WHAT'S AHEAD

The Akron Zips will hit the road and travel to clash with Duquesne on Tuesday, Nov. 23. Tip off is scheduled for 7 p.m.

THE AKRON-DUQUESNE SERIES

DU leads the all-time series, 8-1

The Dukes own an 8-1 record all-time over the Zips, winning six consecutive games since 2010. The Zips met Duquesne during the 2019-20 season as the Dukes posted an 88-63 win over Akron at the Jar.

LAST TIME OUT

The Zips dropped to 2-1 after falling to Youngstown State on the road, 57-55 on Monday, Nov. 15.

Redshirt senior Jordyn Dawson (Huntington, W.Va.) led the Zips with a double-double scoring 19 points and grabbing 12 rebounds, while freshman Reagan Bass (Strongsville, Ohio) rounded out the double-figure scoring with 10 points and grabbed nine boards. Sophomore Annika Corcoran (Painesville, Ohio) contributed nine points.

The score remained knotted for three minutes before YSU knocked down a trio of three pointers that put the Penguins in control 55-49 with 1:45 left to play. The remainder of the game was a back-and-forth affair marked by clutch free throw shooting by the Zips. With 2.8 seconds remaining and down two, Ferrell was sent to the line to shoot a pair, but couldn't convert and YSU escaped with a 57-55 victory.

Akron shot 32.3 percent (20-of-62) from the floor and 19.2 percent (5-of-26) from beyond the arc, while YSU shot 32.2 percent from the floor and connected on 9-of-28 from three-point range. The Zips struggled from the charity stripe connecting on just 10-of-18 (55.6 percent).

THE 2021-22 CAMPAIGN

Head coach Melissa Jackson has many familiar faces on the roster for her fourth season at the helm. Jackson has gone on to capture 38 victories including owning the second-most wins by a head coach through three seasons in program history.

Senior Jordyn Dawson (Huntington, W.Va.), who averaged a team-high 15.9 points and 6.9 rebounds per contest a year ago en route to third-team All-Mid-American Conference accolades leads the returners. Akron will also be bolstered by the return of nearly its entire 2020-21 roster, including seniors Gabrielle Brown-Mitchell (Solon, Ohio)(4.2 ppg), Kendall Miller (Akron, Ohio)(5.5 ppg, 2.33 apg) and Colleen Neitzel (Rocky River, Ohio)(5.2 ppg, 3.9 rpg), junior Lonasia Brewer (Akron, Ohio)(10.3 ppg, 5.1 rpg) and redshirt sophomore Emma Tecca (Tallmadge, Ohio)(5.4 ppg), who all started in double-figure contests for the Zips.

Juniors Rachel Martindale (Pittsburgh, Pa.)(5.8 ppg) and Molly Neitzel (Rocky River, Ohio)(6.9 ppg, 3.5 rpg), redshirt sophomore Layne Ferrell (Franklin, Ohio)(5.5 ppg) and sophomore Alexis Stewart (Hamilton, Ontario)(2.9 ppg) added valuable contributions for Akron appearing in double-digit games last season.

Redshirt freshmen Alanna Carter (Mason, Ohio) and Sabhbh Edwards Murphy (County Clare, Ireland) each return after being sidelined for part or all of the campaign a season ago. Newcomers Reagan Bass(Strongsville, Ohio), Abby Carter (Geneva, Ohio), Annika Corcoran (Painesville, Ohio) and Zakia Rasheed(Avon, Ind.) round out the Akron women's basketball roster.

UP NEXT

Akron will be back in action and return back to the JAR on Monday, Nov. 29 to welcome Detroit Mercy. Tip off is scheduled for 7 p.m

WHAT IS A ZIP?

