In 12 full seasons as head coach, the Stanford women have won one national championship, reached three NCAA finals, and won four

Pac-12 titles. He's led the Cardinal to six College Cups, and reached the NCAA third round the past nine seasons.

He also coached four national players of the year -- Kelley O'Hara, Christen Press, Teresa Noyola, and Lindsay Taylor -- and five Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year winners.

Ratcliffe, who has never failed to direct the Cardinal to the NCAA tournament, now is Stanford's winningest soccer coach, with a 231-47-25 record on The Farm and 287-81-32 overall as a Division I head coach.

The Stanford-Santa Clara Series

• Stanford had its 10-game winning streak against the Broncos snapped earlier this season with a 1-0 loss at Santa Clara. The decision leveled the all-time series at 18-18-5. The teams have met nine times in NCAA tournament play and Santa Clara is Stanford's most frequent opponent.

• Stanford finished the regular season No. 5 in RPI. The Cardinal took on seven of the top 30 teams in the RPI rankings, including Penn State (No. 2), California (No. 18), BYU (No. 19), USC (No. 21), Santa Clara (No. 24), Arizona (No. 27) and Washington State (No. 28).

Stanford's all-time NCAA tournament record is 46-20-5 (.683).

Impressive Defensive Streaks

• The Cardinal had a lengthy shutout streak come to a close in its final regular season game against No. 20 California. California scored a 76:19, ending Stanford's shutout streak at 418:42 minutes -- a period spanning five games.

• Stanford has not allowed more than two goals in a match over its past 255 contests, not since a 4-0 loss to North Carolina on Sept. 11, 2005, in San Francisco. During that stretch, Stanford allowed two goals 26 times, which comes out to once every 9.81 matches.

• All five freshman field players have scored at least one goal and one game-winning goal this season.

- Xiao has been particularly impressive in the offensive zone, scoring twice against Boston College and netting the game-winners against UC Davis and Oregon State.

- DiBiasi has scored three goals this season and all have been game-winners in crucial moments against top competition. She scored game-winners against No. 9 BYU, at Washington and No. 16 USC.

- Cook has done well taking on the centerback position that requires her to be a strong presence in the center of the field and decisive on the ball when distributing. She has also contributed three goals and an assist.

- McGrady scored the game-winning goal in overtime against Oklahoma to lift Stanford to a 2-1 win. She assisted both game-winning goals against Oregon State (Oct. 8) and Oregon (Oct. 11). McGrady is electric down the sideline, constantly making runs and taking on defenders one-on-one.

- Averie Collins scored her first collegiate game-winning goal with a header off a corner kick in the 109th minute at No. 25 Washington State. She scored the first goal of her collegiate career in her Pac-12 debut at Utah to help lead Stanford to a 4-1 victory.
