SERIES HISTORY

The Zips and Bobcats are scheduled to square off for the 59th time, as Akron and Ohio have battled on the court 58 times in each programs respective history. Since the first meeting in 1976-77, Akron trails in the all-time series history, 18-40, against the Bobcats.

THE LAST MEETING

The University of Akron women's basketball team was unable to maintain its early momentum as the Zips dropped a 62-48 decision at Ohio on March 4, 2017, in the regular season finale for both schools.

Hannah Plybon directed Akron's efforts with a team-high 13 points, while Alex Ricketts and Haliegh Reinoehl each collected a game-high 10 rebounds for the Zips. Quiera Lampkins led the Bobcats with a game-best 14 points. Jasmine Weatherspoon posted a 12-point, 10-rebound effort, while Amani Burke notched 12 points as well.

MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE MEMBER

The Zips have been a member of the Mid-American Conference for the past 26 years after joining the league in 1992 from the North Star Conference

COACHES

- Ohio: Bob Boldon is amidst his fifth season as the head coach of the Ohio Bobcats women's basketball program. Boldon led the Bobcats to back-to-back MAC regular season titles (2014-16) and four consecutive postseason appearances.
- Akron: Jodi Kest, the all-time winningest coach in program history, is in her 12th-season in charge of the Zips program. The longest-tenured coach in the Mid-American Conference holds an all-time record of 176-180 (.494) at Akron and a 402-333 (.547) in her 25 years as a head coach

JODI KEST COACHING TREE

- Ohio's head coach, Boldon, spent five seasons as an assistant coach on Jodi Kest's coaching staff spending one season at Gannon, two seasons at Texas A&M Corpus Christi, and two seasons with the Zips. In two seasons in Texas, Boldon aided Kest in leading the Islanders to a combined 34-21 record in two seasons, while the duo helped start Akron's turnaround into a top competitor inside the MAC.

WITH A WIN OVER OHIO THE ZIPS WOULD

- Earn their seventh win of the 2017-18 season.
- Claim its first MAC win
- Earn the program's 450th all-time victory.
- End a three-game slide.

2017-18 ZIP BREAKDOWN

Under the guidance of Kest, the Zips have 13 young and talented players eager to make an impact in 2017-18 highlighted by returning starters, sophomore guard Shaunay Edmonds (Pittsburgh, Pa.), sophomore forward Haliegh Reinoehl (Westfield, Ind.), and sophomore forward Caitlin Vari (Revere, Ohio), along with the veteran presence of senior forward Greta Burry (Lakewood, Ohio), senior guard Lauren Hung (Waterford, Mich.), and redshirt junior guard Megan Sefcik (Austintown, Ohio).

Edmonds has taken on the role as the team's facilitator and floor general, while also having the ability to score the ball. Through 13 games, Edmonds is averaging 10.8 points, a team-high 4.2 assists, and 2.4 steals per game. The Zips' point guard scored a season-best 19 points and tied her career mark with seven assists against Youngstown State, while posting a career-best six steals against Harvard.

After coming off the bench in a reserve role during the first 13 games of her freshman season, Reinoehl became a staple in the starting-five down the stretch for Akron and in the 2017-18 season. Reinoehl recorded a career-best game against Southeastern Louisiana (21 pts/11 reb) and a double-double against SIU Edwardsville (11 pts/10 reb). The forward is the team's third-leading scorer, 6.8 points per game and leads the squad in rebounding with 106 total rebounds, 8.2 per contest.

Following a career-best year last season, Sefcik has continued to impress and has scored in double figures in ten of Akron's 13 games. The Zips' guard broke the Akron single-game three-point record with 10 triples against Ohio Christian, while also tying the MAC record. The Zips sharpshooter is averaging a team-best 13.7 points per game and scoring 3.5 triples per contest.

Burry, the Zip with the most playing experience on the roster, is the centerfold of the squad. In 214 minutes of play and 12 starts, Burry is averaging 6.5 points and 4.9 rebounds per tilt. Burry grabbed a season-high 10 rebounds against SIU and scored a season-best 14 points against ECU.

