PLAYING WELL AT THE RIGHT TIME – ACU is on a roll right now, winning each of its last three games of the regular season heading into the tournament. The Wildcats got the signature win it was looking for against the team with the best record in the WAC, Southern Utah, 89-83 in overtime. ACU then went to Sam Houston and topped the Bearkats, 74-68, before winning a very low-scoring, 49-43 game over Seattle U to close the regular year on Thursday. The three-game winning streak is the WAC is just the second-such streak for ACU since joining the conference in 2021.

CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT HISTORY – ACU enters its second WAC Tournament, and will look for its first win in Las Vegas. ACU went 5-2 in seven games at the Merrell Center in Katy, Texas as members of the Southland Conference in the postseason. The 'Cats fell to UTRGV in the second round last season at the Orleans Arena after getting a first-round bye, and will now line up against Sam Houston for the first time in postseason play ever on Monday.

NEW RECORD ALERT – Langstaff's 34 points against South-ern Utah were the most by a Wildcat individual in the Division I history of the program, surpassing Dominique Golightly's 33 points in March 2020 against Stephen F. Austin. The grad transfer went 14-21 from the floor and hit three from down-town to go along with eight rebounds. Mal played 42 minutes Thursday night, and her 14 field goals made also set a new D1 program record. The performance earned Mal WAC Player of the Week honors.

BEST FOR LAST – Fifth-year senior Madi Miller is playing the best basketball of her career. The Wylie, Texas native eclipsed the 1,000-point plateau with a 20-point game against Utah Valley on Jan. 14, and the veteran now has scored 1,130 points to go with 194 three-pointers made, 487 rebounds, 354 assists, and 150 steals. She has played in more games than anyone in ACU's entire history (146) as well.

MAL-PRACTICE – Fifth-year transfer Maleeah Langstaff has scored in double figures in 10 of the last 12 games, averaging 17.4 points per game during that stretch. Langstaff has 20 games this year with at least five rebounds, has 21 dou-ble-digit scoring game on the season and 58 in her career. She currently has 15 career double-doubles as well.

BIG COUNTRY – Redshirt freshman Addison Martin, nick-named "Big Country," has played in now less than 30 minutes in 12 consecutive games, and is averaging 12.3 points per game on 54% shooting from the floor for the season. Martin has scored in double digits in eight straight and in 11 of her last 12, averaging 15.7 points per game during that time.

CAREER MILESTONE WATCH

1,000-Point Club: Aspen Thornton - 913 points

COACH GOODENOUGH'S MILESTONES – Head coach Julie Goodenough will coach her 837th career game on Tuesday, and has earned 503 career victories, including 214 as the coach at ACU. Goodenough is in her 29th season overall and her 11th with the Wildcats.

HEAD COACH JULIE GOODENOUGH

11TH SEASON (214-113 RECORD) • 29TH CAREER SEASON (503-333 RECORD)

Julie Goodenough enters her 11th year in 2022-23 leading the Abilene Christian women's basketball program, and recently guided the team to its seventh consecutive postseason.

A veteran head coach with 25 years-plus of experience – and conference champion at the NAIA, DI, DII and DIII levels – Goodenough completed a 17-13 campaign in 2021-22 that featured a 9-9 mark in the program's first year in the Western Athletic Conference. ACU qualified for the WAC Tournament in Las Vegas, dropping to UTRGV in the second round, 73-70. Jamie Bonnarens was named the WAC Newcomer of the Year and to the all-league's first team as well.

The 2020-21 campaign featured game cancelations, COVID-19 testing, a once-in-a-generation snowstorm, and three games in a week during the year. The team still finished over .500 and qualified for the post-season, going to the Women's Basketball Invitational in Frankfort, Ky. ACU went 1-1 at the Southland Conference Tournament, defeating UIW before falling to Nicholls in Katy, Texas.

