ON THE PITCH

Week 12 Recap: The Wildcats lost to Arizona State by a score of 4-1 on senior night. Hayley Estopare scored her fifth goal of the season, which is second on the team.

Stoian in the Record Books: Sophomore attacker Gabi Stoian has 15 career assists, which is third on the Arizona all-time assist list. The sophomore's eight assists this season is also tied with DeGracie for the second-most assists in one season. Stoian also has 53 career points (tied for the fourth most) and 19 career goals (fifth most).

DeGracie's Dimes: Junior midfielder Jaden DeGracie was credited with an assist on Hayley Estopare's goal on Friday against Arizona State. She is now tied with Mallory Miller for the most career assist in Arizona history with 19. She has seven this year, which is second on the team and is also tied for the fourth-most in one season in Arizona history.

First Time for Everything: Arizona is hosting the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. It is also the first time that Northern Colorado has qualified for the NCAA Tournament.

You Get a Goal! And You Get a Goal! 15 Wildcats have scored a total of 32 goals this season. That the most players with at least one goal in a season in Arizona history.

Building A Legacy: The Wildcats will honor six seniors on Friday (Hayley Estopare, Alexa Montgomery, Kaitlyn Lopez, Alison Gondosch, Hannah Wong and Sheaffer Skadsen). This group of seniors has a record of 37-31-10, which is the third-most wins of any class.

Conference Honors: The Pac-12 Conference announced on Tuesday that sophomore Gabi Stoian was selected to the All-Pac-12 First Team and that senior Sheaffer Skadsen was an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention selection as well.

Best in a Decade: The Wildcats finished with 19 conference points this season after going 6-4-1 in Pac-12, which is tied for fourth with California. Those six conference victories are tied for the most in school history as the 2004 squad went 6-3 in the Pac-10. This is also just the third time in school history that Arizona has finished in the top five in the conference and the first time since 2005.

Ironwomen: Senior defender Sheaffer Skadsen has been a model of consistency on the pitch this season for the Wildcats. She has played in 1,741 of the 1,755 minutes this season and has played every minute of the last 18 matches. Fellow senior defenders Alexa Montgomery and Laura Pimienta are not far behind as they have played in 1,532 and 1,500 minutes respectively.

A Helping Hand: Of the 33 goals Arizona has scored this season, 28 of them have been assisted. 34 total team assists in first in the conference and Gabi Stoian's eight assists are first.

Not up in Here: The Wildcats have kept eight clean sheets so far this season. The eight clean sheets is the third-most in school history. The 2004 squad finished the season with a total of 12.

Newcomers Making an Impact: Four freshmen have scored a goal this season (Kennedy Kienecker, Chelle Mahoney, Erica Stephan and Jessica Nelson). Last year's team only had two freshmen score a goal.

No Longer a Secret: The regular attendance at Mulcahy Stadium this season is something that hasn't been seen before in a long time. After a school record 1,302 people were at the Arizona State match, the average attendance for the 2015 season finished at 909, which is easily the best in Arizona history. Five of the top 14 crowds in school history have occurred this season, with three of them in the top four.

You can Count on Them: Defenders Sheaffer Skadsen and Alexa Montgomery have been staples in the Arizona starting XI this season. They are the only two Wildcats to start every single match this season.

Battle Tested: Six of Arizona's 18 opponents have been ranked so far and the Wildcats hold a record of 3-2-1 against them. All in all, Arizona's 18 opponents have a combined record of 157-114-28.

MULCAHY STADIUM

The University of Arizona women's soccer program plays and competes at one of the most captivating settings in soccer, Murphey Field at Mulcahy Soccer Stadium, with a spectacular view of the mountains, palms trees and southwestern landscape of Tucson, Ariz. Tucson's climate and the year-round maintenance allow the facility to be in game-ready condition throughout the year. The home for the University of Arizona women's soccer team at Murphey Field was opened on Sept. 15, 1996 as the Wildcats hosted the University of San Francisco. In 2006, Arizona hosted the defending national champion Portland Pilots, televised on Fox Sports Net, the first match at Mulcahy Stadium to be televised. There have been many additions to the stadium including the Arizona Soccer Fieldhouse, including a team locker room, an athletic training room, official's area, concession area, ticket office and just recently, a new scoreboard and sound system. In 2011, new state-of-the-art lights were installed over Murphey Field to enhance competition at night for all of the televised games on Pac-12 Networks. Murphey Field at Mulcahy Stadium is located at the corner of Plumer Avenue and 15th Street. The grading and sodding of the field and the installation of lights to play at night on Pac-12 Networks was made possible by the generous assistance of Tucson's Murphey Foundation.

