louis Crews Stadium.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS

Alabama A&M comes into the game having dropped its last two games, giving up more than 40 points in both losses.

The Bulldogs may have found what they were looking for though after coming up short last week to Jackson State in the Gulf Coast Challenge.

One of the main areas of focus has been the starting quarterback position. Against Jackson State, Aveon Smith drew his first start of the season, but was replaced by Xavier Lankford.

The Pelham, Ala. native was magnificent in the backup role, throwing for nearly 250 yards, along with three scores, while running for another in a 45-38 loss.

Despite the setback, the Bulldogs nearly rallied in the second half after being down 38-10 at the break.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

Bethune-Cookman continues its search for the first win of the season.

The Wildcats have been on the verge of that elusive win in back-to-back home games, prior to the open week on Oct. 5.

Bethune-Cookman came within an eyelash of defeating Clark Atlanta on Sept. 21, but a 55-yard field

The Wildcats nearly rallied from a 10-point first-quarter deficit in the SWAC opener a week later, but could not complete the rally in a 26-21 loss to Alabama State.

SERIES HISTORY

Alabama A&M and Bethune-Cookman will be meeting for the 18th time. The Wildcats own the all-time lead in the series, 11-6. Alabama A&M has won four out of its last five over BCU, but the Wildcats won the 2023 matchup, 31-14, in Daytona Beach, Fla.

UP NEXT

Alabama A&M will take a week off to prepare for the annual rivalry game with Alabama State. This will be the 82nd Magic City Classic at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. as the two teams meet. The Hornets have won the previous two games, but the Bulldogs own the all-time series at 43-36-3.

BULLDOGS ON TV, RADIO

All Alabama A&M games will be streamed this season. The Bulldogs have three games on ESPN+, three on the SWAC Digital Network, two on HBCU GO, one on ESPNU and one on the Grio. Also, the network televising the Magic City Classic game against Alabama State has yet to be announced.

In addition, fans can tune into WJAB 90.9 FM each Saturday to catch the action.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS DR. PAUL A. BRYANT

Dr. PAUL A. BRYANT
Director of Athletics
Alaska Pacific University, 1989

Dr. Paul A. Bryant was named Alabama A&M Director of Athletics on August 20, 2022, bringing with him an established track record as a champion of academics, a fundraiser and developer of championship programs and facilities.

He is also someone who is extremely familiar with the culture of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU's), having led four such departments over the course of eight years. He became just the fourth full-time AD in the program's 24-year NCAA Division I history.

Bryant was hired as the Director of Athletics in 2022 and continues to be a trailblazer in pushing Alabama A&M to new heights.

Over the past two years, Bryant has led the charge to have NCAA Sanctions removed after a five-year Probationary Period and oversaw the change from having nine teams on NCAA APR Restrictions to only three within one year.

Bryant implemented the Southwestern Athletic Conference's (SWAC) first Mental Health Support Initiative within the athletics department and built a strategic partnership with Yapit. He oversaw the addition of the Dog Kennels Community at Louis Crews Stadium and video boards at all athletic venues.

Under Bryant's leadership, Alabama A&M basketball attendance rose from an average of 1,576 fans during the 2022-23 season to 2,871 in 2023-24.

Basketball and football broke single-game attendance records at Alabama A&M. The men's basketball program set a single-game mark of 6,389 against rival Alabama State, while the women's program also set the mark against Alabama State at 5,127. In addition, football set the single-game mark at Louis Crew Stadium of 26,391 during Homecoming as the program rose to 13th nationally in the FCS in attendance in 2023.

Prior to Alabama A&M, Bryant served as the Associate Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics at Edward Waters from 2019-2022.

In his three years at EWU, Bryant led the program to a successful beginning of a transition to NCAA Division II, backed by significant facility upgrades that helped change the trajectory of Tigers Athletics along with bringing in new programs to expand the program's footprint with both fans and recruits.

Efforts such as those increased the Department's profile to the point Edward Waters hosted multiple conference championships and had one sport claim its first league title.