Vari, a member of the Zips front court, has seen 229 minutes of action while grabbing 5.3 rebounds, a team-best 24 offensive rebounds and averages 4.9 points per contest.

THE NUMBERS ON AKRON BASKETBALL...

1 Fueled by a program-best 14-4 league record, the Zips captured their first ever MidAmerican Conference Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth in 2013-14.

6 Akron has made six postseason appearances in its history, five of which have come in the last eight seasons. In addition to the NCAA Tournament in 2014, the Zips advanced to the WNIT in 2016, 2015, 2013 and 1999, and the Women's Basketball Invitational in 2010.

21 The Zips have placed a student-athlete on the All-MAC Academic Team 21 times, highlighted by Jessie Crooks (2004-07) and Hannah Plybon (2014-17 making the squad three seasons in a row. A record five student-athletes earned Academic All-MAC recognition in 2012-13.

23 The number of wins Akron posted in 2013-14 and 2012-13, which is a program record. The 23 victories two years ago marked a nine-win turnaround from the previous season. 46.6 The number of points that Rachel Tecca and Hanna Luburgh combine to score per game as seniors in 2013-14. Together, the seniors make up the highest scoring duo in the country.

104 The number of three pointers Hannah Plybon connected on during the 2015-16 campaign, a school record.

173 The number of victories for head coach Jodi Kest at the University of Akron. She is the winningest head coach in Akron women's basketball history.

259 The number of assists for Kacie Cassell in 2012-13, which ranks third all-time in the Mid-American Conference for a single season. As a junior, she broke UA's single-season assists record after just 21 games, and finished the year as the national leader in assists per game with 7.8.

2,317 The number of points Rachel Tecca scored during her career, making her Akron's all-time leading scorer. She was the second player in MAC history to surpass 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career

For the inaugural Education Day in 2013, the brainchild of women's basketball head coach Jodi Kest, the Zips drew approximately 400 students and teachers.

The Zips welcomed nearly 1,000 fifth-grade students coming from all across Akron the Akron area, which included 16 schools.

Students had pre-, in-, and post-game "homework" that they completed based on the outcome of the game. Questions have been integrated into the assignments relating to the game of basketball for example: score at halftime, leading scorer, scoring percentages, etc. as well as a portion about promoting an active and healthy lifestyle.

ZIPS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL DRAFTS BRAYDEN MCDONALD FROM TEAMIMPACT

The University of Akron women's basketball team and head coach Jodi Kest announced the signing of Brayden McDonald on Nov. 21. The 8-year-old Akron native signed her national letter of intent to join the Zips' women's basketball squad this season.

Team IMPACT, an organization that connects children facing chronic or life-threatening illnesses to college athletic teams in an effort to improve their quality of life, orchestrated Brayden's recruitment with the Akron women's basketball program. Brayden's determination to persevere through adversity has already made her an inspiration to her Zips teammates.

Since 2011, Team IMPACT has matched more than 1,300 children with more than 500 colleges and universities in 47 states, reaching over 35,000 participating student-athletes. The child joins the athletic team and the student-athletes join the child's support team – from Draft Day to Graduation.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

On the first night of the 2017 Akron Classic, five Akron players each set a career-mark in the Zips 66-54 win over Southeastern Louisiana. Haliegh Reinoehl posted her first double-double with 21 points and 11 rebounds, Caitlin Vari grabbed a career-best 16 rebounds, Alyssa Clay scored a career-best eight points in a career-high 14 minutes of play, and Shayna Harmon dished out a career-most four assists.

PRESEASON PROJECTIONS

In the annual Mid-American Conference preseason poll, the Akron women's basketball team was predicted to finish sixth in the MAC East Division, by the leagues 12 head coaches on Oct 25.

In the East field of teams, Buffalo was voted as the preseason regular-season champion with 69 first-place votes, followed by Kent State (52 points), Ohio (47 points), Miami (40 points), Bowling Green (23 points), and the Zips (21 points).

Over in the West Division, Central Michigan received 70 votes as the predicted regular-season champion with Toledo (60 points) in second, and Ball State (46 points) to finish third. Rounding out the six West Division teams are Western Michigan (32 points), Northern Illinois (29 points), and Eastern Michigan (15 points).

