ON THE PITCH

Weekend Recap

Arizona split last weekend in Washington, shutting out the Washington State Cougars in a 2-0 victory on Thursday but falling to the Huskies in a 2-1 defeat on Sunday. For the first time this season, Arizona was outshot in both games over the course of a trip, 12-14 vs. Washington and 13-18 vs. Washington State. Gabi Stoian notched two goals on the trip, and Paige Crouch earned one.

History with UCLA

The Wildcats historically have struggled against the UCLA Bruins, winning one out of 22 games since 1994. Their last match ended in a 5-1 defeat on October 9th, 2015 in Los Angeles. The Wildcats have never scored more than one goal against the Bruins.

Stoian Returns

Junior Gabi Stoian has returned to the pitch this fall as a dangerous attacker for Arizona. In her three seasons with the Wildcats, Stoian has 23 goals (tied for third all-time) and 66 points (second all-time). Those goals include six game-winning goals (fifth all-time). This season she already has five assists and four goals, putting her at thirteen points.

Assists from DeGracie-Bailey

Senior midfielder Jaden DeGracie-Bailey is the school record holder in all-time assists. After her assist against Utah this season, she now has 23 career assists. As one of the Wildcats that can execute the flip throw-in, she can create dangerous opportunities in the box for Arizona.

Between the Posts

Sophomore Lainey Burdett has played in ten games for the Wildcats this season and she has five shutouts with a GA/AVG of 1.10 and a save percentage of 75%. Burdett participated in 16 games in the 2015 season and earned over 1,250 minutes of action. She notched 52 saves (.754, 1.22 GAA) and shutout the opponent three times. Her 1.22 GAA was the seventh-best mark for one season in Arizona history.

No. 14 UCLA (9-3-1)

HEAD COACH: Amanda Cromwell

CONFERENCE: Pac-12

RECORD AGAINST ARIZONA: 21-1

LAST MATCH: L, Stanford

- The Bruins are in a bit of a slump, tying No. 10 California 1-1 (2OT) and falling to No. 3 Stanford 2-3 (2OT) after a streak of six consecutive wins.
- UCLA is on a undefeated away-streak this season, having yet to lose on the road and managing to go 5-0 outside of LA so far.
- Last season, UCLA finished their season at 8-10-1 (4-6-1 Pac-12) and didn't compete in any postseason play.
- Senior forward Darian Jenkins suffered a season-ending injury in the Bruins match against the Oregon Ducks earlier this season. This is a major blow to the team, as she already had seven goals on the season.
- The offensive leader for the Huskies is No. 21 Jessie Fleming, who has eight goals and an assist for 17 points on the season. Her last came against Stanford in UCLA's 3-2 (2OT) defeat.
- Teagan Micah has played in every game for the Bruins so far this season, earning 1,216 minutes of playtime. She has allowed 14 goals for a goals-against average of 1.04 on the season. Additionally, she has 51 saves for a save percentage of 78.5%.
- The team has three freshman that have started in every game this season: GK Teagan Micah, D Kaiya McCullough and MF Anika Rodriguez.

MORE NOTES

Multi-faceted Attack

Through eleven games this season there are nine Wildcats that have scored a goal and five Wildcats that have scored at least three goals. Lexe Selman Richards, Paige Crouch, Cali Crisler, Gabi Stoian, and Hannah Stevens all have at least three goals and at least six points. Through nine games last season, only two players (Stoian & H. Estopare) had three+ goals.

Shots Fired

Prior to the Wildcats game against USC, Arizona had scored first in every single game and had outshot their opponent in every single game. Arizona is currently outshooting their opponents 201-129 with a shot percentage of 10.4%.

Eyes on the Prize

In Coach Amato's inaugural season with the Wildcats back in 2013, he led the team to its first winning record since 2005. He has since improved on that, leading the 2015 squad to a 14-6-2 record (second best all-time) and has made two runs into the NCAA Tournament, last season's into the Round of 16.

Ranking Trends

In the NSCAA preseason poll, the Wildcats were ranked 20th after finishing their 2015 season at No. 19. They fell outside of the rankings after their defeat at Pepperdine, and have yet to check back in. Additionally, in the coaches' poll from the Pac-12 Conference, the Cats were picked to finish fifth. In the TopDrawerSoccer.com rankings, Arizona checked-in at 18th in preseason.

#Experiencelt

Attendance at Mulcahy Stadium has been growing rapidly over the last several years with last year's average attendance finally settling at 917. The Wildcats drew a crowd of over 750 in their exhibition match and had over 650 in their last match against Oklahoma.

