STORYLINES

- App State and Marshall will play for the 25th time, but this will be their first game as league foes since 1996 — Marshall's final year in the FCS-level Southern Conference. They faced each other in SoCon games each year from 1977-96 and then were in different leagues until the Thundering Herd joined the Sun Belt Conference leading up to this season.
- In addition to a one-off game in 2002, when Marshall was an FBS program, they renewed their series with games in 2020 (at Marshall) and 2021 (in Boone). That agreement also called for nonleague matchups in Huntington (originally scheduled for Sept. 17, 2022) and Boone (in 2029), but realignment led to this game changing dates and becoming a league game.
- Charleston, W.Va., native Shawn Clark attended George Washington High (which is less than an hour east of Huntington) and was a four-year offensive line starter in his five years at App State from 1994-98. As a sophomore All-SoCon offensive lineman, he helped No. 2 App State post a 10-3 win at No. 3 Marshall on Oct. 21, 1995 — QB Scott Satterfield scored on a 5-yard TD run with 4:18 left as App State improved to 7-0 during an 11-0 regular season.
- Shawn Clark was the only first-year FBS head coach in 2020 to win nine-plus games, and he added a 10-win regular season with a Sun Belt division title in 2021. He is the first App State coach with two wins vs. ranked FBS teams (No. 14 Coastal in 2021, No. 6 Texas A&M in 2022).
- Chase Brice leads the Sun Belt and is tied for No. 9 nationally with 24 TD passes (with five INTs). With 26.5 career sacks, OLB Nick Hampton ranks No. 4 among active, full-time FBS players.
- App State has won four Sun Belt titles (plus the 2021 East Division title) and gone 6-1 in bowl games (with a record-setting 6-0 start) since its 2014 FBS transition. With an 84-23 record since starting 1-5 in 2014, the Mountaineers are among the FBS leaders since 2014 in overall wins (No. 6 with 85), road wins (tied for No. 4 with 32) and shutouts (tied for No. 5 with seven).
- App State's offense ranks in the top 30 nationally in passing touchdowns (tied for No. 11, 25), turnovers lost (tied for No. 17, nine), passing efficiency (No. 10, 161.0), points per game (No. 25, 35.9), rushing yards per game (No. 29, 194.9) and offensive yards per game (No. 29, 449.3).
- App State ranks in the top 20 nationally in forced fumbles (tied for No. 4, 13), passing yards allowed per game (No. 25, 191.0) and total yards allowed per game (No. 24, 327.1).

MEDIA POLICIES/INFORMATION

During a standard week with a Saturday game, App State will have Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday media availabilities.

Head coach Shawn Clark's appearances on the weekly Sun Belt coaches Zoom sessions are Mondays from 11:30 a.m. ET until approximately 11:37 a.m.

After his appearance on the Sun Belt Zoom session, Clark will be available for an interview with in-person media members. He will be followed by interviews with select student-athletes (contingent on their availability). Media members interested in participating should contact Joey or Bret by the end of the day Sunday to receive further information for that week's interviews.

During standard weeks, Tuesday and Wednesday practices will be open to approved media members.

If you plan to attend one or both open practices, communicate those plans and submit specific interview requests to Joey or Bret by 9 a.m. on Tuesday (for Tuesday's practice) and 9 a.m. on Wednesday (for Wednesday's practice). If you have more than one person from your organization planning to attend, the name of each attendee needs to be shared in advance.

Practices are closed to the public.

Media attending practice are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything until after the post-practice interviews have been conducted. This includes media who leave practice early.

No videos or photos can be taken during practice without prior permission from the App State strategic communications office.

WEEKLY SUN BELT ZOOM SESSIONS

- To participate, contact Joey Jones or Bret Strelow for information on how to access the Zoom link.

HOME GAME CREDENTIALS

Requests will be made on a game-by-game basis and can be accessed by filling out the form at <https://goapp.st/FBcredentials2022>

App State Strategic Communications reserves the right to deny any request for a credential. The number of requests, coupled with the amount of press box and sideline space available to media members, will factor into credential approvals for each game.

Parking is not guaranteed with a credential, but App State Strategic Communications will do its best to provide at least one game day parking spot for each credentialed media outlet.

Head coach Shawn Clark and select players will be made available for a postgame press conference on the second floor of the north end zone facility. Media members can attend by entering the front/streetside entrance of the north end zone facility and taking the stairs to the team room on the second floor.

On game days, please communicate with the visiting team's communications staff on the second row of the press box for info on their interview procedures in the Mountaineer Room on the second floor of the Ricks Athletics Complex.

MORE STORYLINES

- In addition to Shawn Clark, App State's coaching staff has two more West Virginia natives in OLBs coach Mark DeBastiani (native of Arthurdale, played at Shepherd University) and RBs coach/special teams coordinator Brian Haines (native of Williamstown). Kicker Michael Hughes, like Clark, attended George Washington High in Charleston.
- To recap a wild opening month: App State drew a stadium-record 40,168 fans and scored 40 fourth-quarter points during a 63-61 loss to North Carolina in the home opener before posting a 17-14 win at then-No. 6 Texas A&M in front of 92,665 fans at Kyle Field. ESPN's College GameDay visited App State for the first time on Sept. 17, and Chase Brice's 53-yard, Hail Mary touchdown pass to Christan Horn as time expired gave the Mountaineers a 32-28 victory against Troy in front of 34,406 fans. They built a 28-3 lead in a 32-28 home loss to unbeaten JMU on Sept. 24.
- After four games against teams that are now a combined 22-12, the Mountaineers were credited with having the second-ranked strength of schedule among Group of Five programs nationally behind Kent State, which faced Washington, Oklahoma, LIU and Georgia in its first four games.
- At 85-28 since the 2014 transition, App State has the sixth-most wins in the FBS in that span after Alabama (111-12), Clemson (107-14), Ohio State (102-11), Georgia (95-21) and Oklahoma (91-23). The Mountaineers have a home record of 47-9 and road record of 32-18 since the transition.
- App State has a 58-14 record against Sun Belt teams since the 2014 transition, including a 32-5 record in Sun Belt home games (counting two championship wins) and a 26-9 road record.
- App State has a streak of 37 straight seasons (eight Sun Belt, 29 SoCon) with a league record of .500 or better. Among current FBS programs, counting seasons before and after any transitions, it's the longest streak by 14 years — Clemson, Oklahoma and Boise State are at 23 in a row.
- App State has eclipsed 30,000 fans in all six home games, and the Nov. 19 home finale vs. ODU is sold out. Five of the top seven crowds in Kidd Brewer Stadium history have occurred in 2022.
- App State has an average home attendance figure of 33,812 fans through six home games: North Carolina (stadium-record 40,168), Troy (34,406), James Madison (33,248), The Citadel (30,789 on the weekend of Hurricane Ian), Georgia State (31,757 on a Wednesday night) and Robert Morris (32,501 for Homecoming against an FCS opponent).
- The record-breaking attendance of 40,168 at Kidd Brewer Stadium in Week 1 surpassed the previous record of 35,126 fans from the 2017 Wake Forest game. App State broke school and Sun Belt all-time records last year with an average home attendance of 30,441.
- ESPN's College GameDay's appearance at App State had 2.22 million average viewers and a final-hour viewership of 2.815 million. That viewership ranked in the top 30 (or 93rd percentile) of the 400-plus regular-season GameDay airings since 1993 and 10th overall since the format expanded 10 seasons ago to 3 hours (including No. 2 overall among pre-November editions in the current format). By the end of that Sunday, video content available on the @AppState_FB Twitter feed over four days (Thursday-Sunday) had generated nearly 7 million views.
- In the month of September, App State Football generated a combined 788,683 social media interactions from Instagram, Twitter and Facebook to rank 25th nationally and No. 1 among Group of Five programs. UCF had the second-highest total among G5 programs with 418,030.
- App State has the Sun Belt's most-followed Twitter (81.4K), Instagram (74.2K), Facebook, YouTube and TikTok accounts among football programs.
- In Game 1, App State trailed 41-21 after three quarters. Chase Brice set a school record with six TD passes en route to a career-high 361 yards, including 203 with four TDs in the fourth quarter.
- At Texas A&M, App State secured its third-ever win over a top-25 ranked FBS opponent and its second in as many seasons. The Mountaineers' other wins were the historic 34-32 upset at No. 5 Michigan in 2007 and last year's 30-27 home win over No. 14 Coastal Carolina.
- In Game 2, Jalen McLeod had two forced fumbles (on the same play) and two sacks as App State's defense limited Texas A&M to nine first downs, 186 yards (on just 38 plays, compared to App State's 82) and 18:31 in possession. Michael Hughes made a tiebreaking FG with 8:05 left.
- App State became the 77th different school to host ESPN's College GameDay, and Yosef was Lee Corso's 387th headgear pick. It represented the 66th different school headgear he has worn.
- After Chase Brice threw for a career-high 395 yards while tying the App State record with 40 completions at Texas State, the Mountaineers rushed for 404 yards and six touchdowns on 64 attempts in their next game against Georgia State. App State threw just three second-half passes.
- App State's team captains: ILB Tyler Bird, QB Chase Brice, ILB Trey Cobb, OLB Nick Hampton, OT Cooper Hedges, CB Steven Jones Jr., DE Hansky Paillant and RB Camerun Peoples.
- App State posted a record of 43-10 from 2018-21 with three different head coaches, three different offensive coordinators and three different defensive coordinators over four seasons.

