JAMES A. RHODES ARENA

James A. Rhodes Arena provides the Zips with a home-court advantage that rivals any facility in the Mid-American Conference. Also known as Rhodes Arena and the JAR, the facility is home to the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as the women's volleyball squad.

The men's basketball team has posted a .858 winning percentage (91-15) since the 2004-05 season under eighth-year head coach Keith Dambrot and has not posted a losing home record since the 1995-96 season.

All 5,500 seats in the arena are retractable to facilitate the use of the 18,000-square-foot floor for physical education activities, concerts, conventions and other special events.

Armchair seating is available on the lower level (1,323) and on the west-side upper level (773), while the remaining seats are bleacher style.

The main scoreboard, also called Zips Vision, features four Opto Tech 7.5' x 10' LED displays which showcase replays of the action on the floor plus other programming before, during and after the game. Opto Tech is one of the industry leaders in large scale video displays, whose sports clients include Major League Baseball's Arizona Diamondbacks, Ohio State University, the University of Nebraska, and the Georgia Dome, home of the NFL's Atlanta Falcons.

The arena is comprised of two floors. In addition to the court, the first level features locker rooms, a sports medicine and training facility, a ticket office, a fan team shop and meeting rooms.

The ground level is also home to the school's hall of fame, which features photos and information on each inductee. The second floor offers a jogging track and four special multi-purpose labs – suitable for archery, golf, badminton and dancing.

The 2,600-square-foot Tommy Evans Memorial Lounge, used for pre- and post-game receptions and department functions, is housed on the south end of the second floor.

The 125,538-square-foot building also includes an office wing that houses the bulk of The University's athletics department staff.

During the summer of 2011, the JAR saw the addition of team lounges for the men's and women's basketball programs, as well as a 1,850-foot weight room. The team lounges feature state-of-the-art technology, and video systems, designed specifically to meet the needs of the Akron basketball programs. The weight room services both basketball programs, as well as the volleyball and women's tennis squads.

Improved locker rooms were added to the Rhodes Arena complex in the fall of 1992. The new team facilities were funded through private contributions to the Z-Fund. Rhodes Arena has played host to the Cleveland Cavaliers' Wine and Gold intrasquad scrimmage in the past, along with the LeBron James Skills Academy (showcase for the nation's best high school players) and the LeBron James King's Academy (youth camp). The King James Shooting Stars Classic (AAU tournament) also called James A. Rhodes Arena home at one point.

The men's basketball program hosts the Zips Basketball School, the Offensive Skills Camp and Basketball Elite Workout camps, in addition to a Team Shootout. Under the direction of head coach Keith Dambrot and his coaching staff, the camps exhibit Dambrot's emphasis on fundamentals, defense and hard work as the major components of being a great basketball player.

The facility became the new home of The University of Akron's athletics teams on Dec. 3, 1983. Opened prior to the 1983-84 season, the facility gave the Zips basketball and volleyball teams a modern indoor athletics complex.

Rhodes Arena, which seats 5,500 for basketball, was the first phase of a three-part $20.5 million project, which included the $6.5 million Oliver J. Ocasek Natatorium, a $2.5 million renovation of Memorial Hall (demolished in 2010) and completion of the 6,000-square-foot Clifford Skeen Varsity Weight Room, which was located inside Memorial Hall.

Prior to the 2002-03 season, Rhodes Arena received a $1.1 million renovation. The project included the addition of a new playing surface and several fan-based capital improvements.

The first phase of the facelift took place during the summer of 2002 when a new hardwood floor was installed. The cost of the project, which was funded by private donations, was $202,500 and was completed in late August. The new floor replaced a surface that was installed when the facility was built in 1983.

Phase two of the project was one which Zips fans have benefited from most, providing a new state-of-the-art video display and scoreboard system – installed in October 2002.

The Cincinnati Floor Company installed the new floor, which was manufactured by Robbins Sports Surfaces. The company is no stranger to the basketball world, having installed the floor at Indiana University's Assembly Hall and Cleveland's Quicken Loans Arena, home of the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers.

The new surface also saw the addition of the school's new logo and word marks, which were unveiled in July 2002.

In fall 2008, new courtside tables with LED display capabilities were purchased for the venue.

MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM LOCKER ROOM

The men's basketball team locker room is designed with comfort in mind. From the natural lighting from overhead windows to captain's chairs at each player's locker, student-athletes are able to relax before, during halftime and after the game. The men's locker room is attached directly to the sports medicine office and includes all-wood lockers and a lounge area with sofas and a flat-screen television.

MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM LOUNGE

The men's basketball team lounge features state-of-the-art technology, including multi-screen audio/visual equipment for practice and game video analysis, and opponent scouting. The video systems, designed specifically to meet the needs of the Akron basketball program, is synchronized with equipment located in the existing coaching staffs' offices to maximize efficiency in video study and game preparation.

The space in the lounge is flexible in its usability and supports a variety of functions, including team meetings, individual study time, social interaction and recruiting visits. Graphic elements emphasize the identity of the program and the branding of the University and Zips Athletics. Other amenities include study cubicles with computers and extra tall ceilings and doorways.

MEN'S BASKETBALL COACHES' FACILITIES

The men's basketball coaches' facility includes offices for head coach Keith Dambrot, his assistant coaches and other staff associated with the program. Visitors and student-athletes alike can catch a glimpse at the 2009 and 2011 Mid-American Conference Champion trophies, as well as other memorabilia that helps tell the story of Akron Basketball. Throughout the complex, uniquely-designed artwork recap past seasons, milestones and records, and other important dates and student-athletes that helped make the program what it is today.

