ON THE PITCH

Texas Tech Recap

Arizona's last match against the Texas Tech Red Raiders ended in a draw, 2-2. The Wildcats had goals from Cali Crisler and Paige Crouch to put them ahead 2-1, but the Red Raiders managed to score a goal in the 89th minute to level the score.

History with Denver

Arizona's all-time record against the Denver Pioneers is at 1-1-0 with their last match ending in a 3-0 defeat for the Wildcats in 2001. Last season, the Pioneers finished with a record of 4-12-1 (4-4-0).

History with Columbia

The Wildcats and the Columbia Lions have never competed in women's soccer. Last season, the Lions finished with a record of 7-8-1 (3-3-1).

Stoian Returns

Junior Gabi Stoian returns to the pitch this fall, bringing her offensive talent back to the team. In her two seasons with the Wildcats, Stoian has 19 goals (fourth all-time) and 55 points (fourth all-time). Those goals include six game-winning goals (fifth all-time). This season she already has two assists and is close on the heels of all-time leader Jaden DeGracie-Bailey.

Assists from DeGracie-Bailey

Senior midfielder Jaden DeGracie-Bailey is now the school record holder in all-time assists. After her assist at Texas Tech last week, she now has 20 assists overall, seven of which came from the 2015 season. As one of the Wildcats that can execute the flip throw-in, she can create dangerous opportunities in the box for Arizona.

Between the Posts

After succumbing to an illness prior to the season, sophomore Lainey Burdett has yet to take to the cage. Burdett participated in 16 games in the 2015 season and earned over 1,250 minutes of action. She notched 52 saves (.754, 1.22 GAA) and shutout the opponent three times. Her 1.22 GAA is the seventh-best mark for one season in Arizona history.

Denver (1-3-0)

HEAD COACH: Jeff Hooker

CONFERENCE: The Summit League

RECORD AGAINST ARIZONA: 1-1-0

LAST MATCH: L, Montana

- The Denver Pioneers are coming to Arizona for their first road trip of the season, after dropping their last game to Montana, 1-0.
- Redshirt senior Francesca Garzelloni wears the captain's band for the Pioneers, this match will be her 62nd cap for the program. She has 10 career goals and six assists, and has earned First-Team League and All-Tournament honors.
- Since their 2013 season, Denver has a record of 33-25-4, with the 2014 class earning a record of 61-18-7.
- The team has four new freshman, two of which (Brittany Wilson & Heather Turcious) were called up to their U-20 national teams (United States & El Salvador, respectively).

Columbia (1-1-0)

HEAD COACH: Tracy Bartholomew

CONFERENCE: Ivy League

LAST MATCH: L, Hofstra

- The Lions opened their season with a 4-0 defeat of Iona, with goals coming from four different players.
- Last season, the team almost broke even by earning a record of 7-8-1 (3-3-1) overall.
- Sophomore goalkeeper Sophie Whitehouse also earned her first career shutout in that game by making four saves.
- Sophomore Emma Anderson out of Bethesda, Md. has had a strong season this far, notching a goal and an assist in the Lions matchup against Iona, and another five shots against Hofstra.

MORE NOTES

Eyes on the Prize

In Coach Amato's inaugural season with the Wildcats back in 2013, he led the team to its first winning record since 2005. He has since improved on that, leading the 2015 squad to a 14-6-2 record (second best all-time) and has made two runs into the NCAA Tournament, last season's into the Round of 16.

Continuing a Legacy

With 20 players from last season's record-breaking squad, Arizona has a lot of talent remaining in the program. This senior class has 35 wins as of today, only five shy of the highest mark for a senior class. The Wildcats will look to their veterans to lead them to another successful season in 2015.

Ranking Trends

In the NSCAA preseason poll, the Wildcats were ranked 20th after finishing their 2015 season at No. 19. They fell outside of the rankings after their defeat at Pepperdine, and have yet to check back in. Additionally, in the coaches' poll from the Pac-12 Conference, the Cats were picked to finish fifth in the conference. In the TopDrawerSoccer.com rankings, Arizona checked-in at 18th in preseason and have since settled at 25th.

#Experiencelt

Attendance at Mulcahy Stadium has been growing rapidly over the last several years with last year's average attendance finally settling at 917. The Wildcats drew a crowd of over 750 in their exhibition match and are looking to expand further.

Newcomer Talent

Arizona is bringing in 12 newcomers in this season. This includes 11 incoming freshmen, and one junior transfer. The team will look to these players to step-up and provide energy and depth to their already strong and proven roster.

