STORYLINES

- After playing six games over the first 36 days of the season, with the first four being decided by a combined 14 points, App State had a Saturday with no game while preparing for this midweek matchup vs. Sun Belt foe Georgia State. The Mountaineers and Panthers were the only Group of Five teams to open 2022 with two games vs. P5 teams that were bowl-eligible in 2021.
- App State has sold out six of its seven home dates on the 2022 schedule and averaged 34,653 fans during its first four home games. The only non-sellout is this Wednesday's game, but last season, the Mountaineers had impressive midweek crowds with 28,377 fans for a Thursday win against Marshall (31-30) and 31,061 fans for a Wednesday win against Coastal Carolina (30-27) — the biggest regular season crowd for a college game on a Tuesday/Wednesday since 2011.
- App State's 57-13 record against Sun Belt teams since the 2014 transition includes an 8-0 mark against Georgia State, and the Mountaineers' 31-5 record in Sun Belt home games (counting two championship wins) includes a 4-0 record against the Panthers.
- Shawn Clark was the only first-year FBS head coach in 2020 to win nine-plus games, and he added a 10-win regular season with a Sun Belt East Division title in 2021. He is the first App State coach with two wins vs. ranked FBS teams (Coastal Carolina in 2021, Texas A&M in 2022).
- To recap a wild opening month: App State drew a stadium-record 40,168 fans and scored 40 fourth-quarter points during a 63-61 loss to North Carolina in the home opener before posting a 17-14 win at then-No. 6 Texas A&M in front of 92,665 fans at Kyle Field. ESPN's College GameDay visited App State for the first time on Sept. 17, and Chase Brice's 53-yard, Hail Mary touchdown pass to Christian Horn as time expired gave the Mountaineers a 32-28 victory against Troy in front of 34,406 fans. They built a 28-3 lead in a 32-28 home loss to unbeaten JMU with 33,248 fans on hand Sept. 24 and shut out The Citadel before losing at Texas State on Oct. 8.
- After four games against teams that are now a combined 19-7, the Mountaineers were credited with having the second-ranked strength of schedule among Group of Five programs nationally behind Kent State, which faced Washington, Oklahoma, LIU and Georgia in its first four games.
- Chase Brice is one of only five FBS QBs with least 18 TD passes and three or less INTs this year. Nick Hampton is No. 4 among active full-time FBS players with 24.5 career sacks (5.5 this year).

MEDIA POLICIES/INFORMATION

During a standard week with a Saturday game, App State will have Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday media availabilities.

Head coach Shawn Clark's appearances on the weekly Sun Belt coaches Zoom sessions are Mondays from 11:30 a.m. ET until approximately 11:37 a.m.

After his appearance on the Sun Belt Zoom session, Clark will be available for an interview with in-person media members. He will be followed by interviews with select student-athletes (contingent on their availability). Media members interested in participating should contact Joey or Bret by the end of the day Sunday to receive further information for that week's interviews.

During standard weeks, Tuesday and Wednesday practices will be open to approved media members.

If you plan to attend one or both open practices, communicate those plans and submit specific interview requests to Joey or Bret by 9 a.m. on Tuesday (for Tuesday's practice) and 9 a.m. on Wednesday (for Wednesday's practice). If you have more than one person from your organization planning to attend, the name of each attendee needs to be shared in advance.

Practices are closed to the public.

Media attending practice are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything until after the post-practice interviews have been conducted. This includes media who leave practice early.

No videos or photos can be taken during practice without prior permission from the App State strategic communications office.

HOME GAME CREDENTIALS

Requests will be made on a game-by-game basis and can be accessed by filling out the form at <https://goapp.st/FBcredentials2022>

App State Strategic Communications reserves the right to deny any request for a credential. The number of requests, coupled with the amount of press box and sideline space available to media members, will factor into credential approvals for each game.

Parking is not guaranteed with a credential, but App State Strategic Communications will do its best to provide at least one game day parking spot for each credentialed media outlet.

Head coach Shawn Clark and select players will be made available for a postgame press conference on the second floor of the north end zone facility. Media members can attend by entering the front/streetside entrance of the north end zone facility and taking the stairs to the team room on the second floor.

On game days, please communicate with the visiting team's communications staff on the second floor of the press box for info on their interview procedures in the Mountaineer Room on the second floor of the Ricks Athletics Complex.