OFFENSE

- App State's offense returned QB Chase Brice (school-record 3,337 passing yards last year), two RBs with 1,000-yard seasons (Nate Noel in 2021, Camerun Peoples in 2020), four of five OL starters from 2021 and three of its top four tight ends. The Mountaineers lost four WRs who signed NFL contracts, but they've had at least nine players catch a pass in five games this year.
- Chase Brice has 70 TD passes as a college QB, including 51 in his 23 starts for the Mountaineers. He has 24 TD passes and five interceptions this season, with six TD passes against UNC, plus four more vs. The Citadel and Robert Morris. He amassed a career-high 395 passing yards with a career-high 40 completions (tying the school record) on a career-high 53 attempts at Texas State.
- Tied for ninth nationally with 24 TD passes (against only five INTs), Chase Brice has five career games of at least four TD passes. That's second in program history behind Taylor Lamb's six.
- App State has one of the most highly regarded RB rooms in the nation, with Camerun Peoples, Nate Noel, Daetrich Harrington and Anderson Castle being joined by Ahmani Marshall (Wake Forest transfer) and true freshman Kanye Roberts (the nation's leading prep rusher in 2021).
- A new-look offensive line vs. Georgia State with Cooper Hodges (RT), Bucky Williams (RG), Isaiah Helms (C), Damion Daley (LG) and Anderson Hardy (LT) helped App State post its highest rushing total (404 yards) since the 500-yard effort in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl. The 64 attempts vs. Georgia State ranked as the program's highest total since a 66-rush, 469-yard game vs. Georgia State in 2014, and App State added 287 rushing yards vs. Robert Morris.
- Camerun Peoples has exceeded 100 yards rushing in three of his last seven games, with 168 yards (third-highest total of his career) and two TDs on 23 attempts vs. Georgia State. Before missing the Texas State loss with a non-football injury, Peoples needed only four carries vs. The Citadel to gain 102 yards, including a 73-yard TD run (his longest career run is a 76-yard, non-scoring rush in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl). He had 112 yards on 19 rushes earlier this season at Texas A&M.
- Last season, App State extended its streak of consecutive years with a 1,000-yard rusher to 10 —the longest streak among current FBS programs, with Buffalo in second place at four straight years. Nate Noel rushed for a league-leading 1,126 yards last season after Camerun Peoples totaled 1,124 yards in 2020 thanks to a 317-yard bowl performance. Daetrich Harrington had a league-best 595 yards through the first six games of 2020 before re-injuring his knee in San Marcos.
- On Sept. 24, Daetrich Harrington made his first start at running back since Nov. 7, 2020 at Texas State — the day he tore the ACL in his right knee for the second time. He initially tore it in the spring of 2018, returned nine months later to play and later suffered a foot injury that forced him to miss the last six regular-season games in 2019. After the injury at Texas State in November 2020, Harrington returned to game action on Oct. 12, 2021.
- Ahmani Marshall scored a TD in the 17-14 win at Texas A&M and helped tie the Georgia State game with a 37-yard touchdown run. Anderson Castle made his first career start against The Citadel (as part of a two-back set) and has totaled 117 yards (with two TDs) on 16 carries in the last two games. True freshman Kanye Roberts scored his first TD during a seven-carry, 70-yard fourth quarter vs. The Citadel and added 11 carries for 57 yards and one TD vs. Robert Morris.
- App State's new-look receiving corps includes fourth-year sophomore Christian Wells and third-year sophomore Christian Horn on the outside, with work in the slot from fourth-year sophomore Dashaun Davis. Dalton Stroman is a promising redshirt freshman, and App State added a pair of transfers in Kaedin Robinson and Tyler Page. Michael Hetzel has also shined.
- Dalton Stroman, who came up with the important tip near the goal line on the Hail Mary, had a career-high 104 yards and one TD on five catches (including a 55-yarder) at Texas State, out-jumped a defender on a 19-yard TD catch vs. Robert Morris and produced a sliding, one-handed TD catch of 41 yards while drawing a flag for pass interference at Coastal Carolina. He scored his first career TD on a 27-yard catch against JMU and gained 41 yards on a long throw against UNC.
- Dashaun Davis has led or tied for the team lead in catches in four games, including six-catch games vs. UNC (72 yards) and Texas State (61 yards). He also had a team-high 77 yards vs. JMU and a team-high 57 yards against Robert Morris.
- Before making six grabs for 83 yards at Texas State, Christian Horn's three catches for 132 yards vs. The Citadel included an 80-yard TD and a 22-yard TD. He scored his first career TD against UNC, and his 53-yard TD catch as time expired against Troy capped a five-catch, 98-yard game.
- In addition to his key block on the Hail Mary vs. Troy, Kaedin Robinson has made three starts this year and produced four games with at least 48 receiving yards (with a high of 68 vs. Troy). He had a 46-yard catch to set up a touchdown at Coastal Carolina.
- After totaling 22 catches for 222 yards last year, TEs Henry Pearson, Miller Gibbs and Eli Wilson already have combined to make 34 catches for 355 yards and eight TDs in the first nine games. Pearson is tied for No. 2 among Sun Belt tight ends in TD catches (four), is No. 3 in catches (18) and is No. 3 in receiving yards (212). Five tight ends combined for seven catches vs. RMU.