In that span nearly every facility would see improvements made to it, including locker room and stadium renovations at James P. Small Memorial Baseball Park and J. Gardner "Nip" Sams Softball Park and renovations to the Adams-Jenkins Community Sports & Music Complex, home of men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball.

One of those facility projects benefited both EWU's most high profile sport and one of its newest as Community Field & Stadium, home to football and the new women's soccer program (2021), now has 5,000 seats, a pair of grand stands, two press boxes, a large video board and State-of-the-Art artificial turf designed to provide a cooler surface in the Florida heat.

In addition to women's soccer, the Tigers also added men's volleyball to the spring slate in 2022, making it the only such program in the State of Florida.

The Gulf Coast Athletic Conference (GCAC) would also become very familiar with Edward Waters during Bryant's time in Jacksonville as they hosted the 2021 track & field and basketball championships. The latter would produce the first GCAC title for women's basketball since joining the league in more than a decade prior in 2010.

Before Edward Waters, Bryant spent two years as the Director of Athletics at Grambling State University where he produced numerous Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) championships while successfully navigating financial challenges, facility needs and pre-existing NCAA sanctions.

Those efforts would be highlighted by a 2017-18 campaign that would see football and both men's and women's basketball claim league titles. For men's basketball it was their first such championship in 30 years while women's soccer also reached the SWAC Championship that year.

A proven fundraiser, those skills would be on display during Bryant's three years at South Carolina State from 2014-17. While in Orangeburg, South Carolina he doubled the number of donations to the program over the first two years on campus while generating significant increases in single game and season ticket sales, attendance and alumni engagement.

That would help lead to the Bulldogs' football program earning a share of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) regular season title and men's tennis qualifying for the NCAA Tournament.

That success would continue in 2015-16 with men's and women's tennis MEAC Championships, a runner-up finish for men's basketball and the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Athletic Director's Association Most Improved APR Award. He would also be one of just 15 recipients of the FCS ADA Stipend Award nationwide that year.

S.C. State would also produce generational talent in that three-year span as Javon Hargrave earned MEAC Defensive Player of the Year twice and would go on to be drafted in the third round of the 2016 National Football League (NFL) Draft. Darius Leonard, a star linebacker with the Indianapolis Colts, would then continue the trend with 2016 MEAC Defensive Player of the Year honors before embarking on an illustrious pro career.

In one season at then Division II Stillman in 2013-14 Bryant changed the culture with the creation of the Athletic Director's Honor Roll, Athletic Hall of Fame and a Fifth-Year athletic work program.

He also raised funds for an on-campus fitness center as well as initiating upgrades to the baseball and track & field facilities and increasing department staff in key areas. All of these efforts led to division and tournament championships for men's and women's tennis and baseball and eight track & field student-athletes earning berths in the NCAA Division II Outdoor Championships.

Bryant got his first full-time opportunity at the AD level with Eureka College from 2008-13 where he led an 18-sport program. While there he aided in the development of the institution's strategic plan, instituted branding guidelines and oversaw a record number of student-athletes making the AD Honor Roll.

A men's basketball coach by trade early in his career, he served in that capacity as well as Associate Director of Athletics at Urbana from 2004-08. He would go on to earn American Midwest Conference (AMC) and South Division Coach of the Year honors as a result of his direct work with student-athletes, one of whom garnered league Player of the Year recognition.

An impressive coaching career would begin in 1997 at Sinclair Community College and would see Bryant earn Ohio Community College Athletic Conference (OCCAA) and Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year honors over his six seasons. Those would include four trips to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) and a National Runner-Up finish in 1998.

In addition to his administration acumen and knowledge on the court, Bryant was also sought after for a number of positions of leadership outside the institutional level.

While with Edward Waters he served as a member of the NAIA Athletic Director's Association Board of Directors and chairman of the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference Athletic Directors and was on the Hillcrest Golf Course Commission during his time in Orangeburg.

