SERIES GAMES NOTES

SERIES HISTORY:

All-Time Series: ASU leads the series 10-9

Last Meeting: Feb. 25, 2024: UTT, 11-9 – San Angelo

In what has become a back and forth affair since the first meeting in 2021, the Rams hold onto a one game lead in the series despite the Patriots taking three of the four game series last season.

LAST TIME OUT:

ASU opened the 2025 season with a four-game sweep of UT Permian Basin at home by combined score of 51-7. The Rams scored 10+ plus in every contest with a run being scored by 12 different batters.

The Rams lead the Lone Star Conference in team batting average (.445), on base percentage (.570), stolen bases (12), ERA (1.61), hits allowed (17), runs allowed (7) and opponents' batting average (.183).

SCOUTING UT TYLER:

The Patriots came out the gates red hot to start the 2025 season, after a close 7-6 game one victory, UTT scored 15+ runs in each of the last three contests to secure a sweep of then No. 12-ranked Lubbock Christian on the road.

UT Tyler lead the LSC in multiple offensive categories including runs scored (56), hits (54), doubles (18), home runs (7), RBIs (53), slugging percentage (.683) and walks (34). Leading the charge is sophomore infielder Drew Schmidt who leads the Patriots in every offensive stat aside from home runs.

From the mound, the Patriots sit eighth in the LSC with a 4.91 ERA as a staff. Unanimous Preseason All-Region selection Rawley Hector highlights the rotation as he delivered six innings where he allowed three runs (one earned) off three hits and three walks.

CONFERENCE FAVORITES:

The Rams were selected as the favorites to take the 2025 LSC crown, earning the top spot in the preseason poll with 483 points, including 29 of the 39 first-place votes. Coming in second was Lubbock Christian followed by West Texas A&M, UT Tyler and St. Edwards to round out the top five.

RAMS IN THE RANKINGS:

ASU begins the season ranked No. 2 by the NCBWA, ABCA and D2 Baseball in their respective preseason polls.

The background of the page is a faded, blue-tinted image of a baseball trophy and players celebrating. The trophy is a large, red, multi-tiered structure with a central archway. A banner across the middle of the trophy reads "NATIONAL CHAMPION". Several players in blue and white uniforms are visible, some holding the trophy and others celebrating. The overall scene is one of triumph and achievement.

2023 NCAA DIVISION II NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

MEET THE STAFF - HEAD COACH KEVIN BROOKS

Kevin Brooks has guided the Angelo State baseball program to seven NCAA Division II College World Series appearances with seven South Central Championships and has compiled an impressive 790-354 overall record since starting the ASU program in 2005. In 2023, the Rams claimed the Division II National Championship for the first time in program history.

The only coach in ASU baseball history, he has recorded 12 trips to the NCAA postseason. The Rams are the only Lone Star Conference team to ever make the College World Series and Brooks has taken them there six times in 19 seasons at the helm, including back-to-back appearances in 2015-2016 and three consecutive seasons in 2021, 2022 and 2023. The Rams have also won the Lone Star Conference tournament championship six times, including sweeping the competition in 2015, 2021, 2022, and 2023 while also winning in 2007 and 2012. The Rams have never had a losing season under Brooks and have compiled 40-plus wins in 10 seasons.

His list of accomplishments includes the 2023 NCAA Division II national title, the NCAA Division II South Central Regional titles in 2007, 2015, 2016, 2021, 2022, and 2023. The Rams earned LSC regular-season titles in 2006, 2007, 2012, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022, and 2023 while winning the tournament championship in 2012, 2015, 2021, 2022, and 2023. He has coached 125 All-Lone Star Conference selections, 55 All-Region picks and 28 All-American selections. Brooks has also prepared his players for the next level as 51 former Rams have played or are currently playing professional baseball.

The Rams finished the 2023 season with a 56-9 overall record, setting the program and LSC record for wins in a season on their way to the national title. ASU finished with a 40-8 conference record to win the regular-season before sweeping the conference tournament and earning the top-seed in the regional tournament. Kade Bragg set a conference record with a 15-1 overall record on the mound while earning NCAA Division II Pitcher of the Year by three different organizations.

The 2007 Rams finished with a 51-20 (.718) mark and set five individual and seven team Lone Star Conference records along the way. The program itself set a new record by reaching the Division-II College World Series in only its third season of existence, the fastest such trip in NCAA history. Brooks' Rams have only finished lower than second in the Lone Star Conference postseason tournament once since the ASU program was revived in 2005 and he earned the Sportsman of the Year award from the San Angelo Standard-Times for his outstanding leadership and success on the field in 2007.

Prior to his arrival at Angelo State, Brooks was an assistant coach at Hardin-Simmons University from 2000-03 and an assistant coach at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2000. Preceding that, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Texas A&M in 1999 helping the Aggies to the Big XII title in their run to the NCAA Division I College World Series. He served as an assistant coach at the University of Incarnate Word from 1994-1998 and lent his knowledge to the Jayhawk League where he worked as a summer coach in 1993 and for the Hays (Kan.) Larks in 1995.

In Brooks' 30-plus years of coaching experience, he coached Major League Baseball National League All-Star Lance Berkman when he played summer ball for the Hays Larks. With Brooks' guidance, the Hays Larks finished second in the 1995 National Baseball Congress (NBC) World Series behind the 1996 USA Olympic Baseball Team.

A graduate of Baylor University, Brooks earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education and played baseball for the Bears baseball team from 1988-1991. He also holds a master's degree in physical education from Incarnate Word.