MORE STORYLINES

- With a "Celebrate Appalachia" theme, App State will wear 1962-inspired helmets — 60 years ago, when Kidd Brewer Stadium opened as Conrad Stadium, the Mountaineers wore gold helmets with white jersey numbers on the side. Also, 2022 is the 150th anniversary of Boone's incorporation.
- App State has won four Sun Belt titles (plus a 2021 East Division title) and gone 6-1 in bowl games (with a record-setting 6-0 start) since its 2014 FBS transition. The Mountaineers are 82-22 since starting 1-5 in 2014.
- At 83-27 since the 2014 transition, App State has the sixth-most wins in the FBS in that span after Alabama (110-11), Clemson (106-13), Ohio State (99-11), Georgia (93-21) and Oklahoma (90-22). The Mountaineers have a home record of 45-9 and road record of 32-17 since the transition.
- App State has a streak of 37 straight seasons (eight Sun Belt, 29 SoCon) with a league record of .500 or better. Among current FBS programs, counting seasons before and after any transitions, it's the longest streak by 14 years — Clemson, Oklahoma and Boise State are at 23 in a row.
- ESPN's College GameDay's appearance at App State had 2.22 million average viewers and a final-hour viewership of 2.815 million. That viewership ranked in the top 30 (or 93rd percentile) of the 400-plus regular-season GameDay airings since 1993 and 10th overall since the format expanded 10 seasons ago to 3 hours (including No. 2 overall among pre-November editions in the current format). By the end of that Sunday, video content available on the @AppState_FB Twitter feed over four days (Thursday-Sunday) had generated nearly 7 million views.
- In the month of September, App State Football generated a combined 788,683 social media interactions from Instagram, Twitter and Facebook to rank 25th nationally and No. 1 among Group of Five programs. UCF had the second-highest total among G5 programs with 418,030.
- App State has the Sun Belt's most-followed Twitter (80.2K), Instagram (73.8K), Facebook, YouTube and TikTok accounts among football programs.
- The record-breaking attendance of 40,168 at Kidd Brewer Stadium in Week 1 surpassed the previous record of 35,126 fans from the 2017 Wake Forest game. App State broke school and Sun Belt all-time records last year with an average home attendance of 30,441.
- In Game 1, App State trailed 41-21 after three quarters. Chase Brice set a school record with six TD passes en route to a career-high 361 yards, including 203 with four TDs in the fourth quarter.
- At Texas A&M, App State secured its third-ever win over a top-25 ranked FBS opponent and its second in as many seasons. The Mountaineers' other wins were the historic 34-32 upset at No. 5 Michigan in 2007 and last year's 30-27 home win over No. 14 Coastal Carolina.
- In Game 2, Jalen McLeod had two forced fumbles (on the same play) and two sacks as App State's defense limited Texas A&M to nine first downs, 186 yards (on just 38 plays, compared to App State's 82) and 18:31 in possession. Michael Hughes made a tiebreaking FG with 8:05 left.
- App State became the 77th different school to host ESPN's College GameDay, and Yosef was Lee Corso's 387th headgear pick. It represented the 66th different school headgear he has worn.
- App State's team captains: ILB Tyler Bird, QB Chase Brice, ILB Trey Cobb, OLB Nick Hampton, OT Cooper Hodges, CB Steven Jones Jr., DE Hansky Paillant and RB Cameron Peoples.
- Over the previous three seasons (2019-21), App State was one of only seven FBS programs to finish each season in the top 50 in scoring offense AND scoring defense. App State was the only FBS program to be in the top 50 in rushing offense AND rushing defense in each of the previous five years (2017-21).
- App State posted a combined record of 43-10 from 2018-21 with three different head coaches, three different offensive coordinators and three different defensive coordinators over four seasons. Defensive coordinator Dale Jones is in Year 3 since returning to Boone, and offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay gives App State a new offensive coordinator for the fifth straight year. After Shawn Clark and Frank Ponce were co-offensive coordinators for play-caller Scott Satterfield in 2019, the next three coordinators were head coach Elijah Drinkwitz in 2019, Tony Petersen in 2020 and Ponce in 2021.
- Programs in North Carolina have posted an 11-win season at the FBS level a combined 11 times, and App State accounted for three of those in its first six FBS seasons.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- After being the kickoff specialist as a true freshman, Michael Hughes made his first career field goal in the fourth quarter at Texas A&M — a tiebreaking kick in the 17-14 win — and also broke a tie with a fourth-quarter field goal against Troy. Hughes replaced 2021 All-America kicker Chandler Staton, who ended his career at No. 5 in FBS history with 464 career kicking points.
- Clayton Howell returned as App State's starting punter after being a Freshman All-American in 2018 — Howell, Steven Jones Jr. and Daetrich Harrington are all in their sixth years at App State. From 2019-21, Howell was the holder while Xavier Subotsch served as the primary punter.

OFFENSE

- App State's offense returned QB Chase Brice (school-record 3,337 passing yards last year), two RBs with 1,000-yard seasons (Nate Noel in 2021, Camerun Peoples in 2020), four of five OL starters from 2021 and three of its top four tight ends. The Mountaineers lost four WRs who signed NFL contracts, but they've had at least nine players catch a pass in four games this year.
- First-year offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay was Central Michigan's offensive coordinator/QBs coach in 2021, when CMU averaged 265.4 passing yards per game (while throwing 31 TD passes) and had the nation's leading rusher in Law Nichols III (1,848 rushing yards, 16 rushing TDs).
- Chase Brice has 64 TD passes as a college quarterback, including 45 in his 20 starts for the Mountaineers. He has 18 TD passes and three interceptions this season, with six TD passes against UNC and four more vs. The Citadel. He amassed a career-high 395 passing yards with a career-high 40 completions (tying the school record) on a career-high 53 attempts at Texas State.
- Ranking fifth nationally with 18 TD passes heading into last weekend, Chase Brice is one of only five FBS QBs with at least 18 TD passes and fewer than four interceptions. The others: CJ Stroud (Ohio State), Drake Maye (UNC), Caleb Williams (USC) and Grayson McCall (Coastal Carolina).
- App State's new-look receiving corps includes fourth-year sophomore Christian Wells and third-year sophomore Christan Horn on the outside, with work in the slot from fourth-year sophomore Dashaun Davis. Dalton Stroman is a promising redshirt freshman, and App State added a pair of transfers in Kaedin Robinson and Tyler Page. Michael Hetzel has also shined.
- Dashaun Davis has led or tied for the team lead in catches in four games, including six-catch games vs. UNC (72 yards) and Texas State (61 yards). He also had a team-high 77 yards vs. JMU.
- Before making six grabs for 83 yards at Texas State, Christan Horn's three catches for 132 yards vs. The Citadel included an 80-yard TD and a 22-yard TD. He scored his first career TD against UNC, and his 53-yard TD catch as time expired against Troy capped a five-catch, 98-yard game.
- In addition to his key block that allowed Christan Horn to run into the right side of the end zone on the Hail Mary, Kaedin Robinson had a 42-yard reception and finished with four catches for 68 yards. He scored a 26-yard TD with nine seconds left vs. UNC and has started three straight games with Christian Wells sidelined, including a five-catch, 57-yard game vs. JMU.
- Dalton Stroman, who came up with the important tip near the goalline on the Hail Mary, had a career-high 104 yards and one TD on five catches (including a 55-yarder) at Texas State. He scored his first career TD on a 27-yard catch against JMU, made two important catches at Texas A&M and gained 41 yards on a long throw against UNC.
- After totaling 22 catches for 222 yards last season, TEs Henry Pearson, Miller Gibbs and Eli Wilson already have combined to make 24 catches for 257 yards and seven TDs in the first six games. Pearson has 14 catches for 160 yards and four TDs (with two coming last weekend at Texas State) after making 11 catches last season.
- The strong WR effort has come after App State had four "super senior" receivers use the extra year of COVID eligibility in 2021. Thomas Hennigan, Malik Williams, Corey Sutton and Jalen Virgil combined for 676 catches, 9,220 receiving yards, 75 receiving TDs and 80 total TDs before each receiver signed with an NFL team following the 2022 draft. Hennigan, Sutton and Williams all rank in the top eight in App State history in career catches, receiving yards and receiving TDs.
- App State has one of the most highly regarded RB rooms in the nation, with Camerun Peoples, Nate Noel, Daetrich Harrington and Anderson Castle being joined by Ahmani Marshall (Wake Forest transfer) and true freshman Kanye Roberts (the nation's leading prep rusher in 2021).
- Before missing the Texas State loss, Camerun Peoples needed only four carries vs. The Citadel to gain 102 yards, including a 73-yard TD run (his longest career run is a 76-yard, non-scoring rush in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl). He also had a 100-yard game earlier this season at Texas A&M.
- Last season, App State extended its streak of consecutive years with a 1,000-yard rusher to 10 — the longest streak among current FBS programs, with Buffalo in second place at four straight years. Nate Noel rushed for a league-leading 1,126 yards last season after Camerun Peoples totaled 1,124 yards in 2020 thanks to a 317-yard bowl performance. Daetrich Harrington had a league-best 595 yards through the first six games of 2020 before re-injuring his knee in San Marcos.
- Three games ago, Daetrich Harrington made his first start at running back since Nov. 7, 2020 at Texas State — the day he tore the ACL in his right knee for the second time. He initially tore it in the spring of 2018, returned nine months later to play and later suffered a foot injury that forced him to miss the last six regular-season games in 2019. After the injury at Texas State in November 2020, Harrington returned to game action on Oct. 12, 2021.
- Ahmani Marshall scored a TD in the 17-14 win at Texas A&M, and Anderson Castle scored a TD on his first career catch against Troy before making his first career start against The Citadel (as part of a two-back set). True freshman Kanye Roberts made his debut against The Citadel and scored his first TD during a seven-carry, 70-yard fourth quarter.