Overall, Central Michigan was tabbed to win the 2018 MAC regular-season crown, followed by Ball State, and Buffalo, while the Chippewas are also predicted to hoist the 2018 MAC tournament trophy at Quicken Loans Arena following postseason play.

ZIPS INK A PAIR OF LOCAL RECRUITS IN 2018-19 CLASS

The University of Akron women's basketball team and 12th-year head coach Jodi Kest announced the Zips inked a pair of student-athletes to join the squad for the 2018-2019 season.

Coming to Akron as the newest members of the Zips' roster are local products Kendall Miller (St. Vincent-St. Mary/Akron, Ohio) and Colleen Neitzel (St. Joseph Academy/Rocky River, Ohio), after signing National Letters of Intent on Wednesday.

Miller, a 5-9 guard, comes from local powerhouse St. Vincent-St. Mary's High School in Akron, Ohio. As a junior, she averaged 10.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 5.0 assists per game. Miller posted seven double-digit scoring efforts in her third season with the Fighting Irish, including a season-high 14 points against Walsh Jesuit.

Neitzel, a 6-1 forward from St. Joseph Academy in Cleveland, Ohio, earned All-District Honorable Mention honors, was named to the Northeast Lakes District team, and earned Cleveland.com All-Star honors. As a junior, the Jaguars' forward averaged 10.9 points, 9.1 rebounds, and 1.9 assists, while posting 14 double-digit scoring efforts, including a season-best 21-point performance against Magnificat.

A LOOK BACK AT 2016-17

The Zips', guided by Kest ended the year with a record of 9-21, and went 2-16 in Mid-American Conference play.

The Zips finished the 2016-17 campaign rated Nos. 3, 4 and 9 in the Akron single-season record book in three pointers attempted (681), triples made (206) and games played (30), while also registering the largest margin of victory in a conference road game with an 84-55 triumph at Northern Illinois on Jan. 18.

ZIPS GO WIRE-TO-WIRE WITH TOLEDO BUT FALL SHORT 60-54.

The University of Akron women's basketball team went wire-to-wire with the reigning Mid-American Conference Champions, Toledo, for 40 minutes, but the Rockets were able to pull away down the stretch with a 12-2 run in the final two minutes of the contest to defeat the Zips, 60-54, Wednesday night at Savage Arena in Toledo, Ohio.

Sophomore guard Shaunay Edmonds (Pittsburgh, Pa.) would lead the way in the point column for the Zips and tallied a game-high 13 points. The Akron point guard also dished out a game-best six assists and four steals. Clay was the Zips second-leading scorer with eight points, six of which came from beyond the arc, while sophomore Caitlin Vari (Richfield, Ohio) added seven points and Reinoehl chipped in six points to go along with a team-high 10 rebounds.

ZIPS FALL TO BUFFALO 89-66 IN MAC OPENER

Redshirt junior guard Megan Sefcik (Austintown, Ohio) scored a team-high 14 points, but it wasn't enough as Akron fell 89-66 to Buffalo in 2017-18 Mid-American Conference opener Saturday afternoon at James A. Rhodes Arena.

The Zips were limited to 34.5-percent shooting on the day, including 7-of-23 (30.8 percent) from beyond the arc. Akron, which had hit six or more 3-pointers in all but two games this season entering the contest, was unable to get on track from long distance.

HALFTIME DEFICIT TOO MUCH TO OVERCOME AS ZIPS FALL TO HARVARD, 76-63

Harvard jumped out to a 13-point lead at the halftime break that was too much to overcome, as the Akron women's basketball team fell to Harvard, 76-63, on day two of the FGCU Hilton Garden Inn Classic in Fort Myers, Fla.

Redshirt junior Megan Sefcik (Austintown, Ohio) and Shaunay Edmonds (Pittsburgh, Pa.) each scored 14 points in the afternoon affair. Sefcik scored 12 of her 14 points from long range (4-for-13), while Edmonds added three assists and a career-high six steals in a game. Sophomore forward Haliiegh Reinoehl (Westfield, Ind.) grabbed a team-high eight rebounds and scored an additional eight points for the Zips.