RHODES ARENA WEIGHT ROOM

The 1,650-square-foot strength-training room gives the Zips a space for strength and conditioning training inside Rhodes Arena, allowing for the squad to better utilize training time without having to relocate to other buildings for weight room access. The facility is located in proximity to each squad's locker room, team lounges and arena floor. The weight room will service both basketball programs, as well as the volleyball squad.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for all University of Akron home games should be requested by contacting assistant SID Dallas Moyer (330-972-6292/dm60@uakron.edu). Please make your request at least 48 hours prior to tip-off.

Priority is given to daily newspapers, radio/TV sports directors and other media who cover the Zips and their opponents on a regular basis, in addition to national print and electronic media. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone 16 years or younger are not permitted in any working media area.

Requests may also be faxed to the athletics communications office at (330) 374-8844, to Moyer's attention. Credentials will only be mailed if specifically requested. Those not mailed, picked-up in person, or delivered by an SID, will be left at the Rhodes Arena media will call entrance, located at the southwest corner of the facility.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers are allowed to shoot only from the designated photo boxes at either baseline. Only those on assignment and with proper media credentials will be allowed to shoot game action.

MEDIA SEATING

Media will be assigned seats at the press row tables located courtside opposite the team benches and scorer's table. Media seating assignments will be posted in the media workroom, located in the northeast corner of the facility on court level (Suite 38).

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking is available in Lot 8 (southwest corner of Spicer/Carroll intersection). Parking is also available in the structure (Lot 1) on the northeast corner of Spicer/Carroll. Directions to Rhodes Arena are available on page 8 and a map of the UA campus can be found on page 9.

VISITING RADIO

Phone lines for visiting originating radio broadcasts (two ISDN, two POTS) will be provided on a reciprocal basis. Contact assistant SID Dallas Moyer (330-972-6292/dm60@uakron.edu) to obtain those numbers in advance of gameday.

NON-ORIGINATING RADIO

Individuals representing radio stations which are not originating the broadcast of the game will be considered on a space-available basis.

TELEPHONES/INTERNET

Complimentary phone lines and hi-speed Internet connections are available in the media room. Dial 9 to get an outside line. Phone lines are not available at press row.

NBA SCOUTS

NBA scouts will be provided media credentials on a space-available basis. In situations where press row is full, scouts will be issued a credential to access the media work room and a game ticket.

Credentials for NBA scouts should be requested by the parent club.

GAME DAY

Pregame packets, including notes and statistics will be available in the Rhodes Arena media workroom (located in the northeast corner of the facility in Suite 38) prior to each Akron home game.

Timeout, halftime and final statistics, plus running play-by-play and postgame notes and quotes will be provided.

Stat monitors will be set up along press row to allow up-to-the-second information. Priority for monitors will be given to originating radio and TV.

During pregame, a media meal is usually provided in the media workroom.

COVERING PRACTICE

All Akron workouts are held at Rhodes Arena. Driving directions to the arena are available on page 8 and a map of the UA campus can be found on page 9.

Media wishing to attend practice should contact the UA athletics communications office to check that day's schedule and player and coach availability.

WHAT IS A ZIP?

One of the unique nicknames in all of inter-collegiate athletics belongs to The University of Akron.

Originally Zippers, athletic director Kenneth "Red" Cochrane officially shortened the nickname to the Zips in 1950. Twenty-five years earlier a campus-wide contest had been conducted to choose a nickname for The University's athletics teams.

Suggestions submitted by students, faculty, and alumni included Golden Blue Devils, Tip Toppers, Rubbernecks, Hillbillies, Kangaroos and Cheveliers.

The winner, freshman Margaret Hamlin, received a prize of $10 for Zippers, a $6 pair of rubber overshoes and a brand name of the BF Goodrich Company.

The evolution of Zippy, UA's mascot, began 40 years ago when the student council decided the University needed a mascot.

"Zippy" the kangaroo was officially declared the school's mascot on May 1, 1953.

In 2007, Zippy was named the Capital One National Mascot of the Year.

THE PNC WAGON WHEEL CHALLENGE

On Aug. 24, 2011, the athletics departments at The University of Akron and Kent State University announced participation in a new competition called "The PNC Wagon Wheel Challenge," which further expands an intercollegiate athletics rivalry dating back more than a half-century between the two schools.

The PNC Wagon Wheel Challenge is based on a time-honored competition for an historic wooden wagon wheel trophy awarded originally in 1945 to the winner of the annual Akron-Kent State football game. Starting with the 2011-12 academic year, the PNC-sponsored rivalry broadens the competition to include 15 NCAA varsity sports, with victories in each sport adding one point to the challenge standings.

Fans can learn more about the rivalry and follow the results and standings via PNCWagonWheelChallenge.com.

"PNC's new athletic challenge will spark more excitement in a broad range of sports between these rival schools," said Kevin O. Thompson, PNC regional president for Akron, Canton and Wooster. "By showcasing the talents of student-athletes, we will further engage alumni and the community to support our schools."

In keeping with tradition, the annual winner of the football contest will gain possession of the historic wooden Wagon Wheel trophy, while the school that accumulates the most total points in all varsity matchups for that academic year will receive an overall series trophy.

"The Akron-Kent State rivalry is a regional event and this partnership will help expand it to more sports and likewise more fans," Akron director of athletics Tom Wistrich said. "We're excited to have PNC serve as sponsor of what is one of the more unique rivalries in college athletics. As members of the Mid-American Conference, the results of our competitions against one another are already very important, but the Wagon Wheel Challenge will increase the level of bragging rights around the community."