THE COACHING STAFF

Head Coach
Tony Amato
159-68-22
(32-20-8)

- Tony Amato enters his third at the helm of the Arizona soccer program.
- He was introduced as head coach on Dec. 5, 2012.
- Entering the 2015 season, Amato carried an overall career record of 147-63-20 (20-15-6 at Arizona) in 12 seasons as a head coach
- Amato owns a combined Division I record of 71-27-10 at Arizona and Stephen F. Austin University (SFA) and a Division II record of 82-37-11 at Rollins.
- Amato has gotten off to one of the best starts a head coach has ever had while at Arizona.
- His 20 wins gives him the second-most wins in his first two seasons at the helm, just one behind Dan Tobias who collected 21 wins in his first two seasons at Arizona in 2003 and 2004.
- The offensive production has gone up since Amato took over in 2013. The Wildcats set the record for most goals in a season with 38 in the 2013 season and set the record for most shots taken in a season with 359 in 2014.
- Not only have the Wildcats succeeded on the pitch, they have also succeeded in the classroom under Amato.
- In the 2014 season, five student-athletes were named to the Pac-12 All-Academic Team.
- Amato has coached an All-Pac-12 player in each of his two seasons. Jazmin Ponce was First Team
- All-Pac-12 in 2013 and Gabi Stoian was Second Team All-Pac-12 in 2014.
- Prior to accepting the Arizona position in 2012, Amato led Stephen F. Austin to victories over SEC, Big 12, and CUSA opponents to produce a national RPI ranking (31) and a top 50 finish (45) in 2011. Both rankings were the highest in the history of the SFA program.
- Amato coached the SFA Ladyjacks to conference titles in 2011 and 2012 with a combined 17-0 league record. His marks in three years at SFA were 13-5-2 in 2010, 15-3-1 in 2011 and 17-4 in 2012. The 'Jacks lost to Texas A&M, 1-0, in NCAA Championships first-round action in 2012.

Asst. Coach
Paul Nagy
GK & Defense

- Paul Nagy enters his third year with the Wildcats as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach Tony Amato.
- He came to the Wildcats after spending three seasons on Amato's coaching staff at Stephen F. Austin University (SFA) in east Texas. With Nagy's 12 years of college coaching experience, he has been able to live and coach all over the country before coming to Arizona.
- Nagy assisted in guiding the Wildcats to an 11-8-2 record in 2014, the second-highest win total in Arizona Soccer history.
- In his first season at Arizona, Nagy helped coach the Wildcats to a 9-7-4 record, while competing in the Pac-12 Conference that is considered the toughest conference in the NCAA.
- Specializing on the defensive side, Nagy helped coach senior goalkeeper Gabby Kaufman to lead the Pac-12 in saves with 105 and a save percentage of .820 while averaging 5.25 saves per match.
- As a player, Nagy was a goalkeeper that played professionally from 2001-2005 for the Dallas Burn (MLS), Syracuse Salty Dogs (A-League), Hershey Wildcats (A-League) and Orlando Sharks (MISL).
- He was a four-year letterman on the Saint Louis University men's soccer team from 1997-2000, earning first-team All-Conference USA and Midwest All-Region honors. He also played for the SLU team that reached the NCAA Division I Final Four in 1997 while also winning four Conference USA titles in four years.

Kylie Louw
Attackers

- Entering her second year with the Wildcats, Kylie Louw serves as an assistant coach under head coach Tony Amato specializing in working with the attackers.
- Louw assisted in guiding the Wildcats to a 11-8-2 record in 2014, the second-highest win total in history as well.
- In her first year coaching, Louw helped guide the Wildcats to a 9-7-4 record, making it the first winning record the program has seen since 2005. Louw serves as the soccer staff's liaison for academics, marketing, media relations, social media and strength and conditioning.
