LOS ANGELES – The top-ranked USC women's volleyball team (27-1, 15-1 Pac-12) heads to the Arizonan desert for pivotal conference matches this week. The Women of Troy draw No. 23 Arizona (17-11, 7-9) first and will face the Wildcats at McKale Center in Tucson, Ariz., on Friday, Nov. 20 (6 p.m. PT). The Trojans then take on No. 24 Arizona State (19-8, 8-8) at Wells Fargo Arena in Tempe, Ariz., on Sunday, Nov. 22 (1 p.m.). Both matches will be streamed live and will be viewable for free via links at Pac-12.com/live.

The Trojans carry a five-match winning streak into the final weekend of regular-season road matches and received the No. 1 ranking in the AVCA poll for the fifth time this season (46th all-time). USC is 93-9 when ranked No. 1, but the last time the Women of Troy visited Tucson with the top ranking, the Wildcats upset the Trojans, 3-0, on Oct. 20, 2013.

USC should be well rested following a three-day layoff that was preceded by a span in which the Trojans played four matches in seven days. USC remains on the inside track for the Pac-12 title with just four regular-season matches left. No. 2-ranked Washington is a single match behind with a 14-2 league record.

Last week, senior OH Samantha Bricio became the program's all-time kills leader (1,919). She is already USC's career leader for attacks (5,085), service aces (284), and points (2,347.5). This season, she leads the country in kills (5.07 kps), service aces (0.74 saps), and points (6.23 pps). At the pins, freshman OH Alyse Ford (2.80 kps) and sophomore OPP Brittany Abercrombie (2.47 kps) bolster the Trojans' offensive firepower. Senior MB Alicia Ogoms leads the Pac-12 in blocks (1.56 bps) while junior libero Taylor Whittingham is the Pac-12 leader for digs (4.94 dps).

USC HEAD COACH MICK HALEY

Mick Haley is in his 15th season as head coach at where he has guided teams to two national championships (2002, '03), six NCAA Final Four appearances (2002, '03, '04, '07, '10, and '11) and 14 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. USC has finished the season ranked nationally in the top five a total of eight out of 14 times under Haley.

He has posted an impressive overall record of 386-93 (.806) while going 212-66 (.763) in Pac-12 play. Haley was named 2011 Pac-12 Coach of the Year for leading the Trojans to the league title; the first time at USC that he earned that honor.

Haley's 2003 squad won the program's sixth title overall and third NCAA crown. He guided that team to a perfect 35-0 record (only the fourth team ever to accomplish the feat) and was honored as the AVCA Division I Coach of the Year.

A two-time national championship head coach at Texas and four-year coach of the U.S. Women's National Team, Haley took the helm at USC to start of the 2001 season.

Haley earned a bachelor's degree in education from Ball State in 1965 and a master's degree in education in 1966 from Southern Illinois. Haley and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter, Halie, 27, and a son, Hunter, 28. He also has a son, Heath, 39, and a daughter, Heather, 44, from a previous marriage, and four grandchildren, Harrison, 16, Hayley, 14, Amelia, 7, and Michael, 5.

dps), Arizona doesn't have any players in the top 10 for digs. In fact, junior setter Penina Snuka leads the team in digs (3.23 dps) and ranks second in the conference for assists (10.76 apts). Freshman OH Tyler Spriggs (2.58 kps) and senior OPP Nikki Attea (2.46 kps) also provide offense for the Cats. Senior MB Halli Amaro leads the team with 0.97 blocks per set and adds 1.74 kps. The Women of Troy are 61-19 in their 80 previous meetings with Arizona, have won three straight, and are 9-1 against the Wildcats over the last 10. However, the last time USC went into Tucson with the No. 1 ranking (Oct. 20, 2013), the Wildcats stunned the Trojans to take a 3-0 win.

NO. 24 ARIZONA STATE (19-8, 8-8 Pac-12) has won just four times since having its 15-match winning streak snapped following a devastating injury to the program's career kills leader Macey Gardner. The Sun Devils are coming off a split against the mountain schools, which included a 3-2 loss to Colorado and a 3-0 win over Utah. ASU is led by junior OH

Cassidy Pickrell (2.73 kps), but she is aided by fellow junior OH BreElle Bailey (2.45 kps) and senior MB Whitney Follette (2.25 kps) on offense. The Sun Devils rank second in the Pac-12 for blocks (2.95 bps) and are third for opponent hitting percentage (.169). Follette is the Pac-12's third-leading blocker at 1.32 blocks per set. Pickrell leads the team with 23 aces (ninth in the Pac-12, 0.25 saps). Senior MB Mercedes Binns adds 1.42 kills per set and leads the team with a .324 hitting percentage. Sophomore libero Halle Harker (3.58 dps) ranks ninth in the Pac-12. Before she went down to an injury, Gardner became ASU's all-time leader in kills (1,882) and will finish her career at 12th in Pac-12 history. USC is 64-13-1 in all-time meetings with ASU and is 7-3 in the last 10 meetings. Two of those losses were dealt to the Trojans in Tempe.

