INSIDE THE TENNESSEE STATE SERIES

The Series: 23rd meeting, Tennessee State leads, 14-8

Last Meeting: Tennessee State def. Austin Peay, 26-24 (10/19/19)

Notably: APSU had won back-to-back games against TSU until last season's loss at Nissan Stadium... APSU posted its best single-game scoring output in series history with a 49-34 win over TSU in the last meeting at Fortera Stadium... APSU has a 6-5 lead over TSU in games contested in Clarksville.

WHAT A GOVS WIN WOULD MEAN

Austin Peay would record its 300th victory in program history... It would be first-year head coach Scotty Walden's first career win at Austin Peay... It would be the first time in series history that Austin Peay has held TSU to just one win; every other Tigers win has been followed by at least one more.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Ohio Valley Conference elected to postpone all conference games until spring 2021.

AT THE KICKOFF

WALDEN'S WORLD

Scotty Walden was hired as Austin Peay State University's 21st head football coach in November 2020. Walden, who at age 30 is the youngest head coach at the Division I level, takes over in Clarksville after serving as the head coach at Southern Miss to start the 2020 season. Considered one of the brightest young offensive minds in collegiate football, the American Football Coaches Association tabbed Walden as a Top 35 coach under 35 years of age in 2019.

ANOTHER OPENER

In this most unusual of football seasons, Austin Peay will be facing an opponent opening its 2020-21 campaign for the fifth time when they take on Tennessee State. It's a vast difference from the original 2020 schedule when APSU was slated to be the homecoming opponent for five opponents.

LONG ROAD HOME

Sunday against Tennessee State will be the first time in 463 days that Austin Peay has taken the field at Fortera Stadium. The last time the Governors played at home was when they clinched the 2019 Ohio Valley Conference Championship with a 35-7 win over Eastern Illinois, Nov. 23, 2011.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Freshman Draylen Ellis passed for a touchdown and ran for another in his debut as Austin Peay's starting quarterback at Tennessee Tech. Ellis accounted for 214 total offensive yards, completing 11 passes for 165 yards and running for 49 yards on his way to being named the Ohio Valley Conference's Newcomer of the Week in his first week in the league.

RECEIVER RICH

The Govs return a wealth of talent at receiver in the spring of 2021, led by All-American DeAngelo Wilson. Wilson set the program record in receptions (89), receiving yards (1,564), and touchdowns (15) in 2019. The Govs also return do-it-all receiver Baniko Harley -1,019 all-purpose yards and 11 total touchdowns in 2019 - and a pair of 6-3 targets in Gorel Soumare and Geordon Pollard.

PRESEASON POSITIVES

Seven Austin Peay athletes were recognized on the Preseason All-OVC teams released in July. Nickelback Kordell Jackson, the league's 2019 Defensive Player of the Year, also was its preseason defensive pick. Wide receiver DeAngelo Wilson was its Preseason Offensive Player of the Year.

UP NEXT

After a week off for the Ohio Valley Conference Basketball Tournament, Austin Peay will play a 2 p.m., March 14 contest against Southeast Missouri in Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

BY THE NUMBERS

50	Austin Peay recorded 16 tackles for loss and held Tennessee Tech to 50 rushing yards in the spring opener. The last time the Govs held a team under 100 rushing yards in a game was at Sacramento State (12/7/19).
7	Matthew Gayle, Troy Henderson Jr., Kordell Jackson, Terrell Lucas, Jack McDonald, Koby Perry, and Elijah Shepard each recorded a single sack as the Govs set the Austin Peay single-game sack record (7).
10	DeAngelo Wilson recorded the 10th 100-yard receiving performance of his career when he hauled in 8 catches for 124 yards against Tennessee Tech, Wilson recorded eight 100-yard receiving outings last season.
69	Brian Snead led the Govs on the ground with a career-high 69 yards on 16 rushes against Tennessee Tech. Snead's career-long 19-yard run in the second quarter set up the Govs first TD of the season four plays later.

NOTING THE TENNESSEE STATE GAME

FACING THE TIGERS

YORK DREAMS

- Two weeks in, two York Trophy opponents have faced the Govs in the 2020-21 season; Austin Peay has won or shared the trophy the last three seasons, while the Tigers have won or shared eight trophies, including the last two with the Governors.