According to legend, the "Wagon Wheel" trophy traces its beginnings to the spring of 1870 when Akron industrialist John R. Buchtel set out for the town of Kent in search of a site to establish a college. In the muddy Ohio fields, however, his wagon became bogged down in the area where Kent State University is currently located. When horses pulled the wagon, a wheel came loose and became buried until it was discovered in 1902 during the construction of a pipeline along the Western Reserve Trail.

The wheel eventually fell into the possession of Dr. Raymond Manchester, who as the Kent State Dean of Men in 1945, suggested the local historic artifact be offered as the trophy to the winner of the annual Akron-Kent State football game.

"College athletics is built on strong rivalries, and we're fortunate to have one of the closest in the country with Akron," Kent State director of athletics Joel Nielsen said. "We're very appreciative of PNC's support of the Wagon Wheel Challenge – this model has worked very well with other schools and it can only help grow this rivalry and make it even stronger."

IMG College, the sponsorship and multi-media rights holder for both Akron and Kent State athletics, negotiated the PNC Wagon Wheel Challenge.

PNC Wagon Wheel Challenge - Rules and Qualifying Sports

- Each of the fifteen (15) sports will be worth one (1) point. For a school to be the winner of The PNC Wagon Wheel Challenge, it must accumulate at least eight (8) points.
- The point is awarded to the team that wins the season series in the head-to-head competition.
- If the teams play head-to-head once in a given season (e.g. football), then the school that wins will receive the point.
- All regular season games count toward the season series tally (including if non-conference games are played) with the school that wins more games (e.g., winning two of three in softball) receiving the point. If teams split the regular season matchups (e.g., in basketball), then each team receives a one-half (½) point for that sport.
- For men's and women's cross country, golf and indoor/outdoor track and field, one point is awarded to whichever school finishes higher in the MAC Championship for each of those sports. (For these sports, no other competitions – in-season or post-season – will count toward the series).
- MAC and/or NCAA Tournament games can count toward determining the season series winner (e.g., the schools split the two regular season meetings in basketball and then meet in the MAC Tournament, whichever school wins that game is awarded the point).
- In the event of a 15-sports season tie, the school that won the trophy the previous year will retain possession.

The Zips will take part in the 2012 Puerto Rico Tip-Off Nov. 15-18 at the the Coliseo Ruben Rodriguez in Bayamón, P.R.

The Zips will be joined in the field by Massachusetts, North Carolina State, Oklahoma State, Penn State, Providence, Tennessee and UNC Asheville. Games are held on Thursday, Nov. 15; Friday, Nov. 16 and Sunday, Nov. 18. There are no tournament games on Saturday, Nov. 17.

The event will be Akron's second trip to Puerto Rico for a regular season tournament, but the first for the Puerto Rico Tip-Off. The Zips played in the 2005 San Juan Shootout (Dec. 19-21), defeating Mount St. Mary's 74-61 and Mississippi State 83-72 before falling to Clemson 66-59. This is also the second-straight season that a Mid-American Conference program has participated in the six-year-old event as Western Michigan competed in the 2011 edition.

2012 PUERTO RICO TIP-OFF PARTICIPANTS

Massachusetts: The Minutemen posted a 25-12 overall record and a 9-7 mark in the Atlantic 10 last season to earn a spot in the NIT. UMass advanced to the semifinals of the NIT before falling 74-64 to Stanford.

North Carolina State: The Wolfpack compiled a 24-13 record (9-7 ACC) en route to a Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Tournament, falling 60-57 to eventual national runner-up Kansas.

Oklahoma State: The Cowboys enter the 2012-13 campaign following a 15-18 campaign, including a 7-11 mark in the Big 12. OSU concluded its season with an 88-70 loss to Missouri in the Big 12 quarterfinals.

Penn State: The Nittany Lions will look to improve following a 12-20 record in 2011-12 (4-14 Big Ten). PSU was knocked out of the Big Ten Tournament in the first round by Indiana by a score of 75-58.

Providence: The Friars, the only team in the 2012 field to have played in the Puerto Rico Tip-Off before (2007), finished last season with a 15-17 mark (4-14 BIG EAST). Providence was knocked out of the BIG EAST Tournament in the first round by Seton Hall.

Tennessee: The Volunteers are one of three teams to appear in the NIT in this year's field. Tennessee dropped a 71-64 contest to Middle Tennessee in the second round of the NIT to finish its campaign 19-15, 10-6 in the SEC.

UNC Asheville: The Bulldogs nearly pulled off the biggest upset in March Madness history, falling 72-65 to No. 1 seed Syracuse in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. UNCA concluded the season with a 24-10 record (16-2 Big South).

QUOTING SPORTS ILLUSTRATED'S ANDY GLOCKNER

"Oh, and don't forget about Akron, which should be a major player in the MAC race...Oklahoma State-Akron also bears watching. The Zips easily could take out the Big 12 Cowboys on the neutral floor, especially with an awkward 10:30 am ET start."

