ALL-AMERICANS

Since 1998, The University of Akron track and field program has produced more than 50 All-Americans, garnering more than 100 All-American honors. Of that esteemed group, six Zips have gone on to win the NCAA Championship; Christi Smith captured the heptathlon crown in 2000, Stevi Large won the hammer in 2009, Shawn Barber took the Indoor Pole Vault championship in 2014 and 2015 and Outdoor title in 2015, Annika Roloff won the gold in the Outdoor Pole Vault competition in 2014, while Clayton Murphy took home top honors in the 2016 Indoor 800M and 2016 Outdoor 1,500M and Matt Ludwig won the men's outdoor pole vault in 2017.
