2023 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

TRADITION TOUGHNESS TOGETHER

KIDD BREWER STADIUM

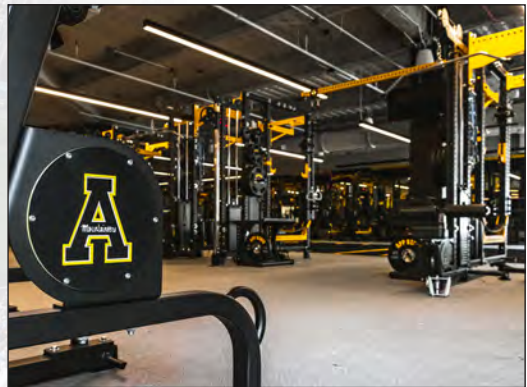

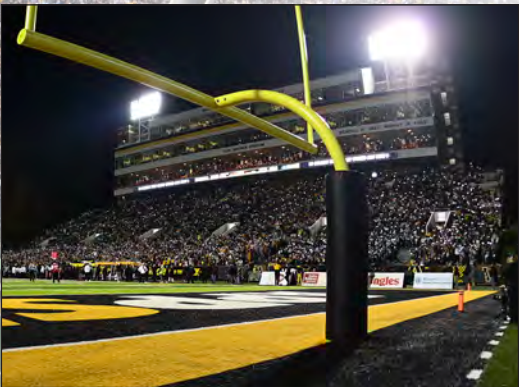

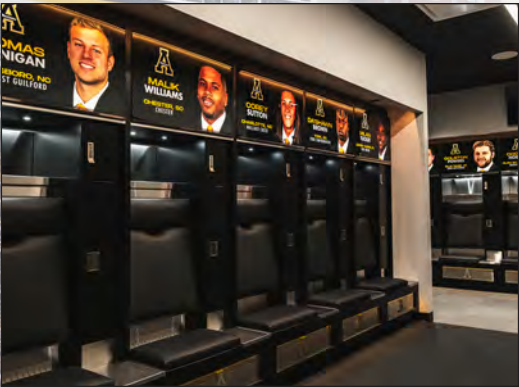

Nestled on the App State campus with towering Blue Ridge Mountain peaks rising around it, Kidd Brewer Stadium has always boasted one of the most picturesque settings in college football.

With the completion of the $50 million north end zone facility in 2021, The Rock also offers top-of-the-line modern amenities for Mountaineer student-athletes, fans and the university community.

The facility houses a football locker room, weight room, offices and team areas, as well as 1,000 club level seats, athletic training spaces, retail and dining service facilities. At the front entrance is the Jerry Moore Plaza and a statue of the Hall of Fame coach.

With 61 seasons completed in the stadium, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State boasts a 268-79-5 all-time record at The Rock.

SUN BELT CONFERENCE

The July 1, 2022 additions of four new members to the Sun Belt Conference - James Madison, Marshall, Old Dominion and Southern Miss - has made the Sun Belt one of the premier conferences in college football. Traditions of excellence combined with passionate fan bases and regionally relevant rivalries give the league a distinct advantage over others in the realignment landscape.

The Sun Belt Conference was founded in 1976, began sponsoring football in 2001 and currently sponsors 18 NCAA sports. The 14-member conference currently includes App State, Arkansas State, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern, Georgia State, James Madison, Louisiana, ULM, Marshall, Old Dominion, South Alabama, Southern Miss, Texas State and Troy.

App State joined the Sun Belt Conference in its move up to the FBS ranks in 2014.

App State won the inaugural Sun Belt Championship Game in 2018 and followed it up with another victory in 2019. Running back Darrynton Evans won the MVP belt both times.

WINNING TRADITION

Playing the 1,000th game in program history during the 2020 season, App State has proven itself as a championship-caliber program at both the FCS and FBS levels. The Mountaineers' run to three straight FCS national titles from 2005-07 included the historic 34-32 upset of No. 5 Michigan in 2007, and App State ended the 2020 season with a sixth consecutive bowl victory.

2022 MAGICAL MOMENTS

Last season featured an oversized share of historic moments for the App State football program, from a record-breaking home opener against North Carolina to a top-10 upset at Texas A&M to hosting ESPN College GameDay for the first time to a wild Hail Mary win over the eventual league champions.

FBS SUCCESS: 6 BOWL WINS, 4 SUN BELT CHAMPIONSHIPS

RECORD: 10-4

The 30-27 home victory over Coastal Carolina in 2021 helped App State go 7-1 in the Sun Belt and win the East Division title.

App State rushed for 500 yards, including 317 from Cam Peoples, in a 56-28 win over North Texas in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Jordan Fehr (center) leads the celebration following App State's 45-38 win against Louisiana in the 2019 Sun Belt title game.

Led by interim head coach Mark Ivey, App State posted a 45-13 win against Middle Tennessee in the 2018 New Orleans Bowl.

Team captain MyQuon Stout lifts the trophy following a 30-19 win over Louisiana in the first-ever Sun Belt title game.

App State shut out high-scoring Toledo en route to a 34-0 victory in the 2017 Dollar General Bowl in Mobile, Ala.

The Mountaineers clinched a Sun Belt title by closing the regular season with a 63-14 win against Louisiana on Senior Day.

Thanks to a tiebreaking field goal with 5:41 left, App State won 31-28 against Toledo in a return trip to the 2016 Camellia Bowl.

In Las Cruces, Marcus Cox helped App State earn a share of its first FBS league title with a win at former Sun Belt foe New Mexico State.

Making its FBS postseason debut, App State kicked a 23-yard FG as time expired in a 31-29 win against Ohio in the 2015 Camellia Bowl.

DR. SHERI EVERTS | CHANCELLOR

DR. SHERI EVERTS joined Appalachian State University as its eighth leader in July 2014. Previously, she had been provost and vice president for academic affairs at Illinois State University since 2008.

Under Chancellor Everts' leadership, App State has distinguished itself as the premier public undergraduate institution in the Southeast. By ensuring a sound foundation in terms of the university's physical infrastructure and the goals and strategic initiatives that empower human potential, App State provides the highest quality setting in which students can grow and learn how to navigate life successfully.

Since Everts joined the university in 2014, App State has grown its enrollment and diversity — steadily increasing the number of rural, first-generation and underrepresented students each year. App State enrolls more than 20,000 students and, in fall 2022, the institution welcomed its most diverse student body to date — with nearly 19% of the total population being racially and/or ethnically underrepresented students.

Everts will open the new App State Hickory campus to students in fall 2023, extending access to a high-quality App State education to the Greater Hickory area. More than 100 undergraduate programs, as well as on-site student support services and resources, will be available at the Hickory campus.

On July 1, 2023, Chancellor Everts began her two-year term as president of the NCAA Division I Sun Belt Conference, in which 15 of App State's 17 varsity sports teams compete. Previously, Everts served as conference vice president from 2021 to 2023, and she was instrumental in the Sun Belt Conference realignment. In spring 2023, App State student-athletes marked 22 consecutive semesters of achieving a cumulative GPA above 3.0.

Under Chancellor Everts' leadership, the university has undertaken several major projects, including a $191 million residence hall project, a north end zone facility at Kidd Brewer Stadium, an expansion of the Child Development Center and multiple building renovations. Construction began this summer on the first development phase of App State's Innovation District, including the district's first academic facility — the Conservatory for Biodiversity Education and Research — and nearly 160 units of faculty and staff housing. The district's facilities will be powered by a zero-carbon energy system.

In 2016, Everts launched the Chancellor's Innovation Scholars Program to support research and practice related to the innovation of higher education. In 2018, she cut the ribbon on the Levine Hall of Health Sciences — the first completed project as part of the $2 billion Connect NC Bond referendum. That same year, she also led the charge in opening the Appalachian State University Academy at Middle Fork in Walkertown, North Carolina, which serves approximately 300 K–5 students with research-based practices, state-of-the-art literacy instruction, and exemplary classroom instruction and administration. App State opened its second lab school, the Appalachian State University Academy at Elkin, to approximately 100 students in second through fourth grades in fall 2022. The university continues to be a leader in sustainability, in part by hosting the annual Appalachian Energy Summit — a platform through which UNC System campuses and state agencies have worked together to avoid $1.75 billion in utility costs.

A Nebraska native and first-generation college graduate, Everts graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in English instruction and secondary education. After teaching middle school and high school English in Kansas and Nebraska, she returned to UNL, where she earned a master's degree in literacy education and English (1991) and a doctorate in administration, curriculum and instruction (1994).

Everts began her higher education career in 1994 as an assistant professor in the Department of Teacher Education at the University of Nebraska Omaha. Rising through the academic and administrative ranks at UNO, she was named assistant vice chancellor for academic and student affairs in 2000, promoted to associate vice president in 2003 and named interim senior vice chancellor for academic and student affairs in 2006. She served in that interim capacity until June 30, 2008, when she left Nebraska to become provost and vice president for academic affairs at Illinois State University. Everts served as interim president of ISU in summer 2013.

DOUG GILLIN | DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his ninth year in Boone, Doug Gillin has overseen the rise of App State Athletics as a nationally relevant program at the highest level of college sports.

Hired by Chancellor Sheri Everts as the school's Director of Athletics on Feb. 27, 2015 and officially beginning the role on April 6, 2015, Gillin has overseen progress in all facets of an athletics department that was in the beginning stages of its transition from FCS football and Southern Conference membership to FBS football and the Sun Belt Conference upon his arrival.

An exciting 2022-23 for App State Athletics included an unforgettable September stretch in which App State's football program earned a first-ever visit from ESPN's College GameDay thanks to a 17-14 win at No. 6 Texas A&M, then followed a GameDay appearance that featured 2.8 million television viewers with a dramatic victory against Troy courtesy of a final-play Hail Mary.

One of four national Under Armour Athletics Directors of the Year in 2019-20, Gillin has led the way for App State to be recognized as one of the hottest rising athletics departments thanks to Mountaineer student-athletes outpacing peers academically; major facility and game day experience enhancements; negotiating home football games against top-tier programs; record-setting donations and fan engagement; and raising the school's national profile with championship-winning programs and elevated media exposure.

Under Gillin, part of App State Athletics' stated mission is to "support the educational mission of the university," doing so by adhering to four core values:

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: App State student-athletes completed their 22nd straight semester - more than a decade - with a 3.0 cumulative GPA in spring 2023. The Mountaineers regularly lead Sun Belt schools in student-athlete grade point average and academic honor roll members.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY: With 14,460 volunteer hours by its student-athletes in 2019-20, App State Athletics finished second overall in the NCAA Division I Team Works Community Service competition organized by Helper Helper. Eight Mountaineer programs finished in the top 10 of their respective sports in the NCAA Division I Team Works Community Service competition.

COMPETITIVE EXCELLENCE: Gillin has helped oversee one of the most successful transitions to the FBS level of football in history.

App State was the first college football program to win bowl games in each of its first six eligible FBS seasons and to earn a bowl berth in each of its first seven eligible seasons. The team's record of 79-25 from 2015-22 trailed only Alabama, Clemson, Ohio State, Oklahoma and Georgia among FBS schools.

The Mountaineers won four straight Sun Belt championships from 2016-19 and added an East division title in 2021.

The 2019 squad became the first Sun Belt or North Carolina FBS school to win 13 games. It finished 18th and 19th in the national polls, the best by a Sun Belt school at the time.

While navigating the many challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020-21, the men's basketball team captured its first Sun Belt Tournament Championship and earned its first NCAA Tournament berth since 2000.

Other team championships under Gillin's watch include 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2022 and 2023 SoCon wrestling, 2016 Sun Belt women's indoor track and field, 2016 and 2018 Sun Belt women's cross country, 2017 and 2019 Sun Belt men's cross country, 2019 Sun Belt women's tennis and the 2019 WBI tournament.

WORLD-CLASS EXPERIENCE: An emphasis on enhancing the health and well-being for App State student-athletes has seen the institution of the AppFuel nutrition program, the hiring of the department's first full-time dietitian (and then adding another) and first full-time sports psychologist, and a bolstering of the availability of team physicians, orthopedic care and physical therapists.

Thanks to record-setting donations toward the $60 million Mountaineer

THE GILLIN FAMILY

Impact initiative, which reached its goal in August 2021, major facility projects that have been completed under Gillin's watch include the Kidd Brewer Stadium north end zone facility, the Randy Marion Track & Field Facility at Appalachian 105, the Mark E. Harrill Basketball Practice Facility, video boards at Kidd Brewer and the Holmes Convocation Center, and new AstroTurf fields at football, baseball and soccer. Appalachian 105 will also be the new home of the softball and tennis programs. Ongoing upgrades are in the works for almost every App State sport as part of a new upcoming fundraising initiative that will help the Mountaineers continue to compete at a championship level in the improved Sun Belt Conference.

The 2022-23 athletics season saw record-breaking crowds visit Boone in several sports, including Sun Belt and App State season attendance records in football for the second straight year. Six of the seven home football games sold out.

Before arriving in Boone, Gillin was the deputy director of athletics at the University of Missouri from 2012-15, playing a prominent role in the Tigers' transition to the Southeastern Conference. He also spent time early in his career on college campuses at Lehigh, New Mexico, Missouri and Syracuse, while holding senior leadership positions at ISP Sports/IMG College from 2002-12.

The Binghamton, N.Y., native was a four-year letterman in ice hockey at SUNY Cortland from 1987-91. He graduated from SUNY Cortland in 1991 with a B.S. in physical education (sports management concentration). He went on to earn a master's degree in physical education from Ohio University in 1993.

Gillin and his wife, Leslie, have three children: daughters Shea and Lia and son Chase.

SHAWN CLARK
HEAD COACH
APP STATE, 1998

After coming back to Boone to coach at his alma mater, Shawn Clark not only became App State's head coach, but he has begun his tenure with a record-breaking bowl victory, a nine-win debut season in 2020, a 10-win regular season in 2021 and a top-10 win against the SEC to trigger a visit from ESPN's College GameDay in 2022.

Hired as the 22nd head football coach in App State history on Dec. 13, 2019, Clark was the only first-year FBS head coach in 2020 to win at least nine games, and he followed that by directing the Mountaineers to a 2021 Sun Belt East Division title during a 10-4 season.

A 17-14 win at No. 6 Texas A&M in 2022 — the program's highest-profile victory since the 2007 upset of Michigan — led to ESPN's College GameDay airing from Boone the following week.

With App State alum/country music star Luke Combs picking his alma mater as ESPN's guest picker and Lee Corso putting on the giant Yosef head, the Mountaineers delivered with a dramatic victory against Troy.

Clark, whose contract runs through the 2026 season, has a 26-13 record after his third full season.

He made his official head coaching debut while leading the Mountaineers to a 31-17 victory against UAB in the 2019 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl eight days after his introductory press conference. Ranked 18th in the final Amway Coaches Poll of the season, App State went 13-1 to become the first Sun Belt team and the first FBS team from North Carolina to win 13 games in a season.

In 2020, while playing in the nation's No. 5-ranked league, the Mountaineers secured a Myrtle Beach Bowl title and were one of just 13 teams nationally with at least nine victories — the three losses were against teams with a combined 28-5 record. They were the outright leader in wins by an

FBS program in the state of North Carolina for the third straight year and either the outright leader or co-leader for the sixth straight year.

In 2021, the Mountaineers' 10-2 regular season included signature wins against in-state foe East Carolina (36,752 fans witnessed App State jump out to a 33-9 lead in Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium against the AAC's third-place finisher), longtime rival Marshall, 14th-ranked Coastal Carolina and Black Saturday rival Georgia Southern (the 27-3 win tied for App State's second-largest margin of victory over the Eagles).

Reaching double-figure wins in 2021, App State became one of just eight FBS programs with at least five 10-win seasons since 2015.

Clark has helped lead record-setting runs to conference titles and bowl victories, not just at App State, where he played from 1994-98 and had served as an assistant since 2016, but also in four other leagues during his two decades of college coaching experience.

Working for championship-winning programs at Louisville and Eastern Kentucky before being part of a bowl win for Big Ten member Purdue and coaching at Kent State, Clark has also been a vital part of App State's historic FBS success.

Overseeing talented, hard-working offensive lines, he followed a December 2018 coaching change involving college teammate Scott Satterfield's departure for Louisville by excelling as an aggressive offensive play-caller in a 45-13 bowl victory against Middle Tennessee. With valuable experience at his disposal, Clark was promoted to assistant head coach before the 2019 season with Elijah Drinkwitz in his first year as a college head coach.

In each of Clark's four seasons coaching App State's offensive line, with the Mountaineers earning four straight Sun Belt Conference titles while compiling a 43-10 record in that span, the line ranked in the top 25 nationally in both rushing yards per game and fewest sacks allowed. The unit was recognized by the Joe Moore Award as one of the nation's top 15 offensive lines in 2018 and 2019, and all five starters on the 2019 line received All-Sun Belt Conference recognition.

An offensive lineman in college, Clark was a two-time All-American (1996 and 1998) and three-time all-conference selection (1995, 1996, 1998) for teams that went a combined 45-16 during his first five years in Boone. In fact, as a player during the 12-0 start in 1995 and a coach for the 2019 team that has set a single-season record for wins by an FBS program in the state of North Carolina, Clark has been part of the two App State teams to post 11 regular-season victories.

Clark graduated from App State with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1998 and earned a master's degree in education from Louisville in 2003.

His wife, Jonelle, was a standout softball student-athlete at Eastern Kentucky and was inducted into ECU's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008. The Clarks have two children: a daughter, Giana, and a son, Braxton.

Clark began his college coaching career at Louisville in 2001 and has been part of eight teams that won at least nine games. The Cardinals won a Conference USA championship and bowl game during an 11-2 season in 2001, when Clark was a graduate assistant, and he coached the offensive line at Eastern Kentucky from 2003-08.

The Colonels had a winning record in each of those six seasons, and Clark coached three All-Americans who went on to play in the NFL. Eastern Kentucky went a combined 17-7 with back-to-back league titles and FCS playoff appearances before Clark moved on to Purdue for a stint that ran from 2009-12. Two offensive linemen from the 2010 team were drafted, the Boilermakers capped a seven-win season in 2011 with a victory in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl, and they made another bowl appearance a year later.

A head coaching change contributed to Clark relocating to Kent State, where he coached the offensive line from 2013-15. He was quickly promoted to run game coordinator at Kent State and served as the program's assistant head coach in 2015, before Satterfield brought his college teammate back to Boone.

In 2016, the Mountaineers led the Sun Belt in rushing offense (250.9 yards per game to rank No.

10 nationally as well as No. 2 in Sun Belt history) and ranked 16th nationally in sacks allowed.

The Mountaineers led the Sun Belt in both rushing yards and fewest sacks in 2017, as they allowed only eight sacks (No. 2 nationally) and averaged 223.6 rushing yards per game to rank 22nd nationally. App State averaged 315.8 rushing yards during its 4-0 finish and became the first Sun Belt program with three offensive linemen (Colby Gossett, Beau Nunn, Victor Johnson) named to the all-conference first team.

The 2018 team ranked 14th nationally in rushing yards per game (240.3) and 20th nationally with only 18 sacks allowed.

Offensive linemen Parker Collins, Gossett and Nunn joined NFL franchises after learning from Clark at App State, and Johnson was the only senior starter on an offensive line that helped the 2019 team rank 16th nationally at 231.4 rushing yards per game and tied for 17th with only 18 sacks allowed.

By defeating Louisiana in the 2019 Sun Belt Championship Game, App State joined Clemson and Oklahoma as FBS programs with at least four straight conference titles at the time.

FRANK PONCE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS
ALMA MATER: FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL, 1997

Ponce served as the Mountaineers' co-offensive coordinator (passing game) and quarterbacks coach for six seasons from 2013-18 and then as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2021. He was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Miami Hurricanes in his hometown during the 2022 season.

Over the course of his two previous stints in Boone, Ponce helped the Mountaineers win three Sun Belt Championships and reach another Sun Belt title game, as well as lead offenses that broke several school records.

As App State's offensive coordinator in 2021, Ponce oversaw quarterback Chase Brice set a single-season program record for passing yards (3,337) as the Mountaineers extended their FBS-leading streak of consecutive years with a 1,000-yard rusher to 10 while averaging 34.5 points per game. The offense helped App State post a 10-win regular season and win the Sun Belt's East Division title.

After helping lead App State to a 48-16 record and three consecutive Sun Belt championships during his first five FBS seasons in Boone, Ponce followed Scott Satterfield to Louisville after the 2018 season and spent 2019 and 2020 as the Cardinals' quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator.

The detail-oriented Ponce oversaw the 2019 development of Louisville quarterback and new full-time starter Malik Cunningham, who set the school record with a passing efficiency rating of 194.45 — a number that would have ranked No. 2 nationally with one more pass attempt.

Cunningham threw for 4,682 yards with 42 touchdowns, rushed for 1,091 yards with 13 touchdowns and completed 63.6 percent of his throws in his two seasons with Ponce, becoming the only Louisville quarterback to ever have four touchdown passes of at least 75 yards.

Three-year App State starter Zac Thomas was a relatively unknown commodity replacing record-breaking quarterback Taylor Lamb back in 2018, and Ponce helped Thomas make an immediate splash as a first-year starter who developed into the Sun Belt's Offensive Player of the Year with 2,039 passing yards, 504 rushing yards, 21 passing touchdowns, 10 rushing touchdowns and just six interceptions during an 11-2 season.

Ponce excelled as a high school coach in his home state of Florida from 1992-2006 before joining Mario Cristobal's staff at FIU as the wide receivers coach from 2007-12, with Satterfield working alongside both of them from 2010-11 as FIU's offensive coordinator. When Satterfield became App State's head coach in 2013, he hired Ponce to coordinate the Mountaineers' passing game and coach quarterbacks.

Under Ponce's mentorship, Lamb finished his App State career as the school and Sun Belt record holder with 90 touchdown passes. The only FBS quarterbacks in 2017 with career totals of at least 9,000 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards were Lamb, Ohio State's J.T. Barrett and Louisville's Lamar Jackson.

With 27 touchdown passes and six interceptions as a senior, Lamb had the third-best season for an App State quarterback in terms of touchdown-to-interception ratio, and he led the conference in passing efficiency during three of his four seasons.

As a first-year App State assistant, one season before Lamb became the starter as a redshirt freshman, Ponce directed the Southern Conference's second-ranked passing attack (271.8 yards per game). He helped quarterback Kameron Bryant set a school record for single-season completion percentage (71.2) and throw for 2,713 yards even though Bryant came into the season with just 13 snaps under his belt.

Ponce is also renowned for his recruiting ability, as he was named the Sun Belt's top recruiter by ESPN.com in 2010.

He coached six of the top 10 receivers in FIU history during his six seasons with the Golden Panthers. His most notable pupil at FIU was three-time All-American T.Y. Hilton, who has played 11 years in the NFL with the Indianapolis Colts and Dallas Cowboys.

Prior to FIU, Ponce was one of the top high school coaches in football-rich south Florida, serving as the head coach and offensive coordinator at tradition-laden Miami Senior High from 2004-06 and the head coach at Coral Reef High from 2002-03. He began his coaching career with stints as an assistant at La Progresiva Presbyterian School (offensive coordinator - 1992), Coral Gables High (quarterbacks/wide receivers - 1993-96), Miami Northwestern High (quarterbacks - 1998), Miami Central High (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks - 1999-2000) and Miami Killian High (offensive coordinator - 2001). As a coach at Miami Central, he mentored Willis McGahee, who went on to become an All-America running back at the University of Miami and a two-time NFL Pro Bowler.

A native of Miami, Ponce enjoyed a decorated playing career as a quarterback at Miami Senior, where he was the team MVP and a finalist for the 1988 Miami Herald Hispanic Athlete of the Year Award. He went on to become the starting quarterback for two years at Arizona Western College, where he earned an associate's degree in arts in 1990. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Florida International in 1997.

Ponce and his wife, Christine, are the parents of two daughters, Isabel and Leah, and a pair of sons, Frankie and Lucas.

SCOT SLOAN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES
ALMA MATER: CLEMSON, 1992

Scot Sloan, who helped App State Football rise to prominence in its unprecedented transition from the FCS to FBS ranks, returned to Boone as defensive coordinator for head coach Shawn Clark in January 2023.

Sloan oversees a Mountaineer defense that was annually rated among college football's best during his time on staff from 2010-17.

Before spending the 2022 season as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach for an Army team that ranked third nationally in passing yards allowed, he was the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Georgia Southern from 2018-21.

A veteran defensive coach with 30+ years of experience, Sloan has served as either defensive coordinator or co-defensive coordinator in 15 of those seasons. He also spent seven years as App State's recruiting coordinator from 2011-17, with App State's 2017 class being hailed as the nation's No. 13 haul in The Athletic's re-rank four years later.

Sloan's defenses at Georgia Southern included a 2020 squad that was No. 1 in the country for interceptions (18) and ranked 14th in total defense, 14th in rushing defense and 12th in red zone defense. The 2019 Eagles were tops in the Sun Belt in tackles for loss and fumbles recovered, while the 2018 team led the FBS with a +22 turnover margin in large part thanks to 15 interceptions by Sloan's defense.