MULCAHY STADIUM

The University of Arizona women's soccer program plays and competes at one of the most captivating settings in soccer, Murphey Field at Mulcahy Soccer Stadium, with a spectacular view of the mountains, palms trees and southwestern landscape of Tucson, Ariz. Tucson's climate and the year-round maintenance allow the facility to be in game-ready condition throughout the year. The home for the University of Arizona women's soccer team at Murphey Field was opened on Sept. 15, 1996 as the Wildcats hosted the University of San Francisco. In 2006, Arizona hosted the defending national champion Portland Pilots, televised on Fox Sports Net, the first match at Mulcahy Stadium to be televised. There have been many additions to the stadium including the Arizona Soccer Fieldhouse, including a team locker room, an athletic training room, official's area, concession area, ticket office and just recently, a new scoreboard and sound system. In 2011, new state-of-the-art lights were installed over Murphey Field to enhance competition at night for all of the televised games on Pac-12 Networks. Murphey Field at Mulcahy Stadium is located at the corner of Plumer Avenue and 15th Street. The grading and sodding of the field and the installation of lights to play at night on Pac-12 Networks was made possible by the generous assistance of Tucson's Murphey Foundation.

THE COACHING STAFF

Head Coach
Tony Amato
161-69-22
(34-21-8)

- Tony Amato enters his fourth at the helm of the Arizona soccer program.
- He was introduced as head coach on Dec. 5, 2012.
- Entering the 2016 season, Amato carried an overall career record of 161-69-22 (34-21-8 at Arizona) in 13 seasons as a head coach
- Amato owns a combined Division I record of 79-33-11 at Arizona and Stephen F. Austin University (SFA) and a Division II record of 82-37-11 at Rollins.
- Last season, Amato led the Wildcats to a 14-6-2 record. This is the second best record of all-time for Arizona Soccer. It allowed the team to make its fourth trip to the NCAA tournament, where the Cats advanced to the Round of 16 by topping Northern Colorado and Santa Clara in the first two rounds, respectively.
- The offensive production has gone up since Amato took over in 2013. The Wildcats set the record for most goals in a season with 38 in the 2013 season and set the record for most shots taken in a season with 359 in 2014.
- Not only have the Wildcats succeeded on the pitch, they have also succeeded in the classroom under Amato. In the 2014 season, five student-athletes were named to the Pac-12 All-Academic Team. Jaden DeGracie, Lexe Selman and Skadsen were on the first team while Alexandra Doller and Haley Silverberg were on the second team. Similarly, Skadsen, DeGracie, and Selman were named Pac-12 All-Academic and Skadsen also earned the rank of COSIDA Academic All-American in 2015.
- Amato has coached an All-Pac-12 player in each of his three seasons. Jazmin Ponce was First Team All-Pac-12 in 2013 and Gabi Stoian was Second Team All-Pac-12 in 2014 and First Team All-Pac-12 in 2015, while Sheaffer Skadsen was named an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in 2015.
- Prior to accepting the Arizona position in 2012, Amato led Stephen F. Austin to victories over SEC, Big 12, and CUSA opponents to produce a national RPI ranking (31) and a top 50 finish (45) in 2011. Both rankings were the highest in the history of the SFA program.

Asst. Coach
Paul Nagy
GK & Defense

- Paul Nagy enters his fourth year with the Wildcats as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach Tony Amato.
- He came to the Wildcats after spending three seasons on Amato's coaching staff at Stephen F. Austin University (SFA) in east Texas. With Nagy's 12 years of college coaching experience, he has been able to live and coach all over the country before coming to Arizona.
- Nagy assisted in guiding the Wildcats to an 14-6-2 record in 2014, the second-best record in Arizona history.
- In his first season at Arizona, Nagy helped coach the Wildcats to a 9-7-4 record, while competing in the Pac-12 Conference that is considered the toughest conference in the NCAA.
- Specializing on the defensive side, Nagy has coached sophomore goalkeeper into the starting position on the team, with a save percentage of .770 and with a goals against average of 1.09.
- As a player, Nagy was a goalkeeper that played professionally from 2001-2005 for the Dallas Burn (MLS), Syracuse Salty Dogs (A-League), Hershey Wildcats (A-League) and Orlando Sharks (MISL).
- He was a four-year letterman on the Saint Louis University men's soccer team from 1997-2000, earning first-team All-Conference USA and Midwest All-Region honors. He also played for the SLU team that reached the NCAA Division I Final Four in 1997 while also winning four Conference USA titles in four years.

Asst. Coach
Kylie Louw
Attackers

- Entering her fourth year with the Wildcats, Kylie Louw serves as an assistant coach under head coach Tony Amato specializing in working with the attackers.
- Louw assisted in guiding the Wildcats to a 14-6-2 record in 2015, the second-best record of all time.
- In her first year coaching, Louw helped guide the Wildcats to a 9-7-4 record, making it the first winning record the program has seen since 2005. Louw serves as the soccer staff's liaison for academics, marketing, media relations, social media and strength and conditioning.
- Louw was a player for Amato for four years at Stephen F. Austin University (SFA). As a player at SFA, Louw was a three-time Southland Conference (SLC) Player of the Year, the first in Ladyjack history, and a two-time SLC Soccer Student-Athlete of the Year.
