APP STATE STORYLINES

- App State will play its second straight game in an NFL stadium to open the 2021 season. After going on a 33-3 run to take a 33-9 lead in a decisive win against East Carolina in Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium — home to the Carolina Panthers — the Mountaineers face Miami in Hard Rock Stadium.
- This is the second meeting between the two programs, as Miami visited Boone in 2016 and led 24-10 midway through the third quarter of a 45-10 win. The crowd of 34,658 set a home attendance record for Kidd Brewer Stadium, and that now ranks as the third-biggest home crowd in App State history given last week's record-setting mark of 36,752 for what was officially a home game in Charlotte.
- The trip to Miami will be the 19th national TV appearance in the last 29 games for the Mountaineers, who are 37-11 all-time in games on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU.
- In the win over ECU, App State had two 100-yard backs (Nate Noel with 126 yards on 15 carries, Camerun Peoples with 100 yards on 14 carries), QB Chase Brice threw for 259 yards (all in the first three quarters), Thomas Hennigan followed a 34-yard TD with a 68-yard gain during his 114-yard night, Corey Sutton had a TD catch in a successful return from a 2019 injury, Brendan Harrington accounted for two of the Mountaineers' four sacks and they held the Pirates to 3.6 yards per carry.
- Shawn Clark was the only first-year FBS head coach in 2020 to win nine-plus games. Four teams have won at least nine games in each of the last six seasons: App State, Alabama, Clemson and Oklahoma.
- App State's 64-15 record and 81.0 win percentage since the start of 2015 is No. 5 nationally behind just Alabama (80-6, 93.0%), Clemson (79-8, 90.8%), Ohio State (69-8, 89.6%) and Oklahoma (68-12, 85.0%).
- App State is one of just 12 schools to finish in the top 26 of AP Poll voting in each of the last three years.
- App State returned 10 defensive starters, seven offensive starters and 80 percent of the letterwinners from 2020, including 14 "super seniors" taking advantage of the extra year of eligibility granted by the NCAA. Those 14 players have now combined to play 466 games for App State and make 213 starts.
- The Mountaineers are 0-7 vs. ranked teams since joining the FBS in 2014, with losses to No. 12 Clemson in 2015 (41-10), No. 9 Tennessee in 2016 (20-13, OT), No. 25 Miami in 2016 (45-10), No. 15 Georgia in 2017 (31-10), No. 9 Penn State in 2018 (45-38, OT), No. 15 Coastal Carolina in 2020 (34-23) and No. 20 Louisiana in 2020 (24-21). The lone Top 25 win was the 34-32 victory over No. 5 Michigan in 2007.

MEDIA POLICIES/INFORMATION

During a standard week with a Saturday game, App State will have Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday media availabilities.

Head coach Shawn Clark's appearances on the weekly Sun Belt coaches teleconference are Mondays from 11:30 a.m. ET until approximately 11:37 a.m.

After his appearance on the Sun Belt call, Clark will be available for an interview with in-person media members as well as out-of-town reporters via Zoom. He will be followed by interviews with select student-athletes (contingent on their availability). Media members interested in participating should contact Joey or Bret by the end of the day Sunday to receive further information for that week's interviews.

During standard weeks, practices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays will be open to approved media members.

If you plan to attend one or both practices, communicate those plans and submit specific interview requests to Joey or Bret by 9 a.m. on Tuesday (for Tuesday's practice) and 9 a.m. on Wednesday (for Wednesday's practice). If you have more than one person from your organization planning to attend, the name of each attendee needs to be shared in advance.

Per University policy, face coverings are required in all indoor campus locations. Inside and outside, face coverings and six feet of social distancing will be required for media members who have not been vaccinated. Face coverings while outside are optional for media members who have been fully vaccinated.

Media members will be permitted to watch practice from the West stands of Kidd Brewer Stadium. If weather moves the team into the Sofield Indoor Facility, media will not be allowed to watch practice. Post-practice interview plans for those days will be communicated with media members who have requested interviews in advance.

Practices are closed to the public.

Media attending practice are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything until after the post-practice interviews have been conducted. This includes media who leave practice early. No videos or photos can be taken during practice without prior permission from the App State strategic communications office.

GAME DAY PROCEDURES

Per University policy, face coverings are required in all indoor campus locations, including the Kidd Brewer Stadium press box as well as the media interview room in the new north end zone facility.