Among his standout pupils in Statesboro were All-Americans Kindle Vildor and Raymond Johnson III as well as Freshman All-American Derrick Canteen. Vildor was selected by the Chicago Bears in the fifth round of the 2020 NFL Draft and has enjoyed NFL success along with Sloan-coached defenders Johnson, Joshua Moon and Donald Rutledge Jr.

Sloan spent eight seasons as App State's secondary coach and was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in the spring of 2017. During that time, Sloan mentored the Mountaineers' first FBS Freshman All-American in Clifton Duck in 2016, two NCAA Division I FCS All-Americans (Mark LeGree in 2010 and Demetrius McCray in 2011) and 16 all-conference honorees.

Sloan mentored one of the nation's top secondaries and pass defenses during his last three seasons at App State, helping lead the Mountaineers to a pair of Sun Belt titles and three bowl wins (in their first three bowl eligible seasons – an FBS record). App State had 53 interceptions in his last three seasons, second-most nationally behind San Diego State during that span.

In 2017, seven defensive players earned first-team All-Sun Belt honors, including three from his secondary, as the Mountaineers were ranked in the top 20 nationally in interceptions, sacks and turnover margin en route to capturing the Sun Belt title.

App State allowed only 10.8 points per game and went 7-1 in league play en route to its first Sun Belt title in 2016, a season that saw the Mountaineers finish with 20 interceptions (the sixth-highest total in the FBS) and rank 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense. In 2015, the Mountaineers intercepted 18 passes, good for 12th in the nation, and won the Camellia Bowl in the school's first bowl appearance in its first eligible season.

During his first eight years in Boone, Sloan coached two NFL Draft picks (LeGree and McCray), while former safety Doug Middleton played six years in the league. Safeties Alex Gray, A.J. Howard, Austin Exford and Josh Thomas have also spent time on NFL teams.

As the program's recruiting coordinator, Sloan helped nail down several highly regarded classes, the first in 2012 coming despite him not taking over as recruiting coordinator until just six weeks prior to signing day. The Mountaineers' 2014 recruiting class — its first as an FBS program — was ranked No. 1 in the Sun Belt by 247Sports while Sloan was tabbed as the Sun Belt's top recruiter by Scout.com.

Sloan spent three years at Riverside Military Academy in Gainesville, Ga., culminating with him serving as the program's head coach in 2009. During his three-year stint at Riverside, which included two seasons (2007-08) as defensive coordinator, he helped lead the Eagles to three playoff berths and an 18-15 overall record. He was also the school's athletics director for two years (2008-09).

Prior to his stint at Riverside, Sloan was the defensive coordinator at Griffin (Ga.) H.S. in 2006, when his squad posted an 11-1 record and advanced to the second round of the Georgia state playoffs. The team's lone loss came at the hands of future Kansas City Chiefs All-Pro Eric Berry.

Before spending four years in the high school ranks, Sloan was a successful assistant at Georgia Southern (defensive backs, 2002-05), Georgia Military College (defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/defensive backs, 1996-2001) and Clemson (graduate assistant, 1992-95).

He played defensive back at Clemson from 1989-91, was a member of three bowl teams and helped lead the squad to the 1991 Atlantic Coast Conference championship.

Sloan holds a pair of degrees from Clemson and one from Lincoln Memorial University. He is married to the former Stephanie Crisco. They have two sons, Seth and Samuel, a granddaughter, Saylor, and a grandson, Sawyer.

JUSTIN WATTS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH
PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS
9TH SEASON AT APP STATE
ALMA MATER: CLEMSON, 2000

Justin Watts, who was promoted to assistant head coach before the 2021 season, enters his ninth season as an App State assistant in 2023.

Watts spent four seasons (2015-18) as the Mountaineers' wide receivers coach before spending his fourth straight season coaching the tight ends in 2022. In 2018, he became App State's recruiting coordinator.

The Mountaineers' tight ends, led by All-Sun Belt selection Henry Pearson, were a critical piece of a high-scoring offense in 2022. Pearson tied for the Sun Belt lead among tight ends with five touchdown catches during the regular season while ranking second among league TEs in catches (25) and receiving yards (329) in the regular season.

Pearson, Miller Gibbs, Eli Wilson and David Larkins combined for 45 receptions, 504 yards and nine touchdowns in 2022.

With Watts in his first year as the assistant head coach in 2021, the Mountaineers posted a 10-victory regular season while winning a Sun Belt East Division title to follow a 9-3 mark in 2020 and a 13-1 record to pair with a top 20 final ranking in 2019.

At tight end, Pearson and Mike Evans were the leaders as App State often started with two tight ends, and the depth showed with Gibbs and Wilson catching touchdown passes.

Despite serious injuries to its top three tight ends in 2020, and playing one game with none of its top five tight ends, Watts developed the talent and depth to help App State's tight ends catch 24 passes with five touchdowns over the final seven games and block well enough to contribute to the team's No. 7 ranking in rushing yards per game (264.9). Tight ends accounted for five of App State's nine receptions in the Myrtle Beach Bowl win, as Pearson had two touchdown catches, giving him four over the final six games.

From a recruiting standpoint, App State's class signed in December 2022 ranked No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference from 247Sports, and the average prospect grade of 82.32 from On3.com was No. 2 in the Sun Belt. It also rated among the top 15 among schools from the American, Conference USA, MAC, Mountain West and Sun Belt.

In the signing class added in December 2021, App State's average player rating of 83.6 from 247Sports.com set a program record. That beat the previous year's record of 83.08, when App State's Class of 2021 group ranked first among Sun Belt Conference schools and sixth among Group of 5 schools.

All 22 December 2020 signees earned a three-star rating from 247Sports. That year, the Mountaineers posted an overall FBS class ranking of 64th, the highest-ranked App State class by 247Sports since the FBS climb, and eight of the 15 highest-rated App State recruits in the history of the 247Sports rankings at the time were members of the 2021 class.

At the time, the 18-player recruiting class signed in 2019 included three of the six highest-rated commitments in App State's FBS history.

In helping App State win the inaugural Sun Belt Championship Game and win a fourth straight bowl game in 2018, Watts coached a young group that included three sophomore starters in Corey Sutton (eight touchdowns), Thomas Hennigan and Malik Williams.

Watts turned an inexperienced group of wide outs into a productive unit in 2016, setting the stage for a 2017 season in which App's wide receiver corps became a dynamic, deep, and explosive unit for senior quarterback Taylor Lamb. Ike Lewis developed into a first-team all-conference selection, and Thomas Hennigan ranked among the FBS leaders in TD catches by a true freshman receiver.

In 2016, eight different wide receivers notched touchdown receptions. Shaedon Meadors finished the season with 45 catches for 716 yards and two touchdowns and had big receptions early against Louisiana and New Mexico to set the tone on TD drives. He also landed on SportsCenter's Top 10 with a grab off the helmet of a Georgia Southern defensive back in App's 34-10 win on ESPNU in October. Junior Ike Lewis also blossomed, especially late, with 10 catches over the final four games. Then-junior Zy Letman also became a big-threat, hauling in a 37-yard touchdown in the win at Akron and a key third-down reception in the bowl win over Toledo.

In his first year, Watts helped send a veteran receiving core out on high notes despite not being a heavy passing team. Senior Simms McElfresh led the way with 466 yards and six touchdowns and was just ahead of senior Malachi Jones, who had 463 yards and three touchdowns. Rounding out the over-400-yards club, sophomore Shaedon Meadors had a break out year, getting 439 yards off 21 completions for three touchdowns.

Watts came to App State from Middle Tennessee, where he served as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator for nine seasons (2006-14). During his time at Middle Tennessee, he helped lead the Blue Raiders to four bowl berths, three eight-win seasons and a Sun Belt Conference championship (2006).

Known at Middle Tennessee for developing deep corps of wideouts, Watts coached 29 different receivers that caught 25 passes or more in a season during his nine-year tenure in Murfreesboro. Four of his pupils rank in the top seven in Middle Tennessee history in career receptions and four are among the program's all-time top 10 in career yardage.

As Middle Tennessee's recruiting coordinator, Watts consistently led the efforts to land classes that ranked among the best in the Sun Belt and Conference USA.

Watts began his coaching career with two seasons as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Clemson (2001-02). During his stint as a G.A., he helped lead the Tigers to a pair of bowl berths.

He landed his first full-time coaching position at App State's former Southern Conference rival, Chattanooga, where he coached the Mocs' wide receivers for three seasons (2003-05). At UTC, he coached NCAA Division I FCS all-American Alonzo Nix, who set a single-season SoCon record with 90 receptions in 2003, and all-conference performer Emanuel Hassell, who led the league with 52 catches in 2005. In Watts' final season at Chattanooga, the Mocs recorded their first winning season in eight years.

Watts owned the distinction of being one of only two student-athletes to ever be a five-year football letterwinner at Clemson, a feat that he accomplished as a wide receiver from 1996-2000 (he received a medical redshirt after sustaining a season-ending injury during the 1997 campaign). He caught 51 passes for 561 yards during his career and was honored as a scholar-athlete at the 1999 Peach Bowl awards luncheon. The Tigers earned bowl berths during four of his five seasons on the squad.

A Florence, S.C. native, Watts amassed 7,979 yards of total offense and accounted for 74 touchdowns as a prep quarterback at South Florence H.S. He received a B.S. in sports management from Clemson in 2000. Watts and his wife, Lauren, have a son, Chase, and a daughter, Kendall.

VICTOR CABRAL

DEFENSIVE LINE

ALMA MATER: GEORGIA SOUTHERN, 2006

Victor Cabral joined Shawn Clark's staff as an assistant coach to oversee the Mountaineers' defensive line in January 2023.

from 2018-21. He also served as the Eagles' recruiting coordinator from 2019-21.

A standout defensive lineman at Georgia Southern from 2000-04, Cabral spent 11 years on the Eagles' coaching staff over three different stints and also has coached at Samford and Georgia Military College.

Several of Cabral's pupils at his various stops have enjoyed time in the NFL, including Raymond Johnson III, Ahmad Gooden, Michael Pierce and Brent Russell.

Under Cabral's tutelage in 2020, Johnson earned All-America honors after re-cording 14.5 tackles for loss and a school-record 15 quarterback hurries. Georgia Southern's defensive line combined for 34.5 tackles for loss and 11.5 sacks as the defense finished 15th in the country in rushing defense.

In 2018, all three of Cabral's starters along the defensive line — Johnson, Logan Hunt and Ty Phillips — earned all-conference honors as the Eagles produced a stout run defense that allowed just 140.5 yards per game. In 2019, Johnson earned first-team all-conference honors again, and Cabral's line corps combined for 35.5 tackles for loss.

In his three years as Samford's defensive line coach from 2015-17, the Bulldogs were selected to the FCS Playoffs twice and he tutored Gooden, the 2017 Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Gooden was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award after totaling 101 tackles, 15.5 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks, 11 quarterback pressures, two fumble recoveries and a forced fumble from his tackle spot.

He tutored four All-SoCon players during his time at Samford, including three-time selection Gooden, Pierce in 2015 and Roosevelt Donaldson in 2016.

Cabral spent the 2014 season as the director of player personnel at Georgia Southern.

For four years from 2010-13, he served as the defensive line coach at Georgia Southern. Cabral worked with several standout players, including Russell, a four-time All-American and 2011 Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year who became the Eagles' career sacks leader in 2012.

Cabral spent three years as the defensive line coach at Georgia Military College from 2007-09, while also serving as special teams coordinator for the Bulldogs. In 2007, the GMC defensive unit earned a No. 1 ranking in rushing defense in the NJCAA. The next season, the Bulldogs ranked third nationally in total defense.

The Bulldogs also had several individuals earn national accolades. Leroy Burgess was selected as a third-team NJCAA All-American in 2007, and Torrey Ball earned second-team All-America honors in 2008.

Under the tutelage of Cabral, Markeith Wylie was recognized as a first-team Academic All-American in 2007. Thirteen GMC players coached by Cabral received scholarships to NCAA Division I programs during his three seasons in Milledgeville.

Cabral spent the 2005 season coordinating video and quality control at Georgia Southern.

A four-year starter and letterwinner in college, Cabral was part of Georgia Southern's 2000 national championship team, two NCAA semifinal playoff appearances and four conference titles during his career. Following his collegiate playing career, Cabral was the 24th overall draft pick by the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL in 2005.

The former Eagle team captain earned his bachelor's degree from Georgia Southern in 2006 and graduated with his master's degree in 2013. Cabral and his wife, Erin, are the parents of a son, Zac, and a daughter, Lucy. His wife was a four-year letterwinner and team captain for the Georgia Southern swimming team and is also a two-time GS graduate.

MIKE CUMMINGS

OFFENSIVE LINE

Cummings has spent more than three decades building an impressive resumé coaching offensive lines, including most recently at Cincinnati. He has also been an offensive coordinator at both Central Michigan and Connecticut among his coaching stops.

During his one season on Luke Fickell's Cincinnati staff, Cummings helped the Bearcats win nine games and earn a berth to the Fenway Bowl.

Cummings spent 16 years over five different stints at Central Michigan, most recently when he worked alongside current App State offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay from 2019-21 under head coach Jim McElwain. As the Chippewas' offensive coordinator from 2010-13, Cummings oversaw a passing game that ranked among the top 25 nationally in two of those four years, while developing five All-MAC offensive line selections.

Among his pupils that have gone on to play in the NFL was Eric Fisher, the No. 1 overall selection in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Fisher has since made two Pro Bowls and won a Super Bowl in his 10-year pro career.

In 2021, Cummings helped lead the Chippewas to a 9-4 record as offensive linemen Bernhard Raimann and Luke Goedeke proved to be two of the nation's top tackles. Both earned invitations to the Senior Bowl, All-MAC first-team honors and All-America accolades from Pro Football Focus, and both were drafted in the top three rounds of the NFL Draft and have started at tackle for their respective pro teams.

In 2019, Cummings' offensive line paved the way for two CMU running backs to rush for 1,000 yards as the Chippewas led the MAC in total yards (6,070).

Cummings served as the offensive line coach at VMI in 2017-18. In 2018, the Keydets ranked eighth in passing offense among Football Championship Subdivision teams.

Other coaching stops include Connecticut, Marshall, Western Michigan, Eastern Michigan and Michigan State (under Nick Saban) during his illustrious career.

Cummings earned his bachelor's degree in physical education/exercise science from Buffalo in 1984 and his master's in athletic administration from CMU in 1990.

He and his wife, Donna, have two daughters, Elizabeth and Emily.

TRAVIS CUNNINGHAM

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

ALMA MATER: GARDNER-WEBB, 2003

Travis Cunningham joined head coach Shawn Clark's staff as a defensive assistant coach in February 2023 and will coach inside linebackers for the Mountaineers.

Cunningham coached WKU's inside linebackers during the 2022 season after working with App State defensive coordinator Scot Sloan as Georgia Southern's inside linebackers coach in a 3-4 scheme from 2018-21.

Cunningham played at Gardner-Webb from 1999-2000 and then coached at his alma mater for the next 17 seasons, adding defensive coordinator in its 3-4 scheme to his duties for his final two seasons with the Runnin' Bulldogs.

In 2022, during a 9-5 season for WKU, the Hilltoppers ranked in the top 30 nationally in interceptions (nine), passing yards allowed per game (No. 23 at 182.3) and pass efficiency defense (No. 12 at 105.87) while allowing just 22.8 points per game and 369.0 yards per game.

Cunningham helped guide Georgia Southern to three bowl games in his first three seasons with the Eagles, who won the 2018 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl and 2020 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

With Cunningham and assistant coach Victor Cabral helping coach Sloan's defense at Georgia Southern, the 2020 squad that went 8-5 ranked No. 1 in the country in interceptions (18), No. 14 in total defense, No. 14 in rushing defense and No. 12 in red zone defense. The 2019 team led the Sun Belt in fumbles recovered and tackles for loss per game, while the 2018 team that went 10-3 led the FBS with a +22 turnover margin and allowed just 21.5 points per game.

During his 17 seasons at Gardner-Webb, Cunningham spent 14 of those seasons coaching inside linebackers and one season coaching the secondary. Six Bulldogs earned all-conference honors under Cunningham's leadership as defensive coordinator, and his standouts included an FCS All-American in linebacker Chad Geter, who went on to play professionally in the Canadian Football League.

A total of 21 players earned all-conference honors under Cunningham's guidance at Gardner-Webb, and six were named to postseason All-America teams.

After playing for the Bulldogs as a long snapper and special teams contributor from 1999-2000, Cunningham earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Gardner-Webb in 2003.

Cunningham and his wife, Kelly, have two sons, Brooks and Blake.

LAWRENCE DAWSEY

WIDE RECEIVERS
2ND SEASON AT APP STATE
ALMA MATER: FLORIDA STATE, 1991

A veteran assistant with title-winning accomplishments as well as NFL playing experience, Lawrence Dawsey was hired to coach App State's receivers in January 2022.

In his first season with the Mountaineers, he helped a young group of receivers mesh well with veteran quarterback Chase Brice, with 11 players catching a pass in the opening game. New starters Dashaun Davis and Christan Horn, followed by newcomer Kaedin Robinson, led the team in catches.

Dawsey, a two-time All-America receiver at Florida State and an NFL Rookie of the Year, has learned from some of the biggest names in college football during his coaching career, including Bobby Bowden, Nick Saban and Jimbo Fisher. He was FSU's receivers coach and passing game coordinator when the Seminoles, led by Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston (QB) and first-round NFL draft pick Kelvin Benjamin (WR), won the national championship in 2013.

After coaching receivers at Florida State for 11 seasons from 2007-17 — he served as the Seminoles' co-offensive coordinator his final five seasons there — Dawsey worked with the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship in 2018 and 2019 and spent the previous two seasons as an offensive analyst at Texas A&M.

The Aggies went 8-4 in the 2021 regular season and 9-1 with a 41-27 victory in the Orange Bowl during the 2020 season.

Dawsey also worked with a first-round draft pick at receiver (Michael Clayton) and won a national title as a graduate assistant on Saban's LSU staff that included Fisher in 2003, then spent the next three seasons as a full-time assistant at USF.

In his last 15 seasons on a college staff before arriving in Boone, Dawsey was with teams went 10-4 in bowls — Texas A&M didn't play its bowl game in 2021.

Dawsey is regarded as one of the nation's best recruiters, having been named a Top 25 national recruiter and Top 10 ACC recruiter by Rivals in 2011, 2012 and 2015. He was tabbed the 2011 ACC Recruiter of the Year by SI.com.

Dawsey's four seasons as an FSU wide receiver from 1987-90 corresponded with the first four 10-win, top-five poll finishes by the program, as he completed his college career with 2,129 career receiving yards and 20 career touchdown catches.

A third-round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Dawsey totaled 240 catches for 3,271 yards and six touchdowns in seven NFL seasons, with 55 catches for 818 yards and three touchdowns during his Rookie of the Year campaign with Tampa Bay in 1991. He also played for the New York Giants (1996), Miami Dolphins (1997) and New Orleans Saints (1999).

A native of Dothan, Ala., Dawsey graduated from FSU with a bachelor of arts in social science and economics. Dawsey's stepdaughter, Dominique Arce, is a physician. He and his wife, Chantal — who is a registered nurse — have a son, Lawrence Jr., who is in law school at Boston College.

BRIAN HAINES

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS
ALMA MATER: MARIETTA COLLEGE, 2004

Brian Haines joined head coach Shawn Clark's staff as the running backs coach/special teams coordinator with the Mountaineers in January 2020.

Named a 2021 candidate for the Broyles Award that goes to the nation's top assistant, he followed that by coaching an All-America kick returner in Milan Tucker and helping running back Cameron Peoples receive a Reese's Senior Bowl invitation during the 2022 season. The Mountaineers had six games with a 100-yard rusher despite dealing with several injuries at that position.

In 2021, Haines coached a running back group that helped App State producer a 1,000-yard rusher for the 10th straight season and directed a special teams group that included kicker Chandler Staton, who received first-team All-America recognition, and Jalen Virgil, who had two kickoff returns for touchdowns.

App State ranked 16th nationally in overall special teams based on the Fremeau Efficiency Index (FEI) that combines kickoff return, kickoff, punt return, punt and field goal efficiency into one overall rating.

App State's two leading backs (Nate Noel, Cameron Peoples) both rushed for more than 900 yards while ranking No. 2 and No. 3 in rushing yards per game in the Sun Belt, and that came a year after the Mountaineers were the only FBS team in the country to have four running backs rush for at least 500 yards.

Virgil added a 100-yard kickoff return at Miami and a 97-yard kickoff return against Georgia Southern to the 100-yard return for a touchdown at Georgia Southern in 2020, and Staton was named PFN's national kicker of the year after going 20 of 21 on field goals while making all 57 of his extra points. He set five App State career records, two App State single season records and two consecutive makes records during the 2021 season, when the Mountaineers ranked in the top 25 nationally by allowing just 4.1 yards per punt return.

App State's top three backs entering the 2020 season combined to miss 11 games, but it got 500-plus rushing seasons from sophomore Peoples (league-leading 1,224 yards with 12 TDs despite making just five starts, all to end the season), junior Daetrich Harrington (595 yards with seven TDs before suffering a season-ending injury in the sixth game), Noel as a true freshman (510 yards, including 327 over the final four games) and Marcus Williams Jr. (503 yards, with three 100-yard games in just eight appearances).

Peoples set a school and NCAA bowl record with 317 rushing yards to go with five touchdown runs (tying a school and NCAA bowl record) in the 56-28 bowl win against North Texas. Williams added 101 rushing yards, making them the 100-yard tandem with the second-most combined rushing yards (418) in a bowl game behind only a Baylor tandem with 460 in 2015. App State had 500 rushing yards that day.

On special teams in 2020, punter Xavier Subotsch led the Sun Belt with a net average of 40.3. App State allowed only 2.2 yards per punt return (No. 1 Sun Belt, No. 11 nationally), 3.3 punt return yards per game (No. 2 Sun Belt, No. 23 nationally) and 17.3 yards per kickoff return (No. 2 Sun Belt, No. 14 nationally).

Haines came to Boone after spending 12 of the previous 13 years at Ohio, where he helped lead the Bobcats to 91 victories, two Mid-American Conference East Division titles, nine bowl appearances and the first five bowl titles in school history.

A native of Williamstown, W.Va., Haines had served as a special teams coordinator for eight seasons before joining App State's staff and as a recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach for each of his last 10 seasons before joining App State's staff. He also had stints at West Virginia and his alma mater, Marietta College, early in his coaching career.

Ohio did not have a losing season in the 10 years after Haines joined Frank Solich's staff as a full-time assistant in 2010. In that decade, Haines helped the Bobcats win eight or more games on seven occasions, including a 10-4 record in 2011 when they won the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for the school's first bowl victory.

Other Ohio bowl wins during Haines' tenure included the 2012 Independence Bowl against ULM, the 2017 Bahamas Bowl against UAB, the 2018 Frisco Bowl against San Diego State and the 2020 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl against Nevada.

Under Haines' watch, Ohio's special teams unit consistently ranked as one of the best in both the FBS and the MAC in terms of kickoff and punt returns and kickoff and punt defense. The Bobcats' kickoff return defense was top 15 in the country each of his last three years, including No. 2 nationally in 2019.

In 2010, Haines returned to Athens in a full-time capacity after spending 2009 as a graduate assistant at West Virginia, supervising the Mountaineers' slot receivers and running backs. From 2010-11, he coached the Bobcat tight ends and served as recruiting coordinator before adding special teams duties the next year.

Haines served as a graduate assistant for the Bobcats' offense during the 2007 and 2008 seasons. Before that, he served as an assistant coach at Marietta College, his alma mater, for three seasons from 2004-06. He coached receivers for two seasons and the secondary for one.

A standout wide receiver for Marietta from 2000-03, Haines graduated in 2004 and went on to earn master's degrees from Marietta in 2007 and Ohio in 2008.

Haines was born Aug. 30, 1982. He and his wife, Mary, have two daughters: Blair and Quinn.

ALMA MATER: APP STATE, 2017

Former App State and NFL standout A.J. Howard returned home to be an outside linebackers coach with the Mountaineers in February 2023.

After a standout career in Boone as a three-year starting safety, Howard won a Super Bowl ring as a member of the 2018-19 New England Patriots. He then served as a graduate assistant coach at Louisville and an area scout for the Patriots.

Howard spent 2021 and 2022 as a Southeast area scout for the Patriots, with whom he played in 2019. He also spent time on the rosters of the Arizona Cardinals, New York Giants, Baltimore Ravens, Philadelphia Eagles, Cleveland Browns and Detroit Lions before earning his first coaching position as a graduate assistant on Scott Satterfield's Louisville staff. He worked with the UL defense during the 2020 season.

A 2017 graduate of App State, Howard started every game at strong safety in 2014, 2016 and 2017 and led the Mountaineers to three straight bowl wins from 2015-17. He received All-Sun Belt distinction his junior and senior years while helping the program to its first two Sun Belt Conference titles.