* NCAA Division I-AA playoffs

SERIES NOTE: In 11 of the teams' 13 contests from 1985-96, at least one squad was ranked in the FCS top 25. Both teams were nationally ranked eight times in that 13-game stretch.

2021 RECAP: App State 31, Marshall 30

BOONE, N.C. — Chandler Staton hit a go-ahead field goal from 45 yards out with 5:45 left, and the defense made a key stand before Nate Noel's open-field running clinched a 31-30 victory over longtime rival Marshall on a Thursday night in front of 28,377 fans at a rocking Kidd Brewer Stadium.

The Mountaineers climbed out of a nine-point hole and erased a fourth-quarter deficit in a win for the first time since midway through the 2017 season at Idaho.

Following Staton's field goal, Marshall moved into App State territory, but D'Marco Jackson and Jalen McLeod made the hits on a 6-yard loss after Brendan Harrington quickly disrupted the rushing attempt. Caleb Spurlin's second-down pressure forced a throwaway, and a third-down incompletion led to a punt that gave App State possession at its own 8 with four minutes left.

Noel had gains of 11, 14, 41 and 22 yards on the final drive alone, smartly going down short of the end zone in the final two minutes to prevent Marshall from possibly regaining possession with an eight-point deficit. He finished with a career-high 187 yards on 20 carries.

Camerun Peoples scored three first-half touchdowns, including one on a 2-yard run with four seconds left before the break, to help App State take a 21-20 lead into the locker room.

DEFENSE

- In his 26th season as an App State assistant, defensive coordinator Dale Jones has been part of 236 App State wins. He coached at Louisville in 2019 following a 23-year run in Boone, where he was also the defensive coordinator from 2010-12 and co-defensive coordinator in 2018. Odell Haggins (29 straight years at Florida State) is the only current FBS assistant who's spent more years at the program where he is currently employed.
- In Dale Jones' seven-plus FBS seasons as a defensive coach at App State, the Mountaineers have 50 games allowing 17 points or less and 24 games allowing single-digit points.
- App State's defense lost seven starters from 2021, including draft pick D'Marco Jackson (ILB).
- In the first 52 minutes of the App State-Texas A&M game, with one of A&M's two touchdowns coming on special teams, the Aggies ran only two plays in App State territory. After Georgia State totaled 157 yards on its first two drives, it managed only 144 the rest of the way.
- App State's 49-0 win against The Citadel was the Mountaineers' first shutout since a 2017 bowl shutout and their seventh shutout since the 2014 transition — tied for the fifth-best total in the country in that span behind only Alabama's 12, Georgia's 12, Wisconsin's 10 and Clemson's eight.
- App State is tied for No. 4 in the FBS with 13 fumbles forced, including three by Nick Hampton and two apiece by KeSean Brown, Jalen McLeod and Kyle Arnhold. Duke, Louisiana Tech and UTEP have 14 as a team.
- With multi-sack games this year vs. UNC (2.5) and James Madison (2.0), plus sacks against Coastal Carolina, Georgia State and Troy, Nick Hampton has increased his career total to 26.5 sacks. That total is tied for fourth in school history and is No. 4 among active full-time FBS players behind Iowa State's Will McDonald (33.0), Alabama's Will Anderson Jr. (31.5) and Nevada's Dom Peterson (27.0).
- One of only five players nationally in 2021 with more than 10 sacks, 15 tackles for loss and 65 tackles, Nick Hampton now has 40.0 career tackles for loss. With nearly 40 pounds of added weight since entering college, he was named to The Athletic's "Freaks List" for 2022.
- Two fifth-year LBs who have contributed greatly since they arrived have made their first career starts this year. Logan Doublin started at Texas A&M in his 40th career game appearance, and Tyler Bird started and had a sack against Troy in his 56th career appearance. Bird recorded his first career interception vs. Georgia State and had a career-high 10 stops at Coastal Carolina. Doublin recorded a sack vs. Robert Morris after setting career highs for tackles in back-to-back games with 11 at Texas State and 12 vs. Georgia State.
- App State's 122 INTs since 2015 rank third nationally in that span, behind only Iowa's 127 and San Diego State's 126. Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass on the first play from scrimmage vs. Troy, preserved the shutout vs. The Citadel by picking off a pass in the end zone to end a 17-play drive that covered 11 minutes, 22 seconds and ended Texas State's first drive with an end-zone pick.
- App State strong safety Nick Ross added an early interception against Robert Morris, and he leads the team with 51 tackles. He had a career-high 12 stops against Troy.
- Named a 2021 first-team All-American from the FWAA and Phil Steele, with a second-team honor from the Walter Camp Football Foundation, cornerback Steven Jones Jr. intercepted five passes last season to give him seven career INTs (with four pick-six TDs in that span). He had two pick-six TDs (out of three total INTs) vs. Arkansas State and one pick-six TD vs. ULM.
- Inside linebacker and captain Trey Cobb has battled injuries this year but has 257 career tackles.
- With outside linebacker Brendan Harrington sidelined for the rest of the season, KeSean Brown led the Mountaineers with 10 tackles, two tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a sack against The Citadel in his second career start. He has three sacks and five tackles for loss this year.
- App State's most experienced defensive end is Hansky Paillant, who had half a sack and made a key fumble recovery in the win vs. Georgia State. First-year starter DeAndre Dingle-Prince, who has shifted over from tackle, made an important fumble recovery at Texas A&M.
- Four defensive backs who attended App State since 2018 are currently with NFL franchises: Shemar Jean-Charles (2020 Packers draft pick, after being a first-team All-American in 2020), Josh Thomas (Cardinals), Tae Hayes (Panthers) and rookie Shaun Jolly (Rams).

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Milan Tucker had a 63-yard kick return to the 30-yard line after Georgia State pulled within 28-17. He has 208 yards on seven kick returns in the three two games and a 25.8 average this season.
- After being the kickoff specialist as a true freshman, Michael Hughes made his first career field goal in the fourth quarter at Texas A&M — a tiebreaking kick in the 17-14 win.
- Clayton Howell returned as the starting punter in 2022 after being a Freshman All-American in 2018 — Howell, Steven Jones Jr. and Daetrich Harrington are all in their sixth years at App State.

SHAWN CLARK

Less than four years after coming back to Boone to coach at his alma mater, Shawn Clark not only became App State's head coach, but he has begun his tenure with a record-breaking bowl victory, a nine-win debut season and a 10-win regular season in 2021.

Hired as the 22nd head football coach in App State history on Dec. 13, 2019, Clark was the only first-year FBS head coach in 2020 to win at least nine games, and he followed that by directing the Mountaineers to a 2021 Sun Belt East Division title during a 10-4 season that pushed his record to 20-7.

Clark, who completed the 2021 season with the eighth-best winning percentage among active FBS head coaches, was rewarded for his strong work with a contract extension through the 2026 season. Already in 2022, he's led App State to a headline-making win at No. 6 Texas A&M, a victory that earned him a national coach of the week award from The Dodd Trophy.