QUOTING NBCSPORTS.COM'S RAPHIELLE JOHNSON

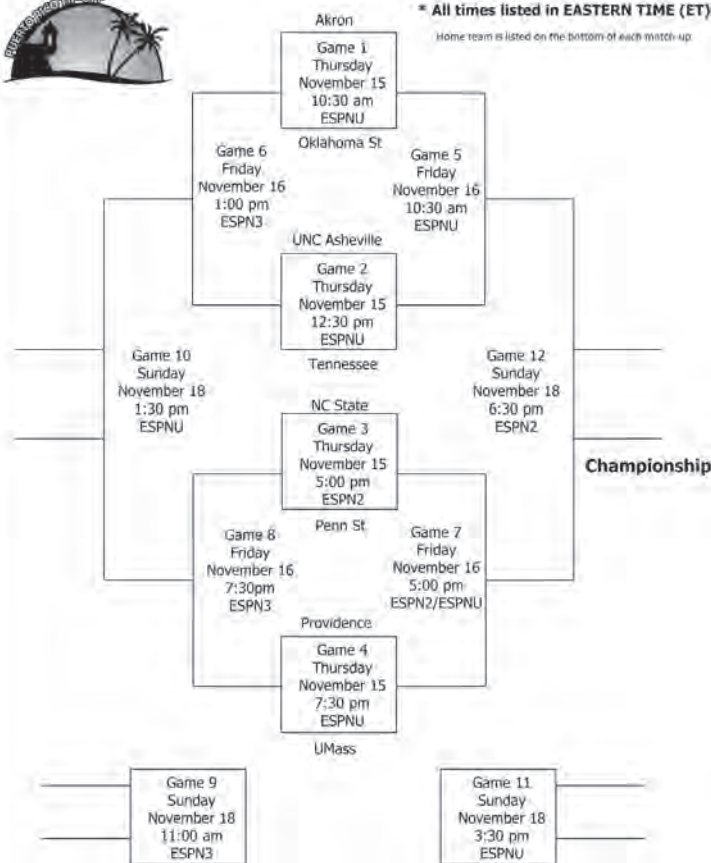

"The best quarterfinal is set to tip at 10:30 am, with both teams (Akron and Oklahoma State) looking to make good on their talent and get to the NCAA tournament. The Zips are led by senior center Zeke Marshall, who could very well hear his name called in the first round of the 2013 NBA Draft. Keith Dambrot's team won the MAC regular season title outright, only to fall to Ohio by a point in the conference tournament final, and with the majority of their key contributors back (they did lose forward Nikola Cvetinovic) Akron will be one of the preseason favorites in the MAC."

THE MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

Providing leadership in education and diversity, the Mid-American Conference moves into its 66th year of service to the student-athlete.

Since its inception in 1946, the Mid-American Conference has progressively grown and developed into one of the most aggressive Division I conferences in the country. One of only 11 football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conferences, the MAC named Dr. Jon A. Steinbrecher as its eighth commissioner in March of 2009.

The league has grown its commitment to championships by expanding to six its number of neutral site post season events – football (Ford Field, Detroit), volleyball (SPIRE Academy, Geneva, Ohio), men's and women's basketball (Quicken Loans Arena, Cleveland), softball (Firestone Stadium, Akron) and baseball (All Pro Freight Stadium, Avon, Ohio).

In 2011, the MAC set a conference record with a 4-1 record in bowl games and won the prestigious ESPN Bowl Challenge Cup for the best FBS conference record in bowl games. The MAC also tied a conference record for bowl invitations in a single season as the five bowl invitations marked the fourth time in conference history (2004, 2008, 2009, 2011). The five MAC programs that were extended bowl invitations included: Temple (Gildan New Mexico Bowl), Ohio (Famous Idaho Potato Bowl), Western Michigan (Little Caesars Pizza Bowl), Toledo (Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman) and Northern Illinois (GoDaddy.com Bowl).

The 2011 season also witnessed Northern Illinois win the 2011 Marathon MAC Football Championship Game with a 23-20 win over Ohio. MAC programs were a combined 4-0 against Army last season (wins by Northern Illinois, Miami, Ball State and Temple), while Temple had an impressive 38-7 win at Maryland (ACC), Western Michigan's 38-31 win at UConn (Big East), Ohio's 44-7 win over Marshall (Conference USA) and Ball State's 27-20 win over Indiana (Big Ten).

For the first time in its history, the MAC will have seven bowl relationships--three primary and four secondary. The three primary agreements are with the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl (Detroit, Mich.), GoDaddy.com Bowl (Mobile, Ala.) and Famous Idaho Potato Bowl (Boise, Ida.). In addition, the MAC has secured secondary agreements with the BBVA Compass Bowl (2012-2013), the Gildan New Mexico Bowl (2012-2013), the Beef O'Brady's St. Petersburg Bowl (2012-13) and the TicketCity Bowl (2012).

In its partnership with ESPN, the MAC is in the fourth year of its eight-year rights agreement (through 2016-2017 academic years) for football, as well as men's and women's basketball. The deal is the most extensive in the 66-year history of the conference. The agreement calls for a minimum of 25 events annually to be produced and aired on an ESPN platform including the men's and women's basketball championships, a regular-season MAC presence on ESPN, the Marathon MAC Football Championship Game and a minimum of 11 regular-season football games.

Women's athletics continued to shine for the MAC this past year. The MAC had a total of five women's basketball programs invited to post-season tournaments. Eastern Michigan claimed the MAC tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, while Bowling Green, Central Michigan, Miami and Toledo all received at-large invitations to the WNIT Tournament.

From two-time Super Bowl quarterback winning Ben Roethlisberger (Miami University), NFL Defensive MVP James Harrison (Kent State University), three NFL Pro Bowlers (Cleveland KR Josh Cribbs, San Diego TE Antonio Gates, Pittsburgh LB James Harrison), British Open winner Ben Curtis (Kent State University), World Series winning manager Bob Brenly (Ohio University) and Olympic bobsled team member Brock Kreitzburg

(University of Toledo), the Mid-American Conference continues to excel in producing leaders in the world of athletics.

HISTORY OF THE MAC

Based in Cleveland since July 1999 following a 15-year stay in Toledo, Ohio, the MAC has established historic measurements in both football and men's and women's basketball since moving to Northeast Ohio. The MAC was founded as a five-school league on February 24, 1946 in Columbus, Ohio with Ohio, Butler, Cincinnati, Wayne State and Western Reserve admitted as charter members. The Mid-American Conference has 12 full-time schools and a 13th, UMass for football only beginning in 2012.