The Brooks household includes his wife Robyn, Sons Kannon & Jake, daughters Bailey, Reese and Bree.

MEET THE STAFF - ASSISTANT COACHES

ASSISTANT COACH - ADAM FOSTER

Adam Foster finished his fifth season as the pitching coach for the Angelo State baseball program after the conclusion of the 2023-24 season.

In just a short time with ASU, Foster has helped turn the Rams into one of the top pitching staffs in the country. During the 2023 national championship season, the Rams led the Lone Star Conference in ERA at 3.36, shutouts with 11, 577 strikeouts, while holding opponents to the lowest batting average at .225. The Rams' pitching staff also ranked third in Division II in ERA, second in WHIP, first in hits allowed, and second in strikeouts.

Foster coached the 2023 NCAA Division II Pitcher of the Year in Kade Bragg who led Division II in ERA at 1.20 and victories with a 15-1 overall record. The Rams also had two pitchers drafted in July of 2023 with Bragg going in the 17th round and Aaron Munson in the 19th.

In 2021, the Rams held the lowest team ERA in the Lone Star Conference at 3.16, led in strikeouts with 478, and gave up the fewest total runs. In Division II, the Rams finished second overall in ERA, second in total shutouts with seven, and fourth in strikeouts. Starting pitcher Trent Baker was drafted by the Cardinals in the ninth round.

Before ASU, Foster was the Head Baseball Coach at Georgetown High School. During his time at GHS Foster amassed 192 wins in 7 seasons. Coach Foster spent 16 seasons with GHS baseball and helped over 100 players reach the next level. Of those 100 players, 13 played professional baseball. During his time as Head Coach, Foster led the Eagles to their first-ever state tournament in 2015, and again in 2019, finishing second in the state both years. In 2018, the Eagles set the 5A record for wins in a season with 41. Before his time at Georgetown High School Foster spent two years as a hitting instructor and infield coach at New Mexico Highlands University in Las Vegas, N.M.

A graduate of West Texas A&M University, Foster earned a Bachelor's of Science degree while being a member of the football and baseball program. Foster and his wife Christy have two daughters, Baylie and Samantha, and a son Andrew, his wife Allie, and two grandchildren Mazie and Steele.

ASSISTANT COACH - SAM MOTE

Sam Mote joined the ASU coaching staff in 2018 and has helped elevate the Rams to one of the best hitting teams in the country, leading the Lone Star Conference in batting average in four of his seven seasons.

During the 2023 National Championship season, Mote helped the Rams to the fifth best batting average in the country at .342 while also ranking third on-base percentage (.454) and runs (597). The Rams also held the top fielding percentage in Division II at .985.

2022 was the best offensive season the Rams have had, scoring a program record of 677 runs which led all of Division II. The Rams finished with a .357 batting average which was the fourth highest in the country while leading Division II in on-base percentage

(.470), doubles (166), and ranking second in hits with 763 while making their second straight CWS appearance.

While at Angelo State, Mote has coached seven different NCAA Division II All-Americans including the 2019 NCAA Division II Player of the Year, Josh Elvir.

Prior to his time at ASU, Mote was a volunteer assistant at Texas A&M – Corpus Christi. Before that, he spent two years as an assistant coach at the University of Northwestern Ohio. In 2016 he helped lead the Racers to program records in doubles, home runs and slugging percentage, followed by a 2017 season that placed UNOH in the top-10 of the NAIA concerning hits and runs per game. Mote has also spent three years as an assistant coach at Iowa Western Community College, where he won the 2014 NJCAA National Championship and came in fifth at the NJCAA World Series in 2015.

The Ram assistant has also coached various summer league teams, worked as a scout director for the Prep Baseball Report Ohio and a site director for Pastime Tournaments.

Mote played collegiate baseball at Wright State University, winning a Horizon League Tournament Title in 2009 and a Horizon League Regular Season Championship in 2010.

FOSTER FIELD AT 1ST COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION STADIUM

The Angelo State baseball team has compiled an overall record of 353-123 at Foster Field at 1st Community Federal Credit Union Stadium, one of the nicest stadium in all of Division II baseball. The stadium, located at the corner of Jackson Street and University Drive was built in 2000 and renovated prior to the 2016 season.

The field features 4,200 permanent seats, a Daktronics inning-by-inning scoreboard with video display, and the field received a new lighting system in the fall of 2019. The 2016 renovations to the stadium include new turf on the entire field except the pitching mound, new blue chair-backs and a new outfield fence.

In addition, the facility has a large press box area, major-league style dugouts and state-of-the-art bullpens and batting cages for practicing and warming up. The stadium contains concession and restroom areas as well as special clubhouse style seating areas for entertaining corporate sponsors are located on either side of the press box. The field dimensions are 325 feet down the lines, 370 feet to the gaps and 395 feet to deep centerfield.

In 2017, when ASU hosted both the Lone Star Conference Championship and the South Central Regional, more than 43,000 fans came out to games, leading all of Division II. That number was also good for 49th across Divisions I, II and III, placing them ahead of schools like Oklahoma, Sam Houston State, Dallas Baptist and Stephen F. Austin.

NCAA DIVISION II ATTENDANCE RECORD

During the 2023 NCAA Division II South Central Super Regionals, the Rams set a new D2 attendance record for a single game against Colorado Mesa with 3,247 fans, breaking their own record set a season prior.