Additionally, to ensure a safe environment for App State's student-athletes, coaches and staff, media members working on the sideline (photo/video) or conducting postgame interviews in the media interview room will need to provide proof of vaccination in order to work in those spaces.

If you are requesting sideline and/or interview room access, please email a photocopy of your vaccination card to Joey Jones or Bret Strelow.

App State Strategic Communications reserves the right to deny any request for a credential. Safety guidelines will help determine how many people are allowed in the press box and on the sideline at one time.

MORE STORYLINES

- App State has played one game in Florida in the previous 58 seasons: a 48-10 loss at Florida in 2010.
- App State has increased its recruiting footprint in Florida in recent years and has nine players from South Florida, including DE Demetrius Taylor (Northwestern HS), RB Nate Noel (Northwestern HS), DT Jordon Earle (Forest Hill HS), WR Christian Wells (University School), WR Milan Tucker (Fort Myers HS) and DE Hansky Paillant (McArthur HS).
- Offensive coordinator and Miami native Frank Ponce, who has been jokingly called "Mr. 305" with a nod to rapper Pitbull, was a finalist for the 1988 Miami Hispanic Athlete of the Year Award as a QB at Miami Senior. From 1992-2006, he spent a majority of those years as a high school coach in Miami before getting his first college job as an FIU assistant under Mario Cristobal in 2007.
- App State posted a combined record of 33-6 from 2018-20 with three different head coaches, three different offensive coordinators and three different defensive coordinators in those three seasons.
- App State's defense has ranked in the top 21 nationally in fewest points allowed in each of the last four years under four different coordinators, and the offense has ranked top 16 in the country in rushing yards per game in each of the last three years under three different coordinators.
- Early in his 25th season as an App State assistant, Dale Jones is back for Year 2 as the defensive coordinator after the Mountaineers ranked among the national leaders in scoring defense (16th, 20.0 points) and total defense (17th, 328.8 yards) in 2020. Offensive coordinator Frank Ponce is back after serving as the Mountaineers' co-offensive coordinator (passing game)/QBs coach from 2013-18. Shawn Clark worked with Ponce as App State's co-offensive coordinator (run game) from 2016-18.
- Before this season, the only current NFL stadium where App State had played was the Superdome — the Mountaineers posted New Orleans Bowl victories in 2018 and 2019 to contribute to the program's record-setting bowl record of 6-0 in six postseason-eligible FBS seasons.
- Last year was App State's 36th straight season (seven in the Sun Belt, 29 in the SoCon) with a league record of .500 or better. Among current FBS programs, counting seasons before and after any transitions, it's the longest streak by 14 years — Clemson, Oklahoma and Boise State are at 22 in a row.
- App State led in-state FBS programs in wins during each of the last three seasons and at least tied for the most wins among in-state FBS programs during each of the last six seasons.
- App State has eight team captains: WR Thomas Hennigan, OL Baer Hunter, LB D'Marco Jackson, OL Cooper Hodges, DL Demetrius Taylor, P Xavier Subotsch, LB T.D. Roof and DL Caleb Spurlin.
- Thomas Hennigan, Caleb Spurlin and Xavier Subotsch have played in every App State game since the start of 2017. With 52 career starts to date, Hennigan is tied for third in school history.
- In 2019, App State became the first Sun Belt team AND the first FBS team in North Carolina history to win 13 games in a season (13-1). Programs in North Carolina have posted an 11-win season at the FBS level a combined 10 times, and App State accounted for three of those in its first six FBS seasons.
- App State has the Sun Belt's most-followed Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and TikTok accounts among football programs. It ranked No. 2 among G5 programs (behind just UCF) and No. 42 in the FBS in social media interactions in 2020.