In 1946 men's basketball was the first competitive sport in the MAC, which now sponsors a total 23 sports. Women's sports were brought into the conference's structure in 1980. For men, championships (11) are sponsored in football, basketball, baseball, cross country, soccer, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, golf and tennis. For women, championships (12) are sponsored in basketball, softball, volleyball, cross country, field hockey, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, gymnastics, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and tennis.

MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE COMMISSIONER

Dr. Jon A. Steinbrecher enters his fourth year with the Mid-American Conference (MAC) after being named the league's eighth commissioner on March 16, 2009.

Steinbrecher has expanded bowl opportunities for the conference and stabilized conference membership in football, increased national and regional television exposure, launched the conference's first-ever digital network, renegotiated the conference marketing rights agreement with ISP/IMG College and enhanced neutral site conference championships in basketball, volleyball and baseball.

Specifically in football, Steinbrecher has stabilized and increased conference membership with 13 programs as the MAC welcomes the addition of the University of Massachusetts (UMass) to begin as a football-only member in 2012.

Steinbrecher has built upon the conference bowl agreements to a conference-best three primary (Little Caesars Pizza Bowl; GoDaddy.com Bowl and Famous Idaho Potato Bowl) and four secondary agreements (Gildan New Mexico Bowl, Beef O'Brady's St. Petersburg Bowl, TicketCity Bowl and the BBVA Compass Bowl). These bowl agreements provide the MAC the opportunity to build on relationships with multiple bowl partners, expand national television exposure and broaden geographical opportunities to perform against other FBS conferences.

Steinbrecher directed a strategic planning process for the MAC, increased national exposure for the conference, as well as new opportunities for the conference in the areas of a new regional television network deal, marketing and sponsorships and securing long-term partnerships for MAC neutral site championship events.

In the summer of 2010, the MAC entered into a three-year regional television deal with SportsTime Ohio to expand its television coverage in football and men's and women's basketball. This provides the MAC a regional television presence for programming throughout the year, and increases promotion and marketing opportunities for the conference.

He joined the MAC after serving six years as commissioner of the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC). Prior to the OVC, Steinbrecher served as commissioner of the Mid-Continent Conference (the Summit League). He is the only person to serve as commissioner in all three NCAA Division I Subdivisions (FBS, FCS, DI).

AKRON MEN'S BASKETBALL

KEITH DAMBROT

HEAD COACH

NINTH SEASON

AKRON (1982)

Keith Dambrot's motivation for success is different than most head coaches at the Division I level. His commitment has seen the Akron basketball program grow into one of the top mid-majors in the nation. This drive doesn't stem from thoughts of career stepping stones, but from his allegiance to his hometown and alma mater.

Dambrot became the 21st head coach of Akron men's basketball on March 10, 2004. On July 20, 2012, he signed a new 10-year contract to be head coach of the Zips through the 2021-22 season.

Dambrot wasted no time putting his stamp on the program and has led Akron to the postseason in five-straight and six of the last seven seasons – participating in the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and 2011, the National Invitation Tournament in 2006, 2008 and 2012, and the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in 2010.

His success ranks the Zips with some of the top programs in the nation. Akron is one of only seven teams in the country to win at least 22 games in each of the past six seasons, joining the likes of Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Ohio State, Pittsburgh and Utah State. UA leads the Mid-American Conference in overall wins since the start of the 2004-05 season (184) and is the only team in the league, and one of 17 nationally, to post at least 20 wins in each of the past seven seasons.

Dambrot's streak of seven-straight 20-win seasons is tied for the 10th-longest stretch by an active coach to do so all with the same program and is tied for the 13th-longest run in the nation among active coaches overall.

The Zips have won at least 22 games in each of the last seven seasons – a feat unmatched in program history. Dambrot has led Akron to the conference tournament title game in each of the last six years – the longest streak in league history and the second-longest active run in the nation.

In his eight seasons in charge of the program, Akron has amassed a 184-87 (.679) overall record, including a 93-39 mark in MAC play and a 104-17 tally in home games (57-9 in MAC play). Akron's 184 victories are tied for 31st-best nationally during the past eight seasons.

In 14 seasons as a collegiate head coach he owns a 292-157 (.650) overall record. Dambrot enters the season in the top-10 in MAC history in overall winning percentage as a league coach (fifth, .628), tied for fifth in overall wins as a MAC coach (204), sixth in MAC winning percentage (.620) and seventh in MAC wins (103).

Named the 2009 Best Mid-Major Coach by Dan Wetzel of Yahoo Sports, Dambrot's time at UA has been highlighted by mentoring a total of 23 All-MAC honorees, 11 MAC All-Tournament team selections, three Sixth Man of the Year honors, three Defensive Players of the Year, two tournament MVPs and one player of the year award. Also during his watch, eight players have been added to the school's 1,000-point scorer's list and he coached Akron's all-time assists leader (Dru Joyce, 503), all-time blocked shots leader (Zeke Marshall, 246), all-time winningest player (Chris McKnight, 97 victories over a four-season span) and the all-time games played leaders (Steve McNees and Nikola Cvetinovic, 141).

In 2010, Dambrot was inducted into the Summit County Sports Hall of Fame for his contributions at Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary High School, and at The University of Akron as both a student-athlete and head coach. He

INCREASED NATIONAL EXPOSURE

The University has increased its footprint on the national level under Dambrot. Throughout his tenure, the Zips have gained the attention of the national pollsters, receiving votes in the Associated Press poll on three separate occasions in 2007-08, after closing out the 2006-07 campaign on the "others receiving votes" listing in the final AP and ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls. Additionally, UA has closed out five of the last seven campaigns ranked in the final CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25 – finishing on the "others receiving votes" listing in 2011-12 and 2009-10, 25th in 2008-09, 21st in 2007-08, 10th in 2006-07 and 23rd in 2005-06. UA has peaked as high as No. 5 in the mid-major poll, doing so in the Jan. 28, 2008, edition.

