"Coach Moorhead and I spoke about performance and leadership and all the qualities you want in someone in an elite or leadership position," said Sahlfeld. "They earned it all the way from January being accountable, holding their teammates to higher standards, doing all the little things right on a day-to-day basis and being consistent. They have a voice on the team and when they talk people listen. Both are the leaders on their side of the ball when it comes to holding their teammates accountable, having a high standard for themselves and their teammates and bringing people with them and picking people up when they're having bad days."

- Zippy is just one of eight female-gendered college mascots in Division I athletics. Do you know the other seven? (YoUDee, the Delaware Blue Hen; Mrs. Wuf of N.C. State; Lucy Lobo of New Mexico; Sue E. Pig of Arkansas; Miss Pawla of South Alabama, Kate the Lion of Hofstra; and Wilma Wildcat of Arizona).
- Akron was the first school to jump from Division I-AA football (now called FCS) to I-A (now called FBS). The Zips made the move in 1987.
- Hall of Fame coach John Heisman coached football from 1893-94 for Buchtel College (Akron's original name). The Cleveland native went on to take Georgia Tech to the national championship in 1917. The Heisman Trophy, given to the nation's most outstanding college player, is named in his honor.
- On Sept. 12, 2015, an 8-ft., 750-lb. bronze statue of Heisman was unveiled at InfoCision Stadium (outside Gate 1).
- Only one player in school history has had his number retired- #89 Chris Angeloff. The junior tight end collapsed and died of cardiac arrest during UA's 20-8 victory over Marshall on Sept. 6, 1975. The Chris Angeloff Scholarship was created in his honor.
- Three players, two coaches, and two teams are members of Akron's Ring of Honor: Coach Jim Dennison, Chris Angeloff, 1968 team, and the 1976 team (all inducted in 2003); Jason Taylor (2004); Gordon Larson (2005); and Charlie Frye (2015).

AKRON TRADITIONS

JOHN HEISMAN

Story reprinted with permission from Akron Magazine

The story goes that Buchtel College's quarterback, 6-foot-4 inch Harry Clark, had trouble bending low enough to pick up the football when the center snapped it to him.

Squirted it to him was more like it.

At that point in football history, 1893, the center transferred the ball to the quarterback by putting one hand over the front of the ball and pressing down on the back with his other hand. When he released the front hand, the ball would flip up and back in the general direction of the backfield.

It was an awkward maneuver, to say the least, and resulted in many fumbles.

Buchtel's coach had a better idea. Why not have the center simply pitch the ball back through his legs? Shotgun-style, we'd call it today.

It worked.

Clark saved his back, and Buchtel cut down on its fumbles. No one objected, and by the end of the season all colleges were using the new center snap.

So how did Heisman end up in Akron?

After the 1892 season, the students again besieged the Reverend Orello Cone, Buchtel's president since 1880, pleading with him to convince the Board of Trustees to hire someone to coach the college's club teams. Cone pushed the measure through.

The students' first choice was Heisman, and they moved quickly to get him. The young coach was invited to campus in January, and after inspecting the facilities he spelled out the terms under which he would render his services. At a meeting of the trustees' executive committee on Jan. 28, 1893, the committee agreed to extend Heisman a one-year contract as "gymnasium director" and "special teacher of gymnastics in baseball and football." The board not only agreed to pay Heisman $900, but to build a long-sought baseball cage – provided the students raised $300 toward Heisman's salary and paid off the remaining salary of the previous gym director. The weekly student newspaper, The Buchtelite, ran the headline:

"HEISMAN! HEISMAN! Rah! Rah! Rah!"

Alas, John W. Heisman's association with Buchtel wasn't a long or especially satisfying one for him – the faculty and trustees got together and legislated his job out of existence. But it did have its moments. In 1894, when he technically wasn't even working for the college, Heisman engineered a 12-6 win over Ohio State. He played quarterback in the game to boot.

After retiring from coaching, Heisman served as the New York City Downtown Athletic Club's first athletic director, starting in 1930. The club awarded its first trophy to the nation's top college football player in 1935 and renamed the trophy in memory of Heisman when he died a year later at age 66.

THE WAGON WHEEL

According to legend, the "Wagon Wheel" came into being in the spring of 1870 when John R. Buchtel, an Akron industrialist, at the insistence of Rev. Andrew Willson of the Kent Universalist Church, set out for Kent in search of a site for a proposed college. However, his wagon became bogged down in the mud where Kent State University is currently located, the horses broke away and left bits and pieces of the carriage scattered, including one of the wheels, which remained wedged in the mud.