He made his official head coaching debut while leading the Mountaineers to a 31-17 victory against UAB in the 2019 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl eight days after his introductory press conference. Ranked 18th in the final Amway Coaches Poll of the season, App State went 13-1 to become the first Sun Belt team and the first FBS team from North Carolina to win 13 games in a season.

In 2020, the Mountaineers secured a Myrtle Beach Bowl title and were one of just 13 teams nationally with at least nine victories.

In 2021, the Mountaineers' 10-2 regular season included signature wins against in-state foe East Carolina (36,752 fans witnessed App State jump out to a 33-9 lead in Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium against the AAC's third-place finisher), longtime rival Marshall and 14th-ranked Coastal Carolina.

Reaching double-figure wins in 2021, App State is one of just eight FBS programs with at least five 10-win seasons since 2015 and one of just four FBS programs with at least nine victories every year since 2015.

Clark has helped lead record-setting runs to conference titles and bowl victories, not just at App State, where he played from 1994-98 and had served as an assistant since 2016, but also in four other leagues during his two decades of college coaching experience.

Working for championship-winning programs at Louisville and Eastern Kentucky before being part of a bowl win for Big Ten member Purdue and coaching at Kent State, Clark has also been a vital part of App State's historic FBS success.

An offensive lineman in college, Clark was a two-time All-American (1996 and 1998) and three-time all-conference selection (1995, 1996, 1998) for teams that went a combined 45-16 during his first five years in Boone. In fact, as a player during the 12-0 start in 1995 and a coach for the 2019 team that has set a single-season record for wins by an FBS program in the state of North Carolina, Clark has been part of the two App State teams to post 11 regular-season victories.

Clark graduated from App State with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1998 and earned a master's degree in education from Louisville in 2003.

His wife, Jonelle, was a standout softball student-athlete at Eastern Kentucky and was inducted into EKU's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008. The Clarks have two children: a daughter, Giana, and a son, Braxton.

WELCOME TO THE ROCK

ELEVATION 3,333 FT.

APP STATE RECORD AT KIDD BREWER STADIUM SINCE 2003: 114-21

With the beauty of the High Country serving as a backdrop, Kidd Brewer Stadium stakes claim to being one of the toughest and most picturesque venues in the nation.

In its 61st season in the stadium, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State boasts a 267-79-5 all-time record in home games.

With the construction of the $50 million north end zone facility, removal of the track and installation of new turf, The Rock had a new look in 2021, as the end zone facility opened for fans in November 2020. Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore was also honored before the 2021 opener at The Rock with a plaza and statue in his name.

The end zone facility houses the football locker room, weight room, offices and team areas, as well as 1,000 club level seats, athletic training spaces, retail and dining service facilities.

The 2022 home opener vs. UNC drew a stadium-record 40,168 fans, and each of the first six home games in 2022 have had an attendance figure exceeding 30,000, with five of the top seven home crowds in stadium history occurring in 2022.

In 2021, App State set single-season school and Sun Belt records with an average home crowd of 30,441. The impressive crowd support included 31,061 fans on a Wednesday against Coastal Carolina and 28,377 on a Thursday vs. Marshall.

- Top 25 pick for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award
- 24 touchdown passes (1st in Sun Belt, tied for No. 9 nationally) and only five INTs this season
- Five games of at least four TD passes in App State career (Taylor Lamb has school-record six)
- After the Hail Mary TD to Christian Horn against Troy, video of Brice going toward the stands and helping fellow students jump safely onto the field went viral
- Threw for career-high 395 yards and tied program record with 40 completions at Texas State
- Set a school record with six touchdown passes and threw for 361 passing yards in the 2022 opener vs. UNC, as he completed 10 passes for 203 yards and four TDs during a 40-point fourth quarter
- Set single-season school record in 2021 with 3,337 passing yards to break Armanti Edwards' total of 3,291
- Before playing the 2020 season at Duke, spent three seasons at Clemson, helping the Tigers erase a fourth-quarter deficit of 10 points against Syracuse in 2018 (with QB Trevor Lawrence sidelined in his first start) and engineering a 94-yard drive in a 27-23 victory

OFFENSIVE LINE

- Nicknamed "The Bulls," App State's line is on the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll after being a top-15 line in 2021, 2019 and 2018
- App State rushed for 404 yards and six TDs vs. Georgia State on 64 attempts — the program's highest total since a 66-rush, 469-yard game in 2014
- Attempted only three second-half passes vs. Georgia State and ran on 17 of 21 fourth-quarter plays in the 17-14 win at Texas A&M
- In first eight FBS seasons, App State's line ranked in top 20 in fewest sacks allowed seven times and in the top 25 in rushing yards per game seven times
- App State's line includes three-time All-Sun Belt pick Cooper Hodges (pictured, 48 straight starts at RT), Anderson Hardy (26 starts at LT), Damion Daley (25 starts at LG), Isaiah Helms (22 line starts at App State, with his debut at C vs. Georgia State), Bucky Williams (RG starter last three games) and Troy Everett (made first six career starts to open 2022)

CAM PEOPLES

#6 | 5TH-YEAR R-JR. | RB | 6-2 | 225 | LINEVILLE, ALA.

- In 35 career games (14 starts), has 2,809 rushing yards, 33 rushing TDs, nine 100-yard games and a 6.3 average
- Missed the Texas State game with a non-football injury but returned with 168 yards (third-highest total of career) and two TDs on 23 rushes vs. Georgia State
- Rushed for 102 yards on just four carries vs. The Citadel
- Helped tie UNC game with 38-yard TD and, in a 112-yard day at Texas A&M, had a 48-yard run on the final drive
- Capped 1,124-yard year in 2020 with 317 yards and five TDs in the Myrtle Beach Bowl in Conway — he set NCAA's single-game bowl record for rushing yards, broke school record for single-game rushing yards, tied NCAA bowl mark for rushing TDs and tied school record for rushing TDs
- During 2020 loss at Coastal, had 20 first-half carries for 171 yards and finished with 178 yards on 27 carries
- Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award candidate in 2020 — scored a 63-yard touchdown as a (redshirting) true freshman in the 2018 bowl win but suffered a torn ACL in his right knee in the 2019 opener

GAME 1					FINAL
North Carolina	7	21	13	22	— 63
APP STATE	14	7	0	40	— 61

Sept. 3 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 40,168 (Stadium Record)

GAME NOTES

The attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was a stadium-record 40,168. That surpassed the previous record of 35,126 fans at the 2017 Wake Forest game.

App State outscored North Carolina 40-22 in the fourth quarter as the Mountaineers nearly came back to win after being down 20 at the start of the frame. The Mountaineers became the first team in at least 15 years to score 40 fourth-quarter points, according to ESPN's Adam Rittenberg, who also noted that the 62 combined fourth-quarter points were one shy of the FBS record.

The 124 combined points were the most in a game in program history and the first time two teams scored 60+ points since 2019 (UCLA-Washington State).

App State's 61 points were its most ever in a losing effort and tied for the 14th-most in a game in school history, win or lose. According to ESPN Stats & Info, App State's 61 points are tied for sixth-most in a regulation loss in the AP poll era (since 1936).