2021: App State 45, Georgia State 16

ATLANTA — Shaun Jolly's tone-setting interception just two plays into the Sun Belt opener was one of three picks for App State, and Chase Brice threw three touchdown passes while completing 20 passes for 326 yards.

Corey Sutton's four catches for 106 yards included a 79-yard score for App State (4-1, 1-0) moments after the Panthers (1-4, 0-1) pulled within 14-9 midway through the third quarter, starting a run of 31 straight points in roughly 12 minutes to increase the margin to 45-9.

Two years earlier, with App State going on a 49-0 run in a 56-27 win in Atlanta in 2019, Jolly scored a touchdown on one of his two interceptions and Sutton scored three times during an eight-catch, 173-yard performance.

Jacob Huesman's 5-yard TD pass to Miller Gibbs, Christian Wells' 80-yard TD and Anderson Castle's 22-yard touchdown run all came in an explosive four-minute stretch.

2020: App State 17, Georgia State 13

BOONE, N.C. — Fifth-year senior Jacob Huesman finished off a fourth-quarter touchdown drive in relief of injured starting quarterback Zac Thomas to give App State its first lead, and the Mountaineers remained unbeaten in Sun Belt Conference play.

App State (6-1, 4-0) lost Thomas to an injury when he was hit near the sideline on a quarterback keeper midway through the final quarter. Huesman, Thomas' classmate and housemate, directed the offense for the final six plays of a march that covered 77 yards on 11 plays and lasted more than four minutes.

He completed a 12-yard pass to Camerun Peoples on his first play and added a 14-yard completion to Thomas Hennigan on a third-and-8 throw to the Georgia State 22. Peoples' 10-yard touchdown run with 4:55 left produced the Mountaineers' first lead of the game at 17-13.

After Peoples' touchdown, Nick Hampton and Demetrius Taylor teamed up for a sack that helped produce a punt by Georgia State (3-4, 2-4), and the Mountaineers ran the final 3:32 off the clock in the first game at Kidd Brewer Stadium with fans in the newly opened north end zone facility.

DEFENSE

- App State's defense lost seven primary starters from 2021, including ILB and NFL draft pick D'Marco Jackson. CB Steven Jones Jr., OLB Nick Hampton, ILB Trey Cobb and DT Jordon Earle are the returning starters from 2021.
- In his 26th season as an App State assistant, defensive coordinator Dale Jones has been part of 234 wins. He coached at Louisville with Scott Satterfield in 2019 following a 23-year run at App State, where he was also the defensive coordinator from 2010-12 and co-defensive coordinator in 2018.
- In Dale Jones' seven-plus FBS seasons as a defensive coach at App State, the Mountaineers have 48 games allowing 17 points or less and 23 games allowing single-digit points. In the first 52 minutes of the App State-Texas A&M game, with one of A&M's two touchdowns coming on special teams, the Aggies ran only two plays in App State territory.
- App State's 49-0 win against The Citadel was the Mountaineers' first shutout since a 2017 bowl shutout and their seventh shutout since the 2014 transition — the fifth-best total in the country in that span behind only Alabama's 12, Georgia's 12, Wisconsin's 10 and Clemson's eight.
- App State entered last weekend tied with New Mexico for the FBS lead with 10 fumbles forced, including two apiece by KeSean Brown, Nick Hampton and Jalen McLeod.
- With multi-sack games this year vs. UNC (2.5) and James Madison (2.0), Nick Hampton has increased his career total to 24.5 sacks. That total ranks fifth in school history (fourth-place Demetrius Taylor has 26.5) and fourth among active full-time FBS players behind Iowa State's Will McDonald (32.5), Alabama's Will Anderson Jr. (29.5) and Nevada's Dom Peterson (26.0).
- One of only five players nationally in 2021 with more than 10 sacks, 15 tackles for loss and 65 tackles, Nick Hampton now has 38.0 career tackles for loss. With nearly 40 pounds of added weight since entering college, he was named to The Athletic's "Freaks List" for 2022.
- App State's 120 INTs since 2015 rank third nationally in that span, behind only Iowa's 123 and San Diego State's 121. Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass on the first play from scrimmage vs. Troy, preserved the shutout vs. The Citadel by picking off a pass in the end zone to end a 17-play drive that covered 11 minutes, 22 seconds and ended Texas State's first drive with an end-zone pick.
- App State strong safety Nick Ross, who returned an interception 20 yards for a TD in the 20-15 win at South Carolina in 2019, set a career high for tackles when he made seven stops at Texas A&M and then added 12 against Troy. He leads the team with 41 tackles.
- Named a 2021 first-team All-American from the FWA and Phil Steele, with a second-team honor from the Walter Camp Football Foundation, cornerback Steven Jones Jr. intercepted five passes last season to give him seven career INTs (with four pick-six TDs in that span). He had two pick-six TDs (out of three total INTs) vs. Arkansas State and one pick-six TD vs. ULM.
- Inside linebacker Trey Cobb was the only FBS player in 2021 with at least 75 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss, three interceptions and seven passes defended (he also had two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery). He has battled injuries this year but has 250 career tackles.
- With outside linebacker Brendan Harrington sidelined for the rest of the season, KeSean Brown led the Mountaineers with 10 tackles, two tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a sack against The Citadel in his second career start.
- Two fifth-year linebackers who have contributed greatly since they arrived have made their first career starts on defense this year. Logan Doublin started at Texas A&M in his 40th career game appearance, and Tyler Bird started and had a sack against Troy in his 56th career appearance. He also started again in the JMU game, and Doublin made a career-high 11 tackles at Texas State.
- ILB and Arkansas transfer Andrew Parker led the team with eight tackles in his App State debut and added 10 more in the win against Troy. He is second on the team with 37 stops.
- While defensive tackle Jordon Earle doesn't amass eye-opening stats, his work up front has drawn praise from Texas A&M coach Jimbo Fisher. He made his 27th straight start last week.
- App State's most experienced defensive end is Hansky Paillant, who has 2.5 sacks in 40 career games, with half a sack vs. Troy. First-year starter DeAndre Dingle-Prince, who has shifted over from defensive tackle, made an important fumble recovery at Texas A&M. Deshawn McKnight appeared in 10 games last season as a true freshman and forced a fumble against JMU.
- The win against The Citadel was App State's first home shutout since the 2015 opener vs. Howard (also 49-0) and the Mountaineers' seventh shutout since making the FBS climb in 2014. The other shutouts were 66-0 against Campbell (2014), 44-0 against Georgia State (2014), 49-0 against ODU (2015), 24-0 against Louisiana (2016) and 34-0 against Toledo (2017 Dollar General Bowl).
- Four defensive backs who attended App State since 2018 are currently with NFL franchises: Shemar Jean-Charles (2020 Packers draft pick, after being a first-team All-American in 2020), Josh Thomas (Cardinals), Tae Hayes (Panthers) and rookie Shaun Jolly (Rams).