He totaled 222 tackles in 51 career games played (38 starts), while also tallying four interceptions and 18 passes defended. Serving as a team captain in 2017, App State's defense ranked first or second among Sun Belt teams in both points allowed per game and yards allowed per game in each of Howard's last three seasons.

Howard and his wife, Sammie, have a son, Duke.

ROD WEST

DEF. PASSING GAME COORD./CORNERBACKS

3RD SEASON AT APP STATE

ALMA MATER: ALABAMA STATE, 2009

Rod West joined Shawn Clark's App State staff in February 2021 as cornerbacks coach. He added defensive passing game coordinator duties before the start of the 2022 season.

A fast riser in the coaching profession, West was named to the 2021 American Football Coaches Association 35 Under 35 list.

Steven Jones Jr. was named a first-team All-American at cornerback under West's watch in 2021, when Shaun Jolly joined Jones as a first-team All-Sun Belt selection. With injuries limiting App State's depth at that position, Madison Cone also excelled while starting six of the last eight games at cornerback even though he began the season as a safety.

In 2021, App State ranked in the top 15 nationally with 15 interceptions, as Jones tied for the FBS lead with five during the regular season, including three pick-six touchdowns.

In 2022, Jones also earned All-America honorable mention before receiving an invitation to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl. App State newcomer Dexter Lawson Jr. made a team-high three interceptions, and West prepared true freshmen such as Ethan Johnson to contribute a cornerback.

Before arriving in Boone, West spent the three previous three-plus seasons on staff with the Richmond Spiders, including his role as co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach leading up to Richmond's 2020 spring season.

In 2019, West served as the defensive pass game coordinator and cornerbacks coach, helping Richmond finish first in the CAA in passing defense at 194.8 yards per game. Cornerback Daniel Jones was named to the all-CAA team.

West spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as Richmond's dimes coach and was also the co-special teams coordinator in 2018. The Spiders' 2017 squad finished fifth in the CAA in passing defense at 197.7 yards per game.

He coached at Chattanooga from 2015-16, serving as the cornerbacks/dimes coach as well as recruiting coordinator. During his time with the Mocs, he mentored four All-Southern Conference honorees. Chattanooga led the SoCon in passing defense and ranked top two in the league in total defense in both seasons.

West began his coaching career in 2009 at NAIA school Kentucky Christian, where he worked with defensive backs and assisted with academics. He has also had stints as a graduate assistant for the Division II national runner-up Delta State (2010), defensive backs coach at Texas A&M-Commerce (2011-12) and defensive backs and special teams coach at Morehead State (2013-14).

A native of Selma, Ala., West was a four-year letterman from 2005-08 and a two-year starting defensive back at Southwestern Athletic Conference member Alabama State. He was a member of the Dean's List his final three years and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in English in 2009.

He and his wife, Marcie, were married in 2013. They have one daughter, Maya, and one son, Major. Marcie was a three-time All-American volleyball player at Florida and played in four NCAA Tournaments from 2004-07.

MATT GREENHALGH

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
ALMA MATER: RHODE ISLAND, 2012

Matt Greenhalgh returned home to App State as Director of Athletic Performance to oversee the football program's strength and conditioning in December 2022.

Greenhalgh (pronounced GREEN-hall) was Assistant Director of Football Strength and Conditioning at Virginia Tech during the 2022 season after being Georgia Southern's Director of Football Strength and Conditioning from 2018-21.

That role as director came after he served as App State's Assistant Director of Strength and Conditioning from 2014-17, when the Mountaineers posted a record of 37-14 with two Sun Belt Conference championships and a 3-0 bowl record.

Georgia Southern made an eight-win improvement to go 10-3 during Greenhalgh's first season in Statesboro. The Eagles had winning records in each of the next two seasons, going 8-5 in 2020, and a coaching transition coincided with Greenhalgh relocating to Virginia Tech to work alongside first-year head coach Brent Pry in 2022.

Prior to his first stint in Boone, Greenhalgh was a strength and conditioning graduate assistant at The Citadel from 2013-14. A native of Chepachet, Rhode Island, he also worked as a strength and conditioning intern at Rhode Island, his alma mater, and South Carolina.

A four-year letterwinner on the offensive line for Rhode Island from 2008-12, Greenhalgh graduated with a degree in kinesiology. He served as a team captain during his senior season after earning a spot on the Allstate Good Works Team as a junior in 2011.

He holds a master's degree in sports management from Western Carolina.

LANCE WARE

SENIOR ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH
5TH SEASON AT APP STATE
ALMA MATER: APP STATE, 1997

Championship-winning North Carolina high school coach and App State alum Lance Ware was hired as senior assistant to the head coach in February 2019.

As head coach of Shelby High School just outside of Charlotte, Ware compiled a 99-25 overall record over eight seasons and won five state championships in the last six years.

In his role on the mountain, Ware assists the head coach with all aspects of organization and running the Mountaineer football program.

A four-year letterman at App State under head coach Jerry Moore from 1992-96, Ware was the Mountaineers' full-time long snapper for all of his last three seasons and most of his freshman campaign.

As Shelby's head coach, Ware led the Golden Lions to 2A state championships in 2013, 2014 and 2015 and 2AA state titles in 2016 and 2018. During his eight-year tenure, Shelby went 33-3 in the North Carolina High School Athletic Association playoffs. In 2022, he was inducted into the Cleveland County Sports Hall of Fame.

Ware had spent his entire 22-year coaching career at his high school alma mater, working under head coaches Jim Taylor and Chris Norman. During his 22 seasons there, the Golden Lions played for 11 state titles, winning eight.

Ware and his wife, Catherine, have three children – Reece, Stockton and Presley.

NOLAN JONES

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR FOR FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
ALMA MATER: EASTERN KENTUCKY, 2003

Veteran administrator Nolan Jones was hired in January 2020 as Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations by head coach Shawn Clark.

A college football athletics administrator for the past two decades, Jones arrived in Boone after one year at Ole Miss. He coordinates the day-to-day internal and external operations for the Mountaineer football program.

Jones was the associate A.D. for football operations for the Rebels during the 2019 season after spending three seasons (2016-18) as director of football operations for the Kansas Jayhawks.

During his career, he has also served as director of football operations at Kent State (2015-16), director of football operations at Michigan (2013-14), director of football operations at Kentucky (2011-13), director of football operations at Northwestern (2005-11), director of football operations at Princeton (2004-05) and director of football operations/GA at Eastern Kentucky (2003-04).

Jones was a finalist for FootballScoop's 2012 Director of Football Operations of the Year award while at Kentucky. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sport administration from Eastern Kentucky University.

Jones and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Brycen and Parker, and a daughter, Lauren.

THOMAS GUERRY

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL/G.M.
ALMA MATER: MISSISSIPPI STATE, 2008

Thomas Guerry joined head coach Shawn Clark's staff as director of player personnel and general manager in January 2023. He oversees App State Football's recruiting operations among other duties.

Having worked in the ACC or SEC since 2005, Guerry joined Georgia Tech's staff as an associate director of player personnel in 2019 and was promoted to director of player personnel in 2022.

A native of Canton, Miss., Guerry has worked at Mississippi State, Georgia, Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech over the previous 17 years. He went to Georgia Tech in 2019 following five seasons as Virginia Tech's director of recruiting operations (2014-18).

Prior to Virginia Tech, Guerry spent four seasons at Georgia, working in football operations in 2010 before serving as a football recruiting assistant from 2011-13.

Guerry attended Mississippi State, where he earned a degree in business administration in 2008 and an MBA with a minor in sport administration in 2010. From 2005-10, he worked within Mississippi State's athletic department.

Guerry and his wife, Amanda, have one son, Ayden, and a dog, Georgia Lane.

GAME 1						FINAL
North Carolina	7	21	13	22	—	63

Sept. 3 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 40,168 (Stadium Record)

GAME NOTES

The attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was a stadium-record 40,168. That surpassed the previous record of 35,126 fans at the 2017 Wake Forest game.

App State outscored North Carolina 40-22 in the fourth quarter as the Mountaineers nearly came back to win after being down 20 at the start of the frame. The Mountaineers became the first team in at least 15 years to score 40 fourth-quarter points, according to ESPN's Adam Rittenberg, who also noted that the 62 combined fourth-quarter points were one shy of the FBS record.

The 124 combined points were the most in a game in program history and the first time two teams scored 60+ points since 2019 (UCLA-Washington State).

App State's 61 points were its most ever in a losing effort and tied for the 14th-most in a game in school history, win or lose. According to ESPN Stats & Info, App State's 61 points are tied for sixth-most in a regulation loss in the AP poll era (since 1936).

According to The Athletic's Matt Brown, this was the first 63-61 final score in college football history.

App State's offense racked up 38 first downs, 649 total yards, 288 rushing and 361 passing in offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay's Mountaineer debut. It was the most total yards by App State since racking up 692 against Gardner-Webb in 2018.

Chase Brice threw for a career-high 361 yards on 25-of-36 completions and tossed a school-record six touchdown passes to six different receivers. The previous record of five was achieved six times by five different QBs.

Brice engineered a fourth-quarter comeback that was nearly one for the ages, directing six touchdown drives including four that ended with a Brice pass into the end zone.

Record Crowd Sees High-Scoring Thriller Vs. UNC

BOONE, N.C. — With a stadium-record 40,168 fans packing Kidd Brewer Stadium, UNC's defense survived App State's go-ahead two-point try with 31 seconds left and a game-tying two-point attempt with nine seconds remaining to escape its first visit to Boone with a 63-61 victory.

Yes, there were three touchdowns scored in the last 31 seconds, putting the finishing touches on a fourth-quarter in which App State fought back from a 41-21 deficit by scoring 40 points.

Chase Brice threw a school-record six TD passes en route to a career-high 361 passing yards. Defensively, Nick Hampton had 2.5 sacks.

App State came back to tie the score at 49-all on Cam Peoples' 38-yard touchdown run with four minutes remaining. UNC moved back ahead with 2:50 remaining, but Brice hit Dashaun Davis for a 28-yard touchdown with 31 seconds left. The Mountaineers went for a go-ahead two-point conversion, but Brice and Davis weren't able to connect on a pass.

Bryson Nesbit returned the onside kick for a 43-yard TD, but that gave App State one more chance with the score 63-55. Milan Tucker's 47-yard kick return to the UNC 48 and Brice's 22-yard completion to Kaedin Robinson set up another Brice-to-Robinson connection, this one a 26-yard TD with nine seconds left. The Tar Heels took away Brice's throwing options and stopped him short on the two-point try.

#6 Texas A&M	0	7	7	0	— 14

Sept. 10 - Kyle Field - Bryan-College Station, Texas - 92,664

GAME NOTES

App State secured its third ever win over a top-25 ranked FBS opponent and its second in as many seasons. The other wins were the historic 34-32 upset at No. 5 Michigan in 2007 and last year's 30-27 home win over No. 14 Coastal Carolina.

Last 5 games vs. AP top-10 teams:

2021 - App State 17, at #6 Texas A&M 14
2018 - at #9 Penn St. 45, App State 38 (OT)
2016 - at #9 Tenn. 20, App State 13 (OT)
2008 - at #7 LSU 41, App State 13
2007 - App State 34, at #5 Michigan 32

Shawn Clark is the first App State coach with two wins over top-25 FBS opponents.

This was the Mountaineers' second straight win over an SEC opponent after winning 20-15 at South Carolina in 2019.

App State is now 4-0 all-time in games played in Texas (3-0 vs. Texas State, 1-0 vs. Texas A&M).

App State's last seven games against Power Five teams have all been decided by seven points or less, with three wins and four defeats.

App State improved to 80-20 in its last 100 games.

App State's 32 road wins since 2014 are third most nationally in that span behind Boise State (34) and Clemson (33).

App State won despite not having starting outside linebacker Brendan Harrington or co-starting running back Nate Noel due to injuries. Trey Cobb, another starting linebacker, missed most of the second half after going down with an injury, meaning redshirt freshman Caden Sullivan played a huge role in what was essentially his defensive debut for the Mountaineers.

Taking over Cobb's normal spot, Logan Doublin made his first career start (in career game No. 40) and had a TFL.

App State Takes Down No. 6 Texas A&M On ESPN2

BRYAN-COLLEGE STATION, Texas — Howdy from College Station, where App State once again seized the national spotlight.

With its latest signature win, there was reason to celebrate all the way back to the High Country.

And guess what? ESPN's College GameDay decided to join the party, announcing it will be in Boone instead of College Station on Sept. 17.

App State scored TDs after both turnovers forced by its defense, Michael Hughes kicked a tiebreaking field goal with 8:05 left and the Mountaineers finished strong to complete a 17-14 win against No. 6 Texas A&M in front of 92,664 fans at Kyle Field on a steamy Saturday.

Jalen McLeod forced two fumbles on the same play and recorded a sack to lead a stingy defense, which limited the Aggies to only two plays in App State territory over the first 52 minutes. Texas A&M totaled nine first downs and 186 yards of offense as the Mountaineers possessed the ball for 41:29 of the game's 60 minutes.

It was App State's first victory against an AP Top 10 opponent since the 34-32 victory at No. 5 Michigan in 2007.

"The key was belief," App State head coach Shawn Clark said. "You have to believe in yourself and believe in this program."

This one, with the familiar greetings of "Howdy" in Aggieland and the organized chants from the 12th Man, ended with loud App State cheers.

Hughes capped a 16-play march that covered 9 minutes, 15 seconds with his first career field goal, a 29-yard kick, to give App State a 17-14 lead midway through the fourth quarter. The Aggies (1-1) moved into scoring range but missed a 47-yard field goal with 3:43 remaining.

The offensive line went to work after that, paving the way for a clock-draining drive that included three straight Camerun Peoples runs to move the chains and then Peoples' 48-yard run to the Texas A&M 12 with 1:36 left. From there, Chase Brice was able to kneel out the win.

DeAndre Dingle-Prince's first-half recovery of McLeod's two-fumble sequence led to Ahmani Marshall's short touchdown run, and Nick Hampton's recovery of a fumble forced by Dexter Lawson Jr. set up Brice's third-quarter touchdown pass to tight end Henry Pearson.

Troy	7	14	0	7	—	28
APP STATE	7	7	10	8	—	32

Sept. 17 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 34,406

GAME NOTES

The attendance of 34,406 for Troy's visit ranked as the fourth-biggest crowd in KBS history and the top crowd for a non-ACC foe. It was the biggest crowd to see an App State win at The Rock.

ESPN's College GameDay has averaged more than 2 million viewers per weekend in 2022. The video content available on the @AppState_FB Twitter feed over four days from the start of Thursday through the end of Sunday generated nearly 7 million views.

The actual name of the final play? "Big Ben" — similar to a 63-yard Hail Mary that Florida used to beat Tennessee in 2017, when App State offensive coordinator Kevin Barbay was the Gators' director of player development.

An already fired-up crowd had more reasons to cheer when Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass on the first play from scrimmage, giving App State possession at the Troy 38. Dashaun Davis later took a handoff from Chase Brice and threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to fellow receiver Christian Wells.

App State recorded three first-quarter sacks, with solo efforts from Tyler Bird and KeSean Brown being followed by a combo deal from Nick Hampton and Hansky Paillant.

Chase Brice's 18-yard touchdown pass to running back Anderson Castle to tie the game late in the second quarter was Castle's first career catch.

App State won its eighth straight Sun Belt opener in its ninth season as a member of the conference.

App State was the 77th different school to host ESPN's College GameDay, and Yosef was Lee Corso's 387th headgear pick. It represented the 66th different school headgear he has worn.

App State improved to 43-8 at home since the 2014 transition.

Hail Mary Win Caps Day With ESPN GameDay Debut

BOONE, N.C. — An unforgettable Saturday at App State began with ESPN College GameDay's first visit to Boone. It then delivered a second unbelievable, historic ending at The Rock.

Call it the Miracle on the Mountain: Part 2.

Chase Brice's 53-yard, Hail Mary touchdown pass to Christian Horn — with help from 6-foot-4 teammate Dalton Stroman's crowded tip at the 5-yard line and Kaedin Robinson's sealing block after Horn made a circling catch of the tip at the 8 — gave App State a thrilling 32-28 win against Troy in their Sun Belt Conference opener.

"Wow. I'm thankful for a win and proud of our players for playing 60 minutes," App State coach Shawn Clark said. "That's what our program is built upon — never giving up. I think God's a Mountaineer today."

Twenty years after winning the original "Miracle on the Mountain" game, App State (2-1) pulled off another shocker. Just like country music star Luke Combs and Lee Corso had predicted seven hours earlier, with Corso wearing Yosef headgear to close GameDay's appearance in a packed Sanford Mall, App State did indeed beat Troy.

No one expected it to happen like that.

"It was a surreal moment," Horn said. "I'm still in awe, honestly."

"I threw it, and I'm looking. I'm praying," Brice said. "I see the tip, and Christian, I see him come across, catches it in his breadbasket and I'm like, 'Nobody's there. Nobody's there.'"

Brice's incompletion on a fourth-and-goal pass from the 2 gave Troy (1-2) possession with 1:13 left and a 28-24 lead. After three plays — and two final timeouts used by App State — the Trojans took a fourth-down safety on purpose instead of punting from the end zone, leaving App State with just 20 seconds left. Troy executed a squibbed kickoff that Ahmani Marshall returned 13 yards to the App State 47.

GAME NOTES

With App State looking to build on a 28-10 lead, JMU made stop on a fourth-and-2 run from the Dukes' 27 to open the second half, then scored touchdowns with 1:19 left in the third quarter, 11:28 remaining in the game and 10:36 left.

Less than five minutes remained in the third quarter when App State punted with an 18-point lead, and KeSean Brown fell on a muffed punt, but officials ruled kick-catch interference after a JMU blocker hit an App State coverage player close to the punt returner, causing both players to make contact with the returner.

Attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 33,248, the fifth-largest crowd in stadium history and third-largest over the first three home games 2022.

The App State defense allowed JMU to convert just two of its 14 third-down chances, but the Dukes managed to convert three of their six attempts on fourth down.

Five running backs saw action on the offense's opening drive, but Camerun Peoples totaled only four carries before leaving the game for good in the first half and Nate Noel had only six carries (just one after halftime).

Daetrich Harrington made his first start at running back since Nov. 7, 2020 at Texas State — the day he tore the ACL in his right knee for the second time.

Nine different receivers caught a pass from Brice, the fourth time in four games this year that at least nine receivers have caught a pass for the Mountaineers.

App State suffered a second home loss in the same season for the first time since the 2014 season.

App State Falls Short in Another Nailbiter with JMU

BOONE, N.C. — App State played yet another nailbiting game, falling 32-28 to James Madison in front of another above-capacity, sellout crowd at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Each of the Mountaineers' first four games in 2022 have been decided by four points or less, with 13 points being the combined separation.

App State (2-2, 1-1 Sun Belt) built a 28-3 lead, scoring all of its points with four touchdowns during a stretch of 7:35 during the second quarter. It led 28-10 at the break before the Dukes (3-0, 1-0) scored 22 points over the final 16 minutes, 19 seconds in their first Sun Belt Conference game.

After linebacker Trey Cobb made a fourth-and-1 stop for a 1-yard loss back to the App State 10 with 2:06 remaining, the Mountaineers advanced to their 42, with Chase Brice's 23-yard completion to Christian Horn getting them out from the shadow of their own end zone.

The Dukes were able to run out the clock after breaking up a fourth-and-9 pass in the final minute. A crowd of 33,248 was on hand to witness the first FBS meeting between App State and JMU, which had a history of memorable games when both tradition-rich programs were FCS powers.

Nick Hampton recorded two sacks and forced a fumble for an App State defense that created two key takeaways. Cobb made a team-high nine stops and recovered a fumble forced by Deshawn McKnight.

App State's four touchdowns followed a three-and-out JMU punt, McKnight's forced fumble on a run play in JMU territory, a fourth-and-4 stop inside App State's 35 and Hampton's strip sack in JMU territory. The Mountaineers capitalized with Camerun Peoples' 2-yard touchdown run, Miller Gibbs' 10-yard touchdown catch, Dalton Stroman's 27-yard touchdown catch for his first career score and Nate Noel's 5-yard touchdown run.

GAME NOTES

It was App State's first home shutout since the 2015 opener against Howard (also 49-0) and the Mountaineers' seventh shutout since making the FBS climb in 2014. In addition to the three games noted so far, the other shutouts were 66-0 against Campbell (2014), 44-0 against Georgia State (2014), 49-0 against ODU (2015) and 24-0 against Louisiana (2016).

The only teams with more shutouts since App State made the FBS climb are Alabama (12), Georgia (11), Wisconsin (10) and Clemson (8).

The Mountaineers have won their last seven contests against FCS opponents, dating back to 2015.

Running back Anderson Castle made his first career start as part of a package that also included Camerun Peoples.

Quarterback Brady McBride, linebacker Trevor Moffitt, wide receiver Jacoby Pinckney, running back Kanye Roberts and offensive lineman Markell Samuel saw their first career action for App State.

In Dale Jones' seven-plus FBS seasons as a defensive coach at App State, the Mountaineers have 48 games allowing 17 points or less and 23 games allowing single-digit points.

True freshman Kanye Roberts, in his collegiate debut, ran seven times for 70 yards and his first career touchdown, all in the fourth quarter.

Kanye Roberts' touchdown was set up by a diving, one-handed catch from Michael Hetzel on a 22-yard throw from Brady McBride.

Camerun Peoples scored the longest touchdown of his career — his only longer carry was a 76-yard, non-scoring run in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Big-Play Mountaineers Shut Out Bulldogs in Boone

BOONE, N.C. — Dexter Lawson Jr. made a diving interception in the end zone to keep The Citadel from scoring on an 11-minute drive, and Chase Brice threw an 80-yard TD pass to Christian Horn on the next play.

App State didn't need much time to do its offensive damage — that touchdown was the Mountaineers' only third-quarter snap — and the defense held the Bulldogs' clock-chewing option offense in check throughout the Family Weekend home game at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

That combination contributed to a 49-0 shutout for the Mountaineers, who posted a one-sided win to follow an opening month in which all four games were decided by four points or less.

"It's been four tough weeks — four emotional weeks — and our program needed that. Our players needed that," coach Shawn Clark said. "I'm very pleased with how we came out and executed in all three phases. Any time you get a shutout in college football, that's huge."

KeSean Brown had 10 tackles, two tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a sack in App State's first shutout since the 34-0 victory against Toledo in the 2017 Dollar General Bowl and first home shutout since 2015. Nick Ross added nine stops and a forced fumble.

Going into the final drive of the first half, App State (3-2) had a 359-20 advantage in total yards, with five of The Citadel's first six possessions resulting in three-and-out stops. The Mountaineers finished with a 545-223 yardage advantage and made nine tackles for loss, including the first career sack from true freshman Donovan Spellman.

Accounting for five touchdowns, Brice completed 12 of his 18 pass attempts for 265 yards and four touchdowns, with Horn scoring twice on three receptions that totaled 132 yards. Camerun Peoples had a 73-yard touchdown to highlight a four-carry, 102-yard outing in front of a crowd of 30,789. With heavy rains and wind from Hurricane Ian not affecting Boone as much as initially expected, it was mostly an overcast day with occasional mist at The Rock.

FINAL

APP STATE	0	3	7	14	—	24
Texas State	7	17	9	3	—	36

Oct. 8 - Bobcat Stadium - San Marcos, Texas - 25,613

GAME NOTES

At 3-3, App State has three losses through six games for the first time since starting 1-5 in 2014, its first season as an FBS member of the Sun Belt Conference.

The Mountaineers have lost two of their first three Sun Belt games for the first time since 2014.

App State lost to Texas State for the first time in seven meetings. The Mountaineers also dropped a game in the state of Texas for the first time. The program had been 3-0 in San Marcos and 1-0 in College Station (this year's win at Texas A&M).

App State is now 0-2 this season when it loses the turnover battle.

Freshman DB Ethan Johnson made his first career start but left the game with an injury suffered on the fourth play.

App State played without starting running back Camerun Peoples and starting wide receiver Christian Wells. Starting outside linebacker Brendan Harrington is out for the season, and starting inside linebacker Trey Cobb did not play in the second half after a first-half injury. Starting wide receiver Kaedin Robinson also left the game with an injury.

Chase Brice amassed a career-high 395 passing yards with a career-high 40 completions on a career-high 53 attempts. He threw three touchdowns and one interception. It was the most passing yards in a game by a Mountaineer since Taylor Lamb's 427 against Coastal Carolina in 2017.

Brice tied the program record for completions in a game, matching the 40 by Richie Williams in a 2004 game against Furman. Brice's 53 attempts were the fourth-highest total in App State history and the most by an App State QB since DeAndre Presley had 56 against Villanova in 2010.

Mountaineers Suffer First Loss in Lone Star State

SAN MARCOS, Texas — App State's second trip to the Lone Star State resulted in a 36-24 loss at Texas State in front of the Bobcats' biggest home crowd for a Sun Belt game.