ZIPS HOLD ON IN FINAL MINUTES TO DROP SIU EDWARDSVILLE, 59-58

In a game that saw 13 lead changes between the Zips and Cougars, the Akron women's basketball team battled SIU Edwardsville down to the wire and came out on top with a 59-58 victory on day one of the Florida Gulf Coast Hilton Garden Inn Classic at the Alico Arena in Fort Myers, Fla.

The Zips (6-4) offensive charge was led by sophomore Haliiegh Reinoehl (Westfield, Ind.) and redshirt junior Megan Sefcik (Austintown, Ohio) who each scored in double-figures. Reinoehl went on to record her second double-double of the season and career, scoring 11 points and pulling in 10 rebounds. Sefcik, who has scored in double-digits in eight of the Zips ten games, added a 10 point, two assist, one steal, and one block effort. Sophomore guards Shaunay Edmonds (Pittsburgh, Pa.) and Alyssa Clay (Indianapolis, Ind.) also pitched in eight points each.

SEFCIK BREAKS AKRON RECORD, RAINS THREE'S, AND ZIPS ROLL TO 93-33 WIN OVER OHIO CHRISTIAN

Redshirt junior guard Megan Sefcik (Austintown, Ohio) broke the Akron women's basketball program record for most three-pointers in a single-game, 10, and scored a career-best 32 points as the Zips rolled to a 93-33 victory over Ohio Christian at James A. Rhodes Arena Saturday evening.

Sefcik found herself with the hot hand going 11-of-19 from the floor, with 10 of her made field goals coming from beyond the arc, which broke the program record. The Zips guard surpassed the previous record which was set a season ago by Hannah Plybon when she hit nine triples in a win against Canisius on Nov. 20, 2016. To go along with breaking a school record, Sefcik also tied the Mid-American Conference record for three-pointers in a single-game and beat her previous career-mark of 20 points with her 32 points, two rebound, two assists, two blocks, and two steal performance.

All 11 players that saw minutes on the court for the Zips contributed to Akron's 93 total points. Behind a game-high 32 points from Sefcik, was freshman Destiny Perkins (Indianapolis, Ind.) tying a career-high ten points to go along with a career-best six assists. Sophomores Shaunay Edmonds (Pittsburgh, Pa.), Alyssa Clay (Indianapolis, Ind.), and freshman Kynnedi Azubike (Columbus, Ohio) scored eight points each, including a combined nine rebounds, six assists, and two steals.

COMEBACK EFFORT FALLS SHORT AS ZIPS BATTLE DUQUESNE IN 66-60 DEFEAT

The University of Akron women's basketball team trailed by two points with 15 seconds to play after sophomore Alyssa Clay (Indianapolis, Ind.) completed a four-point play, but the Zips comeback effort fell just short as Duquesne defeated Akron, 66-60, on Dec. 9.

Three Akron players led the way for the Zips balanced offensive attack scoring in double-figures, including a career-night for Clay scoring 13 points after going 4-5 from the floor, nailing all four of her baskets from beyond the arc. Sophomore guard Shaunay Edmonds (Pittsburgh, Pa.) matched Clay with 13 points, along with six dimes and a steal, while senior Greta Burry (Lakewood, Ohio) added 11 points and pulled down seven rebounds off the glass.

KEST EARNS 400TH CAREER WIN IN 75-58 VICTORY OVER YOUNGSTOWN STATE

AKRON, Ohio- Redshirt junior Megan Sefcik (Austintown, Ohio) and sophomore Shaunay Edmonds (Pittsburgh, Pa.) scored a combined 39 points to lead the Akron women's basketball team to a 75-58 win over Youngstown State and earned head coach Jodi Kest her 400th career victory, Tuesday night at James A. Rhodes Arena. In her 25-year career, Kest earned 48 wins at Wilkes University, 105 victories at Gannon University, 73 W's at Texas A&M - Corpus Christie, and now the Zips' all-time winningest coach earned her 174th win with UA to total her 400th career victory.