OFFENSIVE OPTIONS

- Gone are Tennessee State's leading rusher, leading quarterback and top two receivers from the 2019 team. Shawn McColley is the leading returning rusher, and likely to be pushed by Memphis transfer Devon Starling. Marshall transfer Isaiah Green is a name to watch under center, as is Clarksville native Heath Williams.

PASSING FANCY

- The Tennessee State secondary, led by Nick Harper Jr., Josh Green and Larry Wilhoite, will present a new look whoever is under center for the Governors; that trio combined for six of Tennessee State's eight team interceptions from 2019, including Green's pick in the Tennessee State end zone in the fourth quarter of the Tigers' 2019 upset of the soon-to-be-champion Governors.

STARTING LINE

- For the fifth game in a row, Austin Peay will serve as the season opener for its opponent, starting last fall against Central Arkansas and continuing this week against Tennessee State. This will be the first time the Govs serve as Tennessee State's season-opening opponent in series history.

LAST MEETING, NOTABLY

OCT. 19, 2019 ■ TSU 26, APSU 24

- A 10-point fourth-quarter rally, a late turnover and a missed field goal handed Austin Peay its only league loss of the 2019 campaign at Tennessee State.
- Quarterback JaVaughn Craig threw for 291 yards-109 to Baniko Harley, 96 to DeAngelo Wilson-as the Govs outgained the Tigers by more than 100 total yards.
- Tennessee State kicker Antonio Zita hit four field goals to keep the Tigers within striking distance, including a 50-yarder to open the fourth quarter.
- Defensively, Pat Walker led the way with 11 tackles; Kwame Sutton, Jack McDonald and Juantarius Bryant each collected nine stops, with McDonald tallying a stop behind the line.

LAST TRAIN

CLARKSVILLE AND THE TIGERS

- This will be Austin Peay's 12th time hosting Tennessee State, going 6-5 in those contests since 1988. The Govs have won three of their last five at home against the Tigers.
- In 2018, the Govs rolled up 258 rushing yards and scored six times on the ground in a 49-34 shootout at Fortera Stadium.
- The 2016 edition of the rivalry will go down as one of the most heartbreaking in Austin Peay history. With the Govs seeking an end to a long losing streak, Austin Peay erased a two-score deficit late in the fourth quarter before a last-second touchdown strike sank the Govs at home.

THE LEAGUE

VERSUS THE OVC

- For the first time since 1978, Austin Peay is beginning its season as the defending Ohio Valley Conference champion.
- Both Eastern Kentucky and Jacksonville State are scheduled to depart for the Atlantic Sun after Spring 2021. EKV also opted instead to play a full fall schedule last fall rather than compete for a league title this season.
- Austin Peay's last league win was its biggest to date-a 35-7 win against Eastern Illinois on Senior Day to help the Govs secure the league title.
- After winning just two league games from 2012-16, Austin Peay is 17-8 in league play since the start of 2017. Two of those campaigns have seen the Govs finish above .500 in league play-Austin Peay's previous two years at .500 or better in the OVC were 2007 and 1984.

LOOKING BACK

Austin Peay receiver Baniko Harley had one of his finest performances as a Governor, tallying six catches for 109 yards and a score in the 2019 meeting between Austin Peay and Tennessee State. The passing game rolled up more than 300 yards through the air in that meeting, with Harley and DeAngelo Wilson combining for more than 200 as a duo.

OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

FAST FROSH

Every snap taken by Austin Peay against Tennessee Tech was taken by a freshman, starting with Draylen Ellis and ending with Bryce Robinson. Both threw their first collegiate touchdown passes against the Golden Eagles.

HOUSE OPENING

Freshman running back C.J. Evans made an immediate impression in front of a national audience. On his first touch – the Govs first touch from scrimmage – he broke off a 75-yard touchdown run. Evans finished two yards shy of his first 100-yard outing.

LEADING THE PACK

Wide receiver DeAngelo Wilson was named the Ohio Valley Conference's 2020 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year in July. He was a Second Team All-OVC pick in 2019 after he caught 89 passes (the ninth-most in OVC history) for 1,564 yards (first nationally and the second-most in OVC history) and 15 touchdowns (fifth-most in OVC history). Wilson was named to the HERO Sports Preseason All-America team.

WATCH OUT FOR WR2

The Govs might have the FCS' most potent 1-2 punch among receiver corps. Baniko Harley, who also was a Preseason First Team All-OVC selection, he set career highs in receptions (53) and yards (839) last season.