Henry Pearson caught two second-half touchdown passes from Chase Brice, helping the Mountaineers pull within 15 points early in the fourth quarter, but the rally stalled after a fourth-and-14 pass from the Texas State 39 fell incomplete midway through the final period. The Bobcats kicked a 37-yard field goal with 5:08 left to increase their margin to a three-score lead, and App State's fourth-down completion inside the Texas State 10 in the closing minutes didn't produce a first down.

The game ended with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Brice to Dalton Stroman. It was the Mountaineers' first-ever loss to Texas State.

Brice tied a school record by completing 40 passes (on 53 attempts) for a career-high 395 yards, and Pearson made four catches for 43 yards. Stroman also had a 55-yard reception to set up a touchdown as part of his five-catch, 104-yard performance.

Defensively, Dexter Lawson Jr. intercepted a pass in the end zone to end the first drive of the game, but Texas State (3-3, 1-1) controlled the rest of the opening half. Andrew Parker and Caden Sullivan recorded sacks, while Logan Doublin led the team with a career-high 11 stops.

Texas State limited App State, which played without Camerun Peoples, to 41 rushing yards on 21 attempts. The Mountaineers committed 12 penalties for 105 yards.

App State trailed 24-0 before ending the half with a 30-yard field goal.

Looking to trim its deficit to 24-10 after receiving the third-quarter kickoff, App State moved inside the Texas State 15, but the Bobcats intercepted a fourth-and-4 pass from the 12 and Tory Spears scored on the 94-yard interception return.

FINAL

Georgia State	14	0	0	3	—	17

Oct. 19 (Wednesday) - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 31,757

GAME NOTES

App State improved its record against Georgia State to 9-0 and its record in all games against Sun Belt teams since the 2014 transition to 58-13.

After being down 14-0 early, App State went on a 42-3 run. It was a similar result to other recent games against the Panthers. In 2021, App State turned a 14-9 third-quarter lead into a 45-16 victory with 31 straight points before a late Georgia State score. In 2019, after going down 21-7, the Mountaineers rattled off 49 unanswered points on their way to a 56-27 road win.

The Wednesday night attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 31,757, the sixth-largest crowd in stadium history and the largest regular-season crowd for a college football game on a Tuesday/Wednesday since 2011 (eclipsing last year's crowd for the Coastal Carolina game).

The Mountaineers improved to 16-2 all-time in games aired by ESPN2.

Offensive lineman Bucky Williams made his first career start (right guard) with Isaiah Helms moving from right guard to center.

Milan Tucker's only kick return was a career-best 63-yarder that set up a 30-yard touchdown drive to make the score 35-17.

The team's 404 rushing yards were its most in a game since racking up 500 against North Texas in the 2020 Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Cameron Peoples scored twice. His 33 career touchdowns moved him into a tie for seventh in App State history with Jalin Moore (2015-18).

In his 60th game, Tyler Bird snagged his first career interception, a turnover that led to the Mountaineers' fourth straight unanswered touchdown drive.

App State Dominates Final Three Quarters In Victory

BOONE, N.C. — Stood up several yards short of the end zone, Cameron Peoples said one thought entered his mind.

"All I need is a little bit of a push," he recalled.

App State center Isaiah Helms delivered one. So did tight end Miller Gibbs. Before long, Peoples was falling forward into the end zone for a statement-making, line-in-the-sand touchdown.

Chilly conditions and an even colder start didn't stop App State from surging to a 42-17 home win against Georgia State in a midweek ESPN2 game. Using a physical running game and havoc-wreaking defense, the Mountaineers (4-3, 2-2) went on a 42-3 run after the Panthers (2-5, 1-3) scored on their first two possessions to claim a 14-0 lead.

Peoples returned from injury to rush for 168 yards and two touchdowns as the Mountaineers totaled 404 rushing yards with six touchdowns on a whopping 64 attempts — the program's highest total since a 66-rush, 469-yard running game against the same opponent in 2014.

Ahmani Marshall added a 37-yard touchdown, and Chase Brice scored on a pair of 1-yard keepers running behind a line of Helms, Cooper Hodges, Damion Daley, Bucky Williams and Anderson Hardy.

The pass-rushing success of Nick Hampton and Jalen McLeod contributed to four Georgia State turnovers, including Hansky Paillant's key recovery of a fumble forced by Hampton and Tyler Bird's first career interception following a QB hurry from McLeod. With App State still trailing 14-7 at the break, those two second-half takeaways preceded the Mountaineers' second and fourth touchdowns.

Only three of App State's 41 second-half plays were passes, and five backs rushed for at least 48 yards. Defensively, after Georgia State totaled 157 yards of offense on its first two drives, the Mountaineers limited the Panthers to 144 the rest of the way.

Logan Doublin contributed a career-high 12 tackle, and Kevon Haigler combined with Paillant for a sack. Kyle Arnholt forced a fumble on his first career sack before recovering a late fumble that he also forced.

Oct. 29 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 32,501

GAME NOTES

In 100 games since the start of the 2015 season, App State improved to 78-22.

The sellout attendance at Kidd Brewer Stadium was 32,501, the sixth-largest crowd in stadium history. Five of the top seven crowds in stadium history have occurred in 2022.

The Mountaineers have won their last eight contests against FCS opponents, dating back to 2015.

App State finished up the month with a 3-1 record in October.

Cornerback Milan Tucker made his first career start.

Twenty App State players, including 11 true freshmen, made their App State debuts: linebacker Cole Becker, linebacker Nate Blanton Jr., quarterback Ryan Burger, defensive back DJ Burks, running back Bradley Davis, cornerback James Edwards, linebacker Derrell Farrar, linebacker Brodrick Gooch, linebacker Colin Guentensberger, defensive back Andre Hamilton, tight end Kanen Hamlett, offensive lineman Sammy Henderson, defensive lineman Santana Hopper, wide receiver Reece Larson, linebacker Orlando Leon, offensive lineman Chris Lyle, defensive lineman Jamar Rucks, tight end Gerry Snyder, wide receiver Coen Sutton and defensive lineman Josiah Wyatt.

Chase Brice has five games at App State with four or more TD passes — the second-most in school history behind Taylor Lamb's six such performances.

In his collegiate debut, Ryan Burger completed 4 of 6 passes for 40 yards and rushed twice for 23 yards.

App State completed a pass to 12 different receivers, the seventh time in eight games this year that the Mountaineers have had at least nine different pass catchers.

App State Rolls in Homecoming Win Vs. Robert Morris

BOONE, N.C. — With App State alums returning to the High Country for Homecoming, several newcomers were able to make their debuts as the Mountaineers built a big lead in a 42-3 win over Robert Morris.

Chase Brice threw touchdown passes on four of his 17 completions while totaling 185 yards through the air for App State (5-3), and the offense finished with 512 yards, including 287 on the ground. The defense held the Colonials to just a second-quarter field goal and 148 total yards. By allowing just 70 passing yards, App State kept an opponent under 100 passing yards for the fourth time this season.

Unofficially, 83 players saw action for the Mountaineers, with 11 true freshmen being among the 20 players who made their debuts.

Nick Ross intercepted a pass on Robert Morris' second play and KeSean Brown had an early sack as App State's defense limited the Colonials to 17 offensive yards during the first quarter, but the Mountaineers held only a 7-3 lead going into the last five minutes of the half.

The first-quarter TD pass from Brice to Dashaun Davis was eventually followed by a 12-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Page on a jet sweep (for his first App State score) and a 19-yard touchdown pass to 6-foot-4 Dalton Stroman, who capped a 98-yard drive by outjumping a shorter defender to come down with the ball 13 seconds before the break.

Leading 21-3 at halftime, App State quickly stretched the margin, as tight end Miller Gibbs scored on a 9-yard touchdown pass and Anderson Castle followed a punt-forcing sack by Jalen McLeod with a 19-yard TD run. That score with 5:56 left in the third quarter ended Brice's day and set up the App State debut for true freshman quarterback Ryan Burger. On his second series, Burger led a nine-play, 61-yard drive that class-mate Kanye Roberts capped with a 1-yard touchdown run.

GAME NOTES

Grayson's McCall's deep pass in the final three minutes was part of a 9-for-15 effort on third down by the Chants' offense. Another key to the game was the Chants holding App State to 88 rushing yards on 27 attempts.

The Mountaineers have lost four regular-season games for the first time since 2017, a year they claimed a Sun Belt title and beat Toledo 34-0 in the Dollar General Bowl.

This is the first time App State has lost three Sun Belt games in a season.

Both of App State's Sun Belt road games have featured record crowds. Coastal Carolina set its attendance record with 21,224 fans, while Texas State set a record for its largest attendance in a Sun Belt Conference game (25,613).

Dalton Stroman caught his fourth touchdown of the year, tied for most on the team. Four of his 15 catches this season have been in the end zone.

Nick Hampton posted his seventh sack of the year. Jalen McLeod got his fifth sack of the year among career-high six total tackles and 1.5 TFLs, giving the two OLBs a combined 12 sacks.

Nick Hampton's 26.5 career sacks are fourth-most among active full-time FBS players and tied for fourth in school history with Demetrius Taylor (2017-21). Hampton also recovered a fumble for the second time this year.

Chase Brice's 46-yard pass to Kaedin Robinson to the Coastal 9 set up a 2-yard touchdown run from Daetrich Harrington in the first half.

App State ran only four plays in the third quarter (the four-and-out series with the fourth-down stop), and Coastal possessed the ball for 12:57 of the 15 minutes in that period.

App State Comeback Falls Short At Coastal Carolina

CONWAY, S.C. — App State went into the second half and then the closing minutes with chances to rally, but Coastal Carolina survived a furious finish from the Mountaineers to claim a 35-28 victory.

With App State trailing 35-14 early in the fourth, Chase Brice threw a 42-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Page with 11:02 left and followed a Nick Hampton fumble recovery with a 5-yard touchdown on a quarterback keeper with 3:01 remaining.

Starting the next defensive series with all three timeouts at their disposal, the Mountaineers (5-4, 2-3) put Coastal into a third-and-11 scenario from its 24 with 2:53 left. Grayson McCall's 47-yard completion to Jared Brown enabled the Chanticleers (7-1, 5-1) to run out the clock.

Brice completed 19 of 28 passes for 279 yards and two touchdowns, with Dalton Stroman making a highlight-reel, sliding, one-handed touchdown catch of 41 yards to help the Mountaineers trail only 21-14 entering halftime in front of a stadium-record 21,224 fans.

Hampton recorded a sack before making his big recovery with 4:57 left, and Jalen McLeod added a sack of his own. Tyler Bird had 11 stops.

With App State behind 21-14 to open the third quarter, Coastal mishandled the kickoff out of bounds at the 8-yard line. The Chanticleers converted third-down scenarios requiring gains of 12, 8 and 10 yards in a 15-play march that chewed up 8 minutes, 36 seconds, but Steven Jones Jr.'s big hit for a 4-yard loss on a third-and-2 option pitch preceded a fourth-down incompleteness from the App State 33.

The Mountaineers weren't able to drive for the tying touchdown. A third-and-1 rush lost a yard back to the App State 41, and Coastal stuffed the fourth-and-2 run.

The Chants extended their lead on an 8-yard TD reception by Jacob Jenkins, then took advantage of a hit on Brice to pick off a pass at the App State 45 and return the ball to the 1-yard line. Reese White's TD run from the 2 gave Coastal a 35-14 lead early in the fourth quarter.

GAME NOTES

Marshall had a third-and-9 conversion and a third-and-10 conversion on its first drive. On its second scoring drive, a bubble screen on a third-and-18 pass from the Thundering Herd's 12 turned into a 71-yard gain.

Chase Brice had a short fourth-and-2 pass intended for Henry Pearson on the Marshall 28 knocked down early in the second quarter, but the Mountaineers quickly regained possession when Logan Doublin came down with his first career interception on a throw tipped by Jalen McLeod. Marshall intercepted a deep throw to the end zone on the next play.

The Mountaineers had momentum on their side as they received the opening kickoff of the third quarter. A short kick toward the sideline was fumbled away, allowing the Thundering Herd to take over at the App State 30, but Steven Jones Jr.'s first-down sack for a 16-yard loss on a trick play led to a punt.

Milan Tucker's 96-yard kickoff return marked the fifth straight season that App State has returned at least one kickoff for a touchdown.

App State's all-time record against Marshall fell to 15-10. The teams have won on their home fields in each of the last three meetings.

The Mountaineers have lost five regular-season games for the first time since 2014, the program's first year in the Sun Belt Conference.

It's the first time App State has lost back-to-back regular-season games since 2017 (at UMass, at ULM).

Daetrich Harrington punched in a fourth-down touchdown one play after taking a screen pass 26 yards on third-and-goal from the 27-yard line.

App State's road record since transitioning to the FBS in 2014 fell to 32-19.

Mountaineers Unable To Rally Past Host Marshall

HUNTINGTON, W.Va. — The first Sun Belt Conference game between longtime rivals App State and Marshall went down to the wire, like so many of their past meetings did, and the Thundering Herd held off the Mountaineers to claim a 28-21 win.

Marshall (6-4, 3-3) scored on the game's opening drive, and App State (5-5, 2-4) was never able to pull even at Edwards Stadium. The Mountaineers lost by a touchdown on the road for the second straight game, giving App State four losses by seven points or less this season.

Daetrich Harrington (fourth-and-goal touchdown run immediately after a third-and-goal catch for a gain of 26 yards late in the first half) and Milan Tucker (96-yard kickoff return immediately after Marshall blocked a third-quarter punt for a touchdown) produced big plays to cut 14-point deficits in half.

Chase Brice threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Henry Pearson on the first play of the fourth quarter to trim the deficit to 28-21, and two final drives into Marshall territory ended with fourth-down stops.

A fourth-and-1 stop at the App State 34 from Deshawn McKnight and Logan Doublin gave the Mountaineers possession with 12:32 left. They reached the Marshall 13 before the Thundering Herd stuffed a fourth-and-1 play for a loss with 5:11 remaining.

A third-and-3 stop by Jalen McLeod and Jordon Earle forced one last Marshall punt to the App State 25 with less than three minutes left. Brice's fourth-and-3 completion to Dalton Stroman for 5 yards to the App State 37 and Brice's third-and-10 pass to Christian Horn for 13 yards moved the Mountaineers past midfield, but three straight incompletions after a first-down sack sealed the outcome.

Doublin had 13 tackles and one interception to lead App State's defense. Tyler Bird made a key recovery of a muffed punt to give App State a short field in advance of its first touchdown, and Steven Jones Jr. followed a special teams miscue to open the second half with a sack that prevented further damage. In addition to his first career touchdown, Tucker downed two Clayton Howell punts inside the 5.

Nov. 19 - Kidd Brewer Stadium - Boone, N.C. - 32,096

GAME NOTES

App State won on Senior Day at Kidd Brewer Stadium for the 24th time in the last 25 years.

App State improved to 3-0 all-time against ODU and 1-0 as conference opponents.

The Mountaineers have a 59-15 record against Sun Belt teams since joining the league in 2014, including a 33-5 record in home games against Sun Belt foes.

Since 2014, App State has a home record of 48-9.

Offensive tackle Cooper Hodges made his 50th career start – all consecutive – as the Mountaineers' right tackle.

Defensive lineman KaRon White made his first career start as the nose tackle.

App State totaled 498 yards of offense, including 291 through the air and 207 on the ground. It was the most total yards against a Sun Belt foe this year and the fifth time over 200 rushing yards this season.

For the fifth time this season, App State held the opposing offense to two touchdowns or less.

Against ODU's pass-heavy attack, Steven Jones Jr. piled up a career-high six pass breakups, while making two solo tackles and a TFL. His six PBUs are believed to be a single-game school record.

Nick Ross led the team in tackles with 11, one shy of his career high.

Markus Clark and Caden Sullivan both forced a fumble for the first time in their careers, while Hansky Paillant recovered one for the second time in his career.

Michael Hughes had his first field goal attempts and makes since Oct. 8 at Texas State, going 2-for-2 including a career-long 40-yarder.

Mountaineers Post Dominant Win on Senior Day

BOONE, N.C. — App State took a shutout into the closing minutes of a dominant Senior Day win.

After honoring 28 players prior to kickoff of the home finale at Kidd Brewer Stadium, the Mountaineers jumped out to an early lead and were in control throughout a 27-14 victory against Sun Belt Conference newcomer Old Dominion.

Needing seven regular-season victories to reach bowl eligibility, App State (6-5, 3-4) took a 24-0 lead into halftime against the Monarchs (3-8, 2-5) and was ahead 27-0 midway through the fourth quarter before ODU scored twice in the final 7:05.

A crowd of 32,096 meant App State had an attendance of better than 30,000 for all seven home games, producing an average of 33,566 that set single-season Sun Belt and school records. The Mountaineers broke the previous league/program records of 30,441 they had established in 2021.

In his final game at The Rock, Chase Brice completed 15 of 22 passes for 291 yards with long touchdowns to Kaedin Robinson and Christian Wells. Robinson gained 90 yards on his three receptions, and Ahmani Marshall led the running game with a career-best 137 yards and a touchdown on 19 attempts.

Defensively, sixth-year senior Steven Jones Jr. matched his jersey number by breaking up six passes. Jalen McLeod and Caden Sullivan recorded sacks, with Donovan Spellman and Kevon Haigler sharing one.

The pregame Senior Day ceremony involved five sixth-year college players, including Brice, who was set to be one of four game day captains before he asked that his spot go to tight end Henry Pearson. Brice transferred in before the 2021 season, and Pearson has been an impactful player since he arrived as a true freshman in 2018.

Just like in the only other home meeting against ODU in 2016, when Taylor Lamb hit Jaquil Capel for a 40-yard gain on a deep pass on App State's first offensive play, Brice found Robinson open on a deep throw for a 57-yard gain to the 33 on the Mountaineers' first offensive snap.

GAME NOTES

The Mountaineers were attempting to improve to 3-0 against Georgia Southern under head coach Shawn Clark and win two straight games in Statesboro for just the second time. The highest-scoring game in series history, before Saturday, was App State's 37-36 road win in 2008, two years after the Mountaineers won an overtime game in Paulson Stadium.

App State's series lead over Georgia Southern dropped to 21-16-1 overall and 5-4 as FBS opponents.

This was the team's first overtime game since a 45-38 loss at No. 9 Penn State to open the 2018 season.

The Mountaineers' FBS record streak of advancing to a bowl in their first seven years eligible ended.

App State's nation-best streak of 37 straight years with a league record of .500 or better ended. Clemson and Boise State share the next-longest streak among current FBS teams at 23 in a row.

In addition to another big game in Statesboro from Nate Noel, who has rushed for 274 yards and four touchdowns on 25 carries in two career games at Paulson Stadium Ahmani Marshall rushed for 91 yards on 20 carries and Daetrich Harrington had 74 yards on nine attempts. Marshall and Harrington each scored one touchdown apiece.

Michael Hughes made a career-high four field goals and went 50-for-50 on extra points for the season.

App State's defense forced two turnovers. Andrew Parker made a team-high eight stops and forced an early fumble that DeAndre Dingle-Prince recovered, and Logan Doublin came up with a fourth-quarter interception for his second career pick.

App State Drops Two-OT Heartbreaker In Finale

STATESBORO, Ga. — The highest-scoring game in App State-Georgia Southern series history was also one of the most dramatic with three second-half ties and eight total lead changes.

The final play, a 25-yard touchdown pass in the second overtime, gave the Eagles a 51-48 win on a rainy night at Paulson Stadium.

Nate Noel rushed 12 times for 171 yards and three touchdowns, including a 25-yard touchdown that helped tie the game in the first overtime, as the Mountaineers totaled 376 yards on the ground. After Michael Hughes hit the extra point and added a 33-yard field goal to cap App State's possession that opened the second overtime, Kyle Vantrease threw a second-and-10 pass to Ezra Archie in the end zone.

App State (6-6, 3-5) went ahead 38-31 on Ahmani Marshall's 2-yard TD run with 13:03 left in the fourth quarter, and Vantrease's 3-yard TD run helped tie the game with 4:22 left. The Mountaineers moved downfield thanks to Noel's 33-yard reception to the Georgia Southern 35 and reached the 26 before a fourth-and-1 run was stopped for no gain with 1:40 left.

The Eagles (6-6, 3-5) had to punt, and the Mountaineers took over at their 28 with 41 seconds left — and three timeouts remaining.

Noel's 12-yard run and Chase Brice's 45-yard pass to Christian Horn, who caught the ball at Georgia Southern's 30 before sprinting 15 yards down the right sideline, put the Mountaineers in potential scoring range. A rush of 3 yards to the 12 set up a 30-yard kick from the left hashmark with three seconds left, and the attempt started inside the left post before sailing just wide as regulation time expired.

Jason Hunter (97) forced Furman QB Ingle Martin to fumble in the final minute of the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA national semifinal between App State and Furman. Omarr Byrom (95) recovered to seal App State's 29-23 victory and a trip to the program's first national championship game.

In one of the signature plays of his illustrious career and the storied App State-Georgia Southern rivalry, Armanti Edwards soared into the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line with 2:36 remaining to provide the winning points in App State's 37-36 win at Georgia Southern in 2008.

In a 28-27 home playoff win against James Madison to start the 2007 FCS title run, Jacque Roman (40) used his right hand to force a fumble after JMU, needing just a field goal, had moved inside the Mountaineers' 10-yard line in the final minute.

Nick Ross scored a tiebreaking touchdown when he returned a second-quarter interception 20 yards to the end zone in App State's 20-15 victory at South Carolina in 2019. The Mountaineers beat UNC and South Carolina on the road that year.

NCAA STATISTICAL POLICY

Before 2002, postseason games were not included in NCAA final football statistics or records. Despite the NCAA policy, App State previously recognized statistics from all games — regular season and postseason — in its single-season and career records. However, in order to maintain consistency with NCAA records, beginning in 2006, App State readjusted its single-season and career records, eliminating statistics compiled in 19 NCAA Division I-AA playoff games played before 2002. Many thanks to former associate sports information director Ty Patton for his assistance in this task.

GAMES PLAYED

Before COVID extended careers in 2021, no one had played in more college football games than LB Pierre Banks (right). Banks set an NCAA record by playing in 62 games during his career (2004-08). He played in three games as a true freshman before suffering an injury and receiving a medical redshirt. He played in all 59 games from 2005-08. App State's Thomas Hennigan, Caleb Spurlin and Xavier Subotsch played in 66 games from 2017-21.

Noah Hannon and Thomas Hennigan

NOTING APP STATE IN THE POSTSEASON

- App State was the first program to ever win three consecutive NCAA Division I FCS/Division I-AA national championships and remains one of only two programs to accomplish the feat.
- Only eight programs in NCAA football history boast three straight national titles, regardless of division. App State became the first Division I program (FCS or FBS) to accomplish the feat in 61 years when it won its third consecutive title in 2007.

NCAA PROGRAMS WITH THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Team (Division)	Years
Minnesota (I)	1934-36
Army (I)	1944-46
Augustana (III)	1983-86
North Alabama (II)	1993-95
Mount Union (III)	1996-98; 2000-02
App State (I-AA/FCS)	2005-07
Wisconsin-Whitewater (III)	2009-11
North Dakota State (FCS)	2011-15, 2017-19

- App State is the only school from the state of North Carolina to ever win an NCAA football national championship and the only public institution in the state of North Carolina to win a national title on any level of college football (private institutions Lenoir-Rhyne and Elon have won NAIA national championships).

Without starting quarterback Richie Williams, who was out with a severe ankle injury in the first half, App State fell behind, 16-7.

Murrell's counterpart on the defensive line, Jason Hunter, scooped up the loose ball at the UNI 15.

With Williams back at the helm, the Mountaineers cut the deficit to 16-14 on Kevin Richardson's one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

Hunter galloped untouched into the end zone to give App State a 21-16 lead with 9:14 left to play, setting off a wild celebration on the App State sideline and among the 12,000-plus Mountaineer fans in the stands.

With under 10 minutes left to play, Northern Iowa quarterback Eric Sanders dropped back to pass from his own 25 yard line.

Murrell and Hunter combined for two more sacks down the stretch to squelch the Panthers' final scoring opportunities.

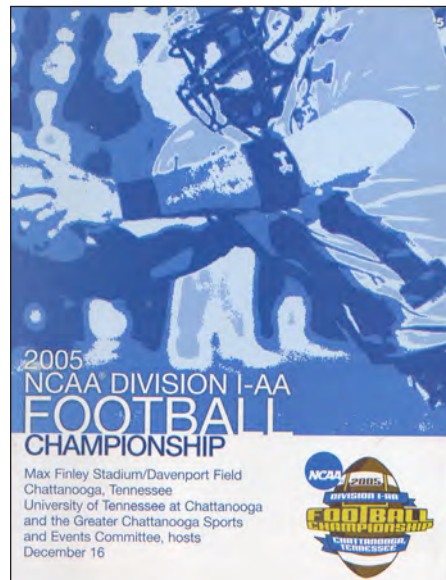

App State defensive end Marques Murrell came off the left edge to strip the ball from Sanders.

Richardson's first-down run in the waning minutes sealed App State's first-ever national championship.

