He Hasn't Lost His Touch

Junior guard Kris Yanku continues to show why he was the nation's leading free throw shooter last season. Against Hampton on Dec. 2, Yanku tied his own school record for free throw percentage with a perfect 16 for 16 performance. It was the second time in two seasons that he has made 16 free throws in a game. Only three individuals in the entire nation have made more than 16 free throws in a game.

West Coast Wrap-Up

NAU went 0-3 to start its season on the road. The Washington State-Idaho State-Gonzaga swing took a toll on the Lumberjacks, while allowing NAU to discover what worked and what didn't.

Other players averaging double figure scoring were senior guard Jalen Neely at 13.0 points, 3.0 rebounds, and 2.3 assists per game. Give Back for Good Works

The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC), the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and Allstate Insurance Company today announced an all-time high 257 total nominees for the 2016 Allstate NABC and WBCA Good Works Teams®, as Northern Arizona senior forward Jordyn Martin was honored. This distinguished award shines a spotlight on a select group of student-athletes who have shown dedication to service in their communities.

Martin, the 2015 Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year, has completed over 57 hours of community service during his time at NAU. Some of his community involvement includes help with Red Ribbon Week, Welcome Back Jacks, Martin Luther King Jr. Day, and Wheelchair Basketball. He's on track to graduate with a degree in strategic communications with a cumulative grade point average of 3.32.

The final roster of 20 award recipients will be unveiled in February.

A Rough Day at the Office

Senior forward and reigning Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year Jordyn Martin is out for the rest of the season. Martin is one of three letter-winners on the NAU roster that is filled with 11 freshmen.

The Big Kaluna

Junior forward Ako Kaluna had one of his best all-around games as a Lumberjack versus Embry-Riddle. Kaluna posted a double-double of 10 points and 13 rebounds, and added four steals in just 21 minutes of play. His 13 boards set a new career high for the California native.

Three days later, Kaluna had another career night. He led NAU to an 81-65 win over San Diego Christian in NAU's home opener. He scored 10 of NAU's first 24 points to finish with a career-high 25 points (the first 20-point game of his career), adding six rebounds and a career-high four blocked shots.

Season Opener Highlights Newcomers

NAU is 58-46 all-time in season openers

Last Season Opening Win: Nov. 9, 2013 - NAU 74, UTSA 63

Last Season Opening Loss: Nov. 13, 2015 - Washington St. 82, NAU 70

* Records are before the start of the 2015-16 season

NAU's only warm up before the official start of the 2015-16 season was an exhibition game versus the 11th-ranked Division II Lancers of Cal Baptist. Former Weber State Wildcat Gelaun Wheelwright was hot from the field leading all scorers with 20 points and guiding CBU to an 89-70 win. NAU had four players score in double figures. Leading the way was Kris Yanku, who went 7 of 8 from the free throw line to finish with 17 points.

A League of His Own • Kris Yanku Breaks NAU Career Made Free Throws Record in Game One of 2015-16 Season

Kris Yanku might only be a junior, but his impressive ability to be able to convert baskets at the free throw line pushed him up the NAU career free throws chart. At the start of the 2015-16 season, Yanku needed five made free throws to break the record. He made nine. By the end of the 2015-16 season, Yanku will separate himself quite easily from the rest of the top 10.

Yanku set a new school season record in free throws made (230) last year. He broke the Big Sky single season made free throws record previously held by NBA star Damian Lillard.

Letterwinners Return...

To emphasize NAU's youth, it should be known that the Lumberjacks have THREE letterwinners on their roster from a year ago. THREE. Leading the way is senior forward and reigning Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year Jordyn Martin. Joining Martin is all-conference junior guard Kris Yanku and junior big man Ako Kaluna. Martin has appeared in 100 games as a Lumberjack, while Kaluna has played in 70, followed by Yanku at 69. The combined starts between the three heading into the 2015-16 season is 109.