- One of the unique nicknames in collegiate athletics belongs to The University of Akron.
- Originally Zippers, athletic director Kenneth "Red" Cochrane officially shortened the nickname to the Zips in 1950. Twenty-five years earlier a campus-wide contest had been conducted to choose a nickname for the University's athletics teams.
- Suggestions submitted by students, faculty, and alumni included GoldenBlue Devils, Tip Toppers, Rubbernecks, Hillbillies, Kangaroos, and Cheveliers.
- The winner, freshman Margaret Hamlin, received a prize of $10 for Zippers, a $6 pair of rubber overshoes and a brand name of the BF Goodrich Company.
- The evolution of Zippy, UA's mascot, began 40 years ago when the student council decided the University needed a mascot.

ZIP'S INK TWO FOR 2022-23 CLASS

AKRON, Ohio- The Akron women's basketball head coach Melissa Jackson announced the addition of Aila Miller (Berlin, Ohio) and Faith Stinson (Thornville, Ohio), who each signed a National Letter of Intent to join the program on Wednesday.

Aila Miller | 5'11, Forward

Miller, a 5'11 forward from Berlin, Ohio, is a fundamental forward at Hiland High School. She has played a key role in the success at Hiland, helping the Hawks to three-winning seasons during her three years played. Last season, she was a key player in Hiland's 28-1 record and claiming the Division III State Championship.

Faith Stinson | 6'2, Forward

Stinson, a forward from Thornville, Ohio, is a three-year letterwinner at Sheridan High School. A two-time first team All-Ohio, first-team MVL, and first team Southeast District, she has garnered 982 points, 663 rebounds, and 208 blocks during her career. Last season, she was named Southeast District Player of the Year after averaging a double-double of 19.7 points and 12.2 rebounds during the regular season, while leading the Generals to its third District Championship during her time at Sheridan High School.

Faith Stinson, F, 6-2, Thornville, Ohio (Sheridan High School)

DID YOU KNOW

- Zippy is just one of eight female-gendered college mascots in Division I athletics. Do you know the other seven? (YoUDee, the Delaware Blue Hen; Mrs. Wuf of N.C. State; Lucy Lobo of New Mexico; Sue E. Pig of Arkansas; Miss Pawla of South Alabama, Kate the Lion of Hofstra; and Wilma Wildcat of Arizona).
- One of the unique nicknames in collegiate athletics belongs to The University of Akron.
- Originally Zippers, athletic director Kenneth "Red" Cochrane officially shortened the nickname to the Zips in 1950. Twenty-five years earlier a campus-wide contest had been conducted to choose a nickname for the University's athletics teams.
- Suggestions submitted by students, faculty, and alumni included Golden Blue Devils, Tip Toppers, Rubbernecks, Hillbillies, Kangaroos, and Cheveliers.
- The winner, freshman Margaret Hamlin, received a prize of $10 for Zippers, a $6 pair of rubber overshoes and a brand name of the BF Goodrich Company.
- The evolution of Zippy, UA's mascot, began 40 years ago when the student council decided the University needed a mascot.
- "Zippy" the kangaroo was officially declared the school's mascot on May 1, 1953. The first known printed reference to the mascot as "Zippy" was a 1965 Zip football press brochure. The Buchtelite's first use of the name "Zippy" came Sept. 24, 1965, in an identification of a photo of the cheerleaders listing "Mascot - 'Zippy' - Charles Huettner."
- In 2007, Zippy was named the Capital One National Mascot of the Year.

Zips LIVE, presented by Wentz Financial Group, is Akron's radio show on Thursday evenings from 6-7 p.m. with head coach Melissa Jackson and host David Skoczen.

Zips LIVE airs locally on Akron Sports Network flagship 640 WHLO. The broadcast can also be heard via the 640 WHLO channel on iHeartRadio. To listen on Amazon Echo or Google home devices, say "Play 640 WHLO on iHeartRadio." The Zips LIVE podcast is available on demand on the iHeartRadio app following each show.

THE NUMBERS ON AKRON BASKETBALL...

1 Fueled by a program-best 14-4 league record, the Zips captured their first ever Mid-American Conference Tournament title and NCAA Tournament berth in 2013-14.