"It just feels so good that I could do something to leave a legacy like that because it's part of history. I'm glad to be a part of that."

— 2005 NCAA Division I-AA Championship MVP Jason Hunter

App State 7 • UMass 7 1:15 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

Both teams moved the ball with relative ease in the first 10 minutes of the second quarter, but all they had to show for it were swapped punts and a UMass interception deep in App State territory. The Mountaineers got the ball for only the second time in the second period when they fielded a punt at their own 22 yard line with just over five minutes left to play in the opening half. On the first play of the series, Edwards connected with his favorite target, William Mayfield, for a 35-yard gain. From there, the Mountaineer trio of Richardson, Edwards and Devon Moore banged out the final 43 yards of the drive on the ground, capped by Richardson's six-yard scoring run off right tackle with 49 seconds to go before halftime. The Apps' 11-play, 78-yard drive took 4:19 off the clock and assured them of taking a seven-point lead into the locker room.

App State 14 • UMass 7 0:49 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

After UMass knotted the contest at 14-14 with an 11-play, 81-yard scoring drive, App State got the ball back on its own 29 with 4:12 left to play in the third quarter looking to put together a lengthy scoring drive of its own. Thanks in large part to Richardson, who amassed 48 of the Mountaineers' 71 yards on the possession, the Apps did just that, marching 71 yards in 13 plays. Richardson punctuated the scoring drive by powering four yards through the heart of the line and into the end zone for his 29th touchdown of the season, tying the NCAA Division I FCS record set by Colgate's Jamaal Branch in 16 games in 2003. More importantly, Richardson's third scoring run of the evening gave the Mountaineers a seven-point lead with 13:22 remaining in the ballgame.

App State 21 • UMass 14 13:22 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

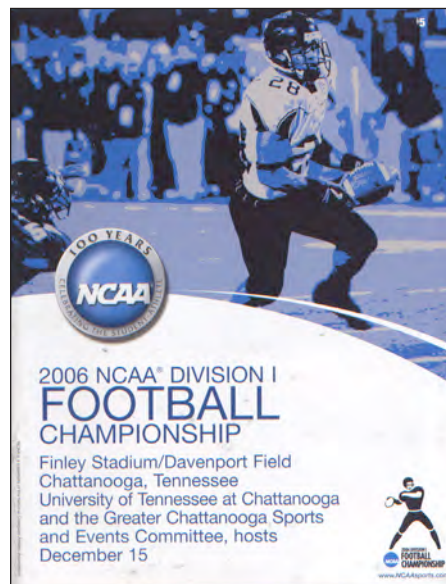

When UMass cut the Mountaineers' lead to 21-17 on a 42-yard Chris Koeplin field goal with 8:46 to go, App State head coach Jerry Moore told quarterbacks coach Scott Satterfield, "We've got to run eight minutes off that clock." Satterfield replied, "We've got to score." Moore agreed. "I didn't say don't score. But we need to run some time off the clock." Richardson, who ran 11 times for 48 of Appalachian's 80 yards on the drive, made sure the Apps accomplished both goals. In all, thanks to Richardson's running and a key third-down completion from Edwards to fellow freshman Josh Johnson, App State ran 6:46 off the clock on the victory-sealing drive, which culminated with Richardson's fourth touchdown of the evening. The two-yard dive was also Richardson's 30th TD of the season, setting a new NCAA Division I FCS single-season record. Following Richardson's score, UMass' last-ditch effort was thwarted when Corey Lynch picked off a Liam Coen pass with 42 seconds to play.

App State 28 • UMass 17 1:51 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

"Mission accomplished. We came out this year with the target on our back, but we stayed focused and we came out and we played our game right to the very end."

App State 7 • DELAWARE 0
10:47 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

Delaware appeared to grab its first momentum of the evening when future first-round draft pick Joe Flacco tossed a 39-yard touchdown to Mark Duncan with 1:10 remaining before halftime, seemingly cutting Appalachian's lead to two touchdowns heading into the locker room. However, just 26 seconds later, the Mountaineers took the momentum back for good when Edwards found Dexter Jackson for a 72-yard touchdown that extended the App State advantage back to 21 points. Delaware would get no closer the rest of the evening.

Unlike its first two trips to Chattanooga for the national championship game, App State wasted no time in getting on the board in the 2007 title tilt, as it forced Delaware to punt after a three-and-out on the opening possession then promptly marched 58 yards in just six plays to take a 7-0 lead. Buoyed by spectacular downfield blocking from his offensive lineman, Richardson took a screen pass from Armani Edwards and needed to beat just one UD defender at the goal line.

6:02 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

With Richardson and the majority of Appalachian's starters watching from the sideline, senior Trey Elder capped the rout with a 53-yard touchdown scamper that brought the Black and Gold contingent pouring out of the stands and onto the sidelines with more than three minutes still to play. In his last collegiate game, Richardson came up huge once again on FCS football's biggest stage, finishing with 145 total yards (118 rushing, 27 receiving) and three of Appalachian's nine touchdowns but the most memorable play of the evening was undoubtedly the touchdown run by Elder, who was Appalachian's starter behind center in the 2005 title-game victory over Northern Iowa but is best known for the selfishness that he displayed in backing up a pair of all-America signal-callers in Richie Williams and Armani Edwards during his four years in the Black and Gold.

However, the tide turned in the final 91 seconds of the half. On the first offensive play after Ohio's field goal, OU linebacker Quentin Poling picked off Lamb and returned the interception 20 yards for a touchdown to give the Bobcats a 10-7 lead. Things went from bad to worse five plays later when Lamb mishandled a snap and it was recovered by OU's Tony Porter at the App State 23 yard line. Two plays after the miscue, Ohio running back A.J. Ouellette rumbled in from seven yards out and, in the span of just 1:11, the Mountaineers' 7-0 lead had turned into a 17-7 halftime deficit.

0:20 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

App State's comeback began in earnest late in the third quarter when it started what would turn out to be an 11-play, 97-yard touchdown drive. The series was aided by an unnecessary roughness penalty on Ohio defensive back Toran Davis, who clocked wide-out Dante Jones several steps after Jones was overthrown by Lamb on a third-and-seven play from the App State 44 yard line. Six plays later, Lamb found junior tight end Barrett Burns for a 17-yard touchdown pass that cut the deficit to 24-14.

OHIO 29 • App State 28
1:47 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

The monstrous comeback seemed unlikely when the Mountaineers entered the final period facing a 17-point deficit but they quickly turned the tables, scoring three touchdowns in a 1:56 span and taking a 28-24 advantage barely three minutes into the quarter. After App State's three-touchdown flurry, it was Ohio's turn to rally, which it did with a safety and a 21-yard field goal to retake a 29-28 lead with 1:47 to go. However, sophomore quarterback Taylor Lamb calmly led the Mountaineers on a nine-play, 73-yard drive over the final 107 seconds that culminated with Matics' 23-yard game-winner. Lamb accounted for 51 of the 73 yards on the game-winning drive, including a 32-yard run that moved App State from its own 41 yard line all the way to the OU 27 with a minute left on the clock. The victory set a new record for victories by a team in its first season as a full-fledged member of NCAA Division I FBS (previously Division I-AA) after transitioning from Division I FCS (previously I-AA) and the first team to win a bowl game in its initial season as a full-fledged FBS squad.

App State 14 • TOLEDO 7
6:03 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

Toledo quickly answered App State's first touchdown, as junior quarterback Logan Woodside connected with Corey Jones for 58 yards on the first play of the next drive, setting up a 15-yard touchdown reception by tight end Michael Roberts.

Marcus Cox eclipsed 5,000 career rushing yards on a 20-yard carry to close out the first quarter, and his 52nd career touchdown came on a 13-yard sprint around left end to give App State a 14-7 lead with just over six minutes left to play until halftime.

8:31 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

App State forced a three-and-out to open the Camellia Bowl, then took its opening drive and marched 72 yards for a touchdown. Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year Jalin Moore's 11-yard run on the first play got the Mountaineers going, and Zy Letman drew a pass interference penalty on third down to prolong a drive. App State scored when Deltron Hopkins took a forward flip from Taylor Lamb and raced 16 yards around right end.

App State 21 • TOLEDO 14
8:04 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Toledo's Woodside found Cody Thompson for 25 yards on a corner route that set up a 26-yard touchdown run by Kareem Hunt to knot the score at 14-14 a few minutes before halftime.

App State, which ran twice as many plays as the Rockets in the opening half and outgained them 242-172, moved ahead 21-14 when Lamb capped a nine-play, 69-yard drive by racing into the end zone from 13 yards out on a fourth-and-1 play. It was part of a 126-yard rushing performance on nine carries from Lamb, who gave App State two 100-yard rushers.

APP STATE 28 • TOLEDO 21
2:16 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Toledo's Woodside hit Thompson for a 4-yard touchdown to tie the game at 21-21 late in the third quarter, but true freshman Darrynton Evans returned the ensuing kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown.

It was the first college touchdown for the 2016 graduate of New Smyrna Beach High School in Florida. He was App State's primary kickoff returner, but he also spent time at running back and wide receiver for the Mountaineers.

5:14 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

Woodside found Thompson again on the next drive for 58 yards to set up Hunt's 1-yard TD leap in the last minute of the third quarter, creating the fourth and final tie at 28-all.

App State's Michael Rubino connected on a 39-yard field goal with 5:14 remaining, and Toledo moved inside the App 10 with less than two minutes left. Senior linebacker John Law and Montgomery native Josh Thomas made a stop for no gain on a third-and-2 play from the 8 to force a field-goal attempt, and Jameson Vest pushed the 30-yarder wide right after Toledo took a delay-of-game penalty.

Cox was 2 yards shy of posting his fourth straight 1,000-yard season when he sealed the outcome with a 10-yard gain on the first play of the final series.

4:06 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

With five minutes left in the opening quarter, Toledo began its second drive at its own 38, and App State linebacker Anthony Flory intercepted Logan Woodside's pass near midfield before returning the ball 19 yards to the Rockets' 36.

Jalin Moore covered all 36 yards with four rushes, using back-to-back gains of 15 and 10 to set up a 7-yard touchdown that started a one-sided rematch.

APP STATE 14 • TOLEDO 0
13:51 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

App State forced a three-and-out after its initial touchdown and responded with an eight-play, 64-yard march.

True freshman Daetrich Harrington's 16-yard run moved the Mountaineers into Toledo territory, and senior quarterback Taylor Lamb's 23-yard connection with Ike Lewis set up a first down from the 13. Runs of 6 and 7 yards by Moore pushed App State into the end zone once again.

HALFTIME

Another three-and-out helped by a quarterback hurry from Flory allowed App State to start its next possession at its 38, and a 35-yard run by Harrington moved the ball from near midfield to Toledo's 20.

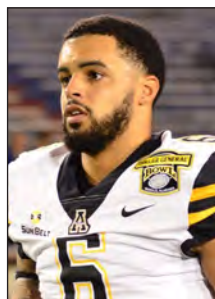

Chandler Staton converted a 29-yard field goal, and the Mountaineers quickly regained possession thanks to Kaiden Smith's forced fumble on a kickoff return.

Austin Exford recovered the ball at Toledo's 14, and Staton added a 23-yard field goal with 5:52 left in the half.

APP STATE 27 • TOLEDO 0
8:14 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Toledo, trailing by 20, threatened to get back into the game by driving to the App State 37 on the first series of the second half.

Desmond Franklin's interception of a deep throw near the end zone, followed by his 35-yard return, ended the Rockets' best scoring chance. Seven plays later, Moore raced into the end zone from 31 yards out to post his third touchdown and clinch the Dollar General Bowl MVP award.

14:54 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

After Moore's third touchdown, the Mountaineers' defense put up two more three-and-outs, with Caleb Fuller and Eric Boggs combining on a sack that cause the Rockets to punt from their own 13. Freshman receiver Malik Williams opened the final period by scoring on a 3-yard run in which he had the option to pass to Lamb, who was covered.

Capped by Clifton Duck's sixth pick of the year, App State's defense forced Woodside into the first three-interception game of his career while recording four sacks and limiting Toledo to 146 total yards — 364 below its season average.

The Mountaineers notched their second postseason shut-out in the modern era while joining Clemson and Alabama as the only FBS programs with a bowl shutout since 2010.

MIDDLE TENNESSEE 3 • APP STATE 0
3:22 TO GO • FIRST QUARTER

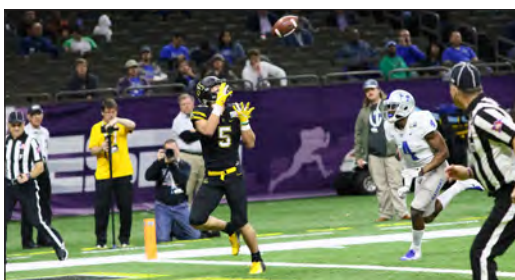

Middle Tennessee, which missed a 47-yard field goal to cap the game-opening series, followed a quick interception on App State's first series with a 24-yard field goal.

APP STATE 10 • MIDDLE TENNESSEE 3
10:06 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

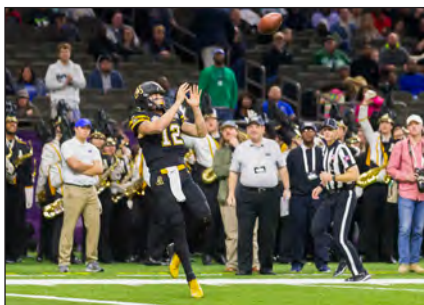

Zac Thomas' 35-yard pass to Jalen Virgil ignited App State's first scoring drive, which ended with a 22-yard field goal from Chandler Staton.

Tyler Bird, D'Marco Jackson, Caleb Spurlin and Thomas Hennigan helped stuff a fourth-and-2 rush on a fake punt from the Middle Tennessee 43 a few minutes later, and Hennigan gave the Mountaineers the lead for good with a 30-yard touchdown on an accurate deep throw on a wide receiver pass from Malik Williams, the former high school quarterback.

6:38 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

Williams' second TD throw of the game followed a Tae Hayes interception that resulted from Elijah Diarrassouba's quarterback pressure. With another aggressive play call from Shawn Clark, Williams took a reverse handoff from running back Darrynton Evans, rolled right and lofted an 8-yard touchdown pass back to Thomas, the quarterback, in the right side of the end zone.

The only other touchdown with an App State quarterback reaching the end zone on a pass play in recent memory occurred in 2010, when DeAndre Presley was credited with a TD "reception" on a play in which he recovered his receiver's fumble against Chattanooga and ran the final 33 yards with the ball.

APP STATE 31 • MTSU 6
11:06 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Evans' 62-yard run set up Henry Pearson's 1-yard touchdown reception in the final minute of the half, and App State took a 24-6 lead into the break before Corey Sutton opened the third quarter with the first of his two second-half touchdown catches.

The next drive included back-to-back sacks to force a punt, with Anthony Flory, Okon Godwin and Akeem Davis-Gaither working to bring down Stockstill.

APP STATE 38 • MIDDLE TENNESSEE 6
8:01 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Able to not lose a year of eligibility because he was playing in just his third game as a true freshman, running back Camerun Peoples entered the lineup to begin the next drive and gained 1 yard on his first carry before breaking free down the right sideline on his 63-yard score.

Middle Tennessee posted a third-quarter touchdown to cut into its deficit, but App State's defense applied constant pressure to Stockstill the rest of the way, and Sutton capped the scoring on an 11-yard TD with 13:06 remaining.

Chris Willis and Godwin recorded sacks on the next series, enabling App State's coaches to play senior quarterback Zeb Speir, senior receiver Brad Absher and many other reserves in the closing minutes.

UAB 14 • APP STATE 3
14:11 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

Facing a quick two-touchdown deficit via a pair of 25-yard scoring passes by the Blazers, App State stayed the course and systematically worked its way back into the game.

Marcus Williams Jr. rushed for gains of 20 and 27 yards to set up a 34-yard field goal from Chandler Staton early in the second quarter, and UAB punted the ball back to the Mountaineers less than two minutes later.

7:59 TO GO • SECOND QUARTER

Darrynton Evans raced to the UAB 24-yard line on a 57-yard run to begin App State's next possession after the Blazers' punt, and a UAB penalty for illegal leaping on a field goal attempt prolonged the possession.

Two plays later, Zac Thomas dropped the ball in to Thomas Hennigan on a fade route for a 17-yard touchdown in which Hennigan, for the first time in the game, outfought the UAB defensive back for the ball.

APP STATE 17 • UAB 14
12:14 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

Opening the second half with possession and a four-point deficit, App State moved to the UAB 39 on a 24-yard pass to Jalen Virgil and kept its offense on the field for a fourth-and-1 play from the 30.

Thomas fumbled the ball on a QB sneak attempt, but Evans scooped up the loose ball in the backfield and ran untouched off right tackle for a 31-yard touchdown.

"I went to the sideline joking with Coach Clark that I'm going to tell everybody it was a designed play," Evans said. "It was just right place, right time."

APP STATE 24 • UAB 17
6:16 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

UAB tied the game at 17-all by making a 49-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, but Nick Hampton and Trey Cobb combined for the biggest play of the game on the Blazers' next series.

Hampton knocked the ball loose on a sack of Tyler Johnston III, prompting Cobb to scoop up the loose ball and run 24 yards for a tiebreaking defensive touchdown.

It was App State's sixth defensive touchdown of the season.

APP STATE 31 • UAB 17
FINALAPP STATE 31 • UAB 17
0:44 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

The Mountaineers forced a three-and-out punt and moved ahead 31-17 with a nine-play, 85-yard touchdown drive.

Facing a fourth-and-3, Thomas rolled right and threw a 27-yard touchdown pass to Hennigan, who again wrestled the ball away from the UAB defender in the end zone.

There were no points the rest of the way, and App State could begin celebrating when cornerback Shaun Jolly forced and recovered a fumble in the last two minutes.

Malik Williams, the former high school quarterback, threw the fourth trick-play touchdown pass of his career by hitting tight end Henry Pearson for a 22-yard score and a 7-0 lead in the opening five minutes.

Cameron Peoples capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown to push App State's lead to 14-0 later in the first quarter.

HALFTIME

Pearson scored for the second time on an 11-yard pass from Zac Thomas midway through the second quarter. Immediately after North Texas missed a 47-yard field goal with App State leading 21-7, Marcus Williams Jr. sprinted through a big hole for a 70-yard touchdown.

After the Mean Green cut its deficit to 28-14, App State took over at its 36-yard line with 22 seconds remaining before halftime and got a 64-yard TD run from Peoples on the next play.

2:58 TO GO • THIRD QUARTER

After North Texas once again pulled within two touchdowns thanks to an 11-play, 74-yard drive midway through the third quarter, App State pushed its lead back to 21 points on a 62-yard touchdown run by Peoples.

Peoples entered the Myrtle Beach Bowl needing a whopping 193 yards to give the Mountaineers a 1,000-yard rusher for the ninth straight year — the nation's longest active streak at season's end — and his second long touchdown pushed him over 200 yards for the day.

14:16 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

A flag for a penalty well behind the play wiped out Williams' 79-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter, limiting the gain to 16 yards before a 15-yard penalty walkoff changed the line of scrimmage from the App State 21 to the 22.

Peoples rushed for a 76-yard gain to the North Texas 2 on the very next snap, setting up his fourth of five touchdown runs.

Peoples tied the school record for rushing touchdowns in a game, as John Settle posted five against Davidson in 1986. Peoples also tied six other players, including Barry Sanders, as the only ones to have scored five rushing touchdowns in a bowl game.

FINALAPP STATE 56 • NORTH TEXAS 21
9:03 TO GO • FOURTH QUARTER

Steven Jones Jr. returned an interception 63 yards to the North Texas 6 to set up, following a post-return penalty, Peoples' final TD on an 11-yard run with 9:03 left.

Peoples set a school and NCAA bowl record with 317 rushing yards on 22 attempts.

The previous NCAA single-game bowl record belonged to Georgia Tech's P.J. Daniels, who rushed for 307 yards against Tulsa in the 2004 Humanitarian Bowl. Peoples also broke the school record of 313 yards from Armanti Edwards in a 2007 FCS semifinal win against Richmond.

"A lot of weight off our shoulders to win our sixth bowl game in a row. That's something we take a lot of pride in in Boone and our program."

— App State head coach Shawn Clark

NO. 23 JOHN SETTLE

On Nov. 22, 1986, before his last regular-season game at Kidd Brewer Stadium, the legendary John Settle became the first App State football player to have his jersey (No. 23) retired.

At the time, Settle's career established him as App State's all-time leader in almost every rushing category. Settle displayed courage every step of the way. His pride and respect for the game set the standard of excellence by which all Mountaineer athletes, past, present and future, strive to perpetuate

From 1983 through 1986, Settle graced the App State backfield with steadfast courage and determination. He finished his career as the school's all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards and 43 touchdowns. At the time of his departure from Boone, he was the third-ranked rusher in NCAA Division I-AA football history.

Settle, a criminal justice major while at App State, was named the Southern Conference Player and Male Athlete of the Year as a senior, after rushing for 1,661 yards and 20 touchdowns. One of the highlights of his season was his five-touchdown day in the Homecoming victory over Davidson on Nov. 4, 1986.

The two-time All-American had a knack for rising to the occasion in the most important games. In App State's first NCAA I-AA Playoff game in school history, on Nov. 29, 1986, Settle dazzled the crowd with 236 yards on 37 carries and a touchdown in the 28-26 defeat to Nicholls State.

His excellence continued at the professional level with the Atlanta Falcons. In 1988, Settle became the first rookie free agent in NFL history to gain over 1,000 yards in a season. During that year, he gained 1,594 total yards (1,024 rushing and 570 receiving) and was voted to the Pro Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii. His fabled playing days came to a close with the Washington Redskins. He was rewarded for his hard work with a 1991 Super Bowl championship ring with the Redskins.

Settle's career continued to evolve as his playing days paved the way for a future in coaching. He began his coaching career by assisting with running backs at App State in 1994. From 1995-1998, Settle served as an offensive assistant for the Cleveland Browns and later the Baltimore Ravens. His duties in the NFL involved coordinating the game plan and working with the running backs, special teams, and strength and conditioning. His experienced football mind was also used in the evaluation of personnel.

In 1998, Settle returned to the college game as the running backs coach at Fresno State. After eight seasons at FSU, he spent five seasons in the same position at the University of Wisconsin. In 2011, he returned to the NFL, spending two seasons as the Carolina Panthers' running backs coach (2011-12) and one with the Cleveland Browns (2013). In March 2021, he was hired as Kentucky's running backs coach/co-special teams coordinator after working previously at Wisconsin, and Rice hired him in 2023.

App State retired John Settle's No. 23 jersey on Nov. 22, 1986.

Of his time in Boone, Settle says: "App State helped lay the foundation for who and what I am today. As time moves on, I appreciate the days I spent in Boone more and more. The people, the fans, the University and the family environment that surrounds the community are something that I have not encountered since my days in Boone. I hope that someday I will have the opportunity to give back to a place that has given so much to me."

Currently the running backs coach at the University of Kentucky, John Settle enjoyed a six-year NFL playing career.

NO. 32 DEXTER COAKLEY

Perhaps the most decorated player in the illustrious history of App State football, App State retired Dexter Coakley's No. 32 jersey on April 19, 2005.

From 1993-96, Coakley set or tied six school records, earned a slew of personal accolades and helped lead App State to 32 victories and two NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances.

The Mt. Pleasant, S.C., native made an immediate impact on App State's squad and led the Mountaineers with 141 total tackles as a freshman in 1993, en route to Southern Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

Things only got better for the hard-hitting linebacker, both individually and for the Mountaineers. In 1994, he racked up 155 tackles to earn the first of three SoCon Defensive Player of the Year awards. Perhaps more importantly, he helped lead App State back to the I-AA playoffs after a one-year hiatus and a first-round, overtime victory over No. 7 New Hampshire before falling at second-ranked Boise State in the national quarterfinals.

As a junior, Coakley led his squad to a perfect 11-0 regular season, becoming just the ninth team in 30 years to claim the SoCon crown with an undefeated, untied league record (8-0). For the second straight season, Coakley hauled in SoCon Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-America accolades after racking up 150 tackles. He also earned the inaugural Buck Buchanan Award, given to the top defensive player in I-AA.

Coakley capped his second-to-none collegiate career in 1996 by leading App State in tackles for the third time with 166. He earned SoCon Defensive Player of the Year and first-team All-America honors for the third time, while also claiming his second-straight Buck Buchanan Award. He was a two-time winner of I-AA football's most prestigious defensive honor and earned All-America status for three years.

Coakley remains App State's all-time career leader in total tackles (616), solo tackles (350), assisted tackles (266), double-figure tackle games (38) and 20-tackle games (seven). He is tied for the school mark with two-consecutive 20-tackle games, a feat he achieved twice, versus Georgia Southern and Marshall in 1995 and against East Tennessee State and Furman in '96.

Following the end of his career in the High Country, Coakley became the second-highest drafted player in App State history (at the time) when the Dallas Cowboys selected him in the third round (65th overall pick) of the 1997 NFL Draft.