Goodenough put together a 24-5 season in 2019-20 that featured a 16-4 record in Southland Conference play, tying for second place in the league standings. The 24 wins was just the fifth time in program history the team won that many in the regular season, and the second time under Goodenough. ACU was unable to play a single post-season game due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but still qualified for the Southland Conference Tournament for the third consecutive year.

The 2018-19 season was one for the ages, culminating in the school's first-ever Southland Conference Tournament Championship and a trip to the NCAA Division I Tournament to take on the eventual 2019 National Champion Baylor Bears in Waco, Texas.

That season was filled with celebrations. The Wildcats finished fourth in the regular-season standings, earning a first-round bye at the tournament, and cruised to an 82-54 victory over the eighth-seeded Central Arkansas Sugar Bears in the quarterfinal round, knocking down a Southland Tournament record 16 three-pointers, and attempting another tournament record 35 three's in the process. ACU then turned its attention to top-seeded Lamar, who finished 17-1 in the league during the year. But Goodenough's team had other ideas. Simply put, it was one of the gutsiest performances and best wins by any team in any sport in ACU Athletics history. The Wildcats scored 36 fourth-quarter points en route to an 88-79 upset of the Cardinals, placing them in their first-ever tournament title game.

The team did not disappoint a day later, building a lead by as many as 24 over the sixth-seeded Islanders of Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. ACU held on, literally, in the end, withholding a late barrage to win 69-68, claiming the team's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division I Tournament. ACU would fall to #1 Baylor in Waco, but would finish a historic 23-10 in one of the best seasons one could ever have.

Her 2015-16 and 2016-17 teams each qualified for the WNIT, while the 2017-18 squad made its Southland Conference Tournament debut and posted an 88-66 first-round win over New Orleans.

Goodenough's Wildcat tenure began with a 2012-13 Lone Star Conference regular-season championship and accompanying Coach of the Year Award. Since bringing her team into the Southland Conference, they've rattled off five consecutive winning seasons including last year's 16-14 mark that featured wins over Idaho and Old Dominion.

Goodenough's 214 victories entering the 2022-23 season ranks second in ACU history, behind Burl McCoy's 299 wins from 1976-1992.

She won her 300th game as a collegiate head coach on Jan. 15, 2013, and claimed win No. 400 in Las Vegas on Dec. 22, 2017 vs. the Lady Monarchs. Overall, Goodenough's record through 26 seasons stands at 457-293, a remarkable .609 winning percentage.

ACU's Jan. 2, 2019 game at New Orleans served as the 700th in Goodenough's head coaching career.

Leaving The Lone Star

A native of Haskell, Texas, Goodenough became the program's sixth head coach on March 27, 2012 and immediately transformed a program hindered by consecutive losing seasons into Lone Star Conference champions.

With many of the same players coming back from a meager 12-14 campaign, Goodenough maximized her roster's talents and the Wildcats went on to share the regular-season title with Midwestern State at 16-4. ACU was picked to finish seventh, but rejected the naysayers with an overall mark of 21-7, which was the program's first 20-win season since 2004-05. The Wildcats also accepted their 12th bid to the NCAA DII South Central Region Tournament, which was their first appearance since 2008-09.

The turnaround earned Goodenough co-Coach of the Year honors from the Lone Star Conference, making her the sixth Wildcat coach – Burl McCoy (1982-83, 1984-85 and 1985-86), Suzanne Fox (1995-96), Wayne Williams (1997-98), and Shawna Lavender (2007-08) – to earn this title.

Three players made all-conference and point guard Whitney (West) Swinford was voted the league's Freshman of the Year. Three-seasons later she became the first Wildcat student-athlete across all sports to win both a Lone Star and Southland Conference team championship.

The Wildcats ranked 12th nationally in scoring offense (74.8 ppg) during their final DI season, and averaged the seventh-most 3-point field goals per game with 8.4. ACU also possessed one of the best defenses as evidenced by its 16th-ranked scoring margin (12.7) and 23rd-ranked field goal percentage defense (.353). Opponents struggled year-round from beyond the arc, as the Wildcats boasted the third best 3-point field goal defense (.249).