WELCOME TO THE ROCK

ELEVATION 3,333 FT.

APP STATE RECORD AT KIDD BREWER STADIUM SINCE 2003: 112-21

With the beauty of the High Country serving as a backdrop, Kidd Brewer Stadium stakes claim to being one of the toughest and most picturesque venues in the nation.

In its 61st season in the stadium, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State boasts a 265-79-5 all-time record in home games.

With the construction of the $50 million north end zone facility, removal of the track and installation of new turf, The Rock had a new look in 2021, as the end zone facility opened for fans in November 2020. Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore was also honored before the 2021 opener at The Rock with a plaza and statue in his name.

The end zone facility houses the football locker room, weight room, offices and team areas, as well as 1,000 club level seats, athletic training spaces, retail and dining service facilities.

The 2022 home opener against UNC drew a stadium-record 40,168 fans, and 34,406 fans cheered App State to victory over Troy on the same day ESPN's College GameDay visited campus.

In 2021, App State set single-season school and Sun Belt records with an average home crowd of 30,441.

App State's impressive crowd support included 31,061 fans at a Wednesday win against Coastal Carolina and 28,377 for a Thursday game vs. Marshall.

FBS SUCCESS: 6 BOWL WINS, 4 SUN BELT TITLES

RECORD: 10-4

The 30-27 home victory over Coastal Carolina in 2021 helped App State go 7-1 in the Sun Belt and win the East Division title.

2020

RECORD: 9-3

App State rushed for 500 yards, including 317 from Cam Peoples, in a 56-28 win over North Texas in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

2019

Offensive linemen Ryan Neuzil (left) and Noah Hannon hold up the trophy after a 31-17 win over UAB in the New Orleans Bowl.

Jordan Fehr (center) leads the celebration following App State's 45-38 win against Louisiana in the 2019 Sun Belt title game.

2018

RECORD: 11-2

Led by interim head coach Mark Ivey, App State posted a 45-13 win against Middle Tennessee in the New Orleans Bowl.

Team captain MyQuon Stout lifts the trophy following a 30-19 win over Louisiana in the first-ever Sun Belt title game.

2017

RECORD: 9-4

App State shut out high-scoring Toledo en route to a 34-0 victory in the Dollar General Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

The Mountaineers clinched a Sun Belt title by closing the regular season with a 63-14 win against Louisiana on Senior Day.

2016

RECORD: 10-3

Thanks to a tiebreaking field goal with 5:41 left, App State won 31-28 against Toledo in a return trip to the Camellia Bowl.

Out in Las Cruces, N.M., App State earned a share of its first FBS league title with a win at former Sun Belt foe New Mexico State.

2015

RECORD: 11-2

Making its FBS postseason debut, App State kicked a 23-yard FG as time expired in a 31-29 win against Ohio in the Camellia Bowl.

SHAWN CLARK

Less than four years after coming back to Boone to coach at his alma mater, Shawn Clark not only became App State's head coach, but he has begun his tenure with a record-breaking bowl victory, a nine-win debut season and a 10-win regular season in 2021.

Hired as the 22nd head football coach in App State history on Dec. 13, 2019, Clark was the only first-year FBS head coach in 2020 to win at least nine games, and he followed that by directing the Mountaineers to a 2021 Sun Belt East Division title during a 10-4 season that pushed his record to 20-7.

Clark, who completed the 2021 season with the eighth-best winning percentage among active FBS head coaches, was rewarded for his strong work with a contract extension through the 2026 season. Already in 2022, he's led App State to a headline-making win at No. 6 Texas A&M, a victory that earned him a national coach of the week award from The Dodd Trophy.

He made his official head coaching debut while leading the Mountaineers to a 31-17 victory against UAB in the 2019 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl eight days after his introductory press conference. Ranked 18th in the final Amway Coaches Poll of the season, App State went 13-1 to become the first Sun Belt team and the first FBS team from North Carolina to win 13 games in a season.

In 2020, the Mountaineers secured a Myrtle Beach Bowl title and were one of just 13 teams nationally with at least nine victories.

In 2021, the Mountaineers' 10-2 regular season included signature wins against in-state foe East Carolina (36,752 fans witnessed App State jump out to a 33-9 lead in Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium against the AAC's third-place finisher), longtime rival Marshall and 14th-ranked Coastal Carolina.

Reaching double-figure wins in 2021, App State is one of just eight FBS programs with at least five 10-win seasons since 2015 and one of just four FBS programs with at least nine victories every year since 2015.

Clark has helped lead record-setting runs to conference titles and bowl victories, not just at App State, where he played from 1994-98 and had served as an assistant since 2016, but also in four other leagues during his two decades of college coaching experience.

Working for championship-winning programs at Louisville and Eastern Kentucky before being part of a bowl win for Big Ten member Purdue and coaching at Kent State, Clark has also been a vital part of App State's historic FBS success.