His impact in the NFL was as immediate as his impact at App State, as he started all 16 games for the Cowboys as a rookie in '97. In 155 games as a pro, he registered 796 tackles, 13 interceptions, 9.5 sacks and six forced fumbles.

After spending the first eight years of his professional career in Dallas, Coakley spent the 2005 and '06 seasons with the St. Louis Rams. He retired from the NFL in 2007, earning Pro Bowl appearances in 1999, 2001 and '03.

In recognition of his outstanding collegiate career, Coakley was inducted into the Southern Conference Hall of Fame on May 24, 2011 and became the first Mountaineer inducted in the College Football Hall of Fame on July 16, 2011. He was inducted into the S.C. Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019.

An active member of the community, Coakley received the Cowboys Unsung Hero Award in 2002, as selected by his teammates and fans. He has been involved with many charitable programs throughout and following his professional football career, including the Salvation Army, the Children's Cancer Fund Fashion Show, Dallas Cowboys Courage House, and Let Us Play! Sports Camp for Girls.

App State retired Dexter Coakley's No. 32 jersey on April 19, 2005.

Dexter Coakley played eight of his 10 NFL seasons for the Dallas Cowboys and made three Pro Bowl appearances.

NO. 38 DINO HACKETT

App State Football retired its third jersey, Dino Hackett's No. 38, during homecoming festivities on Oct. 29, 2005.

"I've had a lot of honors in the NFL and college and I can honestly say having my number retired at App State is the greatest honor I've ever received," Hackett said.

A member of App State's 75th Anniversary Team, Hackett starred as a linebacker at App State from 1982-85. He set eight school records, including most solo (106), assisted (94) and total tackles (200) in a season, which he accomplished in 1985 en route to first-team All-America accolades. His 27 total tackles against East Tennessee State on Nov. 23, 1985 are still tops in App State's single-game annals, as are his 18 solo stops (tied for first) versus Furman on Oct. 26, 1985. In addition to the All-America recognition as a senior, Hackett was also an All-Southern Conference honoree in both 1984 and '85.

Following his standout collegiate career, Hackett was selected in the second round (35th overall) of the 1986 National Football League Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to enjoy a successful seven-year professional career, spending six seasons with the Chiefs and one with the Seattle Seahawks. One of only seven Chiefs to ever start all 16 games as a rookie, Hackett's 140 tackles in 1986 were the second-most by a rookie in team history. He went on to earn a spot in the Pro Bowl following the 1988 season, in which he was part of K.C.'s top-rated pass defense. His 16 tackles versus the Seahawks on Sept. 20, 1987 set a Kansas City record.

After retiring from the NFL following the 1993 season, Hackett returned to the Triad, where he and his brother, Joey, owned and operated Hackett Properties, a real estate development company.

A graduate of Southern Guilford H.S. in Greensboro, Hackett has resided in Dino Hackett played six of his seven NFL seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs and earned a Pro Bowl selection in 1988.

App State retired Dino Hackett's No. 38 on Oct. 29, 2005.

Pleasant Garden, N.C., and his family has raised quarterhorses on their farm.

"Honoring Dino was a highlight of my first year at App State. To me, personally, Dino Hackett is what Mountaineer football is all about," App State athletics director Charlie Cobb said at the time. "Along with being one of the best football players in App State history, Dino is someone who embodies the spirit of App State and is a terrific ambassador for both the University and the athletics department. He is truly deserving of the honor."

NO. 71 LARRY HAND

App State retired the No. 71 jersey worn by All-American and NFL standout Larry Hand as part of homecoming festivities on Sept. 30, 2006.

Hand was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Carolinas Conference honoree as a tackle at App State from 1960-64. Hand was far from a top prospect coming out of Butler H.S. in Butler, N.J. In fact, he worked as a mason for two years before App State head coach Jim Duncan brought him to Boone, despite the fact that the 6-4, 225-pounder only played junior varsity high school football. However, after missing his freshman season due to injury, Hand made an immediate impact on the Mountaineers and put together the first of three straight all-conference campaigns in 1962.

In '63, he garnered All-America accolades for the first time, earning second-team NAIA honors. His breakout performance came in a 20-6 win over Lenoir-Rhyne, in which he led a Mountaineer defense that forced five fumbles and held the Bears to minus-22 yards rushing.

Following App State's first victory over Lenoir-Rhyne in nine years, Duncan called Hand "the best pro line prospect to come out of the Carolinas Conference."

Professional teams agreed, as Hand was drafted as a future selection by both the Detroit Lions (10th round — NFL) and New York Jets (21st round — AFL) prior to his senior season in 1964 (future selections could be used on players that had a year of college eligibility remaining but their class had graduated).

In '64, Hand showed why the professional teams jumped at the chance to draft him in the offseason, as he put together a monster season that culminated in first-team NAIA All-America plaudits and second-team recognition by the Associated Press. He was also awarded the 1964 Kirkland Blocking Award, established in 1957 by Catawba College in memory of Gordon A. Kirkland.

He signed with the Lions in 1965 and went on to play 13 seasons in Detroit. His 13 years of service were tied for the fourth-most in Lions history and his 164 games played were tied for the 11th-highest total in franchise history.

After being selected in both the NFL and AFL Drafts, Larry Hand played 13 seasons with the NFL's Detroit Lions.

App State retired Larry Hand's No. 71 on Sept. 30, 2006.

In his 13 professional seasons, Hand registered five interceptions as a defensive lineman, returning three for touchdowns. He was the Lions' defensive MVP in 1972 and tied for second in Lions history with two INT returns for touchdowns in 1967. Defensive statistics such as tackles, tackles for loss and sacks were not kept by the Lions until 1973 (and didn't become an official NFL statistic in 1983). However, it is known that he led Detroit in sacks in two of the five seasons that he played when those records were kept, with 11 in 1973 and seven in 1975 (both 14-game seasons).

ROB BEST, SHAWN ELLIOTT & STACY SEARELS

As App State football departed Johnson City, Tenn., on Sept. 30, 2000, the most shocking thing to happen that night had been Joe Burchette's evolution from third-string quarterback to starter in a 30-13 win at East Tennessee State. As October began a couple of hours later, however, who took the bulk of snaps from center was the farthest thing from any Mountaineer's mind.

As App State's buses rounded a corner on Route 105 in Foscoe, N.C., six miles from App State's Boone, N.C., campus, around 12:30 in the morning, they came upon a fiery accident that appeared to involve a van and a car. Not long after the buses came to a stop, someone on the lead bus recognized the van as the one transporting the football team's student trainers, managers and videographers.

Shouts of, "That's our van!" were followed quickly by the buses' occupants scrambling to get to the van. The first three people out of the bus were offensive coaches Stacy Searels, Rob Best and Shawn Elliott.

"The car was engulfed in flames," said Best, "and our biggest concern was that it might spread to the van."

According to the North Carolina Highway Patrol, a 1989 Audi station wagon driven by John V. White, III crossed the center line going about 60 miles per hour in a 35 mph zone and hit the 2000 Dodge Ram van head on. The car immediately burst into flames and White is believed to have died instantly.

Head coach Jerry Moore attempted to help the driver of the car, but "there was nothing anyone could do. The whole car was just a mass of flames and he was pinned in there."

As Searels, Best and Elliott reached the van, they found that two of the 13 passengers were still in the van: assistant athletic trainer Tony Barnett, the driver of the van, and Searels' student assistant coach, Jonathan Taylor. Searels ripped open the mangled door to the van and pulled Taylor out. Barnett was trapped by a tangled seat belt and an inflated air bag.

"Tony was pinned in the seat," said Best. "Stacy dragged Jonathan out and Shawn and I both grabbed the driver's seat and yanked it back to try and get Tony free. Stacy came back and helped us get him out."

"Stacy got in there and all but ripped the whole seat out of that van," added Moore. "Fire was everywhere, but he had Tony in his arms and was getting him back toward the buses."

The 13 passengers were now out of the van, but in varying stages of injury, pain and shock. Many were still dangerously close to the burning wreck.

"When we first ran up, there were people just kind of lying on the ground," said wide receiver Joe Hamilton. "We grabbed a couple of the people and moved them away from the scene."

Jake Stroot, team video coordinator and App State Sports Network sideline reporter, had managed to get out of the van but could get no further.

"I got out of the van and I couldn't walk," said Stroot. "(Neil Cornatzer, Aaron Dobbins and Daniel Jeremiah) carried me like 50 yards away."

"About four to six minutes after we got them out," said Best, "the van ignited. (The fire) spread pretty fast."

Best called the scene "unbelievable" as head athletic trainer Andy Massey examined the injured individuals and the players attended to them.

"It was a complete role reversal," said Best. "The players had the kids who were in the van wrapped up in blankets and were applying pressure to stop bleeding wounds. The response and composure a lot of those guys showed was just amazing."

"They worked on me for six years now to try and keep me on the field," said wide receiver Joey Gibson, who missed the 1999 season with a knee injury. "It was kind of a flip to see us working on them."

"Everybody who was out there helping, being nothing but 10 or 15 yards away from that van, was at a risk," said Moore. "They ought to hang a medal around everyone's neck."

"That was hero stuff going on," said defensive coordinator John Wiley.

When EMS services arrived minutes later, many of the injured were prepared to be loaded onto ambulances. Barnett and Taylor were the first to be transported out. Taylor was taken to Cannon Memorial Hospital and life-flighted to Johnson City (Tenn.) Memorial Hospital, while Barnett was admitted at Watauga Medical Center.

Of the other 11 passengers, five were taken to WMC and five to CMH. Only the frontseat passenger was spared a hospital visit, due to a seatbelt and air bag. Most of the injuries consisted of broken bones and cuts. In all, only seven stayed the night in the hospital and after 10 days only Taylor remained hospitalized in serious but stable condition with a severe concussion and some broken bones.

After the injured were taken away, the team buses were allowed through the accident scene and arrived back on campus at about 2 a.m. A quiet 10-minute ride was followed by a team meeting. Before any of the equipment was unloaded, the players and coaches gathered in the Mountaineer Room in Owens Field House and prayed. Some prayed silently while others verbalized their hopes and wishes.

However, that early morning meeting was hardly the end of the story. Coaches still needed to coach and players still needed to play, and those were not the easiest things to do for a while. Athletics director Roachel Laney spent every day for the next week at the different hospitals, as did Massey and the coaching staff. Someone from the App State football team visited Johnson City daily to be with Jonathan and his family.

The staff also learned the nature of their relationship with the rest of the Southern Conference's coaches and teams. East Tennessee State made extra copies of their game films to replace the App State copies lost in the accident. Also, the ETSU branch of Fellowship of Christian Athletes met Taylor's mother and held prayer meetings at Johnson City Memorial every night.

On top of all this, the team had to prepare to face sixth-ranked and SoCon rival Furman the next Saturday on regional television and deal with the attention from media.

"I hear about a different hero every day," said Moore after listening to different people's stories. "We're grateful and fortunate that we didn't lose anyone. But one life was lost and our hearts and prayers are with that family too."

"Everyone had their own heroes," said Stroot. "Everyone had two or three guys helping them out. It's really a big family. You realize how much everyone cares for you."

The emotional week was capped by an 18-17, come-from-behind win over the Paladins. As the final seconds ticked off the clock, Searels searched for a cell phone on the field. Finding one, he dialed the number for Taylor's room in Johnson City. After getting Jonathan on the phone Searels proclaimed, "We won, Jonathan. We did it. We did it for you."

"I'll never be prouder of a program, no matter what happens on the field," said Moore, long before the Furman contest. "They've learned a lot about priorities and how fragile life and health can be. They've showed me they have qualities that will serve them well a long time after they don't play football games anymore."

For their actions that night, Searels, Best and Elliott were presented with the NCAA Award of Valor. The award is presented only in years when there is a worthy candidate or candidates. It recognizes a current intercollegiate athletics coach or administrator, or a current or former varsity letterwinner at an NCAA institution, who, when confronted with a situation involving personal danger, averted or minimized potential disaster by courageous action or noteworthy bravery. In all, the NCAA Award of Valor has only been presented 15 times since its inception in 1974.

Best, who left App State after the 2002 season to be the offensive coordinator at the University at Buffalo, retired in November 2016 as head coach at Pilot Point High School in suburban Dallas, Texas. Elliott and Searels both serve as college football coaches — Elliott as head coach at Georgia State and Searels as offensive line coach at reigning national champion Georgia.

BRIAN STOKES

Many events on the gridiron during App State's run to consecutive NCAA Division I national championships in 2005 and '06 were described as heroic. However, App State benefited from the presence of a true hero on the field and in the locker room during the championship campaigns.

Brian Stokes came to App State in 2005 as a 26-year-old freshman. Prior to his arrival in the High Country, Stokes spent five years in the United States Marine Corps, serving deployments to over 10 countries during his military career, including two tours of duty in Iraq.

During Stokes' second tour in Iraq in 2004, the former all-state linebacker and fullback at Williams H.S. in Burlington, N.C., served in over 200 combat missions, including the invasion of Fallujah. A sergeant in the 2nd Battalion, 2nd Marines, Stokes was the commanding officer in a humvee near Lutayfiah in August 2004 when his convoy was the target of two 200-kilogram roadside bombs, which blew the 300-pound doors off Stokes' humvee when detonated within yards of the armored vehicle. Everyone in the vehicle survived, but Stokes suffered shrapnel wounds in his right arm and lost the majority of hearing in his right ear.

Following his release from active duty, Stokes and fellow Marine Wayne Norman enrolled at App State, where head coach Jerry Moore welcomed the heroes with open arms. Both were on the field for the opening kickoff in the 2005 home opener versus Coastal Carolina. Stokes was a regular contributor on special teams and played an important role in the Mountaineers winning their first-ever national title.

Little did Stokes know that just one week prior to the 21-16 victory over Northern Iowa in the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA national championship game, he was awarded a Purple Heart for the injuries he sustained in the roadside bomb attack 16 months earlier. He wasn't aware of the recognition until the Purple Heart arrived in the mail in February 2006.

Due to injury-riddled stints as a member of the football programs at East Carolina and Elon following Stokes' standout high school career, the former Shrine Bowl participant was granted just two years of eligibility at App State by the NCAA. He returned for his final gridiron campaign in 2006 and again was a key special teams performer for App State's second straight national title march.

Stokes finished his career with eight tackles in 29 games and capped his football-playing days with an appearance in the Texas vs. The Nation All-Star Classic in El Paso, Texas.

His story has been told in dozens of newspapers and on television programs across the region and nation, highlighted by an appearance on CBS' Late, Late Show with Craig Ferguson in 2005. He graduated from App State with a degree in criminal justice in 2008.

Stokes was one of three Iraqi War veterans to go on to play for the Mountaineers. Norman suited up for App State for its first national championship campaign in 2005 and Chris Aiken, a five-year U.S. Army military police veteran who did two tours of duty in Iraq, played defensive tackle for the Mountaineers in 2010 and 2011.

Purple Heart recipient Brian Stokes was a special teams standout for the Mountaineers in 2005 and '06.

Rob Best, Stacy Searels and Shawn Elliott were presented with the NCAA Award of Valor, recognizing individuals who, when confronted with a situation involving personal danger, averted or minimized potential disaster by courageous action or noteworthy bravery.

Oct. 20, 2021 - Malik Williams (Capital One Orange Bowl Player of the Week)

Nov. 6, 2021 - Steven Jones Jr. (Defensive POW via W. Camp, Nagurski, Thorpe)

D.J. Campbell (left), Pierre Banks (center) and Tony Washington are among the Mountaineers' top scholar-athletes of the past three decades. Campbell, who started every game at quarterback for the Mountaineers from 1989-92, was an Academic All-American, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipient and National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. Banks, who set an NCAA all-divisions record by playing in 62 games from 2004-08, was a National Academic All-Star and Draddy Award semifinalist. Washington led the Southern Conference in receiving yardage as a senior and joined Campbell as the only NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award winners in App State history.

Emmitt Hamilton was the first App State running back to earn All-Southern Conference recognition, doing so in 1975 and '77.

Rico Mack (99) and Avery Hall (94) combined to earn first-team All-SoCon plaudits seven times. Hall is App State's only four-time first-team All-SoCon selection.

Chip Hooks was a four-time all-SoCon honoree from 1991-94 — first-team as a freshman and junior, second-team as a sophomore and senior.

SEPTEMBER 1, 2007
APP STATE 34, NO. 5 MICHIGAN 32
ANN ARBOR, MICH. • ATTENDANCE: 109,218

Thanks in large part to Dexter Jackson's two touchdown catches and Armanti Edwards' perfect first half (7-of-7 passing, 129 yards, 3 TD; eight rushes, 41 yards, TD), App State jumped out to a stunning 28-14 advantage late in the first half and led 28-17 at halftime.

Michigan came roaring back in the second half and took a 32-31 lead on a 54-yard touchdown run by Mike Hart with less than five minutes to play.

Things looked bleak for App State when the Wolverines intercepted a pass by Edwards on the first play after Hart's touchdown, but freshman Brian Quick blocked a U-M field-goal attempt to give the Mountaineers the ball back with 1:37 left to play.

Edwards engineered a seven-play, 69-yard drive over the next 1:11 to set up Julian Rauch's go-ahead 24-yard field goal with just 26 seconds remaining on the clock. Edwards completed 5-of-5 passes and accounted for all 69 yards on the drive (18 rushing, 51 passing).

After a 46-yard pass from Chad Henne to Mario Manningham, Michigan had an opportunity to win the ballgame on a 37-yard field goal. However, Corey Lynch made the "block heard 'round the world," scooped up the loose ball and returned it 62 yards as the clock expired.

THE AFTERMATH

• App State's shocking win over college football's all-time winningest program was the first ever for an NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision team over a nationally ranked D-I Football Bowl Subdivision opponent.

• A crowd estimated to be as large as 10,000 welcomed the Mountaineers back to Kidd Brewer Stadium later that evening.

• The Apps were the darlings of the national media for weeks to come, highlighted by a Sept. 2, 2007 press conference that was televised live by ESPNEWS and Dexter Jackson's appearance on the cover of the Sept. 10, 2007 edition of Sports Illustrated.

• The victory prompted the Associated Press to change its 71-year-old policy and allow all Division I teams, regardless of subdivision, to receive votes in its Top 25 poll.

• App State went on to post a 13-2 overall record and win its third-consecutive NCAA Division I Football national championship.

• Michigan went on to post an 9-4 overall record and No. 18 ranking in the final 2007 AP poll. The Wolverines finished second in the Big Ten standings and defeated defending BCS national champion Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Tim Tebow, 41-35, in the Capital One Bowl on New Year's Day.

 APP STATE 17, NO. 6 TEXAS A&M 14
 COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS • ATTENDANCE: 92,664

MEMORABLE GAMES

DeAndre Dingle-Prince made a fumble recovery at the Texas A&M 29 on a second-quarter play in which Jalen McLeod stripped QB Haynes King of the ball twice, and running back Ahmani Marshall finished a five-play drive with a 4-yard TD run to open the second quarter.

Texas A&M answered to help force a 7-7 halftime tie. App State chewed up 6:22 of the third quarter with a 62-yard TD drive after Nick Hampton recovered a fumble forced by Dexter Lawson Jr. Chase Brice's fourth-and-1 keeper to the 13 set up a 9-yard TD pass to Henry Pearson.

Devin Achane's 95-yard kick return after Pearson's TD tied the game late in the third quarter. Michael Hughes capped a 16-play march that covered 9 minutes, 15 seconds with his first career field goal, a 29-yarder, to put App State ahead midway through the fourth quarter.

The Aggies moved into scoring range after Hughes' go-ahead kick but missed a 47-yard field goal with 3:43 remaining. The Mountaineers' offensive line went to work after that, paving the way for a clock-draining drive that included three straight Camerun Peoples runs to move the chains, including a tough third-and-1 conversion. Peoples followed that with a 48-yard run to the Texas A&M 12 with 1:36 remaining, and Brice was able to kneel out the win from there. "The key was belief," App State head coach Shawn Clark said. "You have to believe in yourself and believe in this program. I told them take the logo off of the helmet, take the logo off the field and let's go play football."

THE AFTERMATH

• It was App State's first victory against an AP Top 10 opponent since the 34-32 victory at No. 5 Michigan in 2007, but the Mountaineers were due for another headline-making win. Each of their previous six games against Power Five programs (including two wins) had been decided by seven points or less.

• ESPN had planned to air College GameDay from Texas A&M the following week, but the upset led to the location changing from College Station to Boone. Delayed on the airport tarmac for roughly three hours that Saturday night because of a tire issue with the charter plane bound for North Carolina, members of App State's traveling party departed their buses and learned of the GameDay news when head coach Shawn Clark gathered the team together for an impromptu announcement around 11:30 p.m.

• Unable to depart Texas that night, the team returned to its Friday night hotel and, without the necessary number of rooms available on short notice, members of the traveling party slept in conference rooms and main-floor hallways. After a 3:30 a.m. wake-up call, the team boarded a flight at 4:30 a.m. and landed in Charlotte around 8:30 a.m. Five team buses returned to an on-campus crowd of cheering fans before 11 a.m.

• With the Texas A&M win starting an eight-day stretch that included College GameDay's appearance and a Hail Mary win against Troy on Sept. 17, App State Athletics coordinated 185 football-related interviews in September. There was a 25-percent increase in applications to App State following the GameDay appearance, which provided $500 million in estimated advertising value.

MIRACLE ON THE MOUNTAIN
 APP STATE 16, FURMAN 15
 ABC SPORTS RADIO CALL OF THE YEAR

MEMORABLE GAMES

The Mountaineers were trailing 9-7 in the fourth quarter after three Furman field goals and an interception return for a touchdown by the home side. With 5:39 left, Joey Hoover's 24-yard TD catch from Joe Burchette gave App State its first lead of the game, at 14-9.

Furman took the ensuing possession and marched 73 yards on 13 plays, converting a first down on third-and-18 and then retook the lead on third-and-goal from the App State 12 with 0:07 remaining when Billy Napier found Bear Rinehart for the go-ahead touchdown. Furman led 15-14.

Furman elected to go for two points on the point-after. Napier's pass on the two-point attempt was intercepted by Josh Jeffries at the App State 4. Jeffries darted toward the right sideline before lateraling the ball to Derrick Black at the App State 16.

With Jeffries and Nygel Rogers both running downfield to block, Black avoided two would-be tacklers on his way to score two points and give App State the lead in remarkable fashion, 16-15.

Rogers tackled Black in a celebratory hug in the end zone. The Mountaineers cleared the sideline to join the celebration.

MIRACLE ON THE MOUNTAIN: PART II
 APP STATE 32, TROY 28

DAY BEGINS WITH ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY IN BOONE, ENDS WITH HAIL MARY WIN

MEMORABLE GAMES

A fourth-and-goal incompleteness from the 2 gave Troy possession with 1:13 left and a 28-24 lead. After three plays — and two final timeouts from App State — the Trojans took a safety on purpose instead of punting from the end zone, leaving App State with 20 seconds to field a free kick and score. Troy executed a squibbed kick that Ahmani Marshall fielded at the 34 and returned 13 yards to the 47. Three straight incompleteness set up Chase Brice's heave with two seconds left.

With seven Troy defenders back and just four App State receivers downfield — Christian Horn was alone to Brice's left before the snap as Michael Hetzel, Dalton Stroman and Kaedin Robinson were all lined up to the right — the 6-foot-4 Stroman and Troy linebacker KJ Robertson went up to tip the 53-yard heave at the 5-yard line. Horn caught the tip at the 8-yard line and began circling toward the front-right pylon.

As soon as Horn gained possession of the tipped pass and began heading toward the end zone, Robinson turned at the 6-yard line and sealed the edge by blocking leading tackler Craig Slocum, who had 13 stops in the game. Several more Trojans briefly gave chase, but Horn crossed the goal line on his 12th step with the ball in his hands.

With fireworks going off and an improbable 53-yard TD secured, Horn released his grip on the ball as he spread both arms wide and raised both palms skyward to celebrate. Many in the crowd of 34,406 fans in Kidd Brewer Stadium stormed the field, capping an unforgettable day in which ESPN's College GameDay aired from Sanford Mall at the center of App State's campus for the first time.

"It was a surreal moment," Horn said.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1972 APPS BREAK UP PAT ATTEMPT TO SAVE WIN APP STATE 7, WESTERN KENTUCKY 6

Registering three interceptions, four fumble recoveries, and a blocked punt, App State's stellar defense came up with the winning plays all afternoon in a defensive battle.

Midway through the third quarter, quarterback Steve Loflin hit Boone's homegrown hero Richard Agle for a 78-yard pass and catch for their only touchdown of the day.

Managing a shutout late in the fourth quarter, the Apps gave up a touchdown on Clarence Jackson's one-yard plunge with 1:52 left in the contest to lead by one, at 7-6.

The Hilltoppers decided to go for two and the win, which proved costly when the Mountaineer defense broke up the extra point pass attempt in the endzone to save the victory.

OCTOBER 20, 1973 BRAKEFIELD TAKES DOWN OLD TEAM APP STATE 28, WOFFORD 21

Backup quarterback Phil Cocciolletti not only replaced injured Roscoe Batts in the third quarter, but took over the Mountaineers' run-oriented "Y Offense" and converted it to a passing attack.