Also under Dambrot, Akron has played in a number of nationally televised games and has been recognized by numerous national publications. The program has also not been afraid to compete against teams from the ACC, Big East, SEC, Pac-10, Big 12, A-10, MWC, MVC and WAC.

HEAD COACH KEITH DAMBROT

With Dambrot in charge, the program tallied its first-ever victories over schools from the Atlantic Coast Conference (at Florida State in the 2008 NIT) and Southeastern Conference (versus Mississippi State during the 2005-06 regular season at the San Juan Shootout in Puerto Rico).

THE DAMBROT ERA, YEAR-BY-YEAR

After guiding the Zips to a 19-10 record in the 2004-05 season, the program finished the 2005-06 campaign with a 23-10 mark, which at the time was the most wins in the program's Division I era, and also notched the school's first D-I postseason victory – an 80-73 overtime win at Temple in the opening round of the NIT. UA also posted a 13-0 mark at Rhodes Arena that year, and extended its win streak at home to 18 games, which ranked as the third-longest nationally at the time.

In 2006-07, Dambrot led Akron to a school-record tying 26-7 mark (1971-72 team went 26-5) and its first MAC East Division title since 1998. Additionally, the program made its first-ever appearance in the MAC tournament championship game, falling 53-52 on a 3-point buzzer-beater. The Zips also ran their win streak at home to 21 games, with a 73-71 loss to top-25 ranked Nevada blemishing what was the fourth-best streak nationally at the time. UA ended the campaign 13-1 at Rhodes Arena.

Senior forward Romeo Travis capped off his career by being selected as an Honorable Mention All-American by the Associated Press – the first Zips cager to do so since 1989. Travis was also honored as the MAC Player of the Year, the first in the history of the UA program, and was named to the all-league first team, MAC All-Tournament Team and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) All-District 10 Second Team for the second-straight season.

In 2007-08, Dambrot and the Zips provided their fan base with another year filled with excitement and milestones, ending the season with a 24-11 record and an 11-5 finish in league play. UA again advanced to the MAC tournament title game. For the second time in three seasons, the Zips made their way to the second round of the NIT – this time knocking off Florida State 65-60 in OT in the opening round. That was the program's first-ever victory over a school from the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Zips lost 68-63 to eventual NIT runner-up Massachusetts in the second round.

Dambrot's 2008-09 squad went 23-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament after winning its first-ever MAC Tournament championship against Buffalo. The Zips earned a No. 13 seed in the NCAA Tournament and fell to Gonzaga in the first round, 77-64, after leading with just over nine minutes to play. Competing in 36 overall games, it was the longest season in program history, surpassing the 35 contests during the 2007-08 campaign.

During the 2009-10 season, Dambrot's squad went 24-11 and made its fourth-straight appearance in the MAC Title Game. The Zips made their third-consecutive postseason appearance and fourth in five years, playing in the College Basketball Invitational game for the first time. Akron's 35 games marked the third-straight year the Zips appeared in 35 or more contests.

The 2010-11 season saw many ups and downs, but the result was the same as the 2008-09 season. The Zips, 12-10 at one point in the season, won eight straight games and 12 of their last 15 to win the MAC title for the second time in three seasons and advance to the program's third NCAA Tournament. With a 23-13 record, Akron faced Notre Dame in the second round of the NCAA Tournament as the No. 15 seed. The Zips fell 69-56 to the Fighting Irish. Just like the 2008-09 campaign, UA had to win four games in five days at the MAC Tournament, capped off by a 66-65 overtime thriller over archrival Kent State.

The 2011-12 campaign was a season of firsts as the Zips won their first MAC regular season title and became the first league team to play in six-straight conference tournament title games. Akron advanced to its third NIT under Dambrot after falling in the MAC Title Game by a single point. Four Zips garnered league honors, including Marshall (Second-Team All-MAC, Defensive Player of the Year), Alex Abreu (Second-Team All-MAC), Nikola Cvetinovic (Third-Team All-MAC) and Quincy Diggs (Sixth Man of the Year). Dambrot also became the first Akron coach to be named to the NABC all-district list, earning co-district coach of the year honors.

CAREER COACHING EXPERIENCE

Dambrot received his M.B.A from Akron in 1984 while serving as a graduate assistant under former men's basketball coach Bob Rupert.

After two years as a graduate assistant, he moved up to a full-time role with the Zips for one season, before taking the head coaching job at Tiffin. In his second season there (1985-86), he led the Dragons to the most single-season wins in school history (24).

In 1986, he made his first venture into the MAC, starting a three-year run as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan and worked alongside then head coach Ben Braun (who served as head coach at California and is now at Rice). In 1988, the Hurons won their first-ever MAC championship and made their first NCAA Tournament appearance.

Dambrot returned to northeast Ohio in 1989 as head coach at Ashland, where, in two years, he led the Eagles to a 48-13 overall mark, two final national rankings and their first-ever conference and regional championships.

In 1991, he returned to the MAC and took on his first Division I head coaching role at Central Michigan. His 1992 recruiting class was ranked 15th in the nation by Hoop Scoop Magazine and he led the Chippewas to a 20-34 record in his two seasons.

THE DAMBROT COACHING TREE

A key part to Keith Dambrot's success has come from the knowledge and expertise of his coaching staff. Comprised primarily of former players, both from Akron and his previous coaching stops, Dambrot's current staff includes five former players, including Zips' assistant coaches Terry Weigand (Tiffin, 1985-86), Rick McFadden (Akron, 2003-05) and Charles Thomas (Eastern Michigan, 1987-89), as well as graduate managers Matt Futch (Akron, 2003-06) and Steve McNees (Akron, 2008-11).