7 Akron has made seven postseason appearances in its history, six of which have come in the last 10 seasons. In addition to the NCAA Tournament in 2014, the Zips advanced to the WNIT in 2016, 2015, 2013 and 1999, and the Women's Basketball Invitational in 2010 and 2019.

19 The number of Akron players in the Zips 44 year history who have eclipsed the 1,000 career point milestone.

23 The number of wins Akron posted in 2013-14 and 2012-13, which is a program record. The 23 victories two years ago marked a nine-win turnaround from the previous season.
46.6 The number of points that Rachel Tecca and Hanna Luburgh combine to score per game as seniors in 2013-14. Together, the seniors make up the highest scoring duo in the country.

32 The Zips have placed a student-athlete on the All-MAC Academic Team 32 times, highlighted by Jessie Crooks (2004-07), Hannah Plybon (2014-17) and Megan Sefcik (2016-19) making the squad three seasons in a row. A record five student-athletes earned Academic All-MAC recognition in 2012-13.

104 The number of three pointers Hannah Plybon connected on during the 2015-16 campaign, a school record.

259 The number of assists for Kacie Cassell in 2012-13, which ranks third all-time in the Mid-American Conference for a single season. As a junior, she broke UA's single-season assists record after just 21 games, and finished the year as the national leader in assists per game with 7.8.

2,317 The number of points Rachel Tecca scored during her career, making her Akron's all-time leading scorer. She was the second player in MAC history to surpass 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds in a career

MELISSA JACKSON

Head Coach

Third Season at Akron
13th Season Overall at Akron
Richmond '04

Fourth-year head coach Melissa Jackson enters the 2021-20 campaign after leading the Zips to a 7-14 overall record and an 4-14 mark in the Mid-American Conference action a season ago.

Since taking over, Jackson has gone on to capture a 38-43 overall record (as of March 3), including owning the most victories by a head coach through two seasons in program history and posting top-eight league finishes in back-to-back campaigns.

The Zips entered the 2019-20 campaign returning four starters, all seniors. Shayna Harmon, Haliegh Reinoehl and Caitlin Vari, started all 31 games for Akron as juniors, while Shaunay Edmonds earned the starting assignment 24 times.

The challenge for Jackson and her staff in year two was to continue the growth and development both on and off the court that her players established in her initial campaign as head coach. That was important for Jackson as the Zips' roster boasted six newcomers seeking to mesh with a talented core of upperclassmen.

Akron opened the season winning four of its first five games en route to going 7-4 in non-conference action. The Zips added their third tournament title under Jackson claiming the trophy at the 2019 Puerto Rico Clasico in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Akron improved its conference ledger by one win on the year at 8-10 overall, doubled its road victory total from a year earlier and earned a home MAC Tournament game for the second consecutive season.

The Zips proved a challenging opponent for its MAC foes as Akron was involved in seven games decided by five points or less, and 13 by 10 or fewer points.

One of Akron's biggest wins came on Feb. 19, 2020, when the Zips sparked by a 24-point, 13-rebound effort from Reinoehl, took down Buffalo, the defending MAC Tournament champion, 69-63. The victory marked the first for Akron on the Bulls' homecourt since the 2014-15 campaign.

Reinoehl and Jordyn Dawson were tabbed as third- and honorable-mention All-MAC selections, while Edmonds and Reinoehl became the 18th and 19th Zips, respectively, to surpass the 1,000-point plateau.

Akron registered a 3.23 team GPA for the fall 2019 term, with Alyssa Clay, Harmon, Kendall Miller and Vari garnering Academic All-MAC accolades.

In her first season as head coach, Jackson led the Zips to a 16-15 overall record, a +7 win differential from the 2017-18 campaign, and a 7-11 Mid-American Conference mark. Akron secured a No. 8 seed in the 2019 MAC Championship Tournament and later participated in the 2019 Women's Basketball Invitational, the teams second trip to the WBI since 2010 and first postseason tournament since 2016.