Keepin' It Fresh

NAU has 11 freshmen on its roster; 10 true freshmen and one redshirt. Five of them (Corey Brown, Majestic Tejada, Junior Searcy, Felix Rivera-Vega, and Mike Green) all hail from the Sunshine State. The trio of Brown, Tejada, and Rivera-Vega played basketball together at McArthur High School.

Yanku, the nation's leading free throw shooter from a year ago, picked up first team honors. Yanku was second on the team in points with an average of 13.8, while dishing out 189 assists.

Martin was selected to the second team. During NAU's CIT run, he averaged a double-double, while leading NAU to a school record four postseason victories.

Kaluna, a third-team honoree, averaged 8.6 points and 3.4 rebounds per game last season. He shot 44.4 percent from behind the arc and 47.7 percent from the field.

Keep My Name in the Mix #TurkishMamba

Junior guard Kris Yanku was named to the 2015 Lou Henson Award Preseason Watch List on Nov. 9. The Lou Henson Award is presented annually to the top mid major player in Division I college basketball.

During the 2014-15 season, Yanku helped lead NAU to the championship game of the CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament. He was named to the All-Big Sky First Team, earned all-tournament team honors during the Big Sky Championship and CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

The Lou Henson Award is named in honor of Henson who retired after a spectacular coaching career that lasted 41 years. When he left the game in 2005 he was sixth all-time in career Division I wins with 779. He is the winningest coach at both Illinois and New Mexico State. He is one of only 12 coaches in the history of the game to take two schools to the Final Four.

CIT Run Not Forgotten

The Lumberjacks are coming off a remarkable run in the CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament where they captured a school record 23 overall wins and four postseason victories. Senior Jordyn Martin, Head Coach Jack Murphy's first recruit, is ready for his final season with the 'Jacks after being named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year last season. Martin will guide a group of 10 newcomers and seven returners. The forward from Las Vegas averaged 7.7 points and 7.7 rebounds per game. JACK MURPHY

FOURTH SEASON • ARIZONA '02

Jack Murphy enters the 205-16 season returning to the court after his most successful season to date; leading his Northern Arizona Lumberjacks to the CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament Championship game.

During the 2014-15 season, the Lumberjacks set a school record for wins in a season (23) and postseason wins (4). Over 3,600 fans packed into the Walkup Skydome to watch NAU beat Kent State in overtime in the quarterfinals. For the semifinals, over 5,500 fans returned to the Skydome to watch the Lumberjacks defeat NJIT and advance to the championship game. NAU fell in the championship game to Evansville, but not before gathering the entire town of Flagstaff behind them. NAU went 14-2 at home, finishing tied for third in the Big Sky standings and going 23-15 overall. Huge wins over Saint Mary's, Fresno State, and Loyola Marymount highlighted NAU's non-conference slate.

In 2013-14, Murphy was able to increase the Lumberjacks' overall win total to 15-17 and 12-8 in conference play and lead NAU to a second place finish in the Big Sky. That's 10 more overall wins and 11 more conference victories than what NAU had the year before Murphy took over. January started off very well for NAU as it ended Montana's 31-game Big Sky home winning streak. NAU's season sweep over the Grizzlies was something that hadn't been done by the Lumberjacks since the 2007-08 season.

The Lumberjacks were the only team in the Big Sky to sweep the Idaho State-Weber State road trip, as it handed the Wildcats their first conference home that season, snapping a league record 27 straight home wins. Junior transfer guard Quinton Upshur was named the 2014 Big Sky Men's Basketball Newcomer of the Year, in addition to earning Big Sky First Team honors, while Max Jacobson was a Big Sky Honorable Mention pick. In his first season playing for NAU, junior center Len Springs finished with 58 blocked shots to tie for third all-time on the NAU season charts.

In his first year as head coach, Murphy coached both Gabe Rogers and Stallon Saldivar to All-Big Sky honors. Rogers received first team accolades, while Stallon Saldivar received honorable mention honors. Murphy led the Lumberjacks to an 11-21 overall record and 8-12 mark in the Big Sky, as he coached the Lumberjacks to their first Big Sky Tournament appearance since the 2010-11 season.