Former assistant coaches under Dambrot have also had success after leaving Akron, including the appointments of Lamont Paris (2004-10) and Jeff Boals (2006-09) to positions with Big 10 programs Wisconsin and Ohio State, respectively.

Shaka Smart, a Dambrot assistant from 2003-06, made stops at Clemson (2006-08) and Florida (2008-09) before taking his first head coach position at VCU in 2009 and posting a 27-9 record during the 2009-10 campaign. Smart went on to lead VCU to the 2011 Final Four with a 28-12 record.

AN AKRON NATIVE

An Akron native, Dambrot spent his formative years roaming the UA campus and attending basketball games in the program's old gymnasium, Memorial Hall.

This is also the community that educated him. Four years at nearby Firestone High School provided the foundation for a bachelor's and master's degree from the University.

Dambrot's late mother, Faye, was a trend-setting professor at the University, teaching in the psychology department from 1966-89, and being instrumental in forming the women's studies program. Calling her a heralded member of the faculty and community is an understatement.

In recent years, Dambrot became known as the man responsible for bringing the modest Akron St. Vincent-St. Mary High School boy's basketball team into the national spotlight. As head coach of the Fighting Irish, his teams won a pair of state championships in 2000 and 2001. A key component to those squads was three-time NBA MVP LeBron James (his freshman and sophomore seasons).

Dambrot helped develop James. At the age of 13, the future NBA MVP and All-Star participated in $1 clinics Dambrot conducted at the local Jewish Community Center.

James is another example of someone who takes his connection to the Akron community to heart, and is a regular at games in UA's Rhodes Arena and off-season team workouts.

It's building off of experiences like that motivates this head coach, who has worked as hard as any in the nation since assuming his post.

The University's decision makers seem keyed into Dambrot's unique situation, one that seems to provide good perspective of this geographic region along with a sound formula for success.

"We have high expectations for every aspect of our institution, including intercollegiate athletics," University President Dr. Luis M. Proenza said. "Much like the University, Keith Dambrot has a long history with and extensive connections in northeast Ohio."

Dambrot began his assistant coaching tenure at UA in June 2001 following three seasons at Akron's St. Vincent-St. Mary High. In that time he led the school to a 69-10 record, including a 27-0 mark in 1999-2000. In his final two seasons at the school, the Irish were state champions and garnered national rankings by USA Today.

PERSONAL

A former three-year starter, team captain and team MVP for the Zips' baseball team (played third base), Dambrot graduated from the University with a bachelor's of science degree in management in 1982.

In his time on the UA baseball diamond, Dambrot set the school's all-time record for getting hit by a pitch, coming in the line of fire 28 times (that record has since been surpassed).

Dambrot's blood is rich with basketball tradition. His late uncle, Irwin Dambrot, played for the 1950 City College of New York (CCNY) squad, which is the only school to win both the NCAA Tournament and NIT in the same season. Irwin was the MVP of the NCAA Tournament that season and the No. 1 draft pick (selected seventh overall) by the New York Knicks that same year.

Dambrot's father, Sid, starred at Duquesne during the 1952, '53 and '54 seasons. The Dukes competed in the NCAA Tournament and the NIT in '52, and the NIT in the '53 and '54 campaigns.

Dambrot resides in Fairlawn with his wife, Donna, and two children, Alysse and Rob. Alysse has followed in her father's footsteps and is pursuing an undergraduate degree at UA.

Peters, who spent five years on the staff at the University of Cincinnati with current West Virginia and former Akron head coach Bob Huggins, is familiar with the state of Ohio and has experience as a Division I head coach. Peters joined the Cincinnati staff in May of 1999 as an assistant coach and was promoted to associate head coach in 2002.

Prior to his stint at Cincinnati, Peters spent six seasons as head coach at Youngstown State. He also served as the head coach at nearby Walsh College and St. Joseph's College of Indiana, amassing a combined record of 237-140 in 14 years at those three schools.

Peters began his coaching career at Guernsey Catholic High School in Cambridge, Ohio. He spent two years there and one season at Meadowbrook High School in Byesville, Ohio, before jumping to the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at Delta State for the 1979-80 season.

In 1981, Peters moved to Walsh College as an assistant to Huggins. He succeeded Huggins in 1984 (when Huggins was hired as head coach at Akron) and directed Walsh to a 28-4 record in his first year. He spent five seasons at Walsh, compiling an overall record of 116-39 and earning district coach of the year honors on two occasions.

At the conclusion of the 1988 campaign, Peters accepted an offer to become an assistant coach at Western Carolina. The following year, he returned to Ohio and spent two seasons (1990 and 1991) as an assistant coach at Akron under then Zips' head coach Coleman Crawford.

Following the 1991 season, Peters was named head coach at St. Joseph's, where he compiled a two-year mark of 43-14 and led his team to an NCAA Division II tournament appearance in his first season.

In 1993, Peters moved to Youngstown State to take over the program as the head coach. He directed the 1998 edition of the Penguins to a 20-8 record, a berth in the championship game of the Mid-Continent Conference tournament and was named the league's coach of the year.

Peters was born in Cleveland and grew up in nearby Canton, Ohio. He is a 1976 graduate of Kent State, earning a bachelor's degree in social studies. Peters and his wife, Nancy, reside in Akron and have sons, Danny (24) and Michael (22). Danny is a former student-athlete for the Ohio State basketball team and is a graduate assistant with the University of Arizona basketball program.

