STREAKS, STORYLINES, SIDEBARS

• Following its bye week, Akron (1-10, 0-7 MAC) travels to Mid-American Conference West Division opponent Toledo (8-3, 5-2) to end its 112th season on Tuesday at 7 p.m. ET. The game will be televised nationally via ESPN2.

• Akron and Toledo are meeting for the first time since 2008, when the Zips claimed a 47-30 decision at UA's Rubber Bowl. UT has won six of the last seven meetings in a series that dates to 1923.

• Zips RB Jawon Chisholm had 103 yards rushing and WR Marquelo Suel had 105 yards receiving as UA's second-half comeback fell short in a 22-14 loss to visiting Massachusetts on Nov. 10. Akron QB Dalton Williams completed 34-of-51 passes for 332 yards, but also threw four interceptions. UA led in total offense, 427-327.

• The UA offense is ranked 14th nationally in passing (317.1 ypg, 1st MAC) and 40th in total offense (435.8 ypg, 6th MAC).

• Akron's 4,794 yards of total offense ranks sixth in the MAC and 38th nationally (435.8 ypg).

• The Zips have one of the more efficient red zone offenses in the MAC, having scored on 82.5 percent (33-of-40) of its trips into that territory this season (sixth best in the league). The squad's 27 red zone TDs is fifth most in the MAC. UA has converted on 11 of its last 13 red zone drives (2-for-2 versus UMass on Nov. 10).

• 2012 marks the return of head coach Terry Bowden to the Football Bowl Subdivision sideline. He coached at Division-II North Alabama the last three seasons (20-6 record) and was head coach at Auburn from 1993-98 (47-17-1).

• Bowden is one of 59 coaches at FBS schools voting in this season's USA Today top-25 poll.

• UA looks for its first road win since a 42-35 victory at Eastern Michigan on Oct. 18, 2008 (stretch of 25-straight away game losses).

• The Zips' last victory over a MAC foe came against Buffalo, 22-14, on Nov. 28, 2010 (stretch of 15-straight conference game losses).

• Akron snapped a 10-game program losing streak and racked up a school-record 753 yards of total offense with a 66-6 victory over visiting FCS foe Morgan State on Sept. 15. The Zips scored a school-record nine TDs in that outing.

NEWS, NOTES, TRENDS

• QB Dalton Williams leads the MAC in passing yards (3,335), passing yards per game (303.2) and touchdown passes (25). His 25 TDs is a school single-season record (surpassed Luke Getsy's 23 in 2005).

• Williams has thrown for over 300 yards in three-straight games (332 versus UMass on Nov. 10).

• Akron's 28 passing touchdowns this season is the program's single-season record, surpassing the mark of 24 established in 2005.

• RB Jawon Chisholm has posted at least 100 yards of rushing in six games this season. He had 23 carries for 103 yards versus UMass on Nov. 10, after posting 115 yards off 16 carries at Kent State the previous week.

• Chisholm has 906 total rushing yards this season (163 attempts), and is looking to become Akron's first 1,000 rusher since 2008 (Dennis Kennedy; 1,321).

• 18 UA players have caught at least one pass this season (10 did so versus UMass on Nov. 10), with 10 of those grabbing 10 or more.

• Biletnikoff Award Watch List member WR Marquelo Suel leads the team with 73 catches (790 yards). He had a career-high 12 receptions at Tennessee (Sept. 22), and has combined for 21 over the last two games (10 for 105 yards versus UMass on Nov. 10).

• The Zips have outgained their opponent in three-straight games and five times this season.

• Thus far this season the UA offensive line has given up 20 sacks (1.8 spg) compared to 35 (3.1 spg) through the first 11 games in 2011 (allowed 38 total last season).

• The UA coaching staff has used 24 first year players (13 true freshmen, 11 redshirt freshmen). That ranks as the fifth most nationally, behind TCU (27), Kentucky (26), UCLA (25) and USC (25). The 13 true freshmen number is tied for third most nationally (Colorado, Georgia).

• UA's 44 completions against Morgan State (Sept. 15) is tied as the eighth most nationally this season (Marshall versus Ohio, Sept. 15; Louisiana Tech versus Texas A&M, Oct. 13). The Zips' 565 passing yards in that game rank as the fifth-most by any team this year.

WHAT IS A ZIP?

One of the unique nicknames in collegiate athletics belongs to The University of Akron.

Originally Zippers, athletic director Kenneth "Red" Cochrane officially shortened the nickname to the Zips in 1950. Twenty-five years earlier a campus-wide contest had been conducted to choose a nickname for The University's athletics teams.

Suggestions submitted by students, faculty, and alumni included Golden Blue Devils, Tip Toppers, Rubbernecks, Hillbillies, Kangaroos and Cheveliers.

The winner, freshman Margaret Hamlin, received a prize of $10 for Zippers, a $6 pair of rubber overshoes and a brand name of the BF Goodrich Company.

The evolution of Zippy, UA's mascot, began 40 years ago when the student council decided the University needed a mascot.

"Zippy" the kangaroo was officially declared the school's mascot on May 1, 1953.

The first known printed reference to the mascot as "Zippy" was a 1965 Zip football press brochure. The Buchtelite's first use of the name "Zippy" came Sept. 24, 1965, in an identification of a photo of the cheerleaders listing "Mascot - 'Zippy' - Charles Huettnner."