REVAMPED RUNNING BACK CORPS

Austin Peay saw three of its top four runners in 2019 depart the team due to graduation. Senior Ahmaad Tanner is the Govs top returning rusher after ranking third on the team with 408 yards and five touchdowns last season.

WILSON SETS SIGHTS ON RECORD

Thanks to his record-breaking 1,564 yards last season, Wilson (2,177 career receiving yards) is one of four APSU receivers with at least 2,000 career receiving yards. In his senior season, his needs 823 yards to break the APSU record held by APSU Hall of Fame member Harold "Red" Roberts (1967-70), who had 2,999 receiving yards.

CALLING ON WILSON

When the Govs needed a big play in 2019 it was Wilson that delivered. Of his team-leading 89 receptions this season, 29 have gone for 25 yards or more and 11 of those have seen him romp for 40 yards. In addition, 63 of those catches have seen him secure either a first down or a touchdown – 28 of those coming on third down.

HARLEY'S HOUSE OF HIGHLIGHTS

Baniko Harley proved to be a jack of all trades in 2019, with touchdowns as a passer (1), runner (4) and receiver (7). In a season filled with highlight-reel moments, he added another at Sacramento State, running for two touchdowns and catching another, including a 45-yard dash for a touchdown on a direct snap with the Govs facing 4th-and-1, which capped a drive that started with his own on-side kick recovery. He was up to his old tricks in the 2021 OVC opener, hauling in a 22-yard touchdown reception on a perfect back-shoulder fade by Draylen Ellis.

C.J. Evans

OFFENSIVE LIGHTS

Twice last season, Austin Peay's offense churned out more than 500 yards in a game. The Govs opened the season with a 563-yard effort against North Carolina Central, August 29. Two months later, Tennessee Tech bore the full brunt of the Govs offensive capabilities, watching the Govs post 614 offensive yards – the fifth time since 1996 APSU has recorded 600-plus yards per game.

DEFENSIVE STANDS

RARE RUSH

Austin Peay was in rare form in the league opener against Tennessee Tech, dropping Bailey Fisher for a program-record seven sacks in Cookeville. The Govs were in the backfield early and often, dropping the Golden Eagles behind the line 16 times and holding them to 50 rushing yards.

PASS DENIALS

After recording four or more pass breakups five times in 2019, Austin Peay opened 2020 with an impressive five pass breakups and two interceptions in the opener against Central Arkansas. Junior cornerback Nathan Page and junior linebacker Jack McDonald each recorded an interception while junior safety Isiah Norman was credited with two breakups.

THIRD-AND-GONE

The Govs held Central Arkansas to 4-of-16 on third-down conversions in the season opener. After a 5-of-14 day on third down by Tennessee Tech, opponents are 21-of-50 on third down this season (42.0 percent).

- The Govs are even stingier on 3rd-and-long, with their first four opponents going just 5-of-25 (20.0 percent). Austin Peay limited opponents to 22.0 percent on 3rd-and-long (7-plus yards) opportunities in 2019.

DEFENDING THE PACK

After a Unanimous All-America campaign in 2019, nickelback Kordell Jackson returns to torment offenses again in 2020. The OVC Preseason Defensive Player of the Year had a hand in 10 of the Govs 25 turnovers gained and returned three of those for touchdowns (2 pick-sixes and a scoop-and-score). He was named to both the Athlon Sports and HERO Sports Preseason All-America Teams.

DEPTH IN DEFENSE

Austin Peay's defense made quite the impression in 2019 and that will carry over into 2020 with four Govs defenders recognized on the Preseason All-OVC Team. Defensive linemen Josephus Smith and John Wesley Whiteside were both named to the squad and were joined by linebacker Jack McDonald and Kordell Jackson.

SHUTDOWN CENTRAL

The Govs held an opponent to fewer than 100 rushing yards in eight of its 15 games last season, including in its FCS Playoff Round 2 victory at Sacramento State (99 yards/19 carries). Austin Peay flexed its defensive credentials against UT Martin, limiting the Skyhawks to minus-25 rushing yards. It was the lowest rushing total by an APSU opponent since the Govs held Morehead State to an OVC-record minus-88 yards in 1983.