An offensive lineman in college, Clark was a two-time All-American (1996 and 1998) and three-time all-conference selection (1995, 1996, 1998) for teams that went a combined 45-16 during his first five years in Boone. In fact, as a player during the 12-0 start in 1995 and a coach for the 2019 team that has set a single-season record for wins by an FBS program in the state of North Carolina, Clark has been part of the two App State teams to post 11 regular-season victories.

Clark graduated from App State with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1998 and earned a master's degree in education from Louisville in 2003.

His wife, Jonelle, was a standout softball student-athlete at Eastern Kentucky and was inducted into ECU's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008. The Clarks have two children: a daughter, Giana, and a son, Braxton.

CHASE BRICE

#7 | 6TH-YEAR R-SR. | QB | 6-3 | 235 | GRAYSON, GA.

- Top 25 pick for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award
- 18 TD passes (No. 5 in FBS) and three INTs, highlighted by Troy win that ended with 53-yard Hail Mary TD
- Only other QBs with at least 18 TD passes/three or less INTs are CJ Stroud (Ohio State), Drake Maye (UNC), Caleb Williams (USC) and Grayson McCall (Coastal)
- After the highlight-reel TD to Christan Horn, video of Brice going toward the stands and helping fellow students jump safely onto the field went viral
- Set a school record with six touchdown passes and a career high with 361 passing yards in the 2022 opener vs. UNC, as he completed 10 passes for 203 yards and four TDs during a 40-point fourth quarter
- Set single-season school record in 2021 with 3,337 passing yards to break Armanti Edwards' total of 3,291
- Has 8,204 passing yards and 64 TD passes in FBS career
- Before playing the 2020 season at Duke, spent three seasons at Clemson, helping the Tigers erase a fourth-quarter deficit of 10 points against Syracuse in 2018 (with QB Trevor Lawrence sidelined in his first start) and engineering a 94-yard drive in a 27-23 victory

NICK HAMPTON

#9 | 5TH-YEAR R-JR. | OLB | 6-3 | 235 | ANDERSON, S.C.

- With 2.5 sacks vs. UNC, half a sack vs. Troy and 2.0 sacks vs. JMU, ranks fourth among active full-time FBS players with 24.5 career sacks, behind just Iowa State's Will McDonald (32.5), Alabama's Will Anderson Jr. (29.5) and Nevada's Dom Peterson (26.0)
- Now fifth in school history with his 24.5 career sacks, with Demetrius Taylor in fourth with 26.5
- His 38.0 career tackles for loss rank second among active full-time Sun Belt players
- With nearly 40 pounds of added weight since entering college, named to The Athletic's "Freaks List" with incline press of 365 pounds, sumo deadlift of 600 pounds, vertical jump of 39 inches and a top sprint speed of 21 mph
- Had 11.0 sacks in 2021, the sixth-highest total among FBS defenders returning in 2022 and the top single-season total in the FBS era of App State football

STEVEN JONES JR.

#6 | 6TH-YEAR R-SR. | CB | 5-10 | 185 | ROCKINGHAM, N.C.

- 2022 second-team preseason All-American via the Walter Camp Football Foundation and PFN, plus watch lists for the Chuck Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy, Jim Thorpe Award and East-West Shrine Bowl
- 2021 first-team All-American from the FWAA, Phil Steele and Pro Football Network, with a second-team honor from the Walter Camp Football Foundation
- Walter Camp Football Foundation and Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week in 2021 after intercepting three passes and scoring touchdowns on two interception returns at Arkansas State (TDs covered 47 and 34 yards)
- Had four INTs and three pick-six TDs over a two-game span thanks to a 14-yard TD return to end the first half against ULM — no FBS player has had three pick-six TDs in a shorter span (two games) since Houston’s Johnny Jackson set NCAA record by scoring three times on INTs returns in 1987 vs. Texas.
- Career totals include seven INTs, four INT returns for TDs (also one vs. Troy in 2020) and five total TDs (recovery of punt he blocked vs. Gardner-Webb in 2018)

OFFENSIVE LINE

- Nicknamed “The Bulls,” App State’s line was one of 13 semifinalists for the 2021 Joe Moore Award after being a top-15 line in 2018 and 2019
- UNC, Texas A&M and Troy totaled just one sack apiece against App State
- In first eight FBS seasons, line ranked in top 20 in fewest sacks allowed seven times, including tied for 14th in 2021, while also ranking in the top 25 in rushing yards per game in seven of eight FBS seasons
- The starting line has an average height of 6-foot-4 and weight of 292 pounds, and facing bigger, highly recruited defensive lines, App State rushed for 288 yards against UNC and 181 yards against Texas A&M
- Line returned four of five 2021 starters in three-time All-Sun Belt pick Cooper Hodges (RT, pictured, 45 straight starts), Anderson Hardy (LT), Isaiah Helms (RG) and Damion Daley (LG) — Troy Everett was a new starter at C, and Bucky Williams has played a lot of meaningful snaps at left guard

CAM PEOPLES

#6 | 5TH-YEAR R-JR. | RB | 6-2 | 225 | LINEVILLE, ALA.

- In 32 career games (with 13 starts), has 2,603 rushing yards, 31 rushing touchdowns and 6.1 yards per carry
- Missed the Texas State game with a non-football injury
- Rushed for 102 yards on just four carries vs. The Citadel, scoring on a 73-yard run (second-longest run of career)
- Helped tie UNC game with 38-yard TD and, in a 112-yard day at Texas A&M, had a 48-yard run on the final drive
- Last season, started the first four games before missing the next two games and finished with 926 yards (No. 3 in the Sun Belt) and 14 rushing TDs (No. 1 in the Sun Belt)
- Capped 1,124-yard year in 2020 with 317 yards and five TDs in the Myrtle Beach Bowl — he set NCAA’s single-game bowl record for rushing yards, broke school record for single-game rushing yards, tied NCAA bowl record for rushing TDs and tied school record for rushing TDs
- Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award candidate in 2020 — scored a 63-yard touchdown as a (redshirting) true freshman in the 2018 bowl win but suffered a torn ACL in his right knee in the 2019 opener

NATE NOEL

#5 | 3RD-YEAR SO. | RB | 5-10 | 185 | MIAMI, FLA.