OFFENSE

- App State was the only FBS team in 2020 with 500-yard rushing seasons from at least four players, and three of them are back: RBs Cameron Peoples (100 yards on 14 carries in Week 1), Nate Noel (126 yards on 15 carries in Week 1) and Daetrich Harrington (who missed the last six games of 2020 with a knee injury). App State, Georgia Southern and Army were the only FBS teams with 100-yard rushing games from five different players in 2020.
- Cameron Peoples capped a 1,124-yard rushing season in 2020 with 317 yards and five touchdowns in the Myrtle Beach Bowl. He set the NCAA single-game bowl record for rushing yards (Georgia Tech's P.J. Daniels had 307 in the 2004 Humanitarian Bowl), broke the school record for single-game rushing yards (Armanti Edwards had 313 in a 2007 FCS semifinal win), tied the NCAA bowl record for rushing TDs and tied the school record for rushing TDs (John Settle also had five vs. Davidson in 1986).
- Cameron Peoples arrived at the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl needing 193 yards to give App State a 1,000-yard rusher for the ninth straight year, and that streak is now the longest among current FBS programs. The second-longest active streak of three seasons is shared by Minnesota and Buffalo.
- Thomas Hennigan, a second-team Academic All-American in 2020, ranks No. 4 in school history with 186 career catches (No. 3 is 200), No. 4 with 2,415 career receiving yards (No. 3 is 2,960) and tied for No. 5 with 178 TD receptions (No. 4 is 22). Among active, full-time FBS players, he ranks No. 3 with his 186 career catches (behind just Ball State's Justin Ball with 265 and Missouri's Keke Chism with 196).
- Despite sitting out last year, Corey Sutton still has the most receiving touchdowns among Sun Belt players since the start of the 2018 season. Adding in a touchdown catch in the 2021 opener, he has 18 TD catches in 23 games, and the second-place total of 16 TDs from two players has come in 37 games.

- App State has four “super senior” receivers in Thomas Hennigan, Corey Sutton, Malik Williams and Jalen Virgil. They’ve combined for 500 career catches for 6,644 receiving yards and 56 touchdowns.
- With nine plays of more than 40 yards in his career, Jalen Virgil is No. 4 overall (No. 1 among offensive skill position players) on “The Freaks List” from The Athletic, marking the fourth straight year he’s been named one of the most-gifted athletes in college football.
- Of the 190 catches by App State players in 2020, the 2021 roster includes players responsible for 181 of them, or 95.3 percent of the receptions (as well as 96.4 percent of the receiving yards).
- Before throwing for 259 yards through three quarters and completing 20 of 27 passes with two TDs in the 2021 opener, Chase Brice had played in 36 FBS games, taken more than 1,100 snaps and thrown for nearly 3,200 yards in college in combined stints at Clemson and Duke. Jacob Huesman, App State’s No. 2 quarterback behind Zac Thomas from 2018-20, has appeared in 20 games and is 1-0 as a starter (at Coastal Carolina in 2018). He also replaced an injured Thomas and directed the go-ahead, game-winning drive in a 17-13 win against Georgia State last season.
- App State’s new-look offensive line includes All-Sun Belt pick Baer Hunter, who moved to center during the spring after starting 31 straight games at right guard, right tackle Cooper Hodges (All-Sun Belt pick who now has 26 career starts) and left tackle Anderson Hardy (three starts there in 2020).
- Running behind the “Bulls” up front, App State has ranked among the nation’s top 25 rushing teams in all seven of its FBS seasons: No. 6 in 2020 (264.9 yards), No. 16 in 2019 (231.4), No. 14 in 2018 (240.3), No. 22 in 2017 (223.6), No. 10 in 2016 (250.9), No. 6 in 2015 (271.5) and No. 18 in 2014 (241.8).

