NOW IT'S TIME FOR THE BREAKDOWN

The University of Akron football team closes a two-game road swing ahead of its bye week with the 69th Battle for the Wagon Wheel on Saturday, Oct. 24, 2026, at Dix Stadium. UA and rival Kent State kick things off at 1 p.m. ET with coverage on ESPN+ and the Akron Sports Radio Network via flagship station 640 WHLO-AM.

THE SERIES – THE BATTLE FOR THE WAGON WHEEL

Akron is meeting Kent State for the 69th time in program history with the Zips owning a 37-29-2 series advantage. The Golden Flashes currently hold the Wagon Wheel thanks to a 42-35 OT win last year at ICSSHF.

THE COACHES

Joe Moorhead, an inspirational leader of student-athletes and one of the most ingenious offensive minds in football, was named the head coach of The University of Akron football program on Dec. 4, 2021. The 2025 season saw the Zips post their best season since 2017, going 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC. Akron finished the year on a 3-1 streak, capping the season with a 19-16 victory over Bowling Green.

Mark Carney joined Kent State in January 2023 as the tight ends coach. He was elevated to OC in 2024, took over as interim HC in April 2025 and earned the official title on Oct. 30, 2025. Prior to joining the staff at Kent, he previously coached at Charlotte, Virginia State, Baldwin Wallace, Richmond and his alma mater, Fordham.

PUNCHING ABOVE ITS WEIGHT CLASS

- Akron's tiny athletic budget is producing out sized results. The Zips spent $33.8-million on athletics a year ago, a far cry from the projected $500m budget of Ohio State.
- UA has the smallest budget in the MAC and the second-lowest among public schools in the NCAA FBS.
- Despite that, UA won seven titles and produced one of the strongest all-around seasons in school history.
- Akron finished near the top of the league's Reese and Jacoby Trophy standings, which recognize the MAC's best programs, while placing 104th in the Learfield Directors' Cup, which ranks schools across all NCAA sports.
- A recent analysis by consulting firm Huron ranked the Zips as the top value in the MAC and ninth among public FBS schools, estimating Akron generated roughly $194,500 in competitive value for every $1 million spent on athletics.

- UA has been particularly successful on the fundraising front, with cash contributions climbing 109% over the past year, from $1.7m to $3.6m.
- That total fell just $129,000 short of the school's single-year record. The school's ACE NIL Fund, which helps finance name, image and likeness opportunities for student-athletes, also raised more than $664,000 in its first year.
- The topper? Akron balanced its budget.

ZIPPS

WHAT IS A ZIP?

- The name "Zippy" comes from our athletics nickname, the "Zippers" (now shortened to just "Zips"). The name "Zippers" was submitted in a contest by student, Margaret Hamlin, in 1927 to pay homage to a popular rubber overshoe with zippers manufactured by The B.F. Goodrich Company. The slogan, "Zip go the Zippers", is still used today in the UA fight song.

AKRON TRADITIONS

JOHN HEISMAN

Story reprinted with permission from Akron Magazine

The story goes that Buchtel College's quarterback, 6-foot-4 inch Harry Clark, had trouble bending low enough to pick up the football when the center snapped it to him.

Squirted it to him was more like it.

At that point in football history, 1893, the center transferred the ball to the quarterback by putting one hand over the front of the ball and pressing down on the back with his other hand. When he released the front hand, the ball would flip up and back in the general direction of the backfield.

It was an awkward maneuver, to say the least, and resulted in many fumbles.

Buchtel's coach had a better idea. Why not have the center simply pitch the ball back through his legs? Shotgun-style, we'd call it today.

It worked.

Clark saved his back, and Buchtel cut down on its fumbles. No one objected, and by the end of the season all colleges were using the new center snap.

So how did Heisman end up in Akron?

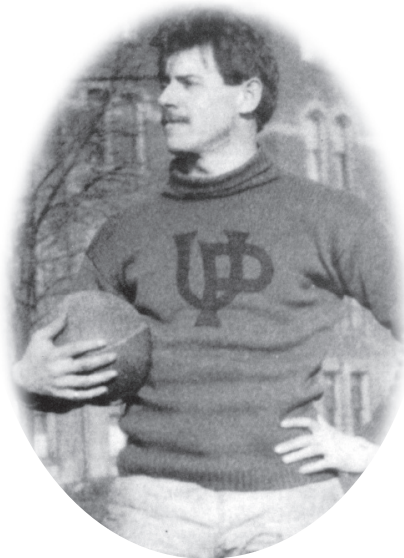

After the 1892 season, the students again besieged the Reverend Orello Cone, Buchtel's president since 1880, pleading with him to convince the Board of Trustees to hire someone to coach the college's club teams. Cone pushed the measure through.

The students' first choice was Heisman, and they moved quickly to get him. The young coach was invited to campus in January, and after inspecting the facilities he spelled out the terms under which he would render his services. At a meeting of the trustees' executive committee on Jan. 28, 1893, the committee agreed to extend Heisman a one-year contract as "gymnasium director" and "special teacher of gymnastics in baseball and football." The board not only agreed to pay Heisman $900, but to build a long-sought baseball cage - provided the students raised $300 toward Heisman's salary and paid off the remaining salary of the previous gym director. The weekly student newspaper, The Buchtelite, ran the headline:

"HEISMAN! HEISMAN! Rah! Rah! Rah!"

Alas, John W. Heisman's association with Buchtel wasn't a long or especially satisfying one for him - the faculty and trustees got together and legislated his job out of existence. But it did have its moments. In 1894, when he technically wasn't even working for the college, Heisman engineered a 12-6 win over Ohio State. He played quarterback in the game to boot.

