SETTING THE STAGE

In its fifth season in the league, App State has qualified for the Sun Belt Championship tournament for the first time thanks to a program-record 13 wins in Sun Belt play. The ninth-seeded Mountaineers will face eighth-seeded Louisiana in the single-elimination portion of the 10-team event, with the winner advancing to an eight-team, double-elimination format that runs from Wednesday through Sunday.

If No. 7 seed South Alabama wins Tuesday's opener, the App State-UL winner faces No. 1 seed Texas State on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. because the top seed plays the lowest remaining seed. If No. 10 seed ULM wins Tuesday's opener, the App State-UL winner faces No. 2 seed Georgia Southern at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

RECAPING THE SEASON SERIES WITH LOUISIANA

App State went 2-1 at Louisiana from March 22-24 and trailed entering the eighth inning during 6-5 wins in Game 1 and Game 3. App State tied Game 1 in the eighth inning and broke the ninth-inning tie on Bailey Welch's RBI fielder's choice before closing the series with Luke Drumheller's go-ahead, two-run single in the ninth inning of Game 3. Kaleb Bowman earned the win in both App State victories.

RETURNING TO POSTSEASON PLAY

App State is making its first postseason appearance since 2014, its last year in the Southern Conference. That year, in Charleston, S.C., the Mountaineers won 3-2 against Georgia Southern on May 21 thanks to Michael Pierson's 11th-inning homer before losing 3-1 against Furman and 2-1 against Georgia Southern.

TAKING THE MOUND

Jason Cornatzer, a 6-foot-6 sophomore, began his college career with 23 straight relief appearances before making the first of his three career starts on April 30. He has a 3.46 ERA in 13 innings as a starter.

Cornatzer needed only 44 pitches to retire the first 14 batters as he took a perfect game into the fifth inning of a 6-3 win vs. Western Carolina in his first start. He started Game 3 of the South Alabama series on May 12 and nearly ended the top of the fifth with a 2-0 lead, but a potential third out on a sliding catch attempt popped out of the outfielder's glove, and the Jaguars hit a three-run homer on the next pitch.

Cornatzer started Saturday's regular-season finale in Springs Brooks Stadium and threw 37 pitches before exiting with a 2-1 lead vs. Coastal Carolina. He allowed one run on three hits in three innings.

STORYLINES

With Kaleb Bowman finishing the regular season as the only (qualifying) Sun Belt pitcher with an ERA lower than 3.00, Luke Drumheller ranking No. 2 among Sun Belt freshmen with a .337 average and Kendall McGowan hitting seven homers over 11 games leading up to the weekend series with Coastal Carolina, App State posted double-digit Sun Belt victories for the first time.

In its first four years in the Sun Belt, Appalachian had two 9-21 records (2018, 2016) and two 8-22 records (2017, 2015), but it started 11-9 this year following a three-game sweep of then-first-place UTA from April 26-28.

App State set a program record for runs in a Sun Belt game with its 18-6 win Friday at Coastal Carolina in Springs Brooks Stadium. Joel McDaniel had a first-inning grand slam and a solo homer during a 3-for-3 night in which he had five RBIs, scored five runs and drew three walks. App State led 6-5 when Bowman got an inning-ending double play with the bases loaded in the third, and he followed that with four scoreless innings to earn the win. Phillip Cole added a three-run homer to push the lead to 11-5, and Riley Smith also homered.

PUTTING PROGRESS IN CONTEXT

Since the midway point of the 2018 season, counting an 8-7 record in five series to end 2018 and all 10 series during the 2019 regular season, App State has gone 21-23 in league play to give it the eighth-best Sun Belt record in that time. It had only one winless weekend among those 15 series, going 13 straight weekends with at least one win before it was swept by South Alabama from May 10-12.

BREAKING DOWN THE ROSTER

App State welcomed 17 newcomers and returned 16 letterwinners, including seven position players who were 2018 starters, three pitchers who started multiple games in 2018 and two of its top three relievers.

Thirty-two of the 36 players listed on App State's roster are entering their first or second years in the program. Of the 17 newcomers, there are 12 freshmen and five transfers, including two signees from the junior college level.

With Alex Leshock, Bailey Welch and Kendall McGowan accounting for the top three batting averages last year as freshmen, Appalachian went 10-9 over the final month. In all, seven of the team's top eight hitters from 2018 came back.

ASSESSING THE BULLPEN

App State moved forward without 2018 closer Luke Watts, who had a team-leading 2.29 ERA in 30 appearances, but the Mountaineers brought back standout right-handers Kaleb Bowman and Andrew Papp.