Even as the program moved through its DI transition, ACU's style of play remained the same with a focus on rebounding and 3-point shooting.

Transition Game

ACU went 84-37 (.694) in its four seasons as a transitional NCAA DI, winning two Southland Conference Championships and qualifying for two WNITs. Fifty of those 84 wins were against the league, and included in the remaining 34 victories were triumphs against Oklahoma State, Texas Tech, UT Arlington and UTSA, plus tournament wins in Kansas City and Colorado Springs. The Wildcats also won two of three Preseason WNIT games.

Not bad for a program not promised a postseason. Team first wins, indeed.

During ACU's introductory DI season of 2013-14, the Wildcats regularly eclipsed their own single-game three-point records. Overall, they connected on 291 of 873 long-range attempts (.333) and on Feb. 18, 2014 the Wildcats hit a record 18 treys on 50 attempts.

The Wildcats went on to win eight conference games to place seventh out of 14 teams, and both Suzzy Dimba and Marquez made the league's list of honorable mentions. Dimba also was the only league freshman voted onto the all-defensive team.

Marquez flourished with Goodenough as her coach for two seasons, and as a senior she ranked among the Southland's top-20 leaders in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals. Marquez made Second Team All-Lone Star Conference during Goodenough's first year at ACU and finished her decorated career with 1,285 career points, 598 rebounds and 298 assists.

An 8-4 finish to the 2014-15 Southland season – following a 1-5 start – was a harbinger of things to come. The Class of '17 represented 4/5ths of the starting lineup with senior West Swinford there to guide her junior teammates into a transformative 2015-16 season.

Those Wildcats won 26 of 30 games and held off Central Arkansas by one game to win the Southland Championship at 17-1 – a school record for conference wins. They then earned the program's first-ever DI postseason berth into the WNIT where it lost 66-62 at UTEP in the first round.

After leading ACU to its fourth-consecutive winning season in as many years, Goodenough was named 2016 Southland Conference Coach of the Year and helped junior guard Alexis Mason win the school's first conference Player of the Year trophy since 2001.

Goodenough later received Coach of the Year honors from The Rotary Club of Abilene and the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches.

Mason averaged a league best 17.5 points per game through her 30 starts and shot an impressive 42.8 percent from the floor while knocking down 35.7 percent of her 3-pointers (89-249). Additional accolades went to Suzzy Dimba, who received Second Team All-Conference honors as well as her third consecutive All-Defensive Team citation, while junior Sydney Shelstead made Third Team All-Conference for the second straight season.

ACU's 2015-16 starters all averaged 10.0 or more points per game with three players ranked among the top-10 conference leaders in rebounding: Lizzy Dimba (7.8), Sydney Shelstead (7.4) and Suzzy Dimba (7.7). Mason led the team in scoring followed by Shelstead (14.1), Suzzy Dimba (11.8), Whitney West Swinford (11.0), and Lizzy Dimba (10.1).

Each Wildcat starter also averaged 10.0 points per game or better in 2014-15, while four starters with the exception of Lizzy Dimba (9.8 ppg) in 2013-14 averaged 11.0 or more points per game. This trend continued into 2016-17 with Mason again leading the Wildcats with a 16.3 scoring average. Suzzy and Lizzy averaged 13.1 and 12.1 points per game, and Shelstead contributed 11.6.

The 2016-17 Wildcats posted a 23-9 record and tied Central Arkansas for the league's best mark at 16-2. ACU also finished 108th (out of 349) in the NCAA RPI and received four points in the final CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Poll.

The Wildcats's Fab Four of Mason, Shelstead and the Dimba twins additionally pushed the team toward the top of the Southland and national rankings in rebounding and 3-point shooting as the Wildcats placed 12th nationally with 8.6 treys made per game and 47th in rebounding offense. ACU also posted the NCAA's 13th best rebounding margin (+8.3) and ranked 49th with 15.4 assists per game.