LAST TIME OUT: The Women of Troy won their fifth straight match and extended to 10 consecutive set victories with a pair of 3-0 wins over Oregon and Oregon State. Senior OH Samantha Bricio broke the USC career kills record on her final offering against the Beavers and went into the record books with 1,919 kills and counting. Freshman setter Baylee Johnson earned 21 assists with a career-high 15 digs to log her team-leading 14th double-double of the season in the win over Oregon State. The Trojans hit better than .300 for the fifth straight match and for the 13th time this season. The two wins put an end to a span in which the Trojans played four matches in seven days. USC also maintained its unblemished home record at Galen Center and improved to 15-0 on the year.

KILLED IT: Senior OH Samantha Bricio became USC's school-record holder for career kills on Thursday, Nov. 12, in a match against Oregon State in which she finished with 13 kills. Her final kill of the contest gave her 1,919 as she overtook the former record holder (Alex Jupiter, 2008-11). Bricio now has 1,919 career kills and is also the Trojans' record holder for points (2,347.5), attacks (5,085), and service aces (284). She is the Pac-12 record holder for career aces and currently ranks 10th in Pac-12 history for kills and is fifth in attacks.

THE PAC-12 CONFERENCE

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back nearly 100 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Imperial Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon Agricultural College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of USC and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named, Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and the PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities (AAWU) was formed with Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

10 years later, on July 1, 1978, the Arizona and Arizona State were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premiere league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009, and was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, the University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott spurred monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. In addition to expanding to 12 teams, member institutions agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in the Conference's history, created two divisions - the North and the South, for football only and established a Football Championship Game for the first time ever. He also secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, establishing the Pac-12 Networks and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 12 women's sports, with beach volleyball added in 2015-16. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco in the SOMA district.

LET ME TAKE A #SELFIE: Get social with the Women of Troy this season. Fans can follow and interact with the USC women's volleyball team on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and Periscope by searching for @USCWomensVolley.

900 CLUB: Head coach Mick Haley reached the 900-win mark in NCAA Division I women's volleyball with the team's 3-1 win over Arizona State on Oct. 16. He ranks third in career DI wins (908) among active coaches behind only Penn State's Russ Rose and Hawai'i's Dave Shoji. Haley is in his 32nd season as a Division I coach, but has 39 years of overall coaching experience and is 1,256-313-1 (.801) in all matches including men's and women's at Kellogg Community College.

USC VS. THE PAC: The Women of Troy have a 475-212-2 (.689) all-time record against teams from the Pac-12. In fact, USC has a winning record against 10 of its Pac-12 opponents, with Stanford the exception. The Trojans have never lost a match to conference foe Colorado in 10 meetings. In league play, the Women of Troy are 212-66 (.763) under head coach Mick Haley in the past 15 seasons.

HI, MOM! I'M ON TV: The Trojans appear on live television broadcasts 20 times in 2015. Two matches each from USC's home tournaments (Women of Troy Baden Invitational and USC Classic) were carried on the Pac-12 Networks in addition to 14 live broadcasts of league matches. The Trojans were shown on ESPN3 in the debut of The Valley—a substation of ESPN's streaming channels—when it played Northern Iowa in the UNI Tournament (Sept. 5). USC's match at Oklahoma (Sept. 17) was broadcast live on Fox College Sports (FCS) Central. Any home USC match that is not on television is streamed live on the USC Pac-12 Networks Portal.

TOP DOGS: The Women of Troy received the program's 42nd No. 1 ranking in the AVCA's Oct. 5 Coaches Poll. It was USC's first top ranking since October of 2013 when the Trojans held the spot for three non-consecutive weeks. The Women of Troy are 93-9 all-time when they are ranked No. 1 (46 weeks overall) and have been ranked in the top 10 of the AVCA poll 308 times. USC held the top ranking in the AVCA poll for four straight weeks before it fell to No. 2 (Nov. 2).