- Preseason watch list for the Doak Walker Award
- Had early 52-yard TD run in 2022 opener vs. North Carolina before finishing with 14 carries for 116 yards and a career-high two TDs in his eighth career 100-yard game
- Has rushed for 1,784 career yards in 27 games (66.1 per game)
- In 2021, gave App State a 1,000-yard back for the 10th straight season (the second-longest streak among current FBS programs is Buffalo's four) and enabled the Mountaineers to have the Sun Belt's leading rusher for the sixth straight year
- In addition to 1,126 yards last season in 14 games (started the final 10), led the Sun Belt with 31 runs of 10+ yards
- Had five 100-yard rushing games in 2021: 126 against ECU, 187 against Marshall, 132 against ULM, 122 against Arkansas State and 102 against Troy
- Of his 187 rushing yards on 20 carries in the 31-30 home win against Marshall in 2021, 104 came in the fourth quarter, including 87 on a game-clinching drive to run out the final 4:04

APP STATE	14	7	0	40	—	61

Sept. 3 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 40,168 (Stadium Record)

GAME NOTES

The attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was a stadium-record 40,168. That surpassed the previous record of 35,126 fans at the 2017 Wake Forest game.

App State outscored North Carolina 40-22 in the fourth quarter as the Mountaineers nearly came back to win after being down 20 at the start of the frame. The Mountaineers became the first team in at least 15 years to score 40 fourth-quarter points, according to ESPN's Adam Rittenberg, who also noted that the 62 combined fourth-quarter points were one shy of the FBS record.

The 124 combined points were the most in a game in program history and the first time two teams scored 60+ points since 2019 (UCLA-Washington State).

App State's 61 points were its most ever in a losing effort and tied for the 14th-most in a game in school history, win or lose. According to ESPN Stats & Info, App State's 61 points are tied for sixth-most in a regulation loss in the AP poll era (since 1936).

According to The Athletic's Matt Brown, this was the first 63-61 final score in college football history.

App State's offense racked up 38 first downs, 649 total yards, 288 rushing and 361 passing in offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay's Mountaineer debut. It was the most total yards by App State since racking up 692 against Gardner-Webb in 2018.

Chase Brice threw for a career-high 361 yards on 25-of-36 completions and tossed a school-record six touchdown passes to six different receivers. The previous record of five was achieved six times by five different QBs.

Brice engineered a fourth-quarter comeback that was nearly one for the ages, directing six touchdown drives including four that ended with a Brice pass into the end zone.

Record Crowd Sees High-Scoring Thriller Vs. UNC

BOONE, N.C. — With a stadium-record 40,168 fans packing Kidd Brewer Stadium, UNC's defense survived App State's go-ahead two-point try with 31 seconds left and a game-tying two-point attempt with nine seconds remaining to escape its first visit to Boone with a 63-61 victory.

Yes, there were three touchdowns scored in the last 31 seconds, putting the finishing touches on a fourth-quarter in which App State fought back from a 41-21 deficit by scoring 40 points.

Chase Brice threw a school-record six TD passes en route to a career-high 361 passing yards. Defensively, Nick Hampton had 2.5 sacks.

App State came back to tie the score at 49-all on Cam Peoples' 38-yard touchdown run with four minutes remaining. UNC moved back ahead with 2:50 remaining, but Brice hit Dashaun Davis for a 28-yard touchdown with 31 seconds left. The Mountaineers went for a go-ahead two-point conversion, but Brice and Davis weren't able to connect on a pass.

Bryson Nesbit returned the onside kick for a 43-yard TD, but that gave App State one more chance with the score 63-55. Milan Tucker's 47-yard kick return to the UNC 48 and Brice's 22-yard completion to Kaedin Robinson set up another Brice-to-Robinson connection, this one a 26-yard TD with nine seconds left. The Tar Heels took away Brice's throwing options and stopped him short on the two-point try.

APP STATE	0	7	7	3	—	17
#6 Texas A&M	0	7	7	0	—	14

Sept. 10 - Kyle Field - Bryan-College Station, Texas - 92,664

GAME NOTES

App State secured its third ever win over a top-25 ranked FBS opponent and its second in as many seasons. The other wins were the historic 34-32 upset at No. 5 Michigan in 2007 and last year's 30-27 home win over No. 14 Coastal Carolina.

Last 5 games vs. AP top-10 teams:
 2021 – App State 17, at #6 Texas A&M 14
 2018 – at #9 Penn St. 45, App State 38 (OT)
 2016 – at #9 Tenn. 20, App State 13 (OT)
 2008 – at #7 LSU 41, App State 13
 2007 – App State 34, at #5 Michigan 32

Shawn Clark is the first App State coach with two wins over top-25 FBS opponents.

This was the Mountaineers' second straight win over an SEC opponent after winning 20-15 at South Carolina in 2019.

App State is now 4-0 all-time in games played in Texas (3-0 vs. Texas State, 1-0 vs. Texas A&M).

App State's last seven games against Power Five teams have all been decided by seven points or less, with three wins and four defeats.

App State improved to 80-20 in its last 100 games.

App State's 32 road wins since 2014 are third most nationally in that span behind Boise State (34) and Clemson (33).

App State won despite not having starting outside linebacker Brendan Harrington or co-starting running back Nate Noel due to injuries. Trey Cobb, another starting linebacker, missed most of the second half after going down with an injury, meaning redshirt freshman Caden Sullivan played a huge role in what was essentially his defensive debut for the Mountaineers.

Taking over Cobb's normal spot, Logan Doublin made his first career start (in career game No. 40) and had a TFL.

App State Takes Down No. 6 Texas A&M On ESPN2

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Howdy from College Station, where App State has once again seized the national spotlight.

With its latest signature win, there's reason to celebrate all the way back to the High Country. And guess what? ESPN's College GameDay is joining us on Sept. 17.

App State scored touchdowns after both turnovers forced by its defense, Michael Hughes kicked a tiebreaking field goal with 8:05 left and the Mountaineers finished strong to complete a 17-14 win against No. 6 Texas A&M in front of 92,664 fans at Kyle Field on a steamy Saturday afternoon in Texas.

Jalen McLeod forced two fumbles on the same play and recorded a sack to lead a stingy defense, which limited the Aggies to only two plays in App State territory over the first 52 minutes. Texas A&M totaled nine first downs and 186 yards of offense as the Mountaineers possessed the ball for 41:29 of the game's 60 minutes.

It was App State's first victory against an AP Top 10 opponent since the 34-32 victory at No. 5 Michigan in 2007.

"The key was belief," App State head coach Shawn Clark said. "You have to believe in yourself and believe in this program."

This one, with the familiar greetings of "Howdy" in Aggieland and the organized chants from the 12th Man, ended with loud App State cheers.

Hughes capped a 16-play march that covered 9 minutes, 15 seconds with his first career field goal, a 29-yard kick, to give App State a 17-14 lead midway through the fourth quarter. The Aggies (1-1) moved into scoring range but missed a 47-yard field goal with 3:43 remaining.