The Dimbas and Mason all were honored with all-conference citations to conclude their collegiate careers. Suzzy received her fourth-straight nod to the Southland's all-defensive team after ranking among the league's top-15 leaders in seven categories and tying for first with 1.5 blocks per game. Mason, meanwhile, finished third nationally with 3.4 3-point field goals made per game (93 in 27 games) despite missing five games due to injury.

At season's end, the seniors were honored once more with the school's Horizon Award and Suzzy Dimba was voted MVP by the ACU athletic staff. Goodenough too was honored for her contributions to the sport and community with the Kay Yow Heart of a Coach Award.

Post-Season Eligible... Finally

The 2017-18 campaign featured the Southland Conference Tournament

debut, with the team posting an 88-66 first-round win over New Orleans. Breanna Wright was named to the All-Southland Conference Third Team after averaging 13.6 points and 3.7 rebounds during the regular season.

During the historic 2018-19 season, senior Sara Williamson and juniors Wright and Dominique Golightly were named all-conference. Golightly and Wright were tabbed second team with Williamson named to the third team. Williamson finished her career as the winningest Wildcat, with 88 victories and 125 games played, both the most in the D1 era of the program. She appeared in every game and was a three-time league champion as well.

After the 2019-20 season, senior Breanna Wright was named the Southland Conference Player of the Year, and joined senior Dominique Golightly on the all-conference first team. Wright also earned Southland Student Athlete of the Year, and Golightly joined her on the all-academic first team. Anna McLeod was all-academic second team, while Wright and Golightly were named to the Dave Campbell's Texas Basketball All-Texas teams as well.

Anna McLeod and Alyssa Adams were named to the second team all-Southland Conference after the 2020-21 campaign, and the same duo earned academic all-league honors as well, with McLeod on the first team and Adams on the second team. McLeod was also named first team academic all-district in June 2021.

After the 2021-22 season, nine players were named to the all-WAC academic teams.

Big Country Legend

The 2018-19 season just ensured what we already knew, Goodenough is a hall-of-fame caliber coach. The Big Country recognized it as well, inducting her into its Hall of Fame in May 2019. The honor recognizes what Goodenough has done not only at ACU, but at Hardin-Simmons as well, including a 26-2 record and an NCAA DIII Sweet 16 in 2001-02. Her highest win total of 27 came during the 1999-00 campaign after leading the Cowgirls to the Elite 8. The 2015-16 was Goodenough's highest win total at ACU (26-4), including a WNIT appearance.

Goodenough was a 2007 inductee into the HSU Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of her nine-year 188-54 record, leaving as the winningest coach in school history. Her last four teams advanced to at least the NCAA Division III Sweet 16 and also coached her team to the NAIA national tournament in her first two seasons.

She captured seven Trans-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association or American Southwest Conference titles. She also recruited quality student-athletes as her last seven teams were named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association Honor Roll as one of the top 25 teams in grade point average in the nation.

She coached three All-America selections and 34 all-conference selections and 46 academic all-conference selections. Her teams won the first four ASC Conference Tournaments in league history. She also served as an assistant athletic director and senior women's administrator at HSU.

Goodenough was the head coach at Hardin-Simmons University from 1993-2002 before going to Oklahoma State for three seasons. She was then the head coach at NCAA Division I Charleston Southern from 2006-12.

Goodenough is 488-318 in 29 years of collegiate coaching with 188 of those wins coming in her nine seasons at Hardin-Simmons University. She was 23-61 in a short, three-year stint at Oklahoma State and 78-105 in six seasons at Charleston Southern. During her final three seasons as the Buccaneers' head coach, she went 48-45 and took the team to play at Minnesota in the Women's Basketball Invitation (WBI).

At Oklahoma State, Goodenough recruited and coached Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Nina Stone and posted the 19th best recruiting class in the country in her first full season. Five of the top 10 largest home crowds in school history occurred during Goodenough's tenure, including the largest crowd to ever watch a home women's basketball contest.

A 1991 graduate of Texas-Arlington, Goodenough and her husband, Rob, have two daughters, Bailey and Macy.