HOME, SWEET HOME: The Trojans have enjoyed the comforts of home to the tune of a 127-20 (.864) all-time record at the Galen Center. When it comes to the volleyball court, the Women of Troy are less than hospitable to their visitors. The Trojans went 12-1 in home matches in 2011 and completed the 2012 home schedule with a 17-1 mark. In 2007, USC was 19-0 at home on the way to an appearance in the NCAA national semifinal match.

PAC-12 SIX-PACK FOR BRICIO: Senior OH Samantha Bricio has been chosen for the Pac-12's Offensive Player of the Week honor a league record six times this season. She earned her historic sixth award on Nov. 9. Bricio was chosen three straight weeks to open the season, which marked the first time since 2001 (Logan Tom, Stanford) that any Pac-12 player had received the weekly award three straight times in the same season. She is also the only player in league history ever to be chosen four times in five weeks and is tied with Tom for second in Pac-12 history for all-time weekly awards with nine. Bricio was selected as the league's Freshman of the Week five times in 2012. USC has had players chosen for weekly honors (not including freshman awards) 67 times since 1986. Since the league split its weekly awards into offensive, defensive, and freshman categories in 2011, Trojans have won Player of the Week honors 21 times.

LET'S GET DEFENSIVE: Senior MB Alicia Ogoms was named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week for the week of Sept. 28 and junior libero Taylor Whittingham received the honor on Oct. 19. It was the first-career weekly honor from the league for Ogoms, and was Whittingham's second-career award. USC players have won Defensive Player of the Week eight times. Three-time All-American libero Natalie Hagglund was chosen five times (2012-13).

AVCA POLL POSITION: The Trojans opened 2015 ranked No. 22 in the AVCA's Preseason Coaches Top 25 Poll. It was the 457th time that USC appeared in the poll. USC has been ranked in the poll 469 times and has also held a spot among the poll's top 10 teams 308 times, which ranks seventh all-time. The Trojans have also held the No. 1 ranking 46 times previously, which is sixth all-time. Last year, on Nov. 24, the Women of Troy dropped out of the AVCA's coaches poll for the first time since the final poll of 1990, which snapped a 23-year run.

ALL ABOUT THE BENJAMINS: Three Benjamins to be exact. Head coach Mick Haley earned his 300th win at USC in 2012. His 311th victory made him the winningest coach in program history. He is 386-93 in 15 seasons with USC for a .806 winning percentage. Haley surpassed legendary coach Chuck Erbe who logged a 310-121-3 record in 12 seasons as USC's head coach from 1976-77 and 1979-88. Haley's 300th win with Troy gave him at least 300 wins at three different schools: Kellogg Community College, Texas, and USC.

FRONT TO BACK: Under the direction of head coach Mick Haley, in 14 completed seasons, the Trojans have traditionally shown improvement in the back half of Pac-12 matches. USC has either finished with the same mark or better in the second set of conference matches 12 times since 2001. Only twice have the Trojans not fared as well in the second half of the league schedule than the first and one of those times was in 2002 when the Women of Troy went 9-0 and then 8-1 but completed the year 31-1 overall as NCAA champions.

DIGGIN' DEEP: Two Trojans crossed the 1,000-dig plateau this season. Senior OH Samantha Bricio became the 15th USC player to reach the mark and now ranks 10th on the career charts with 1,223. On Oct. 25, in a match against Oregon, junior libero Taylor Whittingham became the 16th Trojan to put up 1,000 digs in her career and now sits at 1,092 (14th place).

THE GALEN CENTER

129 years ago, USC's founders envisioned an on-campus arena to further unify the Trojan community. On October 12, 2006, that dream became a reality with the opening of the Galen Center – the new home to USC's basketball and volleyball programs.

In late 2002, a successful banker and longtime USC fan named Louis Galen pledged a $10 million donation towards the project with his wife Helene. The Galens later added an additional sum of $25 million and upped their original donation to $15 million. Their total donation of $50 million was the final push needed to break ground on the new facility.

On October 31, 2004, ground was officially broken across from the USC campus. Los Angeles City Council members Bernard Parks and Jan Perry were alongside Louis and Helene Galen and a contingency of Trojan supporters for the historic groundbreaking ceremony.

After nearly two years of construction, the first event held in the Galen Center was a women's volleyball match between USC and Stanford on October 12, 2006. A few weeks later, Galen Center hosted its first-ever concert featuring Al Green. The first men's basketball game held at the arena took place on November 16 between USC and South Carolina. A capacity crowd of 10,258 attended a men's basketball game between USC and Arizona on January 31, 2008, to set the venue's all-time attendance record.