In 2007, Zippy was named the Capital One National Mascot of the Year.

AKRON FOOTBALL

TERRY BOWDEN

HEAD COACH

FIRST SEASON AT AKRON

19TH SEASON OVERALL

WEST VIRGINIA, 1978

Terry Bowden, who owns a 141-72-2 record in his 19th season as a collegiate head coach, was named The University of Akron's 27th football coach on Dec. 22, 2011.

Bowden, who served as a studio analyst and color commentator with ABC Sports' college football for 10 years, was the head coach at Auburn from 1993-98 and spent the previous three seasons at Division II North Alabama.

Bowden, 56 (born Feb. 25, 1956), was an assistant coach at Akron in 1986 under then Zips' head coach Gerry Faust.

In his time at North Alabama, Bowden led the Lions to a 29-9 record and three-consecutive playoff appearances. In 2011, the squad went 9-3 and advanced to the second round of the playoffs. He was named Gulf South Conference Co-Coach of the Year in 2009 when the team went 11-2 and won the GSC championship and advanced to the quarterfinals of the playoffs. He followed that in 2010 by guiding the Lions to a 9-4 record and another trip to the playoffs.

As head coach of Auburn, he went 47-17-1 (73.4 winning percentage) and posted the best opening, five-year run of any head football coach in school history. Also during his time with the Tigers, Bowden became the first collegiate coach in 50 years to win his 100th career game by his 40th birthday.

In his first season at AU, he became the first coach in Division I-A (now FBS) history to have an undefeated and untied season in his inaugural year at that level.

Prior to his stint at Auburn, Bowden built two programs from the ground up as head coach at Salem College (W.Va.) and Samford University (Ala.). When he took the job at Salem in 1983 he became the nation's youngest head coach in college football at age 26.

Bowden was named head coach at Auburn on Dec. 17, 1992. In 1993, Auburn had a perfect 11-0 record and he swept virtually every national coach of the year award in his rookie season, including Walter Camp, Scripps Howard, Football News, Toyota and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award presented by the Football Writers Association.

Bowden is a member of one of the most famous and successful college football coaching families. His father, Bobby Bowden, turned Florida State into a national champion and his 389 collegiate wins ranks first in Division I history.

His brother Tommy had an 18-4 record in two seasons as head coach at Tulane and a 72-45 record in 10 seasons as head coach at Clemson, taking the Tigers to eight bowl games. His brother Jeff also has 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, working at Salem, Samford, Southern Mississippi, Florida State and most recently at North Alabama, with Terry.

During the decade of the 1990s, Terry, Tommy and Bobby all led their teams to undefeated seasons.

As a student-athlete at West Virginia, Bowden lettered two years as a running back (1977-78), held a 3.65 grade-point average in accounting, the highest GPA on the football team, and graduated Magna Cum Laude.

He did post graduate work at Oxford University in England, and earned a Juris Doctorate from the Florida State School of Law in 1982, while a graduate assistant coach with the Seminoles.

Bowden has five daughters (Tera, Jordan, Erin, Cori and Jamie) and one son (Terry, Jr.).

(rv/rv) Central Florida (1-0)	7	28	14	7	56
Akron (0-1)	0	0	7	7	14

AKRON, Ohio – Central Florida built a 35-0 halftime lead and defeated Akron 56-14 in the season opener and first game for new Zips head coach Terry Bowden at InfoCision Stadium – Summa Field.

Dalton Williams, also in his first game as a Zip, led the way offensively for Akron, completing 30-of-50 passes for 245 yards and two touchdowns with one interception. L.T. Smith caught six passes for 87 yards and one touchdown for UA, including the first touchdown of the season and of Bowden's tenure with the program.

The score came on a 10-play, 80-yard drive to begin the second half. A 37-yard pass from Williams to Smith set the Zips up at the UCF 13 and on the next play, Williams found Smith again for a 13-yard touchdown strike as Smith reached around UCF defensive back Jordan Ozerities to complete an acrobatic catch in the right corner of the end zone and make the score 35-7.

AKRON, Ohio – UA head coach Terry Bowden got win No. 1 for the Blue and Gold in record fashion as the Zips set or tied eight team and three individual school records, in addition to one conference mark, in a 66-6 win over Morgan State.

Akron's 66 points and 753 yards of total offense broke a nine-year mark set on Sept. 20, 2003, against Howard (65 points, 692 yards).

Akron also set the program and Mid-American Conference mark for passing yards (565) and posted the third-most offensive yards in league history with 753. Akron's 59 pass attempts tied the UA school mark.

Dalton Williams' 94 completions over the last three games broke Charlie Frye's school record in that category (89). He also set the single-game completions mark, besting Frye's 36 against Kent State on Aug. 28, 2003.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – Tied 23-all at the half, the Zips were out-scored 24-3 after the break to fall 47-26 to Tennessee in their final non-conference game of the season.

The Zips kept the Vols off-balance for most of the game, scoring on defense and holding UT to field goals instead of touchdowns. It wasn't until 9:02 left in the fourth quarter that either team grabbed a lead bigger than seven points.

Dalton Williams finished the contest 27-of-49 for 229 yards and three interceptions. His 121 completions through four games broke Charlie Frye's school mark for completions over a four-game stretch (110), which was set during the 2003 season.

Marquelo Suel hauled in a career-high 12 passes for 92 yards, while Zach D'Orazio finished with six grabs for 72 yards.