NAU finished fourth in the conference with 69.2 points per game. Rogers led the league with 20.1 points per game, while DeWayne Russell ranked first amongst all freshmen with 13.3 points per game.

Since Murphy's arrival in Flagstaff, he has started the Annual Lumberjacks Coaches Clinic that has brought an exceptional group of speakers to NAU, including George Karl, Damon Stoudamire, Josh Pastner, Sean Miller, Mike Dunlap, Dave Rice, Tim Grgurich and much more. For Murphy's NAU Annual Speaker Series, which helps raise funds for the men's basketball program, Karl, Steve Kerr and Ben Howland have been guest speakers.

Murphy's career includes working for three successful programs that have a combined 400 wins, 14 postseason appearances and five championships.

Murphy came to NAU after three seasons on the University of Memphis staff as an assistant. He joined the coaching staff at Memphis under men's basketball coach Josh Pastner in 2009-10, posting a 75-29 record with three 20-win seasons.

During Murphy's tenure, Memphis earned two NCAA Tournament appearances, earned an NIT berth and won a Conference USA regular season title and two Conference USA Tournament Championships. Murphy, who handled the Tiger's defensive efforts in 2011-12, was the lead assistant on a staff that guided the team to a sweep of the Conference USA titles while posting the 10th-best field goal percentage defense in the country.

Murphy was instrumental in Memphis securing a top five recruiting class in 2010 featuring four players ranked among the nation's Top 100 and two McDonald's All-Americans. The class was ranked No. 2 nationally by Scout.com, No. 2 by Rivals.com and No. 4 by ESPN. The Tigers have signed three more Top 100 players since, including two more McDonald's All-Americans.

In 2011-12, the Tigers advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season, losing to St. Louis in the second round. Memphis was the only team among the top-10 rated leagues in the nation to win its conference regular season title outright and also claim the league's tournament crown, finishing with a 26-9 overall mark.

Memphis also advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2010-11, dropping a 77-75 decision to Arizona in the second round to finish with a 25-10 record. In Murphy's first season, the Tigers advanced to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) and advanced to the second round.

Prior to Memphis, Murphy spent three years working with former Denver Nuggets head coach George Karl where he served as an advance scout for the team. During his time, he gained a reputation as one of the league's top "workout" trainers, working with the likes of NBA All-Stars Allen Iverson, Chauncey Billups and Carmelo Anthony, along with rising NBA star J.R. Smith.

In Murphy's three seasons in Denver, the Nuggets averaged nearly 50 wins a season and made three straight playoff appearances. In his final season in 2008-09, the Nuggets won a franchise-record 54 games (54-28), claimed a share of the NBA Northwest Division title and earned the Western Conference No. 2 seed in the playoffs. Denver advanced to the Western Conference finals for the first time since 1985, Billups and Anthony were named to the All-NBA third team and Billups played in the NBA All-Star game.

In 2007-08, Murphy helped the Nuggets to a 50-32 overall record and second-place finish in the Northwest Division. Denver was the No. 8 seed in the Western Conference playoffs and lost in the first round. The previous year (2006-07), Denver finished the year with a 45-37 record and placed second in the Northwest Division. The Nuggets were the No. 6 seed in the Western Conference playoffs and lost in the first round to the NBA champion San Antonio Spurs.

Murphy spent eight years (1998-2006) in Tucson with Pastner on Lute Olson's staff at Arizona as a team manager, recruiting coordinator, administrative assistant, video coordinator and director of operations. In his eight years with the program, Arizona went 199-66 (.751), won three Pac-10 championships, one Pac-10 postseason tournament title, made eight NCAA Tournament appearances that included the 2001 national runner-up finish and two other Elite Eight (2003, 2005) appearances.

Murphy earned both his bachelor's (2002) and master's (2005) degrees from the University of Arizona.

Murphy and his wife, Michelle, have twin daughters Emma and Isabella and a son Dylan.