Additionally, he was a featured speaker at Emerging AD in Morrow, Georgia in 2014. The latter is a well-established organization founded on helping individuals eventually reach the head AD chair through interactions with successful individuals throughout the collegiate athletic landscape.

Bryant holds a bachelor's degree from Alaska Pacific, earned his Masters from Urbana and a Doctorate of Education in Athletic Administration from North Central University in 2020.

CONNELL MAYNOR
 Head Coach | Seventh Season
 North Carolina A&T State, 1995

One of the most successful coaches over the past two decades, Maynor was named head coach at Alabama A&M on January 16, 2018, bringing with him an extensive background at both the collegiate and professional levels as a player and coach.

Upon his hiring that included being part of 10 championship teams with six of those rings coming as a player and four as a coach. He currently enters the 2024 season with a 99-57 (.634) overall record as a head coach in 14 years at three institutions.

Since taking the reins of the Bulldogs in 2018 Maynor has compiled an 34-26 record, 24-17 mark in the Southwestern Athletic Conference and accomplished things no other coach has at Alabama A&M.

During the 2023 season, Maynor's Bulldogs finished a 5-6 record, including 3-5 in conference play.

Alabama A&M picked up early season victories over Lane College and Arkansas-Pine Bluff, and a 58-3 lopsided victory over Tuskegee during Homecoming in front of a record attendance crowd of 26,391 at Louis Crews Classic.

The Bulldogs struggled down the stretch, going 2-4 over the final two months, ending the season with a 30-21 victory over Mississippi Valley State.

Maynor's squad had numerous postseason honors as four players were named to the All-SWAC Postseason team, including return specialist Terrell Gardner, who received a First-Team selection. Running back Donovan Eaglin, defensive lineman Zareon Hayes and defensive back Emari Pait were selected to the All-SWAC Second Team.

The Bulldogs struggled in 2022 in a bit of a rebuilding year, starting 0-3 on the season with losses to UAB, Troy, and Austin Peay.

Despite the slow start, A&M won three straight conference games to start the month of October, however fell down the stretch, including the first loss in the Magic City Classic under the watch of Maynor.

After the tremendous spring season, Maynor and his squad went 7-3 during the fall, starting with a three-game win streak to start the year with a home win over South Carolina State, Bethune-Cookman on the road, and Tuskegee in the Gulf Coast Challenge. After a trio of SWAC losses over the next three games, the Bulldogs finished strong to win the last four for the 7-3 mark.

The Spring 2021 season saw him add to not only his personal championship ring collection but to that of his players as he guided Alabama A&M to a perfect 5-0 record and 3-0 league mark, accomplishing three impressive milestones in one fell swoop on May 1.

That day would see a thrilling 40-33 victory over No. 25 Arkansas-Pine Bluff that delivered the first SWAC Championship in 15 years (and second in program history), the first undefeated season since the 1966 season 53 seasons prior and the first ever Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) National Championship for the program.

Those accomplishments earned him a spot as one of 16 national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Award as the nation's top FCS coach but were fueled by the efforts of the players he recruited.

Headlining that group was quarterback Aqeel Glass as he was named Player of the Year by the Black College Football Hall of Fame, BOXTOROW and the SWAC – all program firsts. He was also a finalist for the prestigious Walter Payton Award as the top player at the FCS level. Those would also be honors that Glass would duplicate in Fall 2021, finishing ninth in the Payton voting.

HEAD COACH CONNELL MAYNOR

The accolades from that championship season also included a Division I Era program record 11 All-SWAC selections with seven on the First-Team.

It was also a season marked by 12 All-Americans between postseason and preseason honors, headlined by the first American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) honoree as sophomore wide out Abdul-Fatai Ibrahim was named to the Second-Team. That honor made him just the fourth in program history, second in the DI Era and first since 2007.

He was also among six BOXTOROW postseason All-Americans and four preseason honorees for that organization. Additionally, junior defensive end Marcus Cushine became the first player in 29 years to earn College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District and All-America recognition for his work on the field and in the classroom.