Throughout the 2018-19 season, Jackson secured her first head coach victory against North Carolina A&T (49-36), became the second head coach in program history to win the first three games of a debut season and first to do so in the Division I era, and cemented her name into the Zips history books as the all-time winningest first-year head coach with 16 victories.

The University of Akron Director of Athletics Larry Williams announced on June 27, 2018, that Jackson was selected as the head coach of the Akron women's basketball program.

Following her 10-year stint on the Zips staff that included six years as associate head coach, Jackson became the 10th head coach in Akron women's basketball history.

As the recruiting coordinator, Jackson was instrumental in bringing the Akron women's basketball program to the forefront of the MAC. Akron's 2013-14 senior class marked Jackson's first full recruiting class at Akron, and ended their careers as the all-time winningest class in school history with 74 victories over four years.

In 2015-16, two of her pupils, Anita Brown and Hannah Plybon, garnered All-MAC honors. Brown, who averaged 18.8 points, 6.7 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.3 steals per contest, while connecting at a 47.3 percent clip from the field en route to earning second-team all-conference accolades. Plybon turned in a breakout campaign in 2014-15 registering 13.2 points, 3.3 rebounds and 1.9 assists per game en route to earning third-team All-MAC honors. She set a then single-season school record for three pointers made with 97 and attempted the second-highest single-season total (260) in program history.

Jackson mentored five of the most prolific passers in Akron single-season history, Kacie Cassell, Megan Barilla, Ayla Guzzardo, Natasha Williams, and Shaunay Edmonds, while Cassell, Barilla, and Brown each rank in the programs top-ten for most assists in a career. Jackson's coaching on and off the court helped Cassell become the programs all-time assists leader during her four-year career (2010-14) with 688 total assists, while she also holds the top two spots for most assists in single-season history (2012-13, 2013-14).

From 2012-14, Jackson transformed Hanna Luburgh into one of the most feared shooting guards in the conference. Luburgh left the program as the fourth all-time leading scorer in school history with 1,634 points. She also set the single-season scoring record as a senior, posting a league-leading 734 points. The two-time all-conference and all-MAC Tournament selection ranked 13th in the country in points per game.

Also under Jackson's watch, Taylor Ruper earned All-MAC honors in 2012. During Ruper's career at Akron, Jackson helped to develop her into Akron's then all-time leading three-point shooter, and one of the best long-range shooters in the league. Four years later, Plybon under the guidance of Jackson, became the new all-time three-point specialist and ended her career with a program-best 313 triples made, including 104 three-pointers made in 2015-16.

Jackson joined the UA staff after helping to guide the University of Delaware program to three postseason berths – including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2007 – in four seasons while in the same role from 2004-05 to 2007-08.

During Jackson's time at Delaware, the Blue Hens captured a Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) regular season championship in 2004-05, a pair of WNIT berths in 2005 and 2006, and earned an at-large bid to the Big Dance with a 26-6 record in 2007. Overall, UD posted a four-year record of 80-44 (.645) and won 71 percent of its conference games (51-21) during that stretch. Jackson, who worked primarily with the guards at Delaware, helped mentor 2007 WNBA draftee (No. 18 overall) and former Detroit Shock guard Tyresa Smith and a pair of CAA defensive players of the year in Smith ('06, '07) and Kyle DeHaven ('08). Jackson also played key roles in the recruitment of Jocelyn Bailey, a Top 100 player according to HoopGurlz.com in 2008, and Tesia Harris, the 14th-best swing guard in the nation according to the All-Star Girls Report in 2007.

Jackson played four seasons at the University of Richmond and earned a political science degree in May of 2004. She appeared in 50 career games as a guard with the Atlantic 10 Conference power and earned WNIT berths in both 2003 and 2004. Her '04 squad advanced to the semifinals.

A former All-State selection at Hazleton Area High School in Hazleton, Pa., Jackson is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and has participated in a number of charitable programs, including Habitat for Humanity, Helping Hands and Adopt a Grandparent.

Jackson and her husband, Drew, currently reside in Bay Village with their sons, Luke and Ben.