Buchtel eventually found his way back to Akron, where he settled on a site for Buchtel College, the forerunner of the present University of Akron.

During construction of a pipeline along the Western Reserve Trail in 1902, the wheel was discovered and eventually became the property of Dr. Raymond Manchester, who in 1945 as the Kent State Dean of Men, suggested the wheel be set up as an award to the winner of the annual Akron-Kent State football game.

Manchester had the wheel painted blue and gold, the school colors of both schools, and it has been a prized trophy ever since. Each spoke bears a plaque verifying the score of each game.

In 1946, Kent State defeated the Zips, 13-6, to capture the Wagon Wheel Trophy. After a KSU win in 1954, the series between the two schools went into hibernation. Not until Sept. 9, 1972, was the series revived. In that game, played at the Rubber Bowl, 25,131 saw UA grab a 13-0 lead, but KSU battled back to score 13 fourth-quarter points, and the contest ended in a tie. Akron was then awarded custodial rights for a two-year period for its first possession of the prized trophy since its inception.

The Zips 37-28-2 in the Wagon Wheel Series. In 2011, the Wagon Wheel was the inspiration behind the creation of the Crystal Clinic Wagon Wheel Challenge. The Wagon Wheel Challenge broadened the Akron-Kent State rivalry to include all 14 NCAA varsity sports that are sponsored by both programs. The Crystal Clinic Wagon Wheel Challenge ended after 2022-23 academic year.

DID YOU KNOW

• Zippy is just one of eight female-gendered college mascots in Division I athletics. Do you know the other seven? (YoUDee, the Delaware Blue Hen; Mrs. Wuf of N.C. State; Lucy Lobo of New Mexico; Sue E. Pig of Arkansas; Miss Pawla of South Alabama, Kate the Lion of Hofstra; and Wilma Wildcat of Arizona).

• Akron was the first school to jump from Division I-AA football (now called FCS) to I-A (now called FBS). The Zips made the move in 1987.

• Hall of Fame coach John Heisman coached football from 1893-94 for Buchtel College (Akron's original name). The Cleveland native went on to take Georgia Tech to the national championship in 1917. The Heisman Trophy, given to the nation's most outstanding college player, is named in his honor.

• On Sept. 12, 2015, an 8-ft., 750-lb. bronze statue of Heisman was unveiled at InfoCision Stadium (outside Gate 1).

• Only one player in school history has had his number retired- #89 Chris Angeloff. The junior tight end collapsed and died of cardiac arrest during UA's 20-8 victory over Marshall on Sept. 6, 1975. The Chris Angeloff Scholarship was created in his honor.

• Three players, two coaches, and two teams are members of Akron's Ring of Honor: Coach Jim Dennison, Chris Angeloff, 1968 team, and the 1976 team (all inducted in 2003); Jason Taylor (2004); Gordon Larson (2005); and Charlie Frye (2015).

'Symbolic in a lot of ways': Akron football team finds inspiration in Turnover Tire

Akron Beacon Journal - By George Thomas - Published 1:58 p.m. ET Sept. 12, 2023

Viral moments related to the University of Akron football team rarely turn up in the program's favor. That changed Saturday when the Zips and their Turnover Tire enjoyed a moment in the spotlight after beating the Morgan State Bears on the type of play that sealed the team's fate in the past.

On a third-and-9 at their own 21 with 59 seconds left in the game and protecting a four-point lead, running back J.J. Davis took a handoff for the Bears. UA defensive lineman CJ Nunnally IV busted through the left side of the Bears O-line and poked the ball free. A split second later, linebacker Bryan McCoy scooped the ball up and ran 13 yards for a UA touchdown to ultimately give them a 24-21 victory in their home opener.

For their efforts, the team brought out the Turnover Tire in recognition.

The symbolism of it being associated with a college football team representing the Rubber City is inescapable, but it goes beyond that for UA coach Joe Moorhead, who is in his second year coaching the team.

Akron football coach Joe Moorhead looks to establish tradition

The tire was something he conceived at the tail end of camp, he told the Beacon Journal on Tuesday.

"Other people have the chains and the thrones and the slot machines, and that's kind of a lot of pomp and circumstance and glitz and glamor, and that's cool," he said. "But the identity that I want this football team to kind of embody is what the Akron area is." Moorhead understands where Akron fits in the fabric of Northeast Ohio and had his equipment manager acquire a couple of worn-down tires.