Ibrahim would join those ranks in Fall 2021 as he became just the fourth football player to earn CoSIDA Academic All-District honors, doing so out of a district that features schools from Alabama, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

The Spring 2021 season marked a steady improvement for the program from a 6-5 overall record and 5-2 mark in the SWAC in 2018 and 7-5 and 4-3 records, respectively, in 2019. The 2018 campaign also represented the first winning season for the program since 2012.

Most recently, the Fall 2021 campaign would see the Bulldogs go 7-3 overall, see the team earn AFCA Minority Offensive Staff of the Year and offensive coordinator Duane Taylor be named to that role for the National Football League Player's Association (NFLPA) Collegiate Bowl at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California.

In just four seasons at the helm, Maynor has delivered 31 All-SWAC honors with 17 of those being First-Team selections. A total of 21 of those came in 2020 and Spring 2021 with five, including four First-Team, in Fall 2021.

Maynor came to The Hill following four seasons as head coach at Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) member Hampton from 2014-17.

In that time he posted a 20-25 overall record that included a pair of winning seasons, the program's first since 2011. The first of those was a 2015 campaign that saw a 6-5 overall record and 5-3 mark in the MEAC and those records would be repeated in his final season with the Pirates in 2017.

He would pick up his first victory as a Division I head coach with a 34-30 decision over Miles on September 20, 2014 and also delivered the program's first shutout in five years, and his first at the DI level, with a 23-0 win over Delaware State that first season.

In those four years he also produced 32 All-MEAC performers over three teams, including seven on the First-Team. Those would come with seven in 2014 (two First-Team), 10 in 2015 (4), eight in 2016 (1) and seven in 2017.

An established program builder, Maynor inherited a program that went 1-10 against a DI schedule the year before his arrival and immediately turned things around.

That first season would see the Rams deliver a sterling 8-2 record that would be the beginning of a 45-6 stretch over that four-year span and one that would include an incredible 29-2 mark in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA).

In 2011 Maynor lead WSSU to a 13-1 overall record, a CIAA Championship with a perfect 8-0 record and a berth in the NCAA Division II Semifinals before taking even further in 2012. That year would see them earn a second straight league championship with a 14-1 record before falling in the national championship game.

The 2013 season would make for a third consecutive CIAA title behind a 10-2 overall record and 7-0 mark in league play. It would culminate in a third straight NCAA appearance and include a home 27-20 victory over Slippery Rock in the opening round.

Among the accomplishments over that stretch were a pair of HBCU National Championships in 2011 and 2012, two Super Region One titles and a bevy of personal accolades.

The latter included CIAA Coach of the Year honors in 2011 and 2012, BOXTOROW HBCU Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C. CIAA Coach of the Year, Black College Sports Page BAAD Team Coach of the Year and Don Hansen Football Gazette Super Region One Coach of the Year. He was also named the 2011 Sheridan Broadcasting National HBCU Coach of the Year.

No stranger to success in the CIAA, Maynor spent a decade in the league as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Division II Fayetteville State.

In that time, he helped lead FSU to four CIAA title game appearances, three of them resulting in championships in 2002, 2003 and 2009.

Additionally, he worked with All-CIAA quarterback selections in the first two of those seasons and his offense led the league in rushing offense, total offense and scoring in 2008. That offense also ranked No. 13 in the country in points per game and helped lead the Broncos to 64 wins in his time in Fayetteville.

A veteran of 12 seasons in the Arena Football League (AFL), Maynor played for seven teams and threw for 9,285 yards and 160 touchdowns against just 33 interceptions.

A versatile player, he concluded his AFL career as the only individual to play quarterback, wide receiver, linebacker and serve as a kick return specialist and is the only player to throw for more than 5,000 yards, accumulate at least 500 yards receiving (795), 400 rushing yards (642) and 400 yards in kick returns (465).

His best season would come in 2003 when he posted career-highs in every passing category, going 235-of-400 for 3,167 yards with 54 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions.