Sefcik recorded a team-high 20 points, her second 20-point effort of the season, which again tied her career-mark. Sefcik has now scored in double-figures in five straight games and hit at least three triples in six contests, 4-for-8 tonight. Edmonds chipped in a season-high 19 points, hit a career-best four three-pointers in a single-game, dished out seven assists, and ripped four steals. Rounding out the Zips' in double figures in the point column was sophomore Shayna Harmon (Ashville, Ohio) who posted a ten point, three assist performance.

ZIPS BATTLE WITH NO. 15 MARYLAND, BUT FELL 75-54

The University of Akron women's basketball team battled with Big Ten Conference opponent and the 15th ranked team in the country, The University of Maryland, at James A. Rhodes Arena, but ultimately fell to the Terrapins', 75-54, on Dec. 2.

Sophomore guard Shaunay Edmonds led the Akron scoring efforts with a season-high 17 points, while recording four assists, and three steals. Redshirt junior Megan Sefcik contributed 13 points, knocking down three triples. Sefcik has now recorded double-digit points in four straight contests, and five of six games, thus far. Sophomore Haliiegh Reinoehl (Westfield, Ind.) led the Zips with seven rebounds, while adding six points.

AKRON DOWNS WINTHROP, 69-43, AS SEFCIK TIES CAREER-BEST 20 POINTS

In front of a crowd made up of nearly 1,000 fifth grade students from the Akron public schools on Education Day, redshirt junior Megan Sefcik tied her career-high scoring 20 points and lit up the three-point line as the Akron women's basketball team came out on top over Winthrop, 69-43, Tuesday morning at James A. Rhodes Arena.

En route to tying her career high in points, Sefcik shot 7-of-14 from the floor and 4-for-9 from beyond the arc, with all four triples and 14 points coming in the fourth quarter. The Zips guard also hit a pair of free throws, tallied three steals, and grabbed a rebound in 22 minutes of play. Senior Greta Burry recorded her second consecutive double-digit effort with a 10 point, three rebound performance. In back-to-back games, 11 of the 12 Zips players to check into the contest recorded a basket. In total, the Zips reserves scored 29 of Akron's 69 points.

Game Recaps

EARLY LEAD HELPS ZIPS DEFEAT EASTERN KENTUCKY, 62-45.

The University of Akron women's basketball team jumped out to a 20-point lead at the halftime break and never looked back as the Zips defeated Eastern Kentucky, 62-45, on Nov. 22, at James A. Rhodes Arena.

A pair of Zips scored in double-figures, as senior Greta Bury led the way with a team-high 14 points, while redshirt junior Megan Sefcik added 10 points. The Akron forward went 6-of-8 from the floor and hit a pair of free throws to total 14 points, while the Zips guard nailed all three of her field goals from long range.

ZIPS FALL TO FLORIDA GULF COAST, 82-63

In game four of the 2017 Akron Classic hosted by the Zips, The University of Akron women's basketball team fell to Florida Gulf Coast, 82-63, at James A. Rhodes Arena on Nov. 18.

Redshirt junior Megan Sefcik led the Zips with 13 points knocking down three triples from beyond the arc. In her second contest of the season, freshman Destiney Perkins scored her first collegiate points en route to a 10 point, four assist performance, while Edmonds contributed nine points and grabbed four rebounds.

REINOEHL'S CAREER NIGHT LEADS ZIPS TO FIRST WIN, 66-54, OVER SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA

Sophomore forward Haliiegh Reinoehl posted a career-night scoring 21 points and pulling in 11 rebounds en route to her first career double-double, as the University of Akron women's basketball team earned its first victory of the 2017-18 season in a 66-54 win over Southeastern Louisiana in game two of the Akron Classic on Nov. 17.

Reinoehl led all players with her game-high 21 points and first ever double-double. Not to get lost in the shadows of Reinoehl's game, is the all-around performance that sophomore guard Shaunay Edmonds put on scoring 16 points, dishing out four assists, and grabbing three rebounds.

A second pair of Zips also recorded career nights in sophomores Alyssa Clay and Caitlin Vari. In a career-most 14 minutes of play, Clay scored a career-best eight points and shot 2-for-5 from long range. Vari went a perfect 3-for-3 from the field and 1-for-1 from the free throw line to post a career-high seven points, as well as recording a career-most 16 rebounds (12 defensive, 4 offensive).