No. 12 – LARRY JENKINS

Larry Jenkins, a four-time letterwinner and captain of the 1973-74 squad, was named an All-American for his play in the 1970-71 season as a freshman. During his career at Akron, the Zips went a combined 86-22 while making three-straight appearances in the NCAA College Division tournament, including a national runner-up finish in 1972 – falling to Roanoke in the championship game. In 1973-74, Jenkins led the team in scoring (15.9) and assists (5.0). His 119 assists ranks third all-time by a junior and ninth for a single-season. Jenkins also ranks 29th all-time with 1,086 points in a career and 12th with 234 assists.

No. 13 – FRITZ NAGY

A 1949 UA graduate who ranks as one of the all-time greats in school history, Fritz Nagy was a charter member of the university's Athletics Hall of Fame. An uncanny natural scorer, Nagy's 1,258 points in only three years of competition was UA's all-time high until Jim Fenton surpassed it in 1954. Nagy's single-season scoring total of 547 points in the 1944-45 season stood as a UA record for 26 years. An All-Ohio selection three times during his career, Nagy was voted UA's first Little All-American in 1945, an honor he repeated in 1947. Nagy signed a contract with the Chicago American Gears in October of 1947, where he enjoyed three years at the professional level.

No. 20 – LEN PAUL

Len Paul was the first UA basketball player to score more than 2,000 points (2,028) and pull down more than 1,000 rebounds (1,021) in a career. Between 1969 and 1973, the south-paw talent set 13 school records, tied another and earned the team's MVP award all four seasons. Paul led the Zips into NCAA Tournament action in each of his last three seasons, including a national runner-up finish to Roanoke College in 1971-72. He was the first UA player to score more than 500 points in two separate seasons – 518 points in 1970-71, and 564 in 1971-72. Paul's talents were also recognized across the nation. He earned All-Mideast Regional honors three consecutive years, and in 1971-72 was named a First-Team Associated Press All-America.

No. 22 – MIKE HARKINS

A charter member of UA's Athletics Hall of Fame, Mike Harkins finished his four-year career as Akron's all-time scorer, surpassing Jim Fenton. Harkins scored 1,425 points during a split career that began in 1951 and finished in 1956. He was the Zips' leading scorer during the 1954 to 1956 seasons and became the sixth UA cager to score 500 or more points in a single season by totaling 521 points during the 1954-55 campaign. An All-Ohio and all-conference performer, Harkins' career high of 46 points against Heidelberg stood as the school record for 28 years and his career average of 21.9 points per game is second among UA's all-time scorers.

No. 25 – ERIC McLAUGHLIN

Eric McLaughlin was an All-American during the 1988-89 season when the Zips made a trip to the National Invitation Tournament. During his four seasons at Akron, the four-year letterwinner and two-time team captain guided the Zips to a combined record of 85-32, two NIT appearances, an Ohio Valley Conference championship and an NCAA Tournament appearance. McLaughlin's 1988-89 single-season assists total (156) is second-best all-time, including 11 assists against Youngstown State (Jan. 21, 1989), which still stands as the most dishes in a game at Rhodes Arena and the third-best single-game total in program history. He also ranks third all-time with 1,810 points and 177 career steals. His 631 points in 1988-89 stands as the fourth-best single-season total.

No. 31 – JOE JAKUBICK

Joe Jakubick finished his career (1980-84) as the most prolific scorer in UA basketball history. A three-time captain and MVP, he established 25 school records and three Ohio Valley Conference marks in his four-year career. Most prominent was his 2,583 total points, tops at both UA and in the OVC. In his senior campaign, Jakubick led the NCAA Division I in scoring by averaging 30.1 points per game, a feat that no other UA player has matched. In that 1983-84 campaign, he was named OVC Player of the Year, an honor he shared as a junior, and an Honorable Mention All-America for a third straight year.

No. 42 – BILL TURNER

Bill Turner is UA's first and only athlete to play in the NBA. During his four seasons on the hilltop, the Zips compiled an 87-19 record and participated in three NCAA postseason tournaments. A three-time team MVP, Turner scored 1,630 points from 1962-67 to become UA's all-time scorer, and hauled down 1,171 rebounds (fourth-best on the UA career chart). Turner helped the 1965 and 1966 teams capture the Ohio Conference Championship and NCAA Mideast Regional titles as the leading scorer and rebounder. In 1966-67 he was named to the AP College Division All-American First Team. The San Francisco Warriors selected Turner in the third round of the 1967 NBA Draft. He played in the league for six years with the Warriors, Cincinnati Royals, Portland Trailblazers and the Los Angeles Lakers.

No. 44 – JIM FENTON

Jim "Red" Fenton finished his career in 1954 with 1,319 points and a 19.9 scoring average, to become UA's all-time leading scorer. He scored in double figures in 64 of his 66 career games and is one of only six UA cagers to have scored 500 or more points in a single season. Fenton led the Zips in scoring each of his three seasons, including 527 points in 1952-53. During the 1951-52 campaign, Fenton was the leading free-throw shooter in the nation, connecting on 104-of-121 attempts for a .859 percentage. Fenton, who was the team MVP and a Little All-American in 1952 and 1953, was a three-time All-Ohio selection.

No. 55 – ALEX ADAMS

Alex Adams (1959-61), was one of the first African American student-athletes to have been recruiting by Akron. Adams was a Basketball All-American (United Press-Little All-America Team) during the 1960-61 season as a senior and ranks among the top 10 in program history in points (1,442 – currently ranks No. 9) and rebounds (872 – currently ranks No. 7). His 1,442 points made him UA's then all-time leading scorer. In 1975, Adams was named head coach for the Zips, leading the program to a 10-14 record during the 1975-76 season.