MULCAHY STADIUM

The University of Arizona women's soccer program plays and competes at one of the most captivating settings in soccer, Murphey Field at Mulcahy Soccer Stadium, with a spectacular view of the mountains, palms trees and southwestern landscape of Tucson, Ariz. Tucson's climate and the year-round maintenance allow the facility to be in game-ready condition throughout the year. The home for the University of Arizona women's soccer team at Murphey Field was opened on Sept. 15, 1996 as the Wildcats hosted the University of San Francisco. In 2006, Arizona hosted the defending national champion Portland Pilots, televised on Fox Sports Net, the first match at Mulcahy Stadium to be televised. There have been many additions to the stadium including the Arizona Soccer Fieldhouse, including a team locker room, an athletic training room, official's area, concession area, ticket office and just recently, a new scoreboard and sound system. In 2011, new state-of-the-art lights were installed over Murphey Field to enhance competition at night for all of the televised games on Pac-12 Networks. Murphey Field at Mulcahy Stadium is located at the corner of Plumer Avenue and 15th Street. The grading and sodding of the field and the installation of lights to play at night on Pac-12 Networks was made possible by the generous assistance of Tucson's Murphey Foundation.

THE COACHING STAFF

Head Coach
Tony Amato
161-69-22
(34-21-8)

- Tony Amato enters his fourth at the helm of the Arizona soccer program.
- He was introduced as head coach on Dec. 5, 2012.
- Entering the 2016 season, Amato carried an overall career record of 161-69-22 (34-21-8 at Arizona) in 13 seasons as a head coach
- Amato owns a combined Division I record of 79-33-11 at Arizona and Stephen F. Austin University (SFA) and a Division II record of 82-37-11 at Rollins.
- Last season, Amato led the Wildcats to a 14-6-2 record. This is the second best record of all-time for Arizona Soccer. It allowed the team to make its fourth trip to the NCAA tournament, where the Cats advanced to the Round of 16 by topping Northern Colorado and Santa Clara in the first two rounds, respectively.
- The offensive production has gone up since Amato took over in 2013. The Wildcats set the record for most goals in a season with 38 in the 2013 season and set the record for most shots taken in a season with 359 in 2014.
- Not only have the Wildcats succeeded on the pitch, they have also succeeded in the classroom under Amato. In the 2014 season, five student-athletes were named to the Pac-12 All-Academic Team. Jaden DeGracie, Lexe Selman and Skadsen were on the first team while Alexandra Doller and Haley Silverberg were on the second team. Similarly, Skadsen, DeGracie, and Selman were named Pac-12 All-Academic and Skadsen also earned the rank of COSIDA Academic All-American in 2015.
- Amato has coached an All-Pac-12 player in each of his three seasons. Jazmin Ponce was First Team All-Pac-12 in 2013 and Gabi Stoian was Second Team All-Pac-12 in 2014 and First Team All-Pac-12 in 2015, while Sheaffer Skadsen was named an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in 2015.
- Prior to accepting the Arizona position in 2012, Amato led Stephen F. Austin to victories over SEC, Big 12, and CUSA opponents to produce a national RPI ranking (31) and a top 50 finish (45) in 2011. Both rankings were the highest in the history of the SFA program.

Asst. Coach
Paul Nagy
GK & Defense

- Paul Nagy enters his fourth year with the Wildcats as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach Tony Amato.
- He came to the Wildcats after spending three seasons on Amato's coaching staff at Stephen F. Austin University (SFA) in east Texas. With Nagy's 12 years of college coaching experience, he has been able to live and coach all over the country before coming to Arizona.
- Nagy assisted in guiding the Wildcats to an 14-6-2 record in 2014, the second-best record in Arizona history.
- In his first season at Arizona, Nagy helped coach the Wildcats to a 9-7-4 record, while competing in the Pac-12 Conference that is considered the toughest conference in the NCAA.
- Specializing on the defensive side, Nagy has coached sophomore goalkeeper into the starting position on the team, with a save percentage of .770 and with a goals against average of 1.09.
- As a player, Nagy was a goalkeeper that played professionally from 2001-2005 for the Dallas Burn (MLS), Syracuse Salty Dogs (A-League), Hershey Wildcats (A-League) and Orlando Sharks (MISL).
- He was a four-year letterman on the Saint Louis University men's soccer team from 1997-2000, earning first-team All-Conference USA and Midwest All-Region honors. He also played for the SLU team that reached the NCAA Division I Final Four in 1997 while also winning four Conference USA titles in four years.

Asst. Coach
Kylie Louw
Attackers

- Entering her fourth year with the Wildcats, Kylie Louw serves as an assistant coach under head coach Tony Amato specializing in working with the attackers.
- Louw assisted in guiding the Wildcats to a 14-6-2 record in 2015, the second-best record of all time.
- In her first year coaching, Louw helped guide the Wildcats to a 9-7-4 record, making it the first winning record the program has seen since 2005. Louw serves as the soccer staff's liaison for academics, marketing, media relations, social media and strength and conditioning.
- Louw was a player for Amato for four years at Stephen F. Austin University (SFA). As a player at SFA, Louw was a three-time Southland Conference (SLC) Player of the Year, the first in Ladyjack history, and a two-time SLC Soccer Student-Athlete of the Year.