ZIPS DROP SEASON OPENER TO BUCKNELL, 63-52, DESPITE 19 POINTS FROM SEFCIK

The University of Akron women's basketball team trailed Bucknell by five points with three minutes to play, but the Bison ended the contest on a 9-3 scoring run in the final minute of the game to defeat the Zips, 63-52, on Nov. 5 in Lewisburg, Pa.

Redshirt junior Megan Sefcik scored a team-high 19 points after catching fire from long range. The Akron guard went 6-for-13 from the floor and drained five of her six buckets from beyond the arc.

JODI KEST

- ◆ Head Coach
- ◆ 12th season at Akron
- ◆ 26th season overall
- ◆ Slippery Rock (1984)

The longest tenured women's basketball head coach in the Mid-American Conference, Jodi Kest is in her 12th season at the helm of The University of Akron women's basketball program. The all-time winningest coach in program history, returns to the sidelines after guiding a young Zips' squad to a 9-21 record for the 2016-17 campaign.

Kest coached senior Hannah Plybon to her third Mid-American Conference postseason honor following the 2016-17 season, as the Zips career leader 3-point leader earned All-MAC honorable mention. The Zips finished last years campaign rated Nos. 3, 4 and 9 in the Akron single-season record book in three pointers attempted (681), triples made (206) and games played (30).

Kest has amassed nearly 400 victories in her coaching career, highlighted by registering at least 19 wins in three consecutive campaigns (2014-16). She has guided Akron to four postseason berths in the past five seasons (NCAA 2014, WNIT 2013, 2015 and 2016) and five overall postseason appearances in the last eight years.

Under Kest's tutelage, Akron has become well-known for its up-tempo style of play and has established itself as one of the top-scoring teams in the country. Kest's squad was ranked 54th nationally during the 2015-16 campaign in scoring offense averaging 71.3 points per game. Her 2015-16 team also rated in the top 50 nationally in three-pointers attempted (780), triples per game (7.8), three-pointers made (258) and rebounds (1,354).

Led by first-team All-Mid-American Conference performer senior Anita Brown, Akron finished the 2015-16 campaign with a 19-14 ledger en route to a second-place finish in the MAC Eastern Division at 11-7. The Zips garnered their fourth-consecutive postseason berth being selected to participate in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT), where Akron hosted Bucknell in the program's first-ever home postseason game.

A pair of Akron players earned All-MAC recognition as Brown was named a first-team selection, while junior Hannah Plybon was tabbed to the second team.

The 2015-16 Zips set several new single-season records, including, most games played (33), three-pointers made (258) and attempted (780) and triples made in a game (15) versus Buffalo in the semifinals of the MAC Tournament.

Akron's senior class of Megan Barilla, DiAndra Gibson and Brown capped an unprecedented run in Akron women's basketball success garnering more victories (87) than any other class in program history. The trio also became the first Zips' senior class to appear in the postseason during every year of their four-year careers.

In addition to its team accomplishments, Akron fielded several impressive individual accolades. Brown and Plybon registered the third- and ninth-best single-season scoring outputs in program history scoring 701 and 537 points, respectively. Plybon connected on a single-season record 104 three pointers, while Barilla recorded the first-ever triple-double in Akron's Division I history with a 10-point, 10-rebound and 10-assist performance in a 74-54 victory past Central Florida.

Additionally, Kest earned her 375th career victory at Eastern Michigan, 68-65, in overtime, before collecting her 150th triumph at Akron over Bowling Green, 71-55.

Brown garnered first-team All-MAC accolades after starting all 32 games in which she appeared for Akron this season en route to leading the conference in scoring (21.9) and ranking sixth in rebounding, pulling down a team-best 7.4 rebounds per game.

During her 10 seasons, Kest has seen 18 of her student-athletes earn All-MAC recognition, eight make the All-Freshman Team, two earn Sixth Player of the Year honors, and two named Player of the Year and WBCA All-Region. Additionally, she has coached 20 Academic All-MAC selections, including a record four in 2015-16 as Alli Ball, Plybon, Hannah Scipio and Megan Sefcik all earned the distinction.