The Mountaineers' line went to work after that, paving the way for a clock-draining drive that included three straight Camerun Peoples runs to move the chains and then Peoples' 48-yard run to the Texas A&M 12 with 1:36 left. From there, Brice was able to kneel out the win.

DeAndre Dingle-Prince's first-half recovery of McLeod's two-fumble sequence led to Ahmani Marshall's short touchdown run, and Nick Hampton's recovery of a fumble forced by Dexter Lawson Jr. set up Brice's third-quarter touchdown pass to tight end Henry Pearson.

Troy	7	14	0	7	—	28
APP STATE	7	7	10	8	—	32

Sept. 17 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 34,406

GAME NOTES

The attendance of 34,406 for Troy's visit ranked as the fourth-biggest crowd in KBS history and the top crowd for a non-ACC foe. It was the biggest crowd to see an App State win at The Rock.

ESPN's College GameDay has averaged more than 2 million viewers per weekend in 2022. The video content available on the @AppState_FB Twitter feed over four days from the start of Thursday through the end of Sunday generated nearly 7 million views.

The actual name of the final play? "Big Ben" — similar to a 63-yard Hail Mary that Florida used to beat Tennessee in 2017, when App State offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay was the Gators' director of player development.

An already fired-up crowd had more reasons to cheer when Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass on the first play from scrimmage, giving App State possession at the Troy 38. Dashaun Davis later took a handoff from Chase Brice and threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to fellow receiver Christian Wells.

App State recorded three first-quarter sacks, with solo efforts from Tyler Bird and KeSean Brown being followed by a combo deal from Nick Hampton and Hansky Paillant.

Chase Brice's 18-yard touchdown pass to running back Anderson Castle to tie the game late in the second quarter was Castle's first career catch.

App State won its eighth straight Sun Belt opener in its ninth season as a member of the conference.

App State was the 77th different school to host ESPN's College GameDay, and Yosef was Lee Corso's 387th headgear pick. It represented the 66th different school headgear he has worn.

App State improved to 43-8 at home since the 2014 transition.

Hail Mary Win Caps Day With ESPN GameDay Debut

BOONE, N.C. — An unforgettable Saturday at App State began with ESPN College GameDay's first visit to Boone. It then delivered a second unbelievable, historic ending at The Rock.

Call it the Miracle on the Mountain: Part 2.

Chase Brice's 53-yard, Hail Mary touchdown pass to Christian Horn — with help from 6-foot-4 teammate Dalton Stroman's crowded tip at the 5-yard line and Kaedin Robinson's sealing block after Horn made a circling catch of the tip at the 8 — gave App State a thrilling 32-28 win against Troy in their Sun Belt Conference opener.

"Wow. I'm thankful for a win and proud of our players for playing 60 minutes," App State coach Shawn Clark said. "That's what our program is built upon — never giving up. I think God's a Mountaineer today."

Twenty years after winning the original "Miracle on the Mountain" game, App State (2-1) pulled off another shocker. Just like country music star Luke Combs and Lee Corso had predicted seven hours earlier, with Cor wearing Yosef headgear to close GameDay's appearance in a packed Sanford Mall, App State did indeed beat Troy.

No one expected it to happen like that.

"It was a surreal moment," Horn said. "I'm still in awe, honestly."

"I threw it, and I'm looking. I'm praying," Brice said. "I see the tip, and Christian, I see him come across, catches it in his breadbasket and I'm like, 'Nobody's there. Nobody's there.'"

Brice's incomplection on a fourth-and-goal pass from the 2 gave Troy (1-2) possession with 1:13 left and a 28-24 lead. After three plays — and two final timeouts used by App State — the Trojans took a fourth-down safety on purpose instead of punting from the end zone, leaving App State with just 20 seconds left. Troy executed a squibbed kickoff that Ahmani Marshall returned 13 yards to the App State 47.

Three incomplections set up one final heave with two seconds left.

Sept. 24 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 33,248

GAME NOTES

With App State looking to build on a 28-10 lead, JMU made stop on a fourth-and-2 run from the Dukes' 27 to open the second half, then scored touchdowns with 1:19 left in the third quarter, 11:28 remaining in the game and 10:36 left.

Less than five minutes remained in the third quarter when App State punted with an 18-point lead, and KeSean Brown fell on a muffed punt, but officials ruled kick-catch interference after a JMU blocker hit an App State coverage player close to the punt returner, causing both players to make contact with the returner.

Attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 33,248, the fifth-largest crowd in stadium history and third-largest over the first three home games 2022.

The App State defense allowed JMU to convert just two of its 14 third-down chances, but the Dukes managed to convert three of their six attempts on fourth down.

Five running backs saw action on the offense's opening drive, but Camerun Peoples totaled only four carries before leaving the game for good in the first half and Nate Noel had only six carries (just one after halftime).

Daetrich Harrington made his first start at running back since Nov. 7, 2020 at Texas State — the day he tore the ACL in his right knee for the second time.

Nine different receivers caught a pass from Brice, the fourth time in four games this year that at least nine receivers have caught a pass for the Mountaineers.

App State suffered a second home loss in the same season for the first time since the 2014 season.

App State Falls Short in Another Nailbiter with JMU

BOONE, N.C. — App State played yet another nailbiting game, falling 32-28 to James Madison in front of another above-capacity, sellout crowd at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Each of the Mountaineers' first four games in 2022 have been decided by four points or less, with 13 points being the combined separation.

App State (2-2, 1-1 Sun Belt) built a 28-3 lead, scoring all of its points with four touchdowns during a stretch of 7:35 during the second quarter. It led 28-10 at the break before the Dukes (3-0, 1-0) scored 22 points over the final 16 minutes, 19 seconds in their first Sun Belt Conference game.

After linebacker Trey Cobb made a fourth-and-1 stop for a 1-yard loss back to the App State 10 with 2:06 remaining, the Mountaineers advanced to their 42, with Chase Brice's 23-yard completion to Christian Horn getting them out from the shadow of their own end zone.

The Dukes were able to run out the clock after breaking up a fourth-and-9 pass in the final minute. A crowd of 33,248 was on hand to witness the first FBS meeting between App State and JMU, which had a history of memorable games when both tradition-rich programs were FCS powers.

Nick Hampton recorded two sacks and forced a fumble for an App State defense that created two key takeaways. Cobb made a team-high nine stops and recovered a fumble forced by Deshawn McKnight.