According to The Athletic's Matt Brown, this was the first 63-61 final score in college football history.

App State's offense racked up 38 first downs, 649 total yards, 288 rushing and 361 passing in offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay's Mountaineer debut. It was the most total yards by App State since racking up 692 against Gardner-Webb in 2018.

Chase Brice threw for a career-high 361 yards on 25-of-36 completions and tossed a school-record six touchdown passes to six different receivers. The previous record of five was achieved six times by five different QBs.

Brice engineered a fourth-quarter comeback that was nearly one for the ages, directing six touchdown drives including four that ended with a Brice pass into the end zone.

Record Crowd Sees High-Scoring Thriller Vs. UNC

BOONE, N.C. — With a stadium-record 40,168 fans packing Kidd Brewer Stadium, UNC's defense survived App State's go-ahead two-point try with 31 seconds left and a game-tying two-point attempt with nine seconds remaining to escape its first visit to Boone with a 63-61 victory.

Yes, there were three touchdowns scored in the last 31 seconds, putting the finishing touches on a fourth-quarter in which App State fought back from a 41-21 deficit by scoring 40 points.

Chase Brice threw a school-record six TD passes en route to a career-high 361 passing yards. Defensively, Nick Hampton had 2.5 sacks.

App State came back to tie the score at 49-all on Cam Peoples' 38-yard touchdown run with four minutes remaining. UNC moved back ahead with 2:50 remaining, but Brice hit Dashaun Davis for a 28-yard touchdown with 31 seconds left. The Mountaineers went for a go-ahead two-point conversion, but Brice and Davis weren't able to connect on a pass.

Bryson Nesbit returned the onside kick for a 43-yard TD, but that gave App State one more chance with the score 63-55. Milan Tucker's 47-yard kick return to the UNC 48 and Brice's 22-yard completion to Kaedin Robinson set up another Brice-to-Robinson connection, this one a 26-yard TD with nine seconds left. The Tar Heels took away Brice's throwing options and stopped him short on the two-point try.

GAME 2						FINAL
APP STATE	0	7	7	3	—	17
#6 Texas A&M	0	7	7	0	—	14

Sept. 10 - Kyle Field - Bryan-College Station, Texas - 92,664

GAME NOTES

App State secured its third ever win over a top-25 ranked FBS opponent and its second in as many seasons. The other wins were the historic 34-32 upset at No. 5 Michigan in 2007 and last year's 30-27 home win over No. 14 Coastal Carolina.

Last 5 games vs. AP top-10 teams:
 2021 - App State 17, at #6 Texas A&M 14
 2018 - at #9 Penn St. 45, App State 38 (OT)
 2016 - at #9 Tenn. 20, App State 13 (OT)
 2008 - at #7 LSU 41, App State 13
 2007 - App State 34, at #5 Michigan 32

Shawn Clark is the first App State coach with two wins over top-25 FBS opponents.

This was the Mountaineers' second straight win over an SEC opponent after winning 20-15 at South Carolina in 2019.

App State is now 4-0 all-time in games played in Texas (3-0 vs. Texas State, 1-0 vs. Texas A&M).

App State's last seven games against Power Five teams have all been decided by seven points or less, with three wins and four defeats.

App State improved to 80-20 in its last 100 games.

App State's 32 road wins since 2014 are third most nationally in that span behind Boise State (34) and Clemson (33).

App State won despite not having starting outside linebacker Brendan Harrington or co-starting running back Nate Noel due to injuries. Trey Cobb, another starting linebacker, missed most of the second half after going down with an injury, meaning redshirt freshman Caden Sullivan played a huge role in what was essentially his defensive debut for the Mountaineers.

Taking over Cobb's normal spot, Logan Doublin made his first career start (in career game No. 40) and had a TFL.

App State Takes Down No. 6 Texas A&M On ESPN2

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Howdy from College Station, where App State has once again seized the national spotlight.

With its latest signature win, there's reason to celebrate all the way back to the High Country. And guess what? ESPN's College GameDay is joining us on Sept. 17.

App State scored touchdowns after both turnovers forced by its defense, Michael Hughes kicked a tiebreaking field goal with 8:05 left and the Mountaineers finished strong to complete a 17-14 win against No. 6 Texas A&M in front of 92,664 fans at Kyle Field on a steamy Saturday afternoon in Texas.

Jalen McLeod forced two fumbles on the same play and recorded a sack to lead a stingy defense, which limited the Aggies to only two plays in App State territory over the first 52 minutes. Texas A&M totaled nine first downs and 186 yards of offense as the Mountaineers possessed the ball for 41:29 of the game's 60 minutes.

It was App State's first victory against an AP Top 10 opponent since the 34-32 victory at No. 5 Michigan in 2007.

"The key was belief," App State head coach Shawn Clark said. "You have to believe in yourself and believe in this program."

This one, with the familiar greetings of "Howdy" in Aggieland and the organized chants from the 12th Man, ended with loud App State cheers.

Hughes capped a 16-play march that covered 9 minutes, 15 seconds with his first career field goal, a 29-yard kick, to give App State a 17-14 lead midway through the fourth quarter. The Aggies (1-1) moved into scoring range but missed a 47-yard field goal with 3:43 remaining.

The Mountaineers' line went to work after that, paving the way for a clock-draining drive that included three straight Camerun Peoples runs to move the chains and then Peoples' 48-yard run to the Texas A&M 12 with 1:36 left. From there, Brice was able to kneel out the win.

DeAndre Dingle-Prince's first-half recovery of McLeod's two-fumble sequence led to Ahmani Marshall's short touchdown run, and Nick Hampton's recovery of a fumble forced by Dexter Lawson Jr. set up Brice's third-quarter touchdown pass to tight end Henry Pearson.

	FINAL
Troy	7	14	0	7	— 28
APP STATE	7	7	10	8	— 32

Sept. 17 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 34,406

GAME NOTES

The attendance of 34,406 for Troy's visit ranked as the fourth-biggest crowd in KBS history and the top crowd for a non-ACC foe. It was the biggest crowd to see an App State win at The Rock.

ESPN's College GameDay has averaged more than 2 million viewers per weekend in 2022. The video content available on the @AppState_FB Twitter feed over four days from the start of Thursday through the end of Sunday generated nearly 7 million views.

The actual name of the final play? "Big Ben" — similar to a 63-yard Hail Mary that Florida used to beat Tennessee in 2017, when App State offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay was the Gators' director of player development.

An already fired-up crowd had more reasons to cheer when Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass on the first play from scrimmage, giving App State possession at the Troy 38. Dashaun Davis later took a handoff from Chase Brice and threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to fellow receiver Christian Wells.

App State recorded three first-quarter sacks, with solo efforts from Tyler Bird and KeSean Brown being followed by a combo deal from Nick Hampton and Hansky Paillant.

Chase Brice's 18-yard touchdown pass to running back Anderson Castle to tie the game late in the second quarter was Castle's first career catch.

App State won its eighth straight Sun Belt opener in its ninth season as a member of the conference.

App State was the 77th different school to host ESPN's College GameDay, and Yosef was Lee Corso's 387th headgear pick. It represented the 66th different school headgear he has worn.