With a 2.98 ERA, Bowman finished first in the Sun Belt ERA standings during the regular season (qualifying pitchers had at least one inning for every team game). He ranked No. 4 with a .230 opposing batting average.

He improved to 6-1 this season and 8-1 in his App State career with no runs allowed in a career-high 4.2 innings Friday against Coastal Carolina. He also has four saves this season while leading full-time Sun Belt relievers with 57.1 innings (Georgia Southern's Cole Whitney is No. 2 with 51.0 innings). Bowman's 26 regular-season appearances led pitchers who qualified for the ERA title.

In addition to the Friday win at Coastal Carolina, Bowman had both App State wins during the team's 2-1 weekend at Louisiana and had both saves in a 2-0 weekend vs. ULM. He also has a league win against Arkansas State as well as a Sun Belt save vs. league-leading Texas State.

Papp has a 3.35 ERA in 26 appearances this year with six saves, a 1-1 record and 44 strikeouts in 40.1 innings. Eliminating a rain-soaked eighth inning vs. ULM in which the two teams combined for 10 runs in difficult pitching conditions that led to a pair of lengthy delays, Papp has a 2.75 ERA this season.

Papp earned a save with two strikeouts in a scoreless ninth inning to open the regular-season series at Louisiana. He had a save in the Arkansas State finale and pitched 2.1 innings of scoreless relief in two appearances during the UTA series, including a four-out save in Game 2.

BEATING THE DRUM

Luke Drumheller, who led the Sun Belt in hitting and ranked in the top five nationally among D1 freshmen for most of the year, already has accepted an invitation to play in the prestigious Cape Cod League this summer with the Wareham (Mass.) Gatemen.

Batting .337 on the year, he ranked among the top Sun Belt second basemen in RBIs (36, second), slugging (.454, second) and doubles (15, tied for second).

Drumheller tied an NCAA record while breaking school/league records March 10 with a five-double game, which was voted the national Performance of the Week by the Golden Spikes Award. He became just the seventh D1 player to hit five doubles in a game and the first since Western Carolina's Aaron Attaway in 2012.

SCOUTING THE PRIMARY STARTERS

TYLER TUTHILL

Named the league's No. 2 impact freshman by D1 Baseball in the preseason and voted the Sun Belt Pitcher of the Week following a four-hit shutout of UTA on April 27, Tuthill is tied for No. 4 in the league in pitching wins (six), is No. 3 in opposing batting average (.224) and was No. 4 in ERA (3.53) before the ERA jumped to 4.36 after his start at Coastal on Thursday.

He is tied for No. 18 nationally in wins by a Division I freshman.

Tuthill has allowed three earned runs or less in 10 of his 14 starts and given up four hits or less in seven of his 14 starts.

In throwing the first complete-game shutout by a Sun Belt pitcher this season and one of only two on the year, Tuthill faced only four batters over the minimum during a 6-0 win against UTA. He allowed four hits, struck out a career-high eight batters and issued no walks in his 94-pitch performance. The two hits he allowed in the first six innings occurred on a misplayed popup and a slow roller between the mound and first.

Tuthill pitched App State's first complete-game shutout since the program's first Sun Belt win in 2015, and he became one of five D1 freshmen with a nine-inning shutout this season.

His 4-1 start to this season included wins against Manhattan (6 Ks, 3 ER in 6.0 IP), Gardner-Webb (no runs and just one hit through the first five innings), Furman (one hit in five scoreless innings before four relievers allowed no hits over the last four innings) and Georgia State (2 ER in 7.0 IP).

In his debut at Tennessee, Tuthill gave up one run on two hits in 4.0 IP.

BRANDON BOONE

App State was 5-1 in Game 3 conference starts from Boone before he started Game 2 of the South Alabama series, and App State won 18-6 in his Friday start at Coastal Carolina. He had a 3.31 ERA that ranked fourth in the Sun Belt with two weekends left in the regular season.

The midweek starter for all of 2018 and the first part of 2019, Boone has 117 strikeouts in 108.0 innings since joining the program before the 2018 season. He has started four of App State's seven shutouts in the last two years.

Boone struck out a career-high nine batters and allowed three runs (two earned) on three hits in 5.2 innings as App State won the series finale at Arkansas State. He improved to 5-2 by allowing two runs in five innings against UTA, and he gave up no earned runs and struck out a career-high-tying seven batters in his first five innings of work at Troy.

