Opening Tip

- Today is the first meeting between the two programs.
- It is also the first time the Chants has played a game at Alabama A&M.
- In the second game of the AAMU Bash, the Chants will face the host team Alabama A&M for the first time.
- IU Indy was previously known as Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) until July 1 of this year.
- The realignment began in 2022 when Indiana University and Purdue University issued a joint memorandum of understanding to separate into two institutions.
- While the game with IU Indy in the opening game of the Bash is considered a neutral site, the two games will be the third and fourth game of the early season the Chants have played away from the HTC Center.
- In fact, eight of CCU's first 12 games are on the road to start the season.

WHAT IS A CHANTICLEER?

Chanticleer (SHAWN-tuh-clear) gives Coastal Carolina one of the most unique nicknames in all of sports. Chanticleer comes from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales and came to Coastal Carolina when the University was a member of the University of South Carolina system. A Chanticleer is a rooster who rules the barnyard with cunning and wit. His competitiveness never wanes as he battles to the end, using his brains to come out on top every time.

2024-25 COASTAL CAROLINA MEN'S BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH JUSTIN GRAY

Wake Forest, 2006
1st Season At Coastal Carolina •
4th Season Overall •

Justin Gray was named the men's basketball head coach at Coastal Carolina on March 14, 2024, becoming the seventh head coach in the history of the Chanticleers' program.

Gray joins the Chanticleers following a three-year run as the head coach at Western Carolina, where he led the Catamounts to the Southern Conference Tournament semifinals and the College Basketball Invitational in 2023.

"We are excited to welcome Justin Gray as our head men's basketball coach," said Matt Hogue. "He is a talented basketball mind who has won at every level of the sport. He has strong connections to the region and is considered one of the finest young coaches in the sport. Justin has a clear vision for Chanticleer basketball and we are thrilled to welcome him and his family to Conway!"

"Coach Justin Gray's record speaks for itself: he graduates players, he wins games and does things the right way, and he's been involved in every community where he's coached," said CCU President Michael T. Benson. "We are very excited to welcome him and his family to Coastal Carolina University and look forward to the next chapter of CCU basketball."

Gray rebuilt the Catamount program, winning 51 games and guiding Western Carolina to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in 13 years. WCU won 40 games over Gray's final two seasons in Cullowhee, going 21-15 (.583) in SoCon play. The Catamounts finished fourth in the conference in consecutive seasons, the first time Western Carolina had finished in the top-four of the SoCon in back-to-back years since 2010-11.

The 2022-23 Catamounts earned the school's fourth postseason berth all-time – and the first since 2016 – as the squad played in the 2023 College Basketball Invitational

Gray came to Western Carolina after two seasons on Pat Kelsey's staff at Winthrop. With Gray on the staff, the Eagles won two Big South Tournament championships, posting a combined record of 47-12 and earning a No. 12 seed in the 2021 NCAA Tournament.

With Gray helping coordinate the offense, Winthrop led the Big South with a 78.9 point per game average with a league-best 15.0 assists per game and 8.4 made 3-pointers per contest. Gray helped develop DJ Burns, who earned Big South Freshman of the Year honors in 2019-20 and was named Big South Player of the Year in 2020-21.

Before joining the staff at Winthrop, Gray worked as the Director of Basketball Development at Wake Forest.

A three-time All-ACC selection in his playing career at Wake Forest (2002-06), Gray left Winston-Salem as one of the program's most prolific three-point shooters. He scored 1,946 career points over 120 career games for the Demon Deacons, finishing his career ranked eighth in program history in scoring while average 16.2 points per game.

In his sophomore season, Gray and eventual first-round NBA draft pick Chris Paul teamed up to become one of the best backcourts in the ACC as Gray averaged 17.0 points per game on his way to All-ACC First Team honors. In 2002-03, Gray played a role in helping the Demon Deacons to an ACC Regular Season Championship with a 13-3 league mark.

His collegiate career plaudits also include being named to the ACC All-Freshman team, as well as a three-time USBWA All-District Team and two-time NABC All-District Team selection.

During his 12-year professional career overseas, Gray played for various teams from Belgium, the Czech Republic, Poland, Greece, Ukraine, China, Germany, France, Turkey, Lebanon, Bulgaria, Romania, and Belarus. He also had a couple of stints in the NBA Summer League. Gray won three Belarusian League Championships and three Belarusian Cup Championships. He also guided teams to a Czech Republic League and Cup championship as well as participating in the VTB United League All-Star Game in 2016.

Gray competed in the highest level of European competitions: Euroleague, EuroCup, and FIBA Europe Cup.

Originally from Charlotte, N.C., Gray played at West Charlotte High before concluding his prep career at Oak Hill Academy in Virginia. He and his wife, Kate, have two sons – Justin, Jr. (JJ) and Kristian, and a daughter, Jhai.