BACK FIELD MARAUDERS

Ten times last season the Govs have collected five or more tackles for loss in a game (FCS average was 3.1 TFL/game), including four double-digit TFL outings. Austin Peay was ranked 35th among FCS teams with 7.0 TFL per game. The Govs opened 2020 with four TFLs against the Bears, nickelback Kordell Jackson leading the way with 1.5 TFLs.

- Thirteen different Governors earned at least a half-tackle for loss in the OVC opener at Tennessee Tech, led by Jackson with 3.0. Jackson, Elijah Shepard, Matthew Gayle, Jack McDonald and Troy Henderson Jr. each had multiple stops behind the line of scrimmage.

Austin Peay punters have not punted into the end zone in 20 consecutive games. The Govs last touchback on a punt came off the foot of Jeremiah Oatsvall on Nov. 3, 2018 against Eastern Kentucky. Since that touchdown, APSU punters have 111 punts without a touchback, averaging 35.6 yards per punt – 45 of those boots have stayed inside the 20-yard line.

LONG SNAPPER SHORTAGE

Unfortunately, none of the Gobs three long snappers by trade made the trip to Central Arkansas. Instead, linebacker Cameron Miller and defensive back Johnathon Edwards were called upon to handle the long snapping duties.

GOVERNORS GUIDE

PLENTY OF NEW FACES

In its season-opening outing against Central Arkansas, Austin Peay utilized 11 first-time starters. Six of those new faces came on offense and included freshman running back C.J. Evans, who took his first touch to the house – a 75-yard touchdown run on the first play from scrimmage.

DIPLOMA IN ONE HAND

Last May, two members of the Governors – Senior defensive end Matthew Gayle (BBA, Management) and senior safety Rodney Saulsberry Jr. (BBA, Marketing) – received their bachelor's degree and have returned to play in 2020. In addition, three transfers joined the Gobs after earning degrees at their previous stops: Linebacker Troy Henderson Jr., quarterback Vito Priore and tight end William Wilcox.

NFL CONNECTION

Two of the Governors incoming freshmen have familial ties to the NFL

- Freshman safety Kory Chapman: Father Kory (Indianapolis, 2005)
- Freshman wide receiver Manny Scott: Father Freddie (Atlanta and Indianapolis, 1996-98) and grandfather Freddie Sr. (Baltimore and Detroit, 1974-93)

LOOKING BACK AT 2019...

ALL-OVC DOMINANCE

A program-record 11 Austin Peay football players – 7 first-teamers, 2 second and 2 all-newcomer – earned postseason honors from the Ohio Valley Conference, befitting their status as league champions for 2019. The seven first-team selections tied the program record set in 1965. The nine first and second team honorees combined set the program record as did the 11 picks across all squads.

DROUGHT EXTINGUISHED

The Gobs 2019 OVC title they ended the FCS' second-longest drought between conference titles. Austin Peay's 1977-2019 drought is only eclipsed by Columbia's Ivy League active title drought which began in 1961.

HOME IS WHERE THE WINS ARE

Austin Peay finished 2019 with a 6-1 record at Fortera Stadium, including its FCS Playoffs' Round 1 victory against Furman. It is the third consecutive year the Gobs have lost just one regular-season home game. Austin Peay is 14-3 at Fortera Stadium over those three seasons.

GOVS VS. RANKED FOES

- For the third time since 2009, multiple ranked foes visited Fortera Stadium. In 2019, Furman was the fourth ranked opponent to visit Fortera this season.
- The Gobs have defeated at least one ranked foe in each of those seasons with multiple ranked visitors: No. 11 Jacksonville State, No. 20 Southeast Missouri and No. 16 Furman this season, No. 18 UT Martin in 2017 and No. 20 Eastern Kentucky in 2009.
- For the first time since 2009, an OVC member played ranked opponents in three consecutive home games.

JOINING AN ELITE GROUP OF GOVS

The Gobs football team became the latest Austin Peay team to win an NCAA tournament contest, joining the men's basketball and baseball programs. AP-SU's men's basketball team famously downed Illinois in the 1986 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship. The Gobs baseball team picked up wins in both the 2012 and 2013 NCAA Baseball Championships.

LAST ONE IN

Austin Peay was the last active OVC member to make an FCS Playoff appearance. With their appearance every current member of the OVC has appeared in the postseason at least once. The Gobs are first-time playoff participants along with Sacramento State, their appearances reducing the number of active FCS teams that have not made a playoff appearance to 27.