App State improved to 43-8 at home since the 2014 transition.

Hail Mary Win Caps Day With ESPN GameDay Debut

BOONE, N.C. — An unforgettable Saturday at App State began with ESPN College GameDay's first visit to Boone. It then delivered a second unbelievable, historic ending at The Rock.

Call it the Miracle on the Mountain: Part 2.

Chase Brice's 53-yard, Hail Mary touchdown pass to Christian Horn — with help from 6-foot-4 teammate Dalton Stroman's crowded tip at the 5-yard line and Kaedin Robinson's sealing block after Horn made a circling catch of the tip at the 8 — gave App State a thrilling 32-28 win against Troy in their Sun Belt Conference opener.

"Wow. I'm thankful for a win and proud of our players for playing 60 minutes," App State coach Shawn Clark said. "That's what our program is built upon — never giving up. I think God's a Mountaineer today."

Twenty years after winning the original "Miracle on the Mountain" game, App State (2-1) pulled off another shocker. Just like country music star Luke Combs and Lee Corso had predicted seven hours earlier, with Corso wearing Yosef headgear to close GameDay's appearance in a packed Sanford Mall, App State did indeed beat Troy.

No one expected it to happen like that.

"It was a surreal moment," Horn said. "I'm still in awe, honestly."

"I threw it, and I'm looking. I'm praying," Brice said. "I see the tip, and Christian, I see him come across, catches it in his breadbasket and I'm like, 'Nobody's there. Nobody's there.'"

Brice's incompletion on a fourth-and-goal pass from the 2 gave Troy (1-2) possession with 1:13 left and a 28-24 lead. After three plays — and two final timeouts used by App State — the Trojans took a fourth-down safety on purpose instead of punting from the end zone, leaving App State with just 20 seconds left. Troy executed a squibbed kickoff that Ahmani Marshall returned 13 yards to the App State 47.

Three incompletions set up one final heave with two seconds left.

Sept. 24 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 33,248

GAME NOTES

With App State looking to build on a 28-10 lead, JMU made stop on a fourth-and-2 run from the Dukes' 27 to open the second half, then scored touchdowns with 1:19 left in the third quarter, 11:28 remaining in the game and 10:36 left.

Less than five minutes remained in the third quarter when App State punted with an 18-point lead, and KeSean Brown fell on a muffed punt, but officials ruled kick-catch interference after a JMU blocker hit an App State coverage player close to the punt returner, causing both players to make contact with the returner.

Attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 33,248, the fifth-largest crowd in stadium history and third-largest over the first three home games 2022.

The App State defense allowed JMU to convert just two of its 14 third-down chances, but the Dukes managed to convert three of their six attempts on fourth down.

Five running backs saw action on the offense's opening drive, but Cameron Peoples totaled only four carries before leaving the game for good in the first half and Nate Noel had only six carries (just one after halftime).

Daetrich Harrington made his first start at running back since Nov. 7, 2020 at Texas State — the day he tore the ACL in his right knee for the second time.

Nine different receivers caught a pass from Brice, the fourth time in four games this year that at least nine receivers have caught a pass for the Mountaineers.

App State suffered a second home loss in the same season for the first time since the 2014 season.

App State Falls Short in Another Nailbiter with JMU

BOONE, N.C. — App State played yet another nailbiting game, falling 32-28 to James Madison in front of another above-capacity, sellout crowd at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Each of the Mountaineers' first four games in 2022 have been decided by four points or less, with 13 points being the combined separation.

App State (2-2, 1-1 Sun Belt) built a 28-3 lead, scoring all of its points with four touchdowns during a stretch of 7:35 during the second quarter. It led 28-10 at the break before the Dukes (3-0, 1-0) scored 22 points over the final 16 minutes, 19 seconds in their first Sun Belt Conference game.

After linebacker Trey Cobb made a fourth-and-1 stop for a 1-yard loss back to the App State 10 with 2:06 remaining, the Mountaineers advanced to their 42, with Chase Brice's 23-yard completion to Christian Horn getting them out from the shadow of their own end zone.

The Dukes were able to run out the clock after breaking up a fourth-and-9 pass in the final minute. A crowd of 33,248 was on hand to witness the first FBS meeting between App State and JMU, which had a history of memorable games when both tradition-rich programs were FCS powers.

Nick Hampton recorded two sacks and forced a fumble for an App State defense that created two key takeaways. Cobb made a team-high nine stops and recovered a fumble forced by Deshawn McKnight.

App State's four touchdowns followed a three-and-out JMU punt, McKnight's forced fumble on a run play in JMU territory, a fourth-and-4 stop inside App State's 35 and Hampton's strip sack in JMU territory. The Mountaineers capitalized with Camerun Peoples' 2-yard touchdown run, Gibbs' 10-yard touchdown catch, Stroman's 27-yard touchdown catch for his first career score and Nate Noel's 5-yard touchdown run.

APP STATE	14	21	7	7	— 49

Oct. 1 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 30,789

GAME NOTES

It was App State's first home shutout since the 2015 opener against Howard (also 49-0) and the Mountaineers' seventh shutout since making the FBS climb in 2014. In addition to the three games noted so far, the other shutouts were 66-0 against Campbell (2014), 44-0 against Georgia State (2014), 49-0 against ODU (2015) and 24-0 against Louisiana (2016).

The only teams with more shutouts since App State made the FBS climb are Alabama (12), Georgia (11), Wisconsin (10) and Clemson (8).

The Mountaineers have won their last seven contests against FCS opponents, dating back to 2015.

Running back Anderson Castle made his first career start as part of a package that also included Camerun Peoples.

Quarterback Brady McBride, linebacker Trevor Moffitt, wide receiver Jacoby Pinckney, running back Kanye Roberts and offensive lineman Markell Samuel saw their first career action for App State.

In Dale Jones' seven-plus FBS seasons as a defensive coach at App State, the Mountaineers have 48 games allowing 17 points or less and 23 games allowing single-digit points.

True freshman Kanye Roberts, in his collegiate debut, ran seven times for 70 yards and his first career touchdown, all in the fourth quarter.

Kanye Roberts' touchdown was set up by a diving, one-handed catch from Michael Hetzel on a 22-yard throw from Brady McBride.

Camerun Peoples scored the longest touchdown of his career — his only longer carry was a 76-yard, non-scoring run in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Big-Play Mountaineers Shut Out Bulldogs in Boone

BOONE, N.C. — Dexter Lawson Jr. made a diving interception in the end zone to keep The Citadel from scoring on an 11-minute drive, and Chase Brice threw an 80-yard TD pass to Christian Horn on the next play.

App State didn't need much time to do its offensive damage — that touchdown was the Mountaineers' only third-quarter snap — and the defense held the Bulldogs' clock-chewing option offense in check throughout the Family Weekend home game at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

That combination contributed to a 49-0 shutout for the Mountaineers, who posted a one-sided win to follow an opening month in which all four games were decided by four points or less.

"It's been four tough weeks — four emotional weeks — and our program needed that. Our players needed that," coach Shawn Clark said. "I'm very pleased with how we came out and executed in all three phases. Any time you get a shutout in college football, that's huge."