Galen Center construction cost an estimated $147 million, and included the arena, offices, and a state-of-the-art practice facility. The center puts USC teams on an appropriately impressive stage that allows its student-athletes to put their talents on display in the 255,000 square-foot arena. Trojan athletes and visiting teams have access to state-of-the-art locker rooms, weight room, and medical training rooms.

An adjacent 45,000 square-foot pavilion contains additional practice areas with three sections and enough space for four full basketball courts or nine volleyball courts as well as seating for 1,000 spectators. The ground floor of the pavilion wing houses offices for coaches and administrative personnel. Galen Center also has its own ticket office, concession stands, and merchandise stores, and houses the USC Athletic Department Hall of Fame.

Built with the entire community in mind, the Galen Center has opened its doors to youth and high school sporting events, concerts, commencement ceremonies, community events, lectures, meetings, shows, pageants, and more. It has also hosted numerous MPSF, Pac-12, and NCAA championship events including the 2012 NCAA Men's Volleyball Championship. In 2013, the Galen Center served as host of one of four NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Regional Championships.

The Women of Troy are particularly comfortable in the Galen Center. Since opening, the women's volleyball team is 127-20 (.864) as the home team. In 2007, the Trojans went undefeated at home (19-0) and advanced to the NCAA semifinal match. In 2010, 2011, and 2012, USC lost just once at home in each season.

Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week (Oct. 19)
UNI Tournament All-Tournament Team

ACE IN THE FACE: Senior OH Samantha Bricio is a force to be reckoned with from the end line. She is the all-time career leader in service aces both at USC and in the Pac-12 (284). Bricio is also the only player in league history ever to record 200 aces in a career and is one of six Trojans ever to have served the school's single-match record of eight aces in a match. Bricio has posted six aces or more 9 times in her career. She has also hit five aces in a match 18 times and has had three aces in the same match 40 times in her career. In 2013, she led the NCAA in service aces with a remarkable 0.70 saps average. She had 43 as a freshman, finished with 85 as a sophomore, and had 84 as a junior. The 85 aces in 2013 set a new school record and put her in third place in Pac-12 single-season history.

ON THE DOUBLES: Through 28 matches, senior OH Samantha Bricio has notched 13 double-doubles this season. She has had 53 in her career. Freshman setter Baylee Johnson recorded her first double-double in her first match as a Trojan with 30 assists and 11 digs against North Carolina and now has 14. Junior setter Alice Pizzasegola has six-career double-doubles and junior MB Elise Ruddins has one.

PAC-12 ALL-CENTURY TEAM: Trojan greats Debbie Green (Green-Vargas) and Natalie Hagglund were each named to a 16-woman roster as part of the Pac-12 All-Century Team on Oct. 26. Green led the Women of Troy to back-to-back AIAW titles in 1976 and '77 and is still largely regarded as the best setter in the history of women's volleyball. She is a member of the Volleyball Hall of Fame and the AVCA Hall of Fame and served as an assistant coach at Long Beach State for 23 years. Hagglund is a three-time AVCA All-America first-team selection, a three-time Pac-12 Libero of the Year, and a three-time All-Pac-12 selection. She helped lead the Trojans to four straight NCAA regional finals and is USC's record holder for career digs (2,362). Hagglund was also stout in the classroom where she earned Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors as a senior and was chosen for CoSIDA Academic All-America in 2013.

OH, BROTHERS: Three Women of Troy have brothers with ties to rival UCLA. Alyse Ford's brother Aaron Wallace is a senior linebacker for the football team. Niki Withers' brother Mercedes Lewis is a former Bruin tight end. Victoria Garrick's brother Jonathan is a senior on the UCLA men's golf team.

#1 THE AIR UP THERE: The air is a little thinner where Alyse Ford likes to hang out during matches. The leaper has been measured with a standing vertical jump of 31 inches and can touch 10'6" on an approach.

#2 BROTHERLY INFLUENCE: One of Samantha Bricio's biggest life influences has been her older brother Irving Bricio. The elder Bricio was a professional men's volleyball player in Switzerland.

#2 ARE YOU CRAZY?: Because if you are, Samantha Bricio would love to talk to you. Of all the dream jobs one could have, Bricio aspires to work in a mental hospital with dangerous criminals. Currently pursuing her bachelor's degree in psychology, Bricio is considering completing a master's degree in criminal psychology when she is done with her playing career.