DEFENSE

- Last season, App State ranked in the top 25 nationally in several defensive categories, including completion percentage allowed (No. 1, 48.0), passes defended (No. 1, 74), pass efficiency defense (No. 4, 102.93), passes intercepted (No. 8, 15), passing yards allowed per game (No. 9, 177.9), yards allowed per play (No. 15, 4.94), scoring defense (No. 16, 20.0 points), total defense (No. 17, 328.8 yards), turnovers forced (No. 24, 18) and red zone defense (No. 25, 75.7 score percentage).
- With NFL draft pick Shemar Jean-Charles as the only departed starter from 2020, players responsible for 91.0 percent of the tackles last season are still with the Mountaineers this year.
- Jerry Moore is App State’s winningest head coach with a 215-87 record in 24 seasons. Through 24 years as an App State assistant, many alongside Moore, defensive coordinator Dale Jones has been part of 222 wins. He coached at Louisville with Scott Satterfield in 2019 following a 23-year run at App State, where he was the defensive coordinator from 2010-12 and co-defensive coordinator in 2018.
- With 102 interceptions from 2015-20, App State was the only FBS program to reach triple digits in that six-season span, and safety Ryan Huff added an INT in the 2021 opener. Four defensive backs who attended App State were with NFL franchises at the start of training camp: Shemar Jean-Charles (Packers draft pick, after leading the nation in PBUs and being named a first-team All-American in 2020), Josh Thomas (Bills), Doug Middleton (Panthers) and Tae Hayes (Cardinals).
- A preseason All-American (honorable mention) from PFF College as well as a member of the watch lists for the Walter Camp Player of the Year, Bednarik Trophy, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award, Demetrius Taylor entered this season with 113 career tackles, 19.5 sacks (No. 4 among active FBS players entering 2021), 35.5 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hurries and five forced fumbles.
- In 2020, linebacker D’Marco Jackson was the only FBS player with at least 90 tackles (91), 6.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, two interceptions and eight passes defended (he had six PBUs), leading him to be called one of the nation’s most versatile players by ESPN. He led the team with eight tackles vs. ECU.
- Based on a Wins Above Average metric from PFF College, linebacker Brendan Harrington was named the fifth-most valuable defender in college football in 2020, and he recorded two sacks in the 2021 opener. Last season, he had 48 tackles, a team-leading four interceptions that produced 95 return yards, six pass breakups, 4.0 tackles for loss and four QB hurries.
- Shaun Jolly has received All-America recognition in each of his first two years as a starting cornerback, with PFF College naming him a second-team All-American to end a five-interception campaign in 2019 and Phil Steele naming him an Honorable Mention All-American in 2020. He has recorded 20 passes defended and 89 tackles in his two-plus years as a starter.
- Caleb Spurlin has been named to the watch list for the Paul Hornung Award because of his versatility as a two-way threat. Last season, as a starting defensive end who contributed at defensive tackle and as a short-yardage fullback/H-back, he was the only FBS player (and just the third since 2000) with at least 2.5 sacks and two receiving touchdowns in the same year.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Assistant Brian Haines again directs a unit with returning starters at kicker (Chandler Staton), punter (Xavier Subotsch), long snapper (Christian Johnstone) and holder (Clayton Howell).
- Chandler Staton is the Sun Belt’s career scoring leader with 356 points. In the school record books, he is No. 5 in points (No. 2 among kickers), No. 2 in field goals made (46) and No. 2 in extra points made (218). In his career, he has a make from 53 yards and is 16-for-18 from between 40 and 49 yards.

SHAWN CLARK

Less than four years after coming back to Boone to coach at his alma mater, Shawn Clark not only became App State's head coach, but he began his tenure with a record-breaking bowl victory and a nine-win debut season.

Clark was hired as the 22nd head football coach in App State history on Dec. 13, 2019 and improved his career record to 10-3 by capping a 9-3 season in 2020 with a Myrtle Beach Bowl championship. He was the only first-year FBS head coach in 2020 to win at least nine games.

His five-year contract runs through the 2024 season, and he made his official head coaching debut while leading the Mountaineers to a 31-17 victory against UAB in the 2019 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl eight days after his introductory press conference. Ranked 18th in the final Amway Coaches Poll, App State went 13-1 to become the first Sun Belt team and the first FBS team from North Carolina to win 13 games in a season.

In 2020, while playing in the nation's No. 5-ranked league, App State was one of 13 teams nationally with at least nine victories. It was the outright leader in wins by an FBS program in North Carolina for the third straight year.

Working for title-winning programs at Louisville and Eastern Kentucky before being part of a bowl win for Big Ten member Purdue and coaching at Kent State, Clark has been a vital part of App State's historic success. He played at App State from 1994-98 and had served as an assistant in Boone since 2016.

In each of Clark's four seasons coaching App State's offensive line, with the Mountaineers earning four straight Sun Belt titles, the line ranked in the top 25 nationally in both rushing yards per game and fewest sacks allowed.

Clark graduated from App State with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1998 and earned a master's degree in education from Louisville in 2003.

His wife, Jonelle, was a standout softball student-athlete at Eastern Kentucky and was inducted into ECU's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008. The Clarks have two children: a daughter, Giana, and a son, Braxton.

WELCOME TO THE ROCK

ELEVATION 3,333 FT.

APP STATE RECORD AT KIDD BREWER STADIUM SINCE 2003: 103-19

In addition to boasting one of the most picturesque settings for college football with App State's campus and the natural beauty of the High Country serving as a backdrop, Kidd Brewer Stadium also stakes claim to being one of the toughest venues in the nation.

In its 59th season in the venerable stadium, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State boasts a 257-77-5 all-time record.