"It's almost symbolic in a lot of ways of how people view this program that we are just not a worthy or worthwhile program," he said. "And at the end of the day, what we got to do is find a way to dust it off and shine them up. And there's still plenty of tread on the tires in this program and we're going to find a way to make it work, put it on the car and drive this thing, drive this thing to success."

Akron Zips football get positive feedback for Turnover Tire

Not surprisingly, his players greeted the addition of the tire with enthusiasm. And Moorhead admits that it's pretty cool that it had a viral moment on the national stage, but he also appreciates hearing from fans.

"I was taking out the garbage [Monday] night and the guy who lives across the street from me was having a catch with his son and yelled across the street, 'Hey coach, great win. Congratulations. Love the tires, keep it rolling,'" he said. "So, I didn't mean for it to be gimmicky, there really is some substance to it, but at the same time it's kind of the anticelibration in a lot of ways."

Fordham '96

Joe Moorhead, an inspirational leader of student-athletes and one of the most ingenious offensive minds in football, was named the head coach of The University of Akron football program on Dec. 4, 2021.

In his third season at Akron, Moorhead secured back-to-back Wagon Wheel victories as the Zips posted a 4-8 overall record and 3-5 in MAC play. Akron ended the season on a two-game winning streak. The Zips won the rivalry game at Kent State (38-17) and returned to Akron for an overtime win in the season finale against Toledo (21-14). For the third straight season, five Zips were named to the All-MAC squad, brining the career total to 15 (First Team - DL CJ Nunnally, IV, P Avery Book | Second Team - WR Adrian Norton, LB Bryan McCoy | Third Team - DB Paul Lewis III). Book was also named a CSC Academic All-American (first for Akron since 2016).

In his second season at Akron, Moorhead brought the Wagon Wheel back to Akron as he led the Zips to a 2-10 overall record and 1-7 in MAC play. The Zips continued the trend of being competitive as Akron dropped five games by seven points or less, including three overtime games against Indiana (4OT), Eastern Michigan (3 OT) and Buffalo (OT). Five Zips were named to the All-MAC squad, brining the total (First Team - DL CJ Nunnally, IV | Second Team - WR Jasaiah Gathings, WR Daniel George | Third Team - LB Bryan McCoy, S KJ Martin).

In his first season with the Zips, Moorhead led the Zips to a 2-10 overall record and 1-7 in MAC play. The Zips ability to be competitive and be in a position to win games was evident as Akron dropped five of the final eight games by seven points or less. Five players were named to the All-MAC team (First-Team - LB Bubba Arslanian, WR Alex Adams | Third-team - QB DJ Irons, WR Shockey Jacques-Louis and OL Anthony Whigan).

A native of Pittsburgh, Moorhead returns to the Midwest, where he was a member of the Zips coaching staff from 2004-08, including serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2006-2008.

Moorhead, who has spent two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Oregon, has a proven track record of success over his nearly quarter century in coaching, including six seasons as a head coach at Mississippi State (2018-19) and Fordham University (2012-15).

Moorhead has been the play-caller for five programs that have won a conference championship, including Oregon (2020), Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

Moorhead has played an integral role in player development during his coaching career, including mentoring 20 players who have been chosen in the previous five NFL drafts. Among those selections were four first-round picks, headlined by New York Giants running back Saquon Barkley, who was named the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2019.

Moorhead guided Oregon's offensive efforts in 2021 in his 14th season as a team's primary offensive play-caller in the last 15 years. He played a key role in the success of the Oregon football team last fall, a 10-4 squad that played in its third consecutive Pac-12 Championship Game before competing at the Valero Alamo Bowl against No. 16 Oklahoma.

Moorhead directed the Ducks' offense to success last fall as Oregon ranked 42nd in the NCAA with 31.4 points per game and 50th with 423.6 yards of total offense per contest. Moorhead's unit was even more impressive on the ground as the Ducks rated 24th nationally with 202.4 rushing yards per tilt, including 36 rushing touchdowns, a total that ranked sixth in the NCAA in 2021.

Moorhead came to Oregon from Mississippi State, where he served as head coach during the 2018 and 2019 campaigns. He led the Bulldogs to back-to-back bowl appearances, the first Mississippi State head coach to do so in their first two seasons in program history, while also sparking the Bulldogs to a pair of triumphs over rival Ole Miss, claiming the Golden Egg Trophy both seasons.

Moorhead is a graduate of Fordham University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English in 1996. A team captain and three-year starter at quarterback, he garnered second-team All-Patriot League accolades as a senior en route to ranking 13th nationally in total offense.