SUCCESSFUL DEBUT

With its opening round win against Furman, the Gobs became the first OVC member to win their debut in the FCS Playoffs since 2000 (Western Kentucky) and only the fourth to do so in league history.

TWO IN HAND

With its win over Sacramento State in the second round of the FCS Playoffs, Austin Peay became just the 10th team in OVC history to win multiple playoff games in the same season.

TWO-FER DEBUTS

The Gobs followed up their winning debut by picking up a second win in their first FCS Playoff appearance. They became the 20th team in FCS Playoff history to win two or more games in their first playoff appearance – and only the second since the bracket expanded to 24 teams in 2013, joining the 2017 Kenesaw State team that saw its campaign end in the quarterfinal round.

HEAD COACH & COACHING STAFF

SCOTTY WALDEN

Head Coach • First Season

Career Record: 8-7 • Sul Ross State, 2012

Innovative and energetic are two words Austin Peay State University Director of Athletics Gerald Harrison used to describe his hiring of Scotty Walden as the university's 21st head football coach in November 2020.

Walden, who at age 30 is the youngest head coach at the Division I level, takes over at Austin Peay after serving as head coach at Southern Miss to start the 2020 season. He was named the Golden Eagles' head coach after the opening game of the 2020 campaign after three seasons on the USM staff, including one season as co-offensive coordinator.

Considered one of the youngest and brightest offensive minds in collegiate football, the American Football Coaches Association tabbed Walden as a Top 35 coach under 35 years of age in 2019.

Prior to his move to Southern Miss, Walden was the head coach at East Texas Baptist during the 2016 season. Promoted following Joshua Eargle's departure to join Austin Peay's coaching staff as offensive line coach and run game coordinator, he was the youngest head coach (26 years old) at any NCAA school that season. He led the Tigers to a 7-3 mark in his lone season at the ETBU helm, and they led all Division III teams in scoring offense (49.9 points per game) while finishing second in total offense (564.3 yards per game) and sixth in passing offense (365.3 yards per game).

In his three years as offensive coordinator at ETBU, Walden's offense re-wrote the program's record book for individual, single game, and season records while being nationally known for passing and scoring. In his time as an assistant, ETBU football student-athletes broke a combined 26 individual and team records.

A highly regarded offensive innovator, Walden has shared his philosophies on the national level with his peers. In summer 2015, he was a special speaker at the Spread Offense Football Clinic in Chicago. His first national speaking engagement came when he was a special speaker at the 2012 Nike Coach of the Year Clinic in Dallas.

Walden and his wife Callie have a son, Luca.

GAME 1 • GUARDIAN CREDIT UNION FCS KICKOFF

August 29, 2020 • Montgomery, Ala. (Cramton Bowl)

AUSTIN PEAY	7	3	0	7	—	17
CENTRAL ARKANSAS	0	6	7	11	—	24

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – In a game that simmered along for 56 minutes, Austin Peay's football team and Central Arkansas brought the game to a rolling boil by trading touchdowns in the final four minutes, with the Governors falling by a 24-17 margin in the Guardian Credit Union FCS Kickoff, Saturday, at the Cramton Bowl.

The game's first two touchdowns came in the opening moments of each half. Austin Peay got the game's first score when freshman running back C.J. Evans dashed for a 75-yard score on the game's opening play from scrimmage. After the teams traded field goals the rest of the half, Central Arkansas took the lead in the first minute of the second half on Kierr Crossley's 34-yard run.

But Austin Peay got the ball with four minutes left and quarterback Jeremiah Oatsvall mustered the offense to a seven-play, 60-yard scoring drive for a 17-16 lead. On the ensuing drive, Central Arkansas Breylin Smith responded by leading the Bears to a 6-play, 78-yard drive that needed just 1:06 to regain the lead and a two-point conversion set the final score.

Oatsvall completed 14-of-31 passes for 181 yards and a touchdown. Evans, in his first game as a Governor, had 10 carries for 98 yards and a touchdown. Junior linebacker Jack McDonald had eight tackles and an interception to pace the APSU defense.

PITTSBURGH –Wide receiver Baniko Harley caught four passes for 75 yards but Austin Peay's football team had few answers for an experienced Pittsburgh squad and fell 55-0, Saturday at Heinz Field.

