Head Coach | First Season
Jackson State, 2005

@DivaCoachAAMU
@divacoachaamu

Dawn Thornton became the sixth head coach in Alabama A&M University women's basketball program history on April 5, 2024.

Thornton comes to Alabama A&M after spending the past five seasons as the head coach at Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) institution Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

Thornton, who has experience at the NCAA Division I and Division II level as a head women's basketball coach, has compiled a 102-159 overall record in nine seasons at Prairie View A&M, Shorter and Arkansas-Pine Bluff. In addition, she led the Golden Lions to a signature victory over Arkansas this past season, a first in program history.

Last season, Thornton guided Arkansas-Pine Bluff to a fourth-place finish in the SWAC, with a 17-16 overall record and 12-7 mark in conference play. The program notched a 74-70 win at Arkansas on Dec. 10, 2023, and had notably victories over SMU (78-76) and McNeese State (103-87). Also, she collected her 100th career win in a 78-57 victory over Mississippi Valley State on March 2.

In addition to the highlighted wins, Thornton's players racked up numerous accolades throughout the season.

Zaay Green received SWAC Player of the Week honors five times, Coriah Beck earned the honors once, while Kaila Walker, Demetria Shephard, and Maya Peat were selected SWAC Impact Players of the Week. Green earned All-SWAC First-Team honors, while Beck and Peat were selected to the second team.

Thornton hit the ground running during 2022-23 season, leading the Golden Lions to a successful recruiting class, with several key newcomers (former five and three stars) that will picked up from last season.

In 2021-22, Thornton improved throughout the season, winning the Southern Mississippi Tournament, and knocking off Tulane all in the same year. Under her guidance, UAPB recorded its highest overall wins in over 10 years.

In addition, Thornton oversaw the development of the standout Zaay Green, who was named SWAC Newcomer of the Year and mentioned as one of the top players on several WNBA Scout lists.

During the 2019-20 season, Thornton, who is commonly known as "Diva Coach", inherited a program consisting of four freshmen and four transfers; yet, led the team to outperform the preseason poll that picked UAPB to finish last in the SWAC. Under Thornton's leadership, the Golden Lions tripled their SWAC win total from the previous season and qualified for the conference tournament for the first time since the 2017-18 season.

Thornton mentored freshman center, Nissa Sam-Grant, who in her first season donning a UAPB jersey, emerged as one of the most electrifying newcomers in the SWAC. Sam-Grant finished the season fourth in the conference with 1.5 blocks per game.

Thornton was named the Arkansas-Pine Bluff head coach in May of 2019 after spending the previous season as assistant coach at Atlantic Sun Conference perennial power Jacksonville University.

After a late start in August of 2017, Thornton served as head coach at NCAA Division II Shorter University where, in one season, she led the surge from last in all major statistical categories to the middle of the conference and developed the Northwest Georgia Player of the Year.

From 2014 to 2016, Thornton served as the head coach at Prairie View A&M, capturing the program's fourth consecutive SWAC Women's Basketball Tournament title and NCAA Division I Women's Tournament berth in 2014 while being honored as the HBCU Digest Female Coach of the Year.

On Thornton's watch, Prairie View A&M posted wins over Memphis, Houston, Louisiana Tech, Sam Houston State, Nicholls State and Lamar University, and compiled a 12-2 record in SWAC Tournament play. Thornton served as associate head coach at Prairie View A&M from 2012 to 2014, where the team won three consecutive SWAC Women's Basketball Tournament titles and three NCAA Tournament berths.

Thornton helped coach two SWAC Players of the Year - Latia Williams (2013) and Jeanette Jackson (2015). Jackson, who was recruited by Thornton, was also named SWAC Women's Basketball Tournament Championship MVP in 2014 and led the conference in scoring (18.8). Jackson went on to play professionally with several teams in Europe.

Thornton also recruited and coached Mississippi JUCO star Kiara Etienne, who earned SWAC Women's Basketball Tournament Championship MVP honors in 2013, Shamiya Brooks, who led the SWAC with 11 double-doubles and 4.0 offensive rebounds per game in 2014-15, and Larissa Scott, who ranked fourth in the NCAA in offensive rebounding (5.0) in 2015-16.