App State went 2-0 in the first two Sunday starts from Boone, who pitched five shutout innings and had seven Ks in a 3-0 victory against Texas State.

Boone won at FAU on March 5 by giving up two runs in five innings and striking out seven in the 6-3 road victory. He allowed two runs on five hits in six innings and had seven strikeouts at South Carolina and pitched two scoreless innings of relief at Tennessee on opening weekend.

Boone started in 11 of his 12 appearances last season and had a 3.33 ERA as a starter heading into his final start of the 2018 season.

WILL SPRINKLE

Sprinkle spent most of the season as App State's Game 1 weekend starter.

He ranked No. 2 on the team last season with a 2.96 ERA, with his addition to the weekend rotation coinciding with the team's 8-7 finish to its Sun Belt schedule. He allowed four earned runs or less in each of his first nine starts this year and pitched at least 6.0 innings in six of his first nine starts.

Perfect through five innings vs. Georgia Southern on April 5, Sprinkle allowed two runs in a career-high-tying seven innings vs. ULM on April 12, when he struck out five batters and allowed just four hits: a bunt single that preceded a homer that snuck inside the right-field pole, a check-swing bloop single over an infielder's head and an infield single between the mound and first base.

In the Georgia Southern game, Sprinkle had five strikeouts during his five perfect innings and was in position to get out of a three-run sixth with just one run allowed, but a two-out ball hit directly into the defensive shift instead ricocheted off an umpire for an inning-prolonging RBI single.

Sprinkle allowed two runs on seven hits in seven innings of a 2-0 loss vs. Georgia State and recorded a career-high nine strikeouts with three earned runs allowed in 6.2 innings against Furman on March 15. He took a no-hitter into the sixth inning of a 5-2 win against Manhattan.

STORYLINES

KEEPING UP WITH KENDALL

With a combination of power and productivity, Kendall McGowan entered the weekend series at Coastal Carolina with seven home runs in a span of 11 games, including an inside-the-park homer last week in which he circled the bases in 16.23 seconds, according to the @AppStSportsData account on Twitter.

McGowan also has a .361 average (22-for-61) and 17 RBIs over the last 14 games. He's second on App State's team with 16 multi-hit games (all in his last 38 games).

McGowan is batting .304 for the year with eight homers and a league-leading four triples, and he hit .323 in league play with a .596 slugging percentage that ranked 10th in the conference and seven steals that ranked ninth.

TAKING A CLOSER PEEK AT LEEK

In his first year playing at App State following a transfer from Division II North Greenville, Tyler Leek is hitting .325 with 32 runs scored (team leader) and five home runs (all in Sun Belt play) among his 13 extra-base hits in just 123 at-bats (ninth on the team).

The 32 runs are a high number considering he has reached base via a hit, walk or hit by pitch 54 times.

MAKING SOLID CONTACT

Joel McDaniel finished the regular season by leading Sun Belt shortstops in slugging percentage (.567) and tying for first with nine home runs. On Friday, he hit a first-inning grand slam and added a solo homer as part of a 3-for-3 night with five RBIs, five runs scored and three walks.

He leads the team this year with a 112-mph exit velocity recorded during the Georgia Southern series, according to the @AppStSportsData account.

McDaniel had a go-ahead, two-run single at UNC Asheville before homering in both wins vs. ULM. His solo homer in Game 1 of that series helped App State overcome a 2-0 deficit in a 3-2 win, and he broke a 3-3 tie during a 10-8 win in Game 2 with a two-run shot that went 411 feet with an exit velocity of 105 mph.

McDaniel returned to App State's starting lineup during the Texas State series in late March and had only one swing and miss in a 4-for-7 effort during that weekend. He averaged a 102 mph exit velocity on the balls he put in play with measurements of 109, 108, 105, 103, 100 (homer), 96 (double) and 91 mph.

CATCHING ON QUICKLY

Riley Smith led Sun Belt catchers during the 2018 regular season with 23 thrown-out steal attempts, and he's tied for second with 15 this season. His total of 38 over the last two seasons leads Sun Belt catchers.

Smith won the Rawlings NCJAA DII Gold Glove Catcher of the Year award in 2017.

HITTING THEIR STRIDE

After opening the year at Tennessee, which has spent time as the national ERA leader, App State's bats came alive against Manhattan, and the Mountaineers have scored at least 13 runs in five games, counting the 18-6 win at Coastal.