Austin Peay (0-2) made its deepest venture into Pitt territory late in the first quarter, with quarterback Jeremiah Oatsvall leading the Govs on a five-play drive. His 57-yard connection with Harley set the Govs up for a field goal attempt that missed wide right.

Pitt quarterback Kenny Pickett led the Panthers to scoring drives on each of their first six possessions before making way for his backups. He finished the day 14-of-20 passing for 277 yards. In addition, five different running backs scored touchdowns, Vincent Davis scoring twice, for the Panthers.

GAME RECAPS

GAME 3 • AT CINCINNATI

Sept. 19, 2020 • Cincinnati, Ohio (Nippert Stadium)

AUSTIN PEAY	3	0	3	14	—	20
CINCINNATI	14	14	14	13	—	55

CINCINNATI – Running back CJ Evans broke off his second big touchdown run of the fall campaign and Austin Peay's football team put up double digits against No. 13 Cincinnati, falling 55-20, Saturday at Nippert Field.

Unlike the previous week, the Austin Peay (0-3) pieced together a trio of drives lasting more than 10 plays and scored on each of the drives. The Governors went 62 yards in 14 plays on their first drive, with kicker Grant Paulette hitting a 30-yard field goal. On its opening drive of the second half, Austin Peay used 15 plays to cover 63 yards and setup Paulette's second field goal – this one a 29-yarder.

But a fourth-quarter drive showed the promise of an upcoming spring slate as quarterback Jeremiah Oatsvall and wide receiver Baniko Harley connected twice for big plays to convert third-down opportunities. A 16-yard completion was followed by a 49-yarder to get the Govs deep in Cincinnati territory. From there CJ Evans carried the ball in for a touchdown.

But Evans reminded fans of his 75-yard season-opening score when he found a seam through the defense late in the fourth quarter and dashed 64 yards for a touchdown.

No. 13 Cincinnati (1-0) opened its season by scoring on each of its first four drives with Gerrid Doaks scoring three touchdowns in the opening span as Cincinnati took a 28-3 lead into halftime. Doaks would tack on his fourth touchdown – via a reception – late in the third quarter to stave off a potential Govs threat.

GAME 4 • AT TENNESSEE TECH

Feb. 21, 2021 • Cookeville, Tennessee (Tucker Stadium)

AUSTIN PEAY	0	7	7	7	—	21
Tennessee Tech	3	0	7	17	—	27

COOKEVILLE – In the first game of the Scotty Walden Era for Austin Peay football, the Govs dropped a 27-21 decision despite more than doubling up Tennessee Tech in total yardage in a Sunday afternoon battle at Tucker Stadium.

The story of the game was the short fields battled by the Govs defense – seven TTU drives started in Austin Peay territory, including five inside the Austin Peay 25-yard line.

With Tennessee Tech taking over on the Austin Peay 18-yard line following an interception, the Governor defense stood tall and a Jack McDonald sack on third down ended any chance of a touchdown and led to a 25-yard field goal.

On the first drive of the second quarter the Govs faced a third-and-long, but the down and distance wound up not mattering when Draylen Ellis placed a perfect back-shoulder fade into the hands of Baniko Harley from 22 yards away.

On third-and-nine after forcing TTU to punt to start the second half, Ellis hit DeAngelo Wilson for 11 yards and a first down, then scrambled for 13 and 20 yards on back-to-back plays to take the Govs into TTU territory. Two plays later, it was an Ellis-to-Wilson connection that once again brought the Govs inside the 20. On the next play Ellis called his own number, made a couple of players miss and rolled into the end zone 16 yards later for his first career rushing score.

The fourth quarter began with TTU on the Austin Peay 10-yard line for a second-and-three. On a third-and-goal situation, Gist took a direct snap and found paydirt to give the Golden Eagles their first lead since the first quarter. With 10:15 left to play, another direct snap to Gist from three yards out made it a 24-14 game. A fourth-quarter 32-yard field goal added to TTU's final tally.

The Govs mounted a late rally when Bryce Robinson marched the offense down the field and found Wilson for a 14-yard touchdown strike. The Govs pulled off the recovery on Ashton Dodd's onside kick, but Robinson's final hail mary attempt on the last play was unsuccessful.

FORTERA STADIUM

For nearly eight decades, Fortera Stadium has served as the home of Austin Peay State University football along with the University's track and field teams.

Austin Peay has played football in its current location since 1946. However, following the 2015 season, the university embarked on the biggest construction project dedicated to football in its history.