#3 SIBLING RIVALRY: Outside hitter Niki Withers may be a transfer from Cal State Fullerton, but her choice to play at USC puts her on the other side of a crosstown rivalry with her brother Mercedes Lewis. Lewis is in his 10th year as a Pro Bowl tight end for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. He won the Mackey Award as the best collegiate tight end while attending UCLA (2002-05), but never beat the Trojans while he wore the Bruin jersey.

#4 NUTTY VICE: Defensive specialist Victoria Garrick's guilty pleasure is Nutella, a delicious hazelnut spread made of skim milk with a hint of cocoa.

#5 NET VIOLATION: Middle blocker Jordan Dunn is all about preventing net violations. She used to be a goalie for her soccer team at Corona HS as a freshman and sophomore. At 6-4, her reach helped her stop many oppositional net violations during her futbol career.

#5 GREAT DANE: Jordan Dunn is the descendant of a former Queen of Denmark. The great-great-great-great grandmother of Dunn served as the Danish queen consort in the early to mid-1800s.

#6 LA COSTA CONNECTION: Opposite Brittany Abercrombie is the third player to play for USC from La Costa Canyon HS in Carlsbad, Calif. She follows in the footsteps of three-time All-American libero Natalie Hagglund, and All-American opposite hitter Katie Fuller who each produced successful careers with the Women of Troy.

#8 OH, CANADA: Senior MB Alicia Ogoms is the first-ever scholarship volleyball player at USC to hail from Canada. The 6-4 Ogoms is from Winnipeg, Manitoba, where she attended St. Mary's.

#8 ON THE RIGHT TRACK: As a child, middle blocker Alicia Ogoms received a picture book from her mother depicting the accomplishments of American track athlete Wilma Rudolph. It became her favorite book because Rudolph's story was so inspiring. Known as The Fastest Woman in the World in the 1960's, Rudolph won three gold medals in the Rome Olympics. Ogoms admires the relentless spirit and perseverance that Rudolph represents.

#10 SPEAKING OUT FOR AUTISM: Libero Taylor Whittingham has been actively involved in autism awareness programs since her younger brother was diagnosed with the neural-developmental disorder. She has organized fundraising efforts among her high school and club teams and has inspired others to join the effort to spread awareness and generate funds for autism research.

#11 BLOOD LINES: Middle blocker Elise Ruddins has volleyball in her blood. The accomplished hitter is the daughter of Jerome Ruddins, a former men's player at Long Beach State, and is the niece of one of the most heralded setters in Troy's history: Kim Ruddins (1981-85). Elise's aunt won the program's first NCAA title in 1980 and was a two-time first-team All-American (1984-85). She was also won the silver medal with the US women's national team at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics.

#11 A HEART FOR ART: Middle blocker Elise Ruddins started out playing soccer and basketball, but eventually found her way to volleyball. Outside of sports, Ruddins has a talent for art. While she is a communications major, drawing has always been a passion of hers.

#12 FISH OUT OF WATER: Setter Alice Pizzasegola wasn't always destined for the volleyball court. As a youth, she spent much of her time as a competitive swimmer and later swam with the Nuotatori Piacentini Club in Piacenza, Italy.

#15 EARLY BLOOMER: Setter Baylee Johnson couldn't wait to begin her collegiate career, so she enrolled at USC in the spring of 2015 as an early-admit. She left Dayton, Ohio, and departed high school a semester early to practice and play with the Trojans in preparation for her freshman season.

#15 BLUE-BELT BAYLEE: Don't mess with Baylee Johnson. One of her hobbies is jiu jitsu. The feisty setter achieved blue belt status in the Brazilian martial art as a youth and still has the skills to prove it.

#16 BEACH BUNNY: Outside hitter Eve Effinger began her collegiate career with the Trojans in 2011 and though she redshirted due to injury, was part of the squad that claimed the first-ever Pac-12 title. She spent the next four years on the sand as a member of the Trojans' inaugural sand volleyball team. As a senior in 2015, she helped lead the Women of Troy to the AVCA Collegiate Sand Volleyball National Championship; the school's 123rd overall team crown. She returned to the indoor game in the fall, but suffered a season-ending injury at the end of camp.

#23 ROUND BALL ROCK: Outside hitter Sarah Livingston isn't new to volleyball, but it is a drastic change from her basketball-playing days at Illinois just a year ago. The transfer was a guard on the Illini squad in 2013-14 and was dribbling not too long ago. She is the younger sister of 10-year NBA veteran guard and recently crowned World Champion Shaun Livingston who was the fourth overall pick in the 2004 NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Clippers. He is currently a guard with the defending NBA champion Golden State Warriors.