KeSean Brown had 10 tackles, two tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a sack in App State's first shutout since the 34-0 victory against Toledo in the 2017 Dollar General Bowl and first home shutout since 2015. Nick Ross added nine stops and a forced fumble.

Going into the final drive of the first half, App State (3-2) had a 359-20 advantage in total yards, with five of The Citadel's first six possessions resulting in three-and-out stops. The Mountaineers finished with a 545-223 yardage advantage and made nine tackles for loss, including the first career sack from true freshman Donovan Spellman.

Accounting for five touchdowns, Brice completed 12 of his 18 pass attempts for 265 yards and four touchdowns, with Horn scoring twice on three receptions that totaled 132 yards. Camerun Peoples' had a 73-yard touchdown to highlight a four-carry, 102-yard outing in front of a crowd of 30,789. With heavy rains and wind from Hurricane Ian not affecting Boone as much as initially expected, it was mostly an overcast day with occasional mist at The Rock.

GAME 6					FINAL
APP STATE	0	3	7	14	— 24
Texas State	7	17	9	3	— 36

Oct. 8 - Bobcat Stadium - San Marcos, Texas - 25,613

GAME NOTES

At 3-3, App State has three losses through six games for the first time since starting 1-5 in 2014, its first season as an FBS member of the Sun Belt Conference.

The Mountaineers have lost two of their first three Sun Belt games for the first time since 2014.

App State lost to Texas State for the first time in seven meetings. The Mountaineers also dropped a game in the state of Texas for the first time. The program had been 3-0 in San Marcos and 1-0 in College Station (this year's win at Texas A&M).

App State is now 0-2 this season when it loses the turnover battle.

Freshman DB Ethan Johnson made his first career start but left the game with an injury suffered on the fourth play.

App State played without starting running back Camerun Peoples and starting wide receiver Christian Wells. Starting outside linebacker Brendan Harrington is out for the season, and starting inside linebacker Trey Cobb did not play in the second half after a first-half injury. Starting wide receiver Kaedin Robinson also left the game with an injury.

Chase Brice amassed a career-high 395 passing yards with a career-high 40 completions on a career-high 53 attempts. He threw three touchdowns and one interception. It was the most passing yards in a game by a Mountaineer since Taylor Lamb's 427 against Coastal Carolina in 2017.

Brice tied the program record for completions in a game, matching the 40 by Richie Williams in a 2004 game against Furman. Brice's 53 attempts were the fourth-highest total in App State history and the most by an App State QB since DeAndre Presley had 56 against Villanova in 2010.

Mountaineers Suffer First Loss in Lone Star State

SAN MARCOS, Texas — App State's second trip to the Lone Star State resulted in a 36-24 loss at Texas State in front of the Bobcats' biggest home crowd for a Sun Belt game.

Henry Pearson caught two second-half touchdown passes from Chase Brice, helping the Mountaineers pull within 15 points early in the fourth quarter, but the rally stalled after a fourth-and-14 pass from the Texas State 39 fell incomplete midway through the final period. The Bobcats kicked a 37-yard field goal with 5:08 left to increase their margin to a three-score lead, and App State's fourth-down completion inside the Texas State in the closing minutes didn't produce a first down.

The game ended with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Brice to Dalton Stroman. It was the Mountaineers' first-ever loss to Texas State.

Brice tied a school record by completing 40 passes (on 53 attempts) for a career-high 395 yards, and Pearson made four catches for 43 yards. Stroman also had a 55-yard reception to set up a touchdown as part of his five-catch, 104-yard performance.

Defensively, Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass in the end zone to end the first drive of the game, but Texas State (3-3, 1-1) controlled the rest of the opening half. Andrew Parker and Caden Sullivan recorded sacks, while Logan Doublin led the team with a career-high 11 stops.

Texas State limited App State, which played without Camerun Peoples, to 41 rushing yards on 21 attempts. The Mountaineers committed 12 penalties for 105 yards.

App State trailed 24-0 before ending the half with a 30-yard field goal.

Looking to trim its deficit to 24-10 after receiving the third-quarter kickoff, App State moved inside the Texas State 15, but the Bobcats intercepted a fourth-and-4 pass from the 12 and Tory Spears scored on the 94-yard interception return.

GAME 7					FINAL
Georgia State	14	0	0	3	— 17
APP STATE	0	7	21	14	— 42

Oct. 19 (Wednesday) - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 31,757

GAME NOTES

App State improved its record against Georgia State to 9-0 and its record in all games against Sun Belt teams since the 2014 transition to 58-13.

After being down 14-0 early, App State went on a 42-3 run. It was a similar result to other recent games against the Panthers. In 2021, App State turned a 14-9 third-quarter lead into a 45-16 victory with 31 straight points before a late Georgia State score. In 2019, after going down 21-7, the Mountaineers rattled off 49 unanswered points on their way to a 56-27 road win.

The Wednesday night attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 31,757, the sixth-largest crowd in stadium history and the largest regular-season crowd for a college football game on a Tuesday/Wednesday since 2011 (eclipsing last year's crowd for the Coastal Carolina game).

The Mountaineers improved to 16-2 all-time in games aired by ESPN2.

Offensive lineman Bucky Williams made his first career start (right guard) with Isaiah Helms moving from right guard to center.

Milan Tucker's only kick return was a career-best 63-yarder that set up a 30-yard touchdown drive to make the score 35-17.

The team's 404 rushing yards were its most in a game since racking up 500 against North Texas in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Camerun Peoples scored twice. His 33 career touchdowns moved him into a tie for seventh in App State history with Jalin Moore (2015-18).

In his 60th game, Tyler Bird snagged his first career interception, a turnover that led to the Mountaineers' fourth straight unanswered touchdown drive.

App State Dominates Final Three Quarters In Victory

BOONE, N.C. — Stood up several yards short of the end zone, Camerun Peoples said one thought entered his mind.

"All I need is a little bit of a push," he recalled.

App State center Isaiah Helms delivered one. So did tight end Miller Gibbs. Before long, Peoples was falling forward into the end zone for a statement-making, line-in-the-sand touchdown.

Chilly conditions and an even colder start didn't stop App State from surging to a 42-17 home win against Georgia State in a midweek ESPN2 game. Using a physical running game and havoc-wreaking defense, the Mountaineers (4-3, 2-2) went on a 42-3 run after the Panthers (2-5, 1-3) scored on their first two possessions to claim a 14-0 lead.

Peoples returned from injury to rush for 168 yards and two touchdowns as the Mountaineers totaled 404 rushing yards with six touchdowns on a whopping 64 attempts — the program's highest total since a 66-rush, 469-yard running game against the same opponent in 2014.

Ahmani Marshall added a 37-yard touchdown, and Chase Brice scored on a pair of 1-yard keepers running behind a line of Helms, Cooper Hodges, Damion Daley, Bucky Williams and Anderson Hardy.

The pass-rushing success of Nick Hampton and Jalen McLeod contributed to four Georgia State turnovers, including Hansky Paillant's key recovery of a fumble forced by Hampton and Tyler Bird's first career interception following a QB hurry from McLeod. With App State still trailing 14-7 at the break, those two second-half takeaways preceded the Mountaineers' second and fourth touchdowns.