App State's four touchdowns followed a three-and-out JMU punt, McKnight's forced fumble on a run play in JMU territory, a fourth-and-4 stop inside App State's 35 and Hampton's strip sack in JMU territory. The Mountaineers capitalized with Camerun Peoples' 2-yard touchdown run, Gibbs' 10-yard touchdown catch, Stroman's 27-yard touchdown catch for his first career score and Nate Noel's 5-yard touchdown run.

Oct. 1 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 30,789

GAME NOTES

It was App State's first home shutout since the 2015 opener against Howard (also 49-0) and the Mountaineers' seventh shutout since making the FBS climb in 2014. In addition to the three games noted so far, the other shutouts were 66-0 against Campbell (2014), 44-0 against Georgia State (2014), 49-0 against ODU (2015) and 24-0 against Louisiana (2016).

The only teams with more shutouts since App State made the FBS climb are Alabama (12), Georgia (11), Wisconsin (10) and Clemson (8).

The Mountaineers have won their last seven contests against FCS opponents, dating back to 2015.

Running back Anderson Castle made his first career start as part of a package that also included Camerun Peoples.

Quarterback Brady McBride, linebacker Trevor Moffitt, wide receiver Jacoby Pinckney, running back Kanye Roberts and offensive lineman Markell Samuel saw their first career action for App State.

In Dale Jones' seven-plus FBS seasons as a defensive coach at App State, the Mountaineers have 48 games allowing 17 points or less and 23 games allowing single-digit points.

True freshman Kanye Roberts, in his collegiate debut, ran seven times for 70 yards and his first career touchdown, all in the fourth quarter.

Kanye Roberts' touchdown was set up by a diving, one-handed catch from Michael Hetzel on a 22-yard throw from Brady McBride.

Camerun Peoples scored the longest touchdown of his career — his only longer carry was a 76-yard, non-scoring run in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Big-Play Mountaineers Shut Out Bulldogs in Boone

BOONE, N.C. — Dexter Lawson Jr. made a diving interception in the end zone to keep The Citadel from scoring on an 11-minute drive, and Chase Brice threw an 80-yard TD pass to Christian Horn on the next play.

App State didn't need much time to do its offensive damage — that touchdown was the Mountaineers' only third-quarter snap — and the defense held the Bulldogs' clock-chewing option offense in check throughout the Family Weekend home game at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

That combination contributed to a 49-0 shutout for the Mountaineers, who posted a one-sided win to follow an opening month in which all four games were decided by four points or less.

"It's been four tough weeks — four emotional weeks — and our program needed that. Our players needed that," coach Shawn Clark said. "I'm very pleased with how we came out and executed in all three phases. Any time you get a shutout in college football, that's huge."

KeSean Brown had 10 tackles, two tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a sack in App State's first shutout since the 34-0 victory against Toledo in the 2017 Dollar General Bowl and first home shutout since 2015. Nick Ross added nine stops and a forced fumble.

Going into the final drive of the first half, App State (3-2) had a 359-20 advantage in total yards, with five of The Citadel's first six possessions resulting in three-and-out stops. The Mountaineers finished with a 545-223 yardage advantage and made nine tackles for loss, including the first career sack from true freshman Donovan Spellman.

Accounting for five touchdowns, Brice completed 12 of his 18 pass attempts for 265 yards and four touchdowns, with Horn scoring twice on three receptions that totaled 132 yards. Camerun Peoples' had a 73-yard touchdown to highlight a four-carry, 102-yard outing in front of a crowd of 30,789. With heavy rains and wind from Hurricane Ian not affecting Boone as much as initially expected, it was mostly an overcast day with occasional mist at The Rock.

GAME NOTES

At 3-3, App State has three losses through six games for the first time since starting 1-5 in 2014, its first season as an FBS member of the Sun Belt Conference.

The Mountaineers have lost two of their first three Sun Belt games for the first time since 2014.

App State lost to Texas State for the first time in seven meetings. The Mountaineers also dropped a game in the state of Texas for the first time. The program had been 3-0 in San Marcos and 1-0 in College Station (this year's win at Texas A&M).

App State is now 0-2 this season when it loses the turnover battle.

Freshman DB Ethan Johnson made his first career start but left the game with an injury suffered on the fourth play.

App State played without starting running back Camerun Peoples and starting wide receiver Christian Wells. Starting outside linebacker Brendan Harrington is out for the season, and starting inside linebacker Trey Cobb did not play in the second half after a first-half injury. Starting wide receiver Kaedin Robinson also left the game with an injury.

Chase Brice amassed a career-high 395 passing yards with a career-high 40 completions on a career-high 53 attempts. He threw three touchdowns and one interception. It was the most passing yards in a game by a Mountaineer since Taylor Lamb's 427 against Coastal Carolina in 2017.

Brice tied the program record for completions in a game, matching the 40 by Richie Williams in a 2004 game against Furman. Brice's 53 attempts were the fourth-highest total in App State history and the most by an App State QB since DeAndre Presley had 56 against Villanova in 2010.

Mountaineers Suffer First Loss in Lone Star State

SAN MARCOS, Texas — App State's second trip to the Lone Star State resulted in a 36-24 loss at Texas State in front of the Bobcats' biggest home crowd for a Sun Belt game.

Henry Pearson caught two second-half touchdown passes from Chase Brice, helping the Mountaineers pull within 15 points early in the fourth quarter, but the rally stalled after a fourth-and-14 pass from the Texas State 39 fell incomplete midway through the final period. The Bobcats kicked a 37-yard field goal with 5:08 left to increase their margin to a three-score lead, and App State's fourth-down completion inside the Texas State in the closing minutes didn't produce a first down.

The game ended with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Brice to Dalton Stroman. It was the Mountaineers' first-ever loss to Texas State.

Brice tied a school record by completing 40 passes (on 53 attempts) for a career-high 395 yards, and Pearson made four catches for 43 yards. Stroman also had a 55-yard reception to set up a touchdown as part of his five-catch, 104-yard performance.

Defensively, Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass in the end zone to end the first drive of the game, but Texas State (3-3, 1-1) controlled the rest of the opening half. Andrew Parker and Caden Sullivan recorded sacks, while Logan Doublin led the team with a career-high 11 stops.

Texas State limited App State, which played without Camerun Peoples, to 41 rushing yards on 21 attempts. The Mountaineers committed 12 penalties for 105 yards.

App State trailed 24-0 before ending the half with a 30-yard field goal.

Looking to trim its deficit to 24-10 after receiving the third-quarter kickoff, App State moved inside the Texas State 15, but the Bobcats intercepted a fourth-and-4 pass from the 12 and Tory Spears scored on the 94-yard interception return.