They used a nine-run fourth inning in a 14-5 win against Manhattan on Feb. 24. Joel McDaniel hit a pair of two-run homers in the same inning, Phillip Cole hit the first two homers of his college career and App State finished with 17 hits.

Appalachian closed a March 2 doubleheader against Gardner-Webb with a 24-3 victory in which it posted its highest run total since 2009, broke the record for App State runs in the program's 12-year-old home stadium and recorded the program's biggest margin of victory since 2007.

In a 14-0 win vs. Furman, App State allowed just one hit, and Luke Drumheller's record-tying five doubles came in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth innings.

The Mountaineers added a double-digit shutout in a 13-0 home victory against N.C. Central on March 19. Allowing just three hits, App State stole seven bases in the first five innings and had four three-run innings.

PROJECTING PROSPECTS

D1Baseball lists sophomore outfielder Alex Leshock as the Sun Belt's No. 4 prospect for the 2020 draft and puts classmate Kendall McGowan at No. 14.

Last summer, McGowan was recognized as a member of the 2018 Perfect Game/Rawlings Summer Collegiate All-America third team after he won the Coastal Plain League's regular-season batting title with a .392 average and finished the regular season among the league leaders in on-base percentage (first at .480), doubles (first with 20), stolen bases (third with 22), slugging percentage (third at .642), hits (third with 58) and RBIs (fifth with 36).

D1Baseball ranks pitcher Tyler Tuthill as the league's No. 2 impact freshman, has OF Phillip Cole at No. 9 and lists freshman pitcher Austin Primm at No. 17.

GRADING OUT WELL

App State has posted a perfect single-year APR score of 1,000 for the first time.

The NCAA released APR data for the 2017-18 academic year this week, and third-year coach Kermit Smith's program was one of a record-breaking 14 varsity teams from App State with a perfect single-year score from 2017-18.

It was the first score of 1,000 for App State Baseball since the APR began being documented for the 2004-05 year and the only 1,000 from a Sun Belt baseball program for the 2017-18 cycle.

The Mountaineers have posted a team GPA of better than 3.0 in two of the last three semesters after last reaching that mark in the fall of 2010. In the 2018-19 fall semester, App State had a 3.07 GPA, with 23 players surpassing a 3.0.

PITCHING IN THE SHOW

Appalachian State has five alumni who are active members of MLB organizations, highlighted by Texas Rangers relief pitcher Jeffrey Springs.

Springs climbed all the way from Single-A to the Major Leagues last season and had a 1-1 record with a 3.38 ERA in 18 appearances as a rookie, including two starts as a game "opener." He struck out 31 batters in 32.0 innings.

Springs is 2-0 for the Rangers this season with a 4.50 ERA and 15 strikeouts in 16.0 innings over 10 appearances.

App State also has a pair of Double-A prospects in outfielder Jaylin Davis (Twins organization) and relief pitcher Matt Brill (Diamondbacks organization).

Colin Schmid, the Friday starter in 2018, pitched six scoreless innings and earned the win in his Single-A debut Friday with the Peoria Chiefs.

APP STATE COACHING STAFF

KERMIT SMITH*HEAD COACH*THIRD SEASON*532-461-1 OVERALL*59-102 AT APP STATE

Kermit Smith was named the 13th head baseball coach of Appalachian State University on July 14, 2016.

In 2018, Smith completed his 17th season as a college head coach and his second season as the head coach of the Mountaineers, who enjoyed their best extended stretch in the Sun Belt Conference since joining the league and closed an 8-7 run against league foes with a home victory against No. 16 Coastal Carolina.

App State posted 18 overall victories in a rain-reduced regular season after winning 19 games in Smith's debut season. A 5-2 victory against eventual NCAA qualifier Troy on April 6, 2018, gave Smith the 500th win as a college head coach, as he left both Division II Lander and Belmont Abbey was the winningest coach in the history of those programs.

With 18 newcomers on the 2018 roster and freshmen batting in the second, third and fourth spots late in the year, Appalachian showed promise in many areas related to pitching, hitting and defense. The team had an ERA of 4.93 (lowest since 2013), totaled 430 strikeouts from its pitching staff (third-best in program history), posted a fielding percentage of .969 (fourth-best in program history) and recorded 93 doubles (most since 2013). Its 7-4 stretch in Sun Belt play (including a road series win against ULM and road series sweep of UTA) was App State's best in four seasons as a league member. The Mountaineers went 10-9 overall during the final month of the season.