Prior to her time as associate head coach, Thornton solidified her reputation as one of the best recruiters in the conference. She recruited and developed seven First Team All-Conference players, two Conference Players of the Year, two Conference Freshmen of the Year, and one Defensive Player of the Year from 2010 to 2014 at Prairie View A&M.

Thornton began her coaching career as an assistant coach at Tougaloo College from 2007 to 2010 where she was integral to the Lady Bulldogs' best record in 12 years and Gulf Coast Athletic Conference Tournament semifinal appearance during the 2009-2010 season.

Thornton received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from Jackson State University in 2005, where she helped lead the Lady Tigers basketball team to a SWAC Regular Season Co-Championship during her junior and senior years. She played her first two seasons at Atlanta Metropolitan College where she led the team to consecutive.

Thornton, who is a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Inc, is married to Alabama A&M defensive ends coach Cedric Thornton, who joined the Bulldog football staff in February. The couple have one son (Camden).

▼ SOUTHWESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

FORMED: 1920

Charter members: Bishop College, Paul Quinn, Prairie View A&M, Texas College and Wiley College

Commissioner: Dr. Charles McClelland

Located: Birmingham, Alabama

HISTORY AT A GLANCE

In 1920, athletic officials from six Texas HBCUs — C.H. Fuller of Bishop College, Red Randolph and C.H. Patterson of Paul Quinn College, E.G. Evans, H.J. Evans and H.J. Starns of Prairie View A&M, D.C. Fuller of Texas College and G. Whitte Jordan of Wiley College — met in Houston, Texas, to discuss common interests. At this meeting, they agreed to form a new league, the SWAC.

Paul Quinn became the first of the original members to withdraw from the league when it did so in 1929. When Langston University of Oklahoma was admitted into the conference two years later, it began the migration of state-supported institutions into the SWAC. Southern University entered the ranks in 1934, followed by Arkansas AM&N (now the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff) in 1936 and Texas Southern University in 1954.

Rapid growth in enrollment of the state-supported schools made it difficult for the church-supported schools to finance their athletics programs and one by one they fell victim to the growing prowess of the state-supported colleges. Bishop withdrew from the conference in 1956, Langston in 1957 and Huston-Tillotson (formerly Samuel Huston) in 1959, one year after the admittance of two more state-supported schools: Grambling College and Jackson State College.

The enter-exit cycle continued in 1961 when Texas College withdrew, followed by the admittance of Alcorn A&M (now Alcorn State University) in 1962. Wiley left in 1968, the same year Mississippi Valley State College entered. Arkansas AM&N exited in 1970 and Alabama State University entered in 1982.

Arkansas–Pine Bluff (formerly Arkansas AM&N) rejoined the SWAC on July 1, 1997, regaining full-member status one year later. Alabama A&M University became the conference's tenth member when it became a full member in September, 1999 after a one year period as an affiliate SWAC member. Most of the former SWAC members that have left the conference are currently a part of the Red River Athletic Conference of the NAIA.

Current championship competition offered by the SWAC includes competition for men in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field and tennis. Women's competition is offered in the sports of basketball, bowling, cross country, golf, indoor track, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, tennis and volleyball.

THE MISSION AND PURPOSE OF THE SWAC

The Southwestern Athletic Conference, Inc. (the "SWAC", the "Conference") is organized exclusively for the purpose of encouraging, promoting, advancing, and conducting intercollegiate sports activities and other recreational and not-for-profit activities among the members of the Conference. Its purposes are:

- To uphold the principles of institutional control of, and responsibility for all collegiate sports conducted by the members of this organization in conformity with the Constitution and Bylaws hereof;
- To stimulate and improve intercollegiate athletic sports;
- To comply with satisfactory standards of scholarship and amateur standing and good sportsmanship;
- To preserve and maintain the collegiate athletic records of the members of the Southwestern Athletic Conference, and make them available upon request;
- To cooperate with other amateur athletic organizations in the promotion and conduct of intercollegiate athletic contests;
- To maintain fiscal management; and
- To legislate through Bylaws or Resolutions on subjects of general concern to the membership.

The members of the conference are committed to the philosophy of maintaining intercollegiate athletics as an integral part of the overall educational program. To this end, the conference believes in and subscribes to the fundamental principles of amateurism, institutional control, sound academic standards, financial aid, recruiting, and ethical conduct that governs intercollegiate athletics, and the enforcement of rules and regulations as adopted by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.
