

AUSTIN PEAY

FOOTBALL

In the history of Austin Peay football, more than 1,700 athletes have played for the team now known as the Governors.

Those alumni are recognized on plaques in the Hendricks Fox Walk of History, located in the southwest corner of Fortera Stadium. That walk was made possible by Hendricks Fox, class of 1951, and member of the football team from 1947-50.

This document contains the same list available in the Alumni Walk but is the most current version available, including any additions or corrections the Athletics Communications Office has been made aware of to the date below.

Every attempt has been made to compile the following list, but we recognize it may not be complete. The Athletics Communications Office has utilized the following sources to compile this list:

- All-State Newspaper (1930-48)
- Austin Peay's official letterwinner's lists (1946-89)
- Austin Peay's official statistics (1959-current)

The original list was based on the official letterwinner's lists in those years it was presented. Additional names were added from the department's official statistics for those players who played and recorded significant statistics during a given year. Finally, the Pre-World War II teams were added by searching the All-State Newspapers for rosters and game results.

If you notice an alumnus who has not been recognized appropriately on those plaques or in the following lists, please contact the Austin Peay Athletics office with all relevant information so their participation may be added.

Hendricks Fox “Walk of History”

Hendricks Fox, a 1951 Austin Peay graduate, has been instrumental in returning the University to scholarship football. Hendricks has spent countless hours making phone calls and writing notes to players and students of his era. He also has shown his support by establishing the Fox Endowed Football Scholarship.

Hendricks said “I’ve had a successful life and I want to give back to help someone.”

For his philanthropic efforts, Hendricks received the Chancellor’s Philanthropy Award in Hendricks also was instrumental in establishing the Dave Aaron Scholarship Endowment and serves on the APSU Foundation Board.

This “Walk of History” is a space dedicated to all those that dedicated themselves to being a Governors football student-athlete through each decade of APSU’s history. It is a proud reminder of the people and traditions that have built this great University. After scholarship football was dropped, Hendricks was a leader in making sure these names and their legacy would never be forgotten. Out of this struggle and fight for the future rises this stadium and Austin Peay’s commitment to building a new future while respecting the great football student-athletes that are an important part of its past.

When you think of football at APSU, you will always think of Hendricks Fox and his passion, love, and support for football.