Friday mound starter Colin Schmid was selected in the 13th round of the Major League Baseball Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals, giving App State three junior-year draft picks in Smith's two seasons with the program. Matt Brill was also taken in the first 400 picks in 2017, going in the 12th round to the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Chandler Seagle was drafted by the San Diego Padres.

In Smith's first year, the Mountaineers finished with 19 wins, including a road victory against nationally ranked Louisiana. Appalachian improved in many facets of the game in its first year under Smith, posting the most home runs and drawn walks since 2012.

Before arriving in Boone, Smith spent seven years (2009-16) at Lander, where he was the winningest coach in program history with an overall record of 244-134 (.645). He took the Bearcats to three NCAA tournaments over his final five years. With 16 signees overall, Smith had 12 student-athletes sign contracts with MLB affiliates while at Lander, including a program-record four in 2016.

The Bearcats advanced to the NCAA Division II College World Series in Cary twice in his last three seasons, including a second time in 2016, finishing with a 44-16 record. The Bearcats ended the season ranked No. 3 in the Collegiate Baseball poll, the highest finish in program history, and Smith was named ABCA/Diamond Southeast Regional Coach of the Year.

Smith helped Lander set a program record for single-season wins in 2014, when the Bearcats finished 52-8 overall and ended the season with a No. 4 ranking in the Collegiate Baseball poll. They had the nation's most prolific offense, leading Division II in home runs and runs scored. The Bearcats won the Southeast Regional and advanced to their first College World Series.

Prior to Smith's tenure at Lander, he spent eight years as Belmont Abbey's head coach and nine seasons overall with the Crusaders, starting with a one-year stint as an assistant during the 2001 season. Much like in his time at Lander, Smith became the winningest coach in program history on March 5, 2008. While at Belmont Abbey, he claimed two Conference Carolinas regular-season championships, a 2009 tournament championship and a 2009 NCAA Division II Southeast Regional Championship that led to an appearance at the 2009 NCAA Division II College World Series.

Smith led the Crusaders to their first World Series berth that year, finishing the season with a 40-26 record. He was named South Atlantic Region Coach of the Year.

Smith graduated from Pfeiffer University in 2000 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in sports management and a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He played one season at Pfeiffer for former Appalachian State baseball coach and current Duke University coach Chris Pollard. Smith also earned a master's degree in sports management from California University of Pennsylvania in 2007.

He is a native of Arcadia, Fla., and is the son of Sue Ellen and the late George Kilpatrick Smith. Smith and his wife, Rebecca, are the proud parents of two sons, Maddox Kilpatrick and Beckett Thomas, and a daughter, Georgia Grace.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JUSTIN ASPEGREN*PITCHING COACH*FOURTH SEASON

Justin Aspegren completed his third season as Appalachian State's pitching coach in 2018

after helping lead Santa Barbara City College to three championships in the ultra-competitive Western State Conference over his last five seasons.

Aspegren remained with the Mountaineers after Kermit Smith was hired as App State's head coach in the summer of 2016. The 2018 pitching staff had an ERA of 4.93 (its lowest since 2013), totaled 430 strikeouts on the mound (third-best number in program history) and limited opponents to a .268 batting average (its best mark since 2012).

Additionally, Friday mound starter Colin Schmid was selected in the 13th round of the Major League Baseball Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals a year after 2017 closer Matt Brill was taken in the 12th round by the Arizona Diamondbacks. He was a minor league All-Star in 2018.

BRITT JOHNSON*ASSISTANT COACH*THIRD SEASON

Britt Johnson is in his third season as an assistant after being hired on Aug. 9, 2016.

Johnson joined Appalachian after spending six years with head coach Kermit Smith at Lander University. He started as a volunteer coach and then was promoted after three years to a full-time assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. Johnson also coached infielders and assisted with hitters while spending time as the third-base coach. Johnson was with Smith during Lander's two Division II College World Series trips in 2014 and 2016.

Johnson attended East Carolina and played football for the Pirates as a long snapper under Skip Holtz.

ERIK LUNDE*HITTING COACH*THIRD SEASON

Erik Lunde was named Appalachian State's hitting coach in August 2018. The 2018-19 year will be Lunde's third at App State, as he was a volunteer assistant during the 2017 and 2018 seasons.

The Mountaineers hit 93 doubles in 2018 to post their highest total since 2013, and the team's top three hitters by average were freshmen. A strong stretch to finish the season included 13 homers in a span of 12 games. Lunde joined Appalachian after spending the previous two years playing for the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, as he was picked in the 18th round of the 2014 draft.