What resulted is a $19-million facility that has four levels on its west side. On the lower level is the player locker room, featuring new dark wood lockers with nameplates to recognize some of the donors that made them possible. Also on that level is a players lounge; athletic training room and equipment room.

Fans on levels 3 and 4 find the amenities of club seating and skyboxes – new features to the stadium. The skyboxes, which feature a sports-bar like atmosphere, feature tiered stadium-type seating with up to 22 seats per viewing room. In addition, each skybox has a bar with locations for bar stools, tables and chairs to seat four to six people.

The Governors Stadium skyboxes have sliding glass at the front of the viewing rooms, a push button to control a public address speaker and two television monitors.

The main concourses feature enhanced concession stands along with sport murals created to honor memorable Govs players and teams, with the hopes more will be created for future stars. The conference champions from 1948 and 1977 have wall spaces as well as the program's only back-to-back eight-win seasons in 1964 and 1965.

Meanwhile, the field itself has been replaced with its fourth artificial turf, FieldTurf XT, manufactured by FieldTurf, a Tarkett Sports Company. The turf, includes the new Governors logo at midfield.

Outside the southwest corner of the stadium, the Hendricks Fox Walk in the Blake Jenkins Plaza lists the names of all lettermen to wear the red and white.

The new stadium also created a revamped tailgating experience in a more central location outside the stadium.

In April 2016, following the Spring Game, a ceremony was held outside the stadium to celebrate its rechristening into Fortera Stadium. Country singer Maggie Rose performed before fans enjoyed a fireworks show.

In March 2017, construction completed on a new weight room project inside Fortera Stadium. The state-of-the-art facility will service not only Austin Peay football but a host of the department's programs. The new space will free up the weight room in the Dunn Center and houses racks, free weights and treadmills in the facility.

In 2018, additions to the athletic training facility were completed to better care for the student-athletes.

The original Municipal Stadium was constructed in time for the 1946 season as a joint project between the City of Clarksville, Montgomery County and then what was Austin Peay State College. The stadium became the home field for local schools and APSC for football games and track events.

The city maintained its ownership and operation of the Municipal Stadium until 1970. In that year, as a result of a cooperative agreement saw the city convey title to one-third of the stadium to the State of Tennessee for the university. The other one-third went to Montgomery County.

Austin Peay, Montgomery County, and the city of Clarksville were authorized to appropriate funds to the newly created Stadium Authority for constructing, remodeling and operating the stadium, including adding east side seating. The members of the Stadium Authority were appointed by the county and by the university.

In addition, the natural grass surface—because it was being used by the local schools and Governors alike—was replaced by AstroTurf and the east side two-level press box was constructed in 1979.

The stadium was in desperate need of a new turf in the early 1990s. However, the Clarksville-Montgomery County school system, which was amidst growth and expansion, indicated it could not afford to be a part of the turf replacement. As a result, Austin Peay agreed to purchase Municipal Stadium from the Stadium Authority in 1993.

Stadia Turf replaced the AstroTurf, which was placed by the Stadium Authority, before 1993 season's start. The playing surface was changed again in 2004, when Polytan surfaces were installed on the football field (Mega Grass) and track (Polytan WSS 15).

Other than a new scoreboard being erected for the 2007 season, those were the last major upgrades until plans were announced Aug. 20, 2012 to all but replace Governors Stadium when $16 million was approved by the state for new construction.

A ceremonial demolition of Governors Stadium began following the 2015 season-ending Nov. 19 contest against Southeast Missouri. Despite the coldest winter in recent memory, including icy conditions that shut down the University for three days, the construction crew lost just one day of work.

AROUND THE LEAGUE

On August 14, the Ohio Valley Conference Board of Presidents announced fall competition and championships in the sports of football, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and women's volleyball will be postponed due to the concerns and uncertainty surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic... OVC football-playing institutions that are able to demonstrate a team's willingness and readiness to compete based on the NCAA's Resocialization of Collegiate Sport: Developing Standards for Practice and Competition and the NCAA's mental health guidance are approved to play up to four nonconference scheduled games... The Board asked the conference membership to develop plans for conference competition and championships in the spring semester for the impacted sports... Currently, Austin Peay (3 games), Eastern Kentucky (8 games) and Jacksonville State (1 game) have scheduled football games during the traditional fall schedule.