Down 21-7 late in the third quarter, Cocciolletti connected with split end Bob Steelman for a 35-yard touchdown.

On Cocciolletti's second drive, he stunned the Terrier offense with another long ball connecting with Charlie Haugabrook for a 36-yard strike. He finished the drive with a one-yard dive into the endzone.

Late in the fourth quarter, Cocciolletti drove App State deep in Wofford territory before Jim Tucker's 6-yard scamper for the go-ahead TD. The Mountaineers' balanced offense recorded 191 yards in the air and 190 on the ground.

Place kicker Greg Clark was 4-for-4 on extra point tries. Clark went on to establish an NCAA record with 56 consecutive good PAT kicks.

OCTOBER 19, 1974 HARMON TAMES WILD DOGS WITH 47-YARDER APP STATE 23, EAST CAROLINA 21

In a game that both teams entered undefeated, placekicker Jerry Harmon proved to be the difference, converting a 47-yard field goal with 32 seconds left for the 23-21 victory over East Carolina.

Sophomore Devon Ford worked his way through ECU's touted "Wild Dogs" defense, amassing 231 all-purpose yards.

App State carried a 20-0 advantage into the locker room. The Pirates quickly countered in the third quarter behind Ken Strayhorn who rushed for two touchdowns bringing the deficit down to six points, at 20-14.

ECU claimed the lead, at 21-20, midway through the fourth quarter when halfback Jimmy Howe scored on a 65-yard run.

Late in the game, the Mountaineers took advantage of a short Pirate punt that gave them the ball on their own 45. The Apps used a pair of passes to set the stage for Harmon's long field goal.

SEPTEMBER 20, 1975 DAVIS REDEEMS HIMSELF WITH LAST-SECOND, GAME-WINNING FIELD GOAL AT WFU APP STATE 19, WAKE FOREST 17

Separated by less than 100 miles, App State and Wake Forest did not meet on the gridiron for the first time until 1975. However, the wait proved to be worthwhile for the Mountaineers, who scored a program-defining 19-17 win over the Atlantic Coast Conference's Demon Deacons.

Highlighted by strong defensive performances by both squads, the contest was tied at 10-10 at halftime and remained knotted until App State quarterback Robbie Price's 32-yard touchdown run with 32 seconds left in the third quarter. However, Gary Davis missed the ensuing extra-point attempt and the Mountaineers led just 16-10.

The Apps' perilous six-point lead held up until a fumble deep in their own territory late in the fourth quarter. Appalachian's second turnover of the game set up a 15-yard touchdown drive that gave the Demon Deacons a 17-16 advantage with 4:20 to go in the ballgame.

The resilient Mountaineers responded by marching 61 yards in 11 plays and Davis made up for his missed PAT by splitting the uprights from 26 yards out with five seconds remaining to seal the 19-17 triumph.

NOVEMBER 8, 1975 PRICE IS RIGHT IN TRIUMPH AT USC APP STATE 39, SOUTH CAROLINA 34

Robbie Price put on an offensive show before 47,489 fans on hand at Williams-Brice Stadium, who saw seven scoring drives over 70 yards, four of which went longer than 80 yards in a 39-34 triumph over South Carolina.

After South Carolina scooped up a Price fumble and returned it for the first points of the day, App State got on the board with a 77-yard drive that was capped off by a John Craig score.

The touchdown was especially sweet for Craig who began his career with the Gamecocks two years earlier.

App State led at the half, 24-14, but South Carolina came out quick in the third quarter, and reduced the App State lead to four when Jeff Grantz scored from two yards out.

Price answered with a 32-yard touchdown pass. However, South Carolina scored late in the third quarter to make it 30-27.

The Gamecocks drove 81 yards take the lead, 34-30. However, the Mountaineers responded with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Price to a diving Donnie Holt.

Mike Staton sealed the win with an interception that led to a Mountaineer field goal to make the final score 39-34.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1979 MOUNTAINEERS PREVAIL BEHIND SURPRISE WISHBONE ATTACK APP STATE 35, WESTERN CAROLINA 27

Touted as an aerial display, quarterbacks Mike Pussey (Western Carolina) and Steve Brown (App State) drew 17,124 fans to Conrad Stadium for what was billed to be a passing thriller. The Mountaineers used an element of surprise by utilizing the rushing game in a 35-27 win.

Pussey connected on 16 passes for 231 yards and a touchdown, while Brown only put the ball in the air 13 times.

Trailing 27-14 at halftime, it was the newly constructed wishbone formation that sparked a rally. The Mountaineers totaled 266 rushing yards in the victory.

The Mountaineer defense allowed just 37 yards through the air and two first downs in the second half.

NOVEMBER 1, 1980 ROOKIE CARRIES APPS TO VICTORY APP STATE 27, WESTERN CAROLINA 24

With 15,850 fans on hand to witness the tandem of Steve Brown and Rick Beasley play in their final game at Conrad Stadium, it was freshman Alvin Parker who stole the show in a 27-24 come from behind win.

Beasley, who finished his career as the NCAA's fifth all-time leading receiver, went down in the first-quarter with an injury. Minus his top target, Brown was limited to 166 yards through the air.

Fullback Pete Carmelo went down in the second half, so it was the 5-11, 185-pound Parker who got the call and became the first 100-yard rusher of the season for App State.

John Craig (35), a transfer from South Carolina, scored App State's first touchdown and Robbie Price (5) threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in the Mountaineers' 39-34 win at Williams-Brice Stadium in 1975.

Down 24-20 in the fourth quarter App State drove 92 yards for the victory, which included 47 yards on the ground from Parker.

Parker's former Maury High School teammate Derek Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown. Jenkins finished the day with five carries for 58 yards while Parker ran 15 times for 106 yards.

SEPTEMBER 3, 1983 BROWN RECORDS WIN NO. 1 AT WAKE FOREST APP STATE 27, WAKE FOREST 25

Making his head coaching debut on Fireworks Night at Groves Stadium, Mack Brown orchestrated a fireworks display of his own in an upset win over Wake Forest, 27-25.

Kicker Billy Van Aman notched his first collegiate field goal when he split the uprights from 54 yards out. Van Aman also kicked a 29-yarder late in the third quarter to put App State up 20-17.

The game looked one-sided on paper as Wake doubled up App State in total offensive yards (502-247). However, the App State defense recovered five Wake fumbles. Linebacker Joel Carter registered a pair of touchdowns on two interceptions, including a 48-yard scramble to the end zone on his first pick.

Wake completed a 39-yard touchdown and converted a two-point conversion with 1:39 left, but would not get any closer as App State ran the clock for the two-point win.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1984 4TH-AND-99 NO PROBLEM IN SPARKY'S FIRST W APP STATE 17, WESTERN KENTUCKY 16

Head Coach Sparky Woods received his first win with an amazing 99-yard, 12-play drive resulting in a 15-yard John Settle touchdown reception with five seconds remaining for the 17-16 victory.

Trailing 16-3 late in the fourth quarter, App State's Jimmy Armstrong intercepted a pass and returned it to the WKU 15 yard line. With 4:08 left, Mountaineer quarterback Randy Joyce connected for the first of two fourth quarter touchdown passes.

On the Mountaineers' final drive, Joyce converted a crucial fourth and 10 situation by completing an 18-yard pass to Troy Douglas. He followed with a 17-yard strike to Douglas.

Joyce rallied the Mountaineers by completing passes of 12, 17, and 19 yards before finishing the drive by connecting with Settle on a 15-yard screen pass in the waning moments.

NOVEMBER 29, 1986 APP STATE FALLS IN FIRST PLAYOFF APPEARANCE NICHOLLS STATE 28, APP STATE 26

App State rallied behind the arm of Todd Payton and the running abilities of John Settle to bring a 25-13 deficit to within two, at 28-26, but the Mountaineers' season came to a close when Bjorn Nittmo's 42-yard field goal sailed wide left with 18 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

Settle rushed for 236 yards on 37 carries, while Payton completed 18-of-35 pass attempts for 294 yards and two touchdowns in the losing effort.

Heading into the I-AA Playoffs, the Mountaineers were seeded No. 6. They held a 13-6 advantage with 11 minutes left in the third quarter, however Nicholls State quarterback Doug Hudson rallied his team and scored on three of their next four possessions to edge the Mountaineers.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1989 MELCHOR LEADS APP STATE TO VICTORY AT WFU APP STATE 15, WAKE FOREST 10

Facing standout receiver Ricky Proehl and a crowd of 30,200 fans at Wake Forest, first-year head coach Jerry Moore and App State pulled off a 15-10 victory.

Knotted at 3-3 at the intermission, running back Ritchie Melchor recorded 121 of his 139 yards on the ground in the second half, which included a 67-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing Wake Forest possession, Proehl took a short pass and danced 28 yards for the touchdown. With the pressure on late in the fourth quarter, freshman Harold Alexander boomed a punt to Proehl, who fielded the ball cleanly, but could not manage to get out of bounds before time expired.

AUGUST 31, 1991 ALEXANDER KEYS WIN AT MARSHALL APP STATE 9, MARSHALL 3

It was a tale of two great defenses that led App State to a 9-3 victory in the season opener.

Harold Alexander kept the Herd at bay throughout the game. He set a Southern Conference-record by averaging 55.5 yards on eight punts.

Alexander came up big by booting a 67-yarder and a 51-yarder out of his own end zone against a 10-man rush.

Appalachian's defense started the scoring in the first half when Marshall quarterback Michael Payton was pressured into an intentional grounding call that resulted in a safety. The Herd managed a field goal after a fumble recovery that gave them the ball deep into Mountaineer territory.

Fullback J.K. Reaves plowed two yards through the middle of the Herd defensive line to record the only touchdown of the day.

OCTOBER 19, 1991 APPS TOP FURMAN IN SOCON'S FIRST OT TILT APP STATE 26, FURMAN 23

It took three overtimes and four Jay Millson field goals, but when it was decided, App State topped Furman, 26-23, in the first overtime game in Southern Conference history.

The first half was marred by mistakes, and Furman led 17-9.

Late in the fourth quarter, linebacker Brent David forced a fumble and put the Mountaineers on the Paladin 17. After Nate Abraham ran for the quick score, D.J. Campbell connected with A.J. Ellis for the two-point conversion to tie the score, at 17-17.

Knotted at the end of regulation, Millson and Burr traded field goals in the first two overtimes. In the third extra period, defensive back Steve Wilks blocked a Burr field goal attempt. Millson connected on his fourth field goal of the day to clinch the victory.

OCTOBER 10, 1992 THREE MINUTES, TWO SECONDS AND 20 POINTS APP STATE 27, JAMES MADISON 21

D.J. Campbell completed three touchdown passes in the final 3:02 of the game, including one to Craig Styron, who caught it on his back with no time remaining on the clock for the winning points.

JMU began the scoring with one of the most famous tricks in football lore. Early in the second quarter, the Dukes executed the fumblerooski for a 14-yard touchdown. Bitten by the turnover bug, the Mountaineers fell short of the endzone twice due to turnovers.

With the score 21-7, D.J. Campbell threw the first of three touchdown throws to make it 21-14, with 3:02 to play. Just 32 seconds later, it was tied, at 21-21 on another Campbell TD pass.

With JMU driving deep in App State territory, the Mountaineer defense intercepted a deflected pass, giving Campbell a chance at victory.

After two quick passes to get the ball to midfield, Campbell heaved the ball deep into the endzone, where it found Styron.

All-America punter Harold Alexander was integral in two of App State's most memorable victories. He sealed a 15-10 win over Wake Forest with a booming punt in the waning seconds and registered a SoCon-record 55.5 yards per punt in the Mountaineers' 9-3 win over Marshall in the 1991 season opener.

OCTOBER 22, 1994 MOUNTAINEERS TOP NO. 1 MARSHALL APP STATE 24, MARSHALL 14

With ominous weather and a matchup against the No. 1 team in the nation, 19,781 rain-soaked fans spurred App State to a 10-point victory and triumphantly tore down the goal posts.

A dominant performance by the Mountaineer defense keyed the win. Dexter Coakley led the Mountaineers with 15 tackles, three for losses, two pass breakups, and a forced fumble.

Johnny Smith, who spent his first three years at fullback, notched seven tackles, a fumble recovery, a sack, and an interception that he returned 70-yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

In only his second start, Scott Satterfield threw for 113 yards and ran for 30 more, including a score.

NOVEMBER 18, 1995 DIVING SNAG SAVES PERFECT SEASON APP STATE 28, THE CITADEL 24

Scott Satterfield proved his mettle as an all-Southern Conference quarterback by ignoring the pressure on fourth down and slinging the ball to the end zone, where Ron Gilliam's diving grab lifted App State to a 28-24 victory and saved the Mountaineers' perfect regular season.

Unbeaten entering the final game of the regular season, the Mountaineers had plenty of confidence travelling to face the winless Bulldogs. But App State needed everything it could muster, including the pass from Satterfield to Gilliam with 1:39 left in the contest for the comeback triumph.

Satterfield who ran for 80 yards and passed for 176, had no problem sending the ball to Gilliam who was a converted defensive back with only four catches on the season.

OCTOBER 19, 1996 BACKUP QB LEADS APPS OVER EAGLES APP STATE 35, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 28

Backup signal-caller Bake Baker was called upon in the fourth quarter at Georgia Southern to create what head coach Jerry Moore dubbed a "spark." A spark is what he got.

With just over 10 minutes left, Baker took over and led the Mountaineers on three touchdown drives, allowing them to rally from a 14-point deficit.

The Mountaineer offense was desperate for production and the defense was not much better, with five players sidelined with injuries. But in his 10-plus minutes of action, Baker converted three scoring drives, capped by a 68-yard pass to Otis Smith with 3:13 left to provide the winning points.

Baker ended the game 8-of-10 passing for 159 yards and two touchdowns. Prior to his showing in Statesboro, he had completed just three passes in his career.

OCTOBER 3, 1998 APP DOWNS WFU IN OT FOR MOORE'S 100TH WIN APP STATE 30, WAKE FOREST 27 (OT)

Daniel Jeremiah's one-yard touchdown run in overtime gave App State head coach Jerry Moore his 100th career victory, a 30-27 triumph over Wake Forest in Winston-Salem.

Moore's 100th win was his fourth over Wake in his 10 seasons.

App State jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter thanks to a 27-yard field goal by Stuart Jones and a 47-yard touchdown run by Terrence McCall. The Demon Deacons scored 17 of the game's next 20 points to take a 17-13 advantage into the fourth quarter.

After Jones' third field goal of the game cut the Mountaineer deficit to 17-16 early in the final period, Jeremiah hooked up with Joey Gibson for a 57-yard touchdown and a two-point conversion made it 24-17 App State with 5:28 to go. However, Wake Forest responded with a 13-play, 74-yard drive, capped by a seven-yard touchdown pass from Brian Kuklick to Jammie Deese that tied the contest with only 53 seconds left to play.

In overtime, App State held the Deacs to a field goal on the opening possession before clinching the win on Jeremiah's TD dive a series later.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1999 APP NEARLY PULLS OFF UPSET AT AUBURN AUBURN 22, APP STATE 15

For nearly three quarters, it seemed as though App State would pull off perhaps the biggest win ever by an NCAA Division I-AA school over a I-A opponent. But a 33-yard touchdown pass with just 38 seconds left to play gave perennial-power Auburn a narrow 22-15 win over the Mountaineers before 78,123 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

After Auburn took a 7-0 lead less than seven minutes in, App State responded with 15-straight points to take an eight-point advantage deep into the third quarter. The Tigers evened the score at 15-15 late in the third period and marched 77 yards in just 1:04 to score the winning touchdown in the final minute.

App State out-gained Auburn 323-288 for the game and held AU to just 54 yard of offense in the first half.

OCTOBER 16, 1999 APPS HOLD ON FOR WIN OVER NO. 1 EAGLES APP STATE 17, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 16

App State forced four turnovers, including Corey Hall's second interception as time expired, to claim a 17-16 win over No. 1 Georgia Southern before 19,981 at Kidd Brewer Stadium. The triumph was Appalachian's second ever over a top-ranked team, almost five years to the day after it knocked off No. 1 Marshall at KBS.

Without the benefit of an offensive touchdown, the Mountaineers ran out to a 17-0 lead. Weslan Hunter returned a fumble 43 yards for a score and Luke Manuel fell on another Eagle cough-up and the Apps took the seemingly comfortable 17-point lead with less than five minutes to play in the third quarter.

However, the Eagles came back with a vengeance, scoring 16 points over a 12-minute span. Trailing by just a point, got the ball back with under 30 seconds to play, but Hall sealed the victory with his pick off at the Mountaineer 38 yard line.

AUGUST 31, 2000 WAKE GOES DOWN AGAIN APP STATE 20, WAKE FOREST 16

For the third time in four meetings, App State knocked off the ACC's Wake Forest, this time scoring a 20-16 triumph before 26,853 fans at Groves Stadium. The win evened App State head coach Jerry Moore's record versus the Demon Deacons at 5-5-1.

The Mountaineers dominated the first half, outgaining the Deacs 207-49, but trailed 10-7 at the break, thanks to an 88-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Wake's John Stone. The score remained 10-7 heading into the final period and things looked bleak for the Apps, who lost starting quarterback Daniel Jeremiah to a knee injury on the first play of the second half.

However, backup signal-caller David Reaves led App State on an eight-play, 66-yard drive, which he capped with a nine-yard touchdown pass to Rashad Slade on the first play of the fourth quarter to give the Mountaineers a 14-10 lead. Despite committing two turnovers in the final period, App State forced Wake into a pair of turnovers of its own, including a fumble on its own 10 yard line with just over three minutes to go. Three plays later, Karim Razzak found the end zone from 10 yards out to seal the triumph.

Daniel Jeremiah's one-yard touchdown plunge in overtime lifted App State to a 30-27 victory at Wake Forest in 1998. The Mountaineers' fourth win over WFU in 10 seasons was also head coach Jerry Moore's 100th victory at App State.

NOVEMBER 25, 2000 APP AVENGES LOSS IN PLAYOFF WIN AT TROY APP STATE 33, TROY STATE 30

After being handed a 34-28 setback in Boone by Troy State during the regular season, App State returned the favor on a much bigger stage, as it downed the fourth-seeded in the opening round of the I-AA playoffs.

App State outgained Troy State, 200-21, in the first half en route to a 19-9 lead. The Mountaineers extended their lead to 26-9 in the third quarter and withstood three fourth-quarter Troy touchdowns to hold on for the win.

It was just the second road playoff victory ever for the Mountaineers.

OCTOBER 9, 2004 WILLIAMS REWRITES RECORDS IN COMEBACK WIN APP STATE 30, FURMAN 29

Junior quarterback Richie Williams rewrote the NCAA record book with his performance in App State's home triumph over No. 2 Furman.

Williams set NCAA all-divisions records by completing 28 straight passes at one point and going 40-of-45 in the win.

Despite Williams' efforts, the Mountaineers found themselves trailing the Paladins by six points after Furman quarterback Ingle Martin connected with running back Cedrick Gipson on a 52-yard catch and run with 2:03 to go in the ball game. Williams accounted for 78 yards on Appalachian's final drive by completing 4 of 4 passes for 61 yards and running for 17 more, including a 13-yard keeper for the winning touchdown with 35 seconds left.

In all, Williams threw for 413 yards and two touchdowns and tacked on 27 more yards on the ground to spark the victory, just one week removed from missing the Apps' 41-34 win over Texas State with a sprained knee.

DECEMBER 10, 2005 ELDER, HUNTER LEAD APPS TO FIRST TITLE GAME APP STATE 29, FURMAN 23

Filling in for an injured Richie Williams, backup quarterback Trey Elder threw a touchdown pass on his first play and ran for the game-winning score with 2:17 remaining in App State's 29-23 victory over Furman in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals.

Elder completed 12-of-17 passes for 165 yards and no interceptions and ran 12 times for 69 yards in relief of Williams, who left the contest mid-way through the first quarter with a left ankle injury.

On his first play, Elder connected with Dexter Jackson for a 45-yard touchdown pass that gave the Mountaineers a 14-0 lead. However, Furman scored 23 of the next 30 points to take a 23-21 lead into halftime.

The Paladins' slim advantage stood up until Elder led the Apps on an 11-play, 67-yard drive, culminating with his 1-yard touchdown plunge with just over two minutes to go.

Led by quarterback Ingle Martin, the Paladins drove inside the Mountaineer 40 with under a minute to play. But, on first-and-10 at the 36, App State defensive end Jason Hunter hit Martin from behind, forcing the ball loose. Defensive tackle Omarr Byrom picked up the ball and returned it all the way to the Furman 1.

NOVEMBER 24, 2007 ROMAN STRIPS JAMES MADISON OF UPSET BID APP STATE 28, JAMES MADISON 27

App State's magical season looked like it was going to end three games short of the ultimate goal, but the Mountaineer defense stepped up at the most critical moments of the 2007 playoff opener.

JMU led 27-22 late in the fourth quarter and faced third-and-1 at its own 32 yard line, needing only one first down to end the Mountaineers' run at a third straight national title. The Black and Gold defense stopped the Dukes for no gain on two straight plays, including a fourth-down rush, and got the ball back deep in Madison territory.

Two plays after Devon Moore made a diving catch on fourth-and-3 from the 25-yard line, Armanti Edwards scored his third touchdown to give App State a one-point lead with just 1:10 remaining on the clock.

JMU needed just four plays to drive 62 yards, setting itself up for an apparent chip-shot field goal to win the game. However, JMU head coach Mickey Matthews elected to run one more play and App State linebacker Jacque Roman stripped freshman running back Jamal Sullivan of the ball. The loose pigskin was smothered by Pierre Banks just feet from the App State sideline, triggering a wild celebration that would last straight through to the Mountaineers' 49-21 rout over Delaware in the national championship game.

SEPTEMBER 4, 2010 EPIC 4TH-QUARTER RALLY LIFTS MOUNTAINEERS APP STATE 42, CHATTANOOGA 41

App State came back from a pair of 21-point deficits to rally for a heart-stopping 42-41 victory at upstart Chattanooga in the 2010 opener.

App State trailed 28-7 with less than two minutes remaining in the third quarter and 35-14 just six seconds into the final period.

The Mountaineers scored a total of five touchdowns in a 10:12 span, including the middle three in just 2:54 and the final four over a 7:51 stretch after UTC had regained a 21-point lead on the first play of the fourth quarter.

App State took its first lead of the game at 42-35 with 6:05 to go on a bizarre 33-yard touchdown reception by quarterback DeAndre Presley. The Mocs jumped offside on a third-and-1 play from the UTC 29-yard line, giving Presley a free play. The junior threw a quick pass to Matt Cline, who was drilled by a Moc defender and fumbled. Presley picked up the loose ball and weaved his way through the UTC defense, picked up a number of key down-field blocks and scoring the go-ahead touchdown.

Chattanooga responded by driving 86 yards to cut the deficit to 42-41. With a pair of UTC kickers having already combined to miss three extra points, the Mocs elected to go for two points and the potential win, but Appalachian's Mark LeGree batted down a pass on the conversion attempt.

NOVEMBER 10, 2012 LATE PICK HELPS MOORE CLOSE WITH A TITLE APP STATE 33, FURMAN 28

Troy Sanders intercepted a pass at the 5-yard line as time expired and 12th-ranked App State clinched its record-tying 12th Southern Conference championship in the final regular-season game for coach Jerry Moore, whose team went 6-2 in the league despite dropping its league opener.

NOVEMBER 8, 2014 LAST-MINUTE FIELD GOAL EXTENDS STREAK APP STATE 31, ULM 29

Bentlee Critcher drilled a 39-yard field goal with 29 seconds left to lift App State to streak-extending win during its FBS debut in the Sun Belt.

After starting the year 1-5 (with a win over FCS Campbell), the Mountaineers closed the season with a six-game winning streak, as the ULM game improved App State's record to 4-5.

OCTOBER 31, 2015 MOUNTAINEERS WIN HALLOWEEN THRILLER APP STATE 44, TROY 41 (3OT)

Stephen Burns, Kennan Gilchrist and Doug Middleton combined to smother a fake field-goal attempt to start the third overtime, and Zach Matics followed with a 24-yard game-winner.

The contest was a tight affair throughout, featuring six ties and no lead of more than seven points. Despite being unable to put the pesky Trojans away, App State never trailed in regulation — its only deficit came when Troy scored first in the opening overtime.

Dale Jones celebrates after App State used a last-minute fumble recovery inside the 10-yard line to beat James Madison 28-27 in the 2007 playoffs.

OCTOBER 14, 2017 APP STATE OVERCOMES 20-0 HALFTIME DEFICIT APP STATE 23, IDAHO 20

App State mounted its biggest rally in seven years with a 23-20 victory at Idaho during the Vandals' final year in the Sun Belt Conference.

The Mountaineers trailed 20-0 early in the third quarter in the Kibbie Dome before coming back behind a sack-hungry, turnover-minded defense and three touchdown throws from senior quarterback Taylor Lamb. It was App State's biggest comeback since it erased a 35-14 deficit in the fourth quarter of a 42-41 victory at Chattanooga in the 2010 opener.