With the construction of the $50 million north end zone facility, removal of the track and installation of new turf, The Rock has a new look in 2020, as the end zone facility opened for fans before the Nov. 14 game vs. Georgia State. There are also plans to honor Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore with a plaza and statue in his name.

The facility will house a new football locker room, weight room, offices and team areas, as well as 1,000 club level seats, athletic training spaces, retail and dining service facilities.

App State led the Sun Belt Conference in home attendance in 2016, 2017 and 2019, averaging 25,787 fans in Boone during the 2017 season, 23,351 fans per regular-season home game in 2018 and 23,806 fans per home game during a 13-1 season in 2019.

Kidd Brewer Stadium's seating capacity is 30,000, and Wake Forest's visit to Boone in 2017 attracted a record crowd of 35,126. The record was broken just one year after Miami's visit to The Rock drew a crowd of 34,658.

Kidd Brewer Stadium is part of the of the Mark E. Ricks Athletics Complex. Thanks to philanthropic funding through A Mountaineer Impact, the video board display in 2017 increased to three times the size of the previous board.

GAME NOTES

App State won its season opener for the third straight year. It was the first season-opening win away from Boone since 2010 (42-41 at Chattanooga).

The Mountaineers improved to 20-12 all-time against the Pirates and snapped ECU's six-game winning streak in the series. This was the first matchup with both teams playing at the FBS level.

App State claimed its seventh straight victory over an in-state opponent, dating back to 2018.

The matchup was the Mountaineers' first against a team from the American Athletic Conference since App State joined the Sun Belt in 2014.

With their 64th win since the start of the 2015 season, the Mountaineers have the fifth-most in the country during that span behind only Alabama (80), Clemson (79), Ohio State (69) and Oklahoma (68).

App State had eight players make their Mountaineer debuts: true freshmen Michael Hughes, Deshawn McKnight and KaRon White; and transfers Chase Brice, Madison Cone, Isaiah Helms and Donte Small.

Making the first starts of their App State careers were QB Chase Brice, RG Isaiah Helms and senior SS Nick Ross.

The announced attendance of 36,752 officially set an App State record for the largest crowd at a "home" game in school history. The largest crowd in Kidd Brewer Stadium history remains 35,126 for the 2017 Wake Forest game.

App State had a pair of 100-yard rushers in its season opener (126 by Nate Noel, 100 by Cameron Peoples) for the second straight season.

Ten different players caught a pass, matching the 2020 season high that came in a road win vs. Texas State.

Mountaineers Envelop ECU in Uptown Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Country music star and App State alum Luke Combs was in town for his upcoming performance at The Rock, with fans filling Kidd Brewer Stadium for his highly anticipated concert.

Consider his song-leading cameo in a triumphant App State locker room at Bank of America Stadium a memorable warmup.

"I'm pretty parched right now," App State head coach Shawn Clark said to open his postgame press conference. "Had a chance to sing with Luke Combs in the locker room, so I enjoyed that."

No App State hearts were broken by how the home team looked in its 2021 debut.

Playing at the home of the NFL's Carolina Panthers, the Mountaineers had mayo-flavored mojo on their side as they went on a roll to claim a big lead and post a 33-19 victory against East Carolina of the American Athletic Conference. A record-setting crowd of 36,752 was on hand as App State used a 33-3 run to build a 33-9 lead in the Duke's Mayo Classic.

Chase Brice was nearly flawless through three quarters, throwing for 259 yards with touchdowns to Thomas Hennigan (114 receiving yards) and Corey Sutton, who each increased their career totals to 18 TD catches apiece. A new-look offensive line paved the way for two App State backs to surpass 100 rushing yards, as Nate Noel had 126 on 15 carries and Cameron Peoples scored twice on a 14-carry, 100-yard night.

Defensively, Ryan Huff came up with a key interception and the Mountaineers had four sacks, including two from Brendan Harrington. Nick Hampton and Tim Frizzell had back-to-back sacks leading up to Huff's pick and D'Marco Jackson led App State with eight tackles.

A 68-yard pass to Hennigan set up a third-quarter TD to Sutton, Noel had a 46-yard run to set up Peoples' second TD, and App State had an opportunity to increase the lead from 33-9 to 40-9, as Anderson Castle recovered a fumbled kickoff following big hits from Logan Doublin and Tyler Bird, but the team's lone turnover was an end-zone interception.