Over the course of his 13-year professional career Maynor was part of four AFL World Championship teams, going back-to-back with the Tampa Bay Storm in 1995 and 1996 and twice with the Orlando Predators in 1998 and 2000. The latter would see him earn Arena Bowl Most Valuable Player honors with a 41-38 victory over the Nashville Kats.

In 2012, as part of the league's Silver Anniversary celebration, he was named as one of the league's 25 greatest quarterbacks.

Following his prolific playing career, Maynor transitioned into the professional ranks for coaching, moving up stairs to the offensive coordinator role with his final team, the Philadelphia Soul of the Arena Football League.

In that role he guided the Soul to first place statistical rankings in scoring offense (62.0 ppg), touchdowns (132), touchdown passes (102) and red zone efficiency (85-percent) in 2008. That effort led to Philadelphia claiming Arena Bowl XXII as they held off a furious comeback by the San Jose SaberCats for a 59-56 victory.

Prior to his impressive coaching career, Maynor starred at quarterback at Winston-Salem State in 1987 under William "Bill" Hayes, leading the team to a CIAA Championship and earning All-CIAA honors after passing for 1,071 yards.

He would then follow Hayes to North Carolina A&T where he would proceed to become the first Aggie to be named MEAC Offensive Player of the Year, doing so in back-to-back years in 1990 and 1991. Maynor also earned All-MEAC First-Team honors in each of those seasons while leading A&T to the league championship in 1991.

That year he led the club to a 9-2 record while throwing for 1,527 yards, 18 touchdowns and only five interceptions and rushing for 288 yards and eight more scores. It also marked the second straight season that the Aggies posted a nine-win season.

Over the course of his three seasons he accounted for 58 touchdowns with 39 coming through the air and 19 on the ground, a number that currently ranks third in the program's history. Additionally, his 141.82 career passing efficiency rating is the best in Aggie history, as is his .561 completion percentage.

As a result of his stellar collegiate and professional playing and coaching careers, Maynor has been inducted into both the MEAC and NC A&T Halls of Fame. The Aggies honored him in 2014 while the MEAC inducted him into their ranks in 2020.

Additionally, he has appeared on the silver screen, serving as Jamie Foxx's stand-in the movie Any Given Sunday (1999) and did stunt work in the blockbuster Remember The Titans (2000).

Maynor holds a Bachelor of Arts in Recreation Administration earned from North Carolina A&T in 1995.

ALABAMA A&M IN THE NFL

Alabama A&M University's football history is not short on talent as some of the sport's brightest stars have donned the Maroon and White.

Since the program's beginning in 1912, a total of 12 Bulldogs have been drafted by NFL franchises with 18 players combining for 85 seasons at the highest level.

Among those individuals who began their careers at A&M, none are more accomplished than Pro Football Hall of Famer John Stallworth who won four Super Bowls with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He is joined by Howard "House" Ballard and Robert Mathis, both of whom were Pro Bowl selections during their pro careers, with the latter winning a Super Bowl in 2006.

Most recently defensive tackle Anthony Lanier played four years in the NFL with the Washington (2016-18) franchise and Los Angeles Chargers (2018-20) and is currently a member of the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Stallworth (14), Mathis (13) and Ballard (11) are joined by fellow Super Bowl winner Mike Hegman (12) as the only Bulldogs to play at least a decade in the NFL.

The other A&M players that have reached the NFL are Johnny Baldwin (2007), Ricky Blake (1991), Ronnie Coleman (1974-81), Ernest French (1982), Thomas Hopkins (1983), Frank Kears (2011-15), Bill Kindricks (1968), Wayne Mosley (1974), Joe Patton (1994-98), Oliver Ross (1973-76), Franky Smith (1980), Barry Wagner (1992) and Mike Williams (1982-84).

Patton is the highest draft pick in program history, going in the third in 1994 (97th) with Stallworth in the fourth in 1974 (82nd).