Lamb's 45-yard touchdown pass to Ike Lewis helped tie the game with 10:04 left, and Michael Rubino made a go-ahead field goal from 31 yards out with 7:24 remaining.

Idaho (2-4, 1-2) started its final drive by regaining possession at its 46-yard line with 2:23 remaining, and Tee Sims had a hand in two sacks leading up to a fourth-and-24 pass that was completed but stopped a yard short of the marker with 50 seconds left.

DECEMBER 1, 2018 MOUNTAINEERS WIN FIRST SBC TITLE GAME APP STATE 30, LOUISIANA 19

Hosting the first Sun Belt Conference Championship Game, App State won 30-19 against Louisiana in Boone to claim its third straight league title.

Darrynton Evans had an MVP-belt-hoisting performance in which his 218 all-purpose yards included 111 rushing yards and a 97-yard kickoff return. Quarterback Zac Thomas had two rushing touchdowns of at least 25 yards, and the Mountaineers allowed just one touchdown while forcing the Ragin' Cajuns to kick four field goals.

All three of Chandler Staton's second-half field goals for App State exceeded 40 yards, including a 43-yarder that pushed the lead to 11 points with 2:09 remaining.

SEPTEMBER 21, 2019 APP GETS FBS BREAKTHROUGH FOR P5 WIN APP STATE 34, NORTH CAROLINA 31

National defensive player of the week Demetrius Taylor forced two turnovers to help App State build a first-half lead on the road, and Darrynton Evans rushed for three TDs as the Mountaineers built a 27-10 lead before holding on to beat in-state ACC program North Carolina.

The Tar Heels reached App State's 39-yard line with five seconds left, and Akeem Davis-Gaither pushed through a gap in the line to tip a 56-yard attempt at a field goal as time expired.

The second-ever football meeting between the two schools and first since 1940 drew a spirited, sold-out crowd to Kenan Stadium, and the Mountaineers posted their first win against a Power Five conference team since the historic upset of Michigan in 2007.

Taylor led App State's defense by recording 2.5 sacks, forcing two fumbles, turning a post-sack recovery into a 20-yard fumble return for a touchdown and setting up another touchdown with an interception.

Akeem Davis-Gaither (24) blocked a 56-yard field-goal attempt as time expired in Chapel Hill to give App State its first win against a Power Five opponent since the Mountaineers joined the FBS level.

NOVEMBER 9, 2019 2ND P5 ROAD WIN OF '19 COMES IN SEC COUNTRY APP STATE 20, SOUTH CAROLINA 15

Becoming just the seventh Group of Five team since the Sun Belt was formed in 2001 to post two Power Five road wins in the same season, App State escaped Columbia with a win in front of 80,849 fans and an ESPN2 audience.

True freshman Nicholas Ross' 20-yard interception return for a touchdown with 1:51 left in the first half gave App State a 13-6 lead, and Zac Thomas' 1-yard TD run that gave the Mountaineers a 20-9 lead was set up by Jalen Virgil's 57-yard kickoff return following a South Carolina field goal.

After cutting into the 20-9 deficit on a touchdown with 2:58 left, South Carolina regained possession and faced a fourth-and-15 from the App State 35 with 19 seconds left. Ryan Hilinski completed a pass for 26 yards to the 9 before spiking the ball with nine seconds remaining.

DECEMBER 7, 2019 MOUNTAINEERS WIN 2ND STRAIGHT TITLE GAME APP STATE 45, LOUISIANA 38

App State claimed its fourth straight league title and celebrated a Sun Belt Championship Game win on its home field for the second straight year.

Three early touchdowns from belt-winning MVP Darrynton Evans gave the 21st-ranked Mountaineers a 21-0 lead late in the first quarter, and captain Josh Thomas' first career interception return for a touchdown accounted for one of three turnovers forced by a senior on App State's defense.

The Mountaineers led 42-17 late in the third quarter thanks to Thomas' defensive touchdown and maintained at least a 14-point lead until the Ragin' Cajuns cut into a 45-31 deficit on a touchdown pass with 1:19 left.

SEPTEMBER 26, 2020 MOUNTAINEERS OVERCOME COVID ABSENCES APP STATE 52, CAMPBELL 21

A shorthanded but motivated App State squad overcame a slow start to dominate the last three quarters of a win at Kidd Brewer Stadium.

A determined offensive line — sometimes with as many as seven linemen on the field at one time — led the way as App State rushed for 404 yards even though it was missing several skill position starters. A day earlier, App State and AppHealthCare announced that contact tracing had identified 18 players who were quarantining due to exposure to one of three then-active cases of confirmed COVID-19, with all three cases then recovering in isolation.

Daetrich Harrington had career highs of 32 carries for 211 yards and four rushing touchdowns for App State, which was missing five tight ends who had all played in the first two games of the season.

App State didn't play again until 26 days later, after the first two Sun Belt games were postponed, and it won 45-17 against Arkansas State.

DECEMBER 12, 2020 MOUNTAINEERS RALLY IN PAULSON WITH BIG TDS APP STATE 34, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 26

Overcoming an early 14-point deficit, the Mountaineers dominated the second half and ended the Eagles' 10-game home winning streak.

The Mountaineers still trailed 17-7 at the break but outscored the Eagles by a 24-3 margin in the first 17-plus minutes of the second half. Immediately after Georgia Southern made a 47-yard field goal to break a 17-all tie in the first minute of the fourth quarter, Jalen Virgil gave App State its first lead of the night with a 100-yard kickoff return.

Demetrius Taylor and Brendan Harrington combined for a stop to force a three-and-out punt, leading to a 70-yard touchdown run from Nate Noel on the first play of the next series, less than two minutes after Virgil had scored.

In five of App State's last six wins in Statesboro, it faced a fourth-quarter deficit, and it overcame a double-digit deficit in each of its last three victories at Paulson Stadium.

Dec. 12 was the latest date on the calendar for an App State-Georgia Southern game — The only previous December games between the schools was an FCS playoff game on Dec. 5, 1987 — and it was the first time App State played its regular-season finale against the Eagles.

A crowd of 36,752 witnessed App State open the 2021 season on a Thursday night with an official home game win against East Carolina in Bank of America Stadium.

SEPTEMBER 2, 2021 MOUNTAINEERS ROLL PAST PIRATES IN NFL VENUE APP STATE 33, ECU 19

Playing a home game at Bank of America Stadium, home of the NFL's Carolina Panthers, the Mountaineers used a 33-3 run to build a 33-9 lead in the Duke's Mayo Classic against ECU of the American Athletic Conference.

A record-setting crowd of 36,752 was on hand for the Thursday night season opener, with country music star and App State alum Luke Combs in attendance two days before he performed a stadium concert in Kidd Brewer Stadium. Combs led a singing of his hit song "Beer Never Broke My Heart" with the team in a victorious locker room.

Chase Brice was nearly flawless through three quarters of his App State debut, throwing for 259 yards with touchdowns to Thomas Hennigan (114 receiving yards) and Corey Sutton. A new-look offensive line paved the way for two App State backs to surpass 100 rushing yards, as Nate Noel had 126 on 15 carries and Camerun Peoples scored twice on a 14-carry, 100-yard night.

SEPTEMBER 23, 2021 MOUNTAINEERS RALLY IN HERD'S RETURN TO KBS APP STATE 31, MARSHALL 30

Chandler Staton hit a go-ahead field goal from 45 yards out with 5:45 left, and the defense made a key stand before Nate Noel's open-field running clinched a comeback victory over longtime rival Marshall on a Thursday night in front of 28,377 fans at The Rock.

In Marshall's first visit to Boone since 1996, App State climbed out of a nine-point hole and erased a fourth-quarter deficit in a win for the first time since the 2017 season at Idaho.

The Mountaineers forced a punt to regain possession at their own 8 with four minutes left. Noel had gains of 11, 14, 41 and 22 yards on the final drive alone, smartly going down short of the end zone in the final two minutes to prevent Marshall from possibly regaining possession with an eight-point deficit.

Trailing by nine points to start the fourth quarter, App State moved from its 38 to the Marshall 25 thanks to an acrobatic catch by Corey Sutton. Two plays later, he improbably came down with a 24-yard touchdown catch at the left-edge of the end zone.

Camerun Peoples scored three first-half touchdowns for App State.

OCTOBER 20, 2021 MOUNTAINEERS BEAT RANKED CHANTS ON KICK APP STATE 30, #14 COASTAL CAROLINA 27

Chandler Staton's 24-yard field goal as time expired lifted App State to a dramatic win against No. 14 Coastal Carolina on a Wednesday night in front of 31,061 fans at Kidd Brewer Stadium, putting the Mountaineers in the driver's seat to win a Sun Belt East Division title.

It was the biggest regular season crowd for a college football game on a Tuesday/Wednesday since 2011.

With the Chanticleers (6-0 entering Boone) as the highest-ranked FBS team to ever visit The Rock, which drew an above-capacity crowd for a mid-week game on ESPN2, the Mountaineers posted their second-ever win against a ranked opponent — and first since the 34-32 win vs. Michigan in 2007.

Defensively, the Mountaineers limited Coastal to 55 rushing yards — 208.5 below its season average — on 29 attempts. App State held the Chants to 16 offensive yards on 10 fourth-quarter plays, only one of which produced a first down. Coastal entered the game ranked No. 1 at the FBS level in points per game (48.8) and No. 2 in yards per game (554.2).

Malik Williams caught 10 passes for a career-high 206 yards as Chase Brice threw for a career-high 347 yards and two touchdowns. App State tied the game at 27-all on a 43-yard TD run by Camerun Peoples late in the third.

App State's defense came up huge in the fourth quarter, forcing three Coastal punts, the last one being fair-caught at the App State 38 with 3:53 remaining. Brice had back-to-back throws of 16 and 19 yards to Williams to get the Mountaineers in scoring range. With time on its side and timeouts lacking for the Chanticleers after a third-and-1 conversion to the 11 with less than two minutes remaining, App State milked the clock to set up a storm-inducing kick.

It was App State's first field goal to end a win at The Rock since the 44-41 victory against Troy in three overtimes in 2015.

Coastal Carolina jumped out to a 14-0 lead, but App State rallied to tie the game, with a surprise onside kick connection between Michael Hughes and a diving Milan Tucker playing a key role in the Mountaineers scoring two touchdowns in 42 seconds.

Chandler Staton, kicking out of Clayton Howell's hold, made a 24-yard field goal as time expired against No. 14 Coastal Carolina, the highest-ranked opponent to ever visit Kidd Brewer Stadium. The Wednesday night game drew a crowd of 31,061.

HISTORIC 2019 SEASON

 #18 FINAL COACHES POLL, #19 FINAL AP TOP 25
 SUN BELT, NEW ORLEANS BOWL CHAMPIONS
 6-0 ROAD RECORD WITH WINS AT UNC, USC

SEASON SUPERLATIVES

The Mountaineers became the first Sun Belt team and the first FBS team from the state of North Carolina to win 13 games.

App State became the first Sun Belt team to conclude a season in the Top 25 and claimed the top spot among FBS teams from North Carolina for the second straight year.

App State became the first FBS program to win five bowl games in each of its first five bowl-eligible seasons.

App State tied Ohio State for the third-best winning percentage among FBS teams, behind just LSU (15-0) and Clemson (14-1).

App State's 54-12 overall record from 2015-19 was the fifth-best mark in the country during that span, trailing just Clemson, Alabama, Ohio State and Oklahoma.

The Mountaineers finished as a statistical champion or co-champion in two categories: sole possession of first with a fourth-down conversion percentage of 81.3 and tied with Illinois for the FBS lead with six defensive touchdowns.

App State became just the fifth program in major college football history to send its fifth-year seniors out with five bowl wins and four conference titles, joining Nebraska (1969-73), Alabama (1975-79), Florida State (1991-95) and Marshall (1998-2002).

App State was the first Group of Five program to have two players picked in the 2020 NFL Draft, as running back Darrynton Evans went to the Tennessee Titans in the third round and linebacker Akeem Davis-Gaither was picked by the Cincinnati Bengals to open the fourth round.

App State led the nation in road wins en route to the only 6-0 road record by FBS teams.

App State ranked No. 7 nationally and No. 1 among G5 programs with an average scoring margin of plus-17.5 points per game against FBS competition. The Mountaineers had a balanced team that ranked No. 9 nationally in scoring offense (38.8 points), No. 21 in scoring defense (20.0 points) and tied for No. 2 with five blocked kicks.

The fifth-year seniors finished their careers with a 7-0 postseason record that included two wins in the Sun Belt title game. Fourth-year seniors were on teams that went 43-10 with a Sun Belt title every season.

From 2015-19, App State improved to an FBS-best 24-0 in non-season-opening games in which it had more than a week to prepare.

App State set Sun Belt records for single-season points (543) and touchdowns (73).

With 13 wins, App State tied for the second-highest total by a Group of Five team since the Sun Belt was established in 2001. Boise State had a G5-record 14 wins in 2009.

App State set a program record for fewest turnovers committed in a season with nine and tied the program's single-season record for lost fumbles by losing only three.

For the sixth straight FBS season, App State ranked in the top 25 nationally in rushing yards per game (No. 16 at 231.4 in 2019) and fewest sacks allowed (tied for No. 17 with 18 in 2019).

App State set a then-program record with seven national television appearances in 2019.

App State led the Sun Belt in attendance for the third time in four seasons from 2016-19.

Mountaineers are listed alphabetically with numbers worn and years played. To be included in the all-time roster, a player must have played in a varsity game. Any additions, deletions, and/or corrections can be submitted with proper documentation to the App State sports information office.

HALL OF FAMER JERRY MOORE

3 NATIONAL TITLES
10 CONFERENCE TITLES

The winningest coach in App State and Southern Conference history, Jerry Moore compiled a 215-87 record in his 24 seasons at App State from 1989-2012. That run included 10 SoCon championships, 18 postseason appearances and an unprecedented three straight FCS national titles from 2005-07.

Before the 2021 debut at Kidd Brewer Stadium, the Jerry Moore Plaza with a statue honoring the coach was unveiled.

In 31 years overall as a head coach, Moore was 242-135-2. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2014, adding that honor to recognition from the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, the Southern Conference Hall of Fame and the App State Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2018, he was also awarded The Order of the Long Leaf Pine, which recognizes "exemplary service to the State of North Carolina."

While he enjoyed success at nearly every stop of his 51-year coaching career, the 24 seasons at App State cemented Moore's standing as one of college football's all-time great mentors.

In leading the Mountaineers to three consecutive national championships from 2005-07, he made App State the first program to ever win three straight titles at the FCS level and the first Division I institution (FCS or FBS) to accomplish the feat in 61 years. App State became the first institution from the state of North Carolina to ever win an NCAA football championship at any level when it defeated Northern Iowa 21-16 in the 2005 national title game, a feat it repeated with wins over Massachusetts (28-17) and Delaware (49-21) in the 2006 and 2007 NCAA Division I Football Championship finals.

Moore also led the Mountaineers to seven SoCon championships in an eight-year span (2005-

10, '12), making App State only the second program to achieve that feat since the league began crowning a champion in 1933. App State won 26 straight conference games from 2007-10.

Additionally, App State became a household name when Moore led his squad to perhaps the biggest and most prominent upset in college football history, a 34-32 triumph over Michigan in the 2007 season opener.

The victory over Michigan, which came into the contest ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll, marked the first time that an FCS team had ever toppled a nationally ranked FBS opponent. The victory also compelled the AP to change its long-standing history of only accepting votes for FBS teams in its Top 25 poll, which allowed the Mountaineers to become the first FCS team to ever receive votes in the poll, which they did on three occasions in 2007.

Moore is no stranger to individual awards, as he is a three-time American Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year (2005, '06, '07).

He also won the 2006 Eddie Robinson Award (National Coach of the Year) from The Sports Network, is a six-time AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and an eight-time SoCon Coach of the Year.

In 2009, he was named the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year, which included $50,000 for Moore's favorite charities and $20,000 for the App State Alumni Association scholarship fund.

Under Moore, App State players earned all-conference recognition 257 times and received All-America honors on 99 occasions.

In addition to his nearly quarter-century tenure at App State, Moore also served as the head coach at North Texas (1979-80) and Texas Tech (1981-85) and spent 15 seasons on the staffs of legendary mentors Hayden Fry (1965-72 at SMU), Tom Osborne (1973-78 at Nebraska) and Ken Hatfield (1988 at Arkansas). Moore began his coaching career with four seasons as an assistant coach at Corsicana H.S. in Texas (1961-64).

A native of Bonham, Texas, Moore was one of the nation's top receivers at Baylor from 1958-60.

In addition to boasting one of the most picturesque settings for college football with App State's campus and the natural beauty of the High Country serving as a backdrop, Kidd Brewer Stadium also stakes claim to being one of the toughest venues in the nation.

With 61 seasons completed in the stadium, which opened as Conrad Stadium on Sept. 15, 1962, App State boasts a 268-79-5 all-time record at The Rock.

With the construction of the $50 million north end zone facility, removal of the track and installation of new turf, The Rock had a new look in 2021, as the end zone facility opened for fans before a November 2020 game against Georgia State. Hall of Fame coach Jerry Moore was also honored before the 2021 opener at The Rock with a plaza and statue in his name.

The new end zone facility houses the football locker room, weight room, offices and team areas, as well as 1,000 club level seats, athletic training spaces, retail and dining service facilities.

The 2022 home opener vs. UNC drew a stadium-record 40,168 fans, and all seven home games in 2022 had an attendance figure exceeding 30,000, with six of the top eight home crowds in stadium history occurring in 2022.

In 2022, App State set single-season school and Sun Belt records with an average home crowd of 33,566. The Mountaineers broke the previous league and program records of 30,441 they had established in 2021.

In 2021, App State led the 130-team FBS at 101.5 percent home attendance relative to capacity.

App State's impressive crowd support included 31,061 fans at a Wednesday win against Coastal Carolina — the biggest regular season crowd for a college football game on a Tuesday/Wednesday since App State joined the Sun Belt in 2014 — and 28,377 for a Thursday game vs. Marshall. A Thursday season opener vs. ECU in Charlotte's Bank of America Stadium was officially an App State home game that drew 36,752 fans, the Kidd Brewer Stadium debut vs. FCS-level Elon drew 30,224 and a post-Thanksgiving visit from Georgia Southern drew 28,005.

App State also led the Sun Belt Conference in home attendance in 2016, 2017 and 2019, averaging 25,787 fans in Boone during the 2017 season, 23,351 fans per regular-season home game in 2018 and 23,806 fans per home game during a 13-1 season in 2019.

Wake Forest's visit to Boone in 2017 attracted a then-record crowd of 35,126. The record was broken just one year after Miami's visit drew a crowd of 34,658.

Thanks to philanthropic funding through A Mountaineer Impact, Kidd Brewer Stadium had a new and improved look in 2017 and is now part of the Mark E. Ricks Athletics Complex. The video board display increased to three times the size of the previous board with 2,500 square feet to feature 13HD technology from Daktronics. It measures 50 feet high by 90 feet wide for the overall scoreboard, with the new LED display measuring more than 37 feet high by 67 feet wide.

Kidd Brewer Stadium's official seating capacity was 16,650 in 2007, but several expansion projects, including construction of the 120,000-square-foot App State Athletics Center, have almost doubled the capacity.

Conrad Stadium opened in honor of former University trustee and R.J. Reynolds executive William J. Conrad and was originally constructed with 10,000 permanent seats.

Conrad Stadium was renamed on Sept. 3, 1988 in honor of Kidd Brewer, one of the most successful head coaches in App State football history. Brewer, a Winston-Salem, N.C., native who served as head football coach of the Mountaineers from 1935-38, compiled a 30-5-3 overall mark in his four seasons at the helm of the Mountaineers.

Construction began in 1960 on Conrad Stadium (left) and what would become known as Owens Field House (right) in the stadium's north end zone. Conrad Stadium officially opened on Sept. 15, 1962 when App State hosted Emory & Henry.

In 1970, the natural grass playing field was removed from Conrad Stadium and replaced with an artificial surface, the first in the Carolinas.

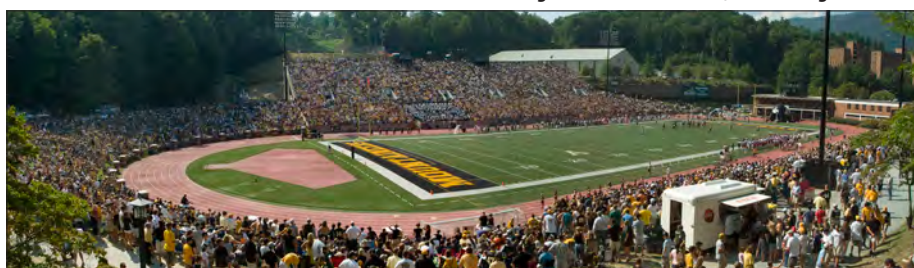

In 1978, the stadium underwent a massive renovation which included an 8,000-seat expansion and new press box/chancellor's suite on the stadium's west side.

Stadium capacity jumped to 18,000 following the extensive renovations in 1978. Another restoration project in 1995 dropped capacity to 16,650.

Re-named Kidd Brewer Stadium in 1988, much of the facility remained largely unchanged from 1978 until the beginning of the 21st century. However, additional renovations became necessary when App State began drawing crowds in excess of 20,000 on a regular basis.

Prior to the 2007 season, the press box was removed from the west side of the stadium to make way for the 120,000-square-foot App State Athletics Center. Following the '07 campaign, construction began on a 4,400-seat upper deck on the stadium's east side.

Extensive renovations in Kidd Brewer Stadium were completed in 2009.

Yosef is mountain talk for "yourself," with the idea being that if you are an App State alumnus, fan or friend and have a heart filled with black and gold, you are Yosef.

In preparing the layout for the 1942 edition of Appalachian's annual yearbook, The Rhododendron, editor James Storie and associate editor Elizabeth South (who later married in June 1942) were talking with freshman Lloyd S. Isaacs and Bill Mitchell of Observer Publishing about being one picture short of a perfectly balanced annual.

The result of their chatter was the creation of a character named Dan'l Boone Yoseff from Appalachian. He was presented as a member of the 1941-42 freshman class.

Each member of the foursome deflected credit for the creation of Yosef. Although called the Mountaineers, App State had no mascot prior to Yosef. There were no plans in 1942 for Yosef to continue and evolve into what he is today.

His initial publication was such a hit that students went so far as to want to order picture packages of Yosef instead of pictures of themselves. Undoubtedly, the caricature, the name and the idea appealed to App State students.

There is a controversy as to where the original image of Yosef came from and who was responsible for the picture. Accounts mention a bookstore staff member generating a sketch but an artist in Charlotte has also been credited with the creation of the mountain man.

The next mention of the fictional character came during the years of 1946-49 when Yoseff served as a guest editorial writer in the student newspaper (The Appalachian). He wrote using mountain colloquialism with a penchant for misspelled words.

Yoseff dropped the second "f" and became Yosef in January of 1947. On Nov. 22, 1947, the University sponsored a Mr. and Mrs. Yosef contest. Skills needed for the titles included hog and chicken calling.

The first mention of Yosef as the mascot of the Mountaineers is a picture in the March 12, 1948 edition of The Appalachian. The photo tabbed him as a perennial freshman.

In 1949, John Geffrich, a 48-year-old World War II veteran, was one of the first Yosef mascots. Geffrich helped establish a lineage of male undergraduates portraying a bearded man with coveralls, a pipe and a straw hat. The addition of a musket and a black-and-gold pick-up truck called the "Yosef Mobile" came along through the generations of Yosef.

Prior to the 1983-84 academic year, a committee comprised of University students, staff and faculty members modernized Yosef's look through a cartoon-type head and body. The Yosef mascot has undergone several overhauls over the past three decades, including one this offseason that gives the top Mountaineer a fresh new look as App State begins a new era in the Sun Belt Conference.

Responsible for providing school spirit, Yosef is an official member of App State's cheerleading squad. He was an integral part of App State's 1986 and 1989 UCA Division I and 2008 Speed Squad, Inc. Large Squad national championships. Yosef goes to mascot instructional camp with the Mountaineers' cheerleaders each summer.

Yosef is also a fixture at community gatherings away from campus, including parades, school assemblies and private events. To request an appearance by Yosef at your event, email spirit@appstate.edu.

YOSEF THROUGH THE YEARS

The Rhododendron staff created Dan'l Boone Yoseff from Appalachian, Appalachian's first mascot.

1983-84

A committee comprised of App State students, faculty and staff developed the first costumed Yosef.

1949

A lineage of bearded male App State undergraduates donning coveralls, a pipe and a straw hat began portraying Yosef.

"Touchdown Yosef" became a permanent part of the campus landscape when the statue donated by Irwin and Carol Belk was erected at the corner of Stadium Drive and Rivers Street.

The newest incarnation of Yosef was unveiled on July 1, 2014 in conjunction with App State's first official day in the Sun Belt Conference and NCAA Division I FBS.