After retiring from coaching, Heisman served as the New York City Downtown Athletic Club's first athletic director, starting in 1930. The club awarded its first trophy to the nation's top college football player in 1935 and renamed the trophy in memory of Heisman when he died a year later at age 66.

THE WAGON WHEEL

According to legend, the "Wagon Wheel" came into being in the spring of 1870 when John R. Buchtel, an Akron industrialist, at the insistence of Rev. Andrew Willson of the Kent Universalist Church, set out for Kent in search of a site for a proposed college. However, his wagon became bogged down in the mud where Kent State University is currently located, the horses broke away and left bits and pieces of the carriage scattered, including one of the wheels, which remained wedged in the mud.

Buchtel eventually found his way back to Akron, where he settled on a site for Buchtel College, the forerunner of the present University of Akron.

During construction of a pipeline along the Western Reserve Trail in 1902, the wheel was discovered and eventually became the property of Dr. Raymond Manchester, who in 1945 as the Kent State Dean of Men, suggested the wheel be set up as an award to the winner of the annual Akron-Kent State football game.

Manchester had the wheel painted blue and gold, the school colors of both schools, and it has been a prized trophy ever since. Each spoke bears a plaque verifying the score of each game.

In 1946, Kent State defeated the Zips, 13-6, to capture the Wagon Wheel Trophy. After a KSU win in 1954, the series between the two schools went into hibernation. Not until Sept. 9, 1972, was the series revived. In that game, played at the Rubber Bowl, 25,131 saw UA grab a 13-0 lead, but KSU battled back to score 13 fourth-quarter points, and the contest ended in a tie. Akron was then awarded custodial rights for a two-year period for its first possession of the prized trophy since its inception.

The Zips 37-28-2 in the Wagon Wheel Series. In 2011, the Wagon Wheel was the inspiration behind the creation of the Crystal Clinic Wagon Wheel Challenge. The Wagon Wheel Challenge broadened the Akron-Kent State rivalry to include all 14 NCAA varsity sports that are sponsored by both programs. The Crystal Clinic Wagon Wheel Challenge ended after 2022-23 academic year.

TURNOVER TIRE

A more recent tradition is the turnover tire.

Coach Moorhead understands where Akron fits in the fabric of Northeast Ohio and had his equipment manager acquire a couple of worn-down tires.

When the Zips force a turnover, the player credited with the stat wears a tire around his neck on the sideline.

Joe Moorhead, an inspirational leader of student-athletes and one of the most ingenious offensive minds in football, was named the head coach of The University of Akron football program on Dec. 4, 2021.

2025 saw the Zips post their best season since 2017, going 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC. Akron finished the year on a 3-1 streak, capping the season with a 19-16 victory over Bowling Green. Jordan Gant became the first 1,000-yard rusher since Dennis Kennedy ran for 1,321 yards in 2008. Gant finished the season with 1,032 yards. The Akron football team had six players earn MAC postseason accolades as Jordan Gant, Julien Laventure, Israel Polk Marcel Williams garnered Second-Team All-MAC accolades followed by Bruno Dall and Keylen Davis with Third-Team All-MAC honors

In his third season at Akron, Moorhead secured back-to-back Wagon Wheel victories as the Zips posted a 4-8 overall record and 3-5 in MAC play. Akron ended the season on a two-game winning streak. The Zips won the rivalry game at Kent State (38-17) and returned to Akron for an overtime win in the season finale against Toledo (21-14). For the third straight season, five Zips were named to the All-MAC squad, brining the career total to 15 (First Team - DL CJ Nunnally, IV, P Avery Book | Second Team - WR Adrian Norton, LB Bryan McCoy | Third Team - DB Paul Lewis III). Book was also named a CSC Academic All-American (first for Akron since 2016).

In his second season at Akron, Moorhead brought the Wagon Wheel back to Akron as he led the Zips to a 2-10 overall record and 1-7 in MAC play. The Zips continued the trend of being competitive as Akron dropped five games by seven points or less, including three overtime games against Indiana (40T), Eastern Michigan (3 OT) and Buffalo (OT). Five Zips were named to the All-MAC squad, brining the total (First Team - DL CJ Nunnally, IV | Second Team - WR Jasaiah Gathings, WR Daniel George | Third Team - LB Bryan McCoy, S KJ Martin).

In his first season with the Zips, Moorhead led the Zips to a 2-10 overall record and 1-7 in MAC play. The Zips ability to be competitive and be in a position to win games was evident as Akron dropped five of the final eight games by seven points or less. Five players were named to the All-MAC team (First-Team - LB Bubba Arslanian, WR Alex Adams | Third-team - QB DJ Irons, WR Shockey Jacques-Louis and OL Anthony Whigan).

A native of Pittsburgh, Moorhead returned to the Midwest in late 2021, where he was a member of the Zips coaching staff from 2004-08, including serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2006-2008.

Moorhead, who has spent two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Oregon, has a proven track record of success over his nearly quarter century in coaching, including six seasons as a head coach at Mississippi State (2018-19) and Fordham University (2012-15).

He has been the play-caller for five programs that have won a conference championship, including Oregon (2020), Penn State (2018), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

Moorhead has played an integral role in player development during his coaching career, including mentoring 20 players who have been chosen in the previous five NFL drafts. Among those selections were four first-round picks, headlined by New York Giants running back Saquon Barkley, who was named the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year in 2019.

Moorhead is a graduate of Fordham University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English in 1996. A team captain and three-year starter at quarterback, he garnered second-team All-Patriot League accolades as a senior en route to ranking 13th nationally in total offense.

Moorhead and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra, and sons Mason and Donovan.