Only three of App State's 41 second-half plays were passes, and five backs rushed for at least 48 yards. Defensively, after Georgia State totaled 157 yards of offense on its first two drives, the Mountaineers limited the Panthers to 144 the rest of the way.

Logan Doublin contributed a career-high 12 tackle, and Kevon Haigler combined with Paillant for a sack. Kyle Arnholt forced a fumble on his first career sack before recovering a late fumble that he also forced.

GAME NOTES

In 100 games since the start of the 2015 season, App State improved to 78-22.

The sellout attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 32,501, the sixth-largest crowd in stadium history. Five of the top seven crowds in stadium history have occurred in 2022.

The Mountaineers have won their last eight contests against FCS opponents, dating back to 2015.

App State finished up the month with a 3-1 record in October.

Cornerback Milan Tucker made his first career start.

Twenty App State players, including 11 true freshmen, made their App State debuts: linebacker Cole Becker, linebacker Nate Blanton Jr., quarterback Ryan Burger, defensive back DJ Burks, running back Bradley Davis, cornerback James Edwards, linebacker Derrell Farrar, linebacker Brodrick Gooch, linebacker Colin Guentensberger, defensive back Andre Hamilton, tight end Kanen Hamlett, offensive lineman Sammy Henderson, defensive lineman Santana Hopper, wide receiver Reece Larson, linebacker Orlando Leon, offensive lineman Chris Lyle, defensive linemen Jamar Rucks, tight end Gerry Snyder, wide receiver Coen Sutton and defensive lineman Josiah Wyatt.

Chase Brice has five games at App State with four or more TD passes — the second-most in school history behind Taylor Lamb's six such performances.

In his collegiate debut, Ryan Burger completed 4 of 6 passes for 40 yards and rushed twice for 23 yards.

App State completed a pass to 12 different receivers, the seventh time in eight games this year that the Mountaineers have had at least nine different pass catchers.

App State Rolls in Homecoming Win Vs. Robert Morris

BOONE, N.C. — With App State alums returning to the High Country for Homecoming, several newcomers were able to make their debuts as the Mountaineers built a big lead in a 42-3 win over Robert Morris.

Chase Brice threw touchdown passes on four of his 17 completions while totaling 185 yards through the air for App State (5-3), and the offense finished with 512 yards, including 287 on the ground. The defense held the Colonials to just a second-quarter field goal and 148 total yards. By allowing just 70 passing yards, App State kept an opponent under 100 passing yards for the fourth time this season.

Unofficially, 83 players saw action for the Mountaineers, with 11 true freshmen being among the 20 players who made their debuts.

Nick Ross intercepted a pass on Robert Morris' second play and KeSean Brown had an early sack as App State's defense limited the Colonials to 17 offensive yards during the first quarter, but the Mountaineers held only a 7-3 lead going into the last five minutes of the half.

The first-quarter TD pass from Brice to Dashaun Davis was eventually followed by a 12-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Page on a jet sweep (for his first App State score) and a 19-yard touchdown pass to 6-foot-4 Dalton Stroman, who capped a 98-yard drive by outjumping a shorter defender to come down with the ball 13 seconds before the break.

Leading 21-3 at halftime, App State quickly stretched, as tight end Miller Gibbs scored on a 9-yard touchdown pass and Anderson Castle followed a punt-forcing sack by Jalen McLeod with a 19-yard TD run. That score with 5:56 left in the third quarter ended Brice's day and set up the App State debut for true freshman quarterback Ryan Burger. On his second series, Burger led a nine-play, 61-yard drive that classmate Kanye Roberts capped with a 1-yard touchdown run.

GAME 9					FINAL
APP STATE	7	7	0	14	— 28
Coastal Carolina	14	7	0	14	— 35

Nov. 3 - Brooks Stadium - Conway, S.C. - 21,224

GAME NOTES

Grayson's McCall's deep pass in the final three minutes was part of a 9-for-15 effort on third down by the Chants' offense. Another key to the game was the Chants holding App State to 88 rushing yards on 27 attempts.

The Mountaineers have lost four regular-season games for the first time since 2017, a year they claimed a Sun Belt title and beat Toledo 34-0 in the Dollar General Bowl.

This is the first time App State has lost three Sun Belt games in a season.

Both of App State's Sun Belt road games have featured record crowds. Coastal Carolina set its attendance record with 21,224 fans, while Texas State set a record for its largest attendance in a Sun Belt Conference game (25,613).

Dalton Stroman caught his fourth touchdown of the year, tied for most on the team. Four of his 15 catches this season have been in the end zone.

Nick Hampton posted his seventh sack of the year. Jalen McLeod got his fifth sack of the year among career-high six total tackles and 1.5 TFLs, giving the two OLBs a combined 12 sacks.

Nick Hampton's 26.5 career sacks are fourth-most among active full-time FBS players and tied for fourth in school history with Demetrius Taylor (2017-21). Hampton also recovered a fumble for the second time this year.

Chase Brice's 46-yard pass to Kaedin Robinson to the Coastal 9 set up a 2-yard touchdown run from Daetrech Harrington in the first half.

App State ran only four plays in the third quarter (the four-and-out series with the fourth-down stop), and Coastal possessed the ball for 12:57 of the 15 minutes in that period.

App State Comeback Falls Short At Coastal Carolina

CONWAY, S.C. — App State went into the second half and then the closing minutes with chances to rally, but Coastal Carolina survived a furious finish from the Mountaineers to claim a 35-28 victory.

With App State trailing 35-14 early in the fourth, Chase Brice threw a 42-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Page with 11:02 left and followed a Nick Hampton fumble recovery with a 5-yard touchdown on a quarterback keeper with 3:01 remaining.

Starting the next defensive series with all three timeouts at their disposal, the Mountaineers (5-4, 2-3) put Coastal into a third-and-11 scenario from its 24 with 2:53 left. Grayson McCall's 47-yard completion to Jared Brown enabled the Chanticleers (7-1, 5-1) to run out the clock.

Brice completed 19 of 28 passes for 279 yards and two touchdowns, with Dalton Stroman making a highlight-reel, sliding, one-handed touchdown catch of 41 yards to help the Mountaineers trail only 21-14 entering halftime in front of a stadium-record 21,224 fans.

Hampton recorded a sack before making his big recovery with 4:57 left, and Jalen McLeod added a sack of his own. Tyler Bird had 11 stops.

With App State behind 21-14 to open the third quarter, Coastal mishandled the kickoff out of bounds at the 8-yard line. The Chanticleers converted third-down scenarios requiring gains of 12, 8 and 10 yards in a 15-play march that chewed up 8 minutes, 36 seconds, but Steven Jones Jr.'s big hit for a 4-yard loss on a third-and-2 option pitch preceded a fourth-down incompletion from the App State 33.

The Mountaineers weren't able to drive for the tying touchdown. A third-and-1 rush lost a yard back to the App State 41, and Coastal stuffed the fourth-and-2 run.

The Chants extended their lead on an 8-yard TD reception by Jacob Jenkins, then took advantage of a hit on Brice to pick off a pass at the App State 45 and return the ball to the 1-yard line. Reese White's TD run from the 2 gave Coastal a 35-14 lead early in the fourth quarter.
